Table of Contents

We Excelled 37
We Learned 53
We Belonged 139

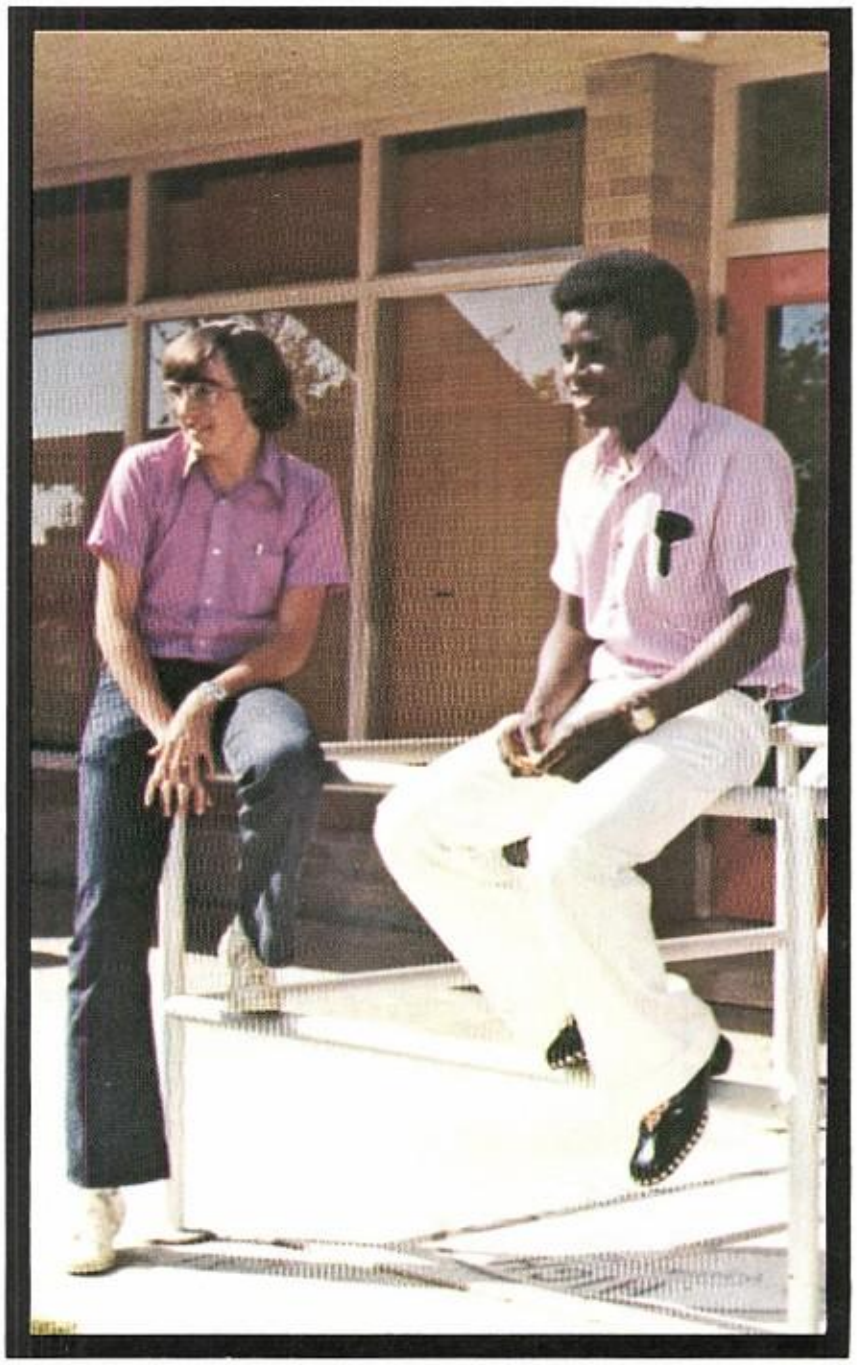
We'd like to build
the world a home
And furnish it with love,
Grow apple trees
and honey bees
And snow white
turtle doves.



We'd like to teach
the world to sing
In perfect harmony,
We'd like to hold
it in our arms —
And keep it company.

CHS Enjoys American Graffiti Day

Ponytails, slicked-down hair, rolled up levis, white bobby socks and skinny ties depicted the CHS student body on American Graffiti Day. Students changed classes to the tunes of Bill Haley and the Comets and "Chantilly Lace." A bop session was held in the Commons at lunch.

Students enjoyed this special day best of all the Homecoming Week activities.

Danita Orick, Pennie Peckenpaugh and Cheryl Brown look things over before classe start.

David Coronado displays his jive-y-ness in choir.

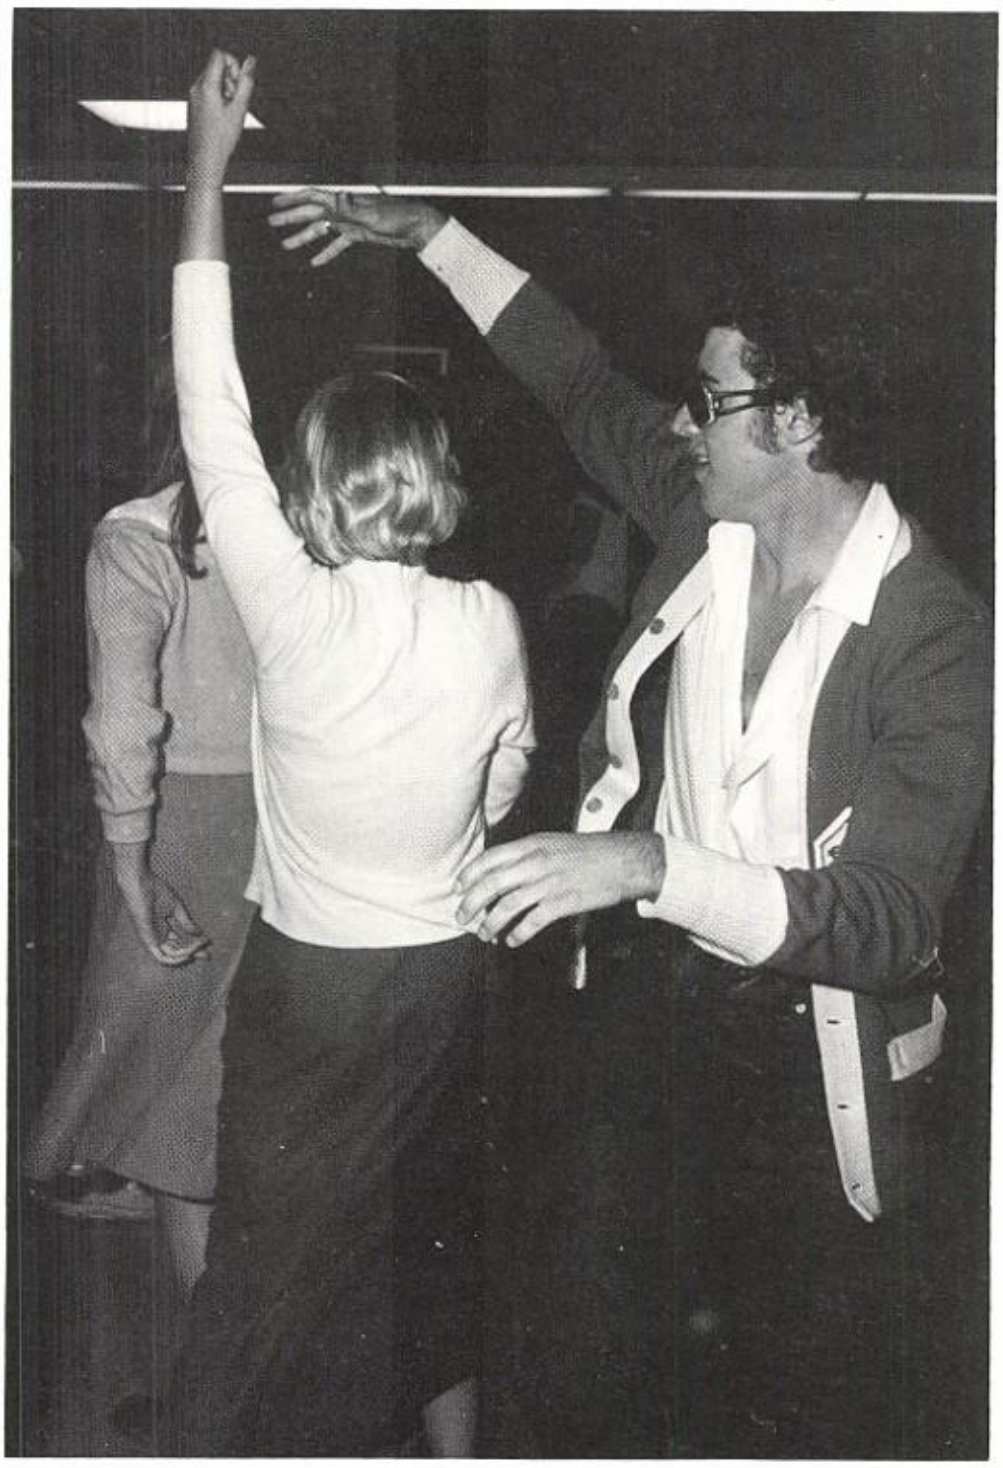
Tammy Barnett and Russell Killingsworth dance the jitterbug at lunch.



Garre LaGrone has the "grins."

Homecoming 1974

Homecoming festivities began with a Junior Varsity football victory over Dumas, followed by the traditional bonfire. The Homecoming Queen candidates and their escorts were presented during a Homecoming assembly on Friday, October 11. Recognition was given to the oldest ex and the ex who had traveled the farthest.

In the football game that succeeded the crowning of Tanya Kent as Homecoming Queen, the Canyon Eagles were overwhelmed by their AAAA opponent, Palo Duro High School, 42-14.

Keith Laycock, David Woolsey, Tanya Kent, Russell Killingsworth - coronation

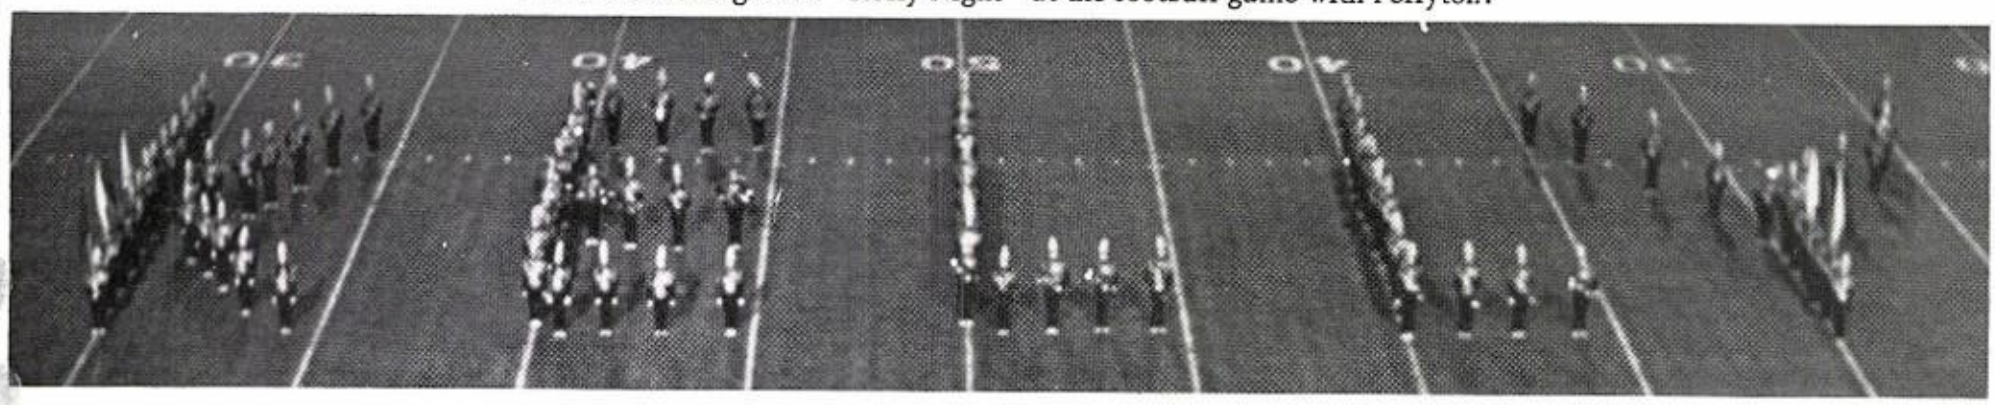
One of Our Eagles Is Injured

Nov. 1 was designated "Kelly Night" at the football game with Perryton.



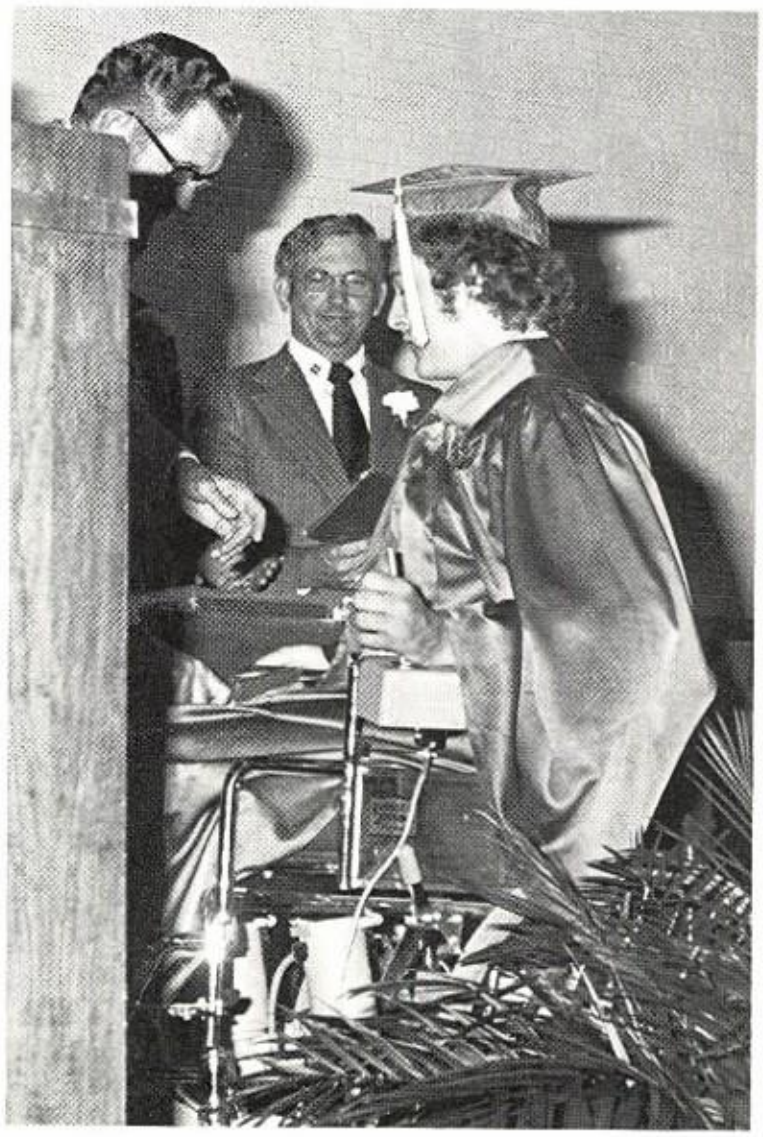
Kelly Forehand (88) suffered a neck injury in the football game with Caprock, Sept. 19, 1974.

After therapy in Houston, Kelly returned to CHS the third quarter to complete his high school work.

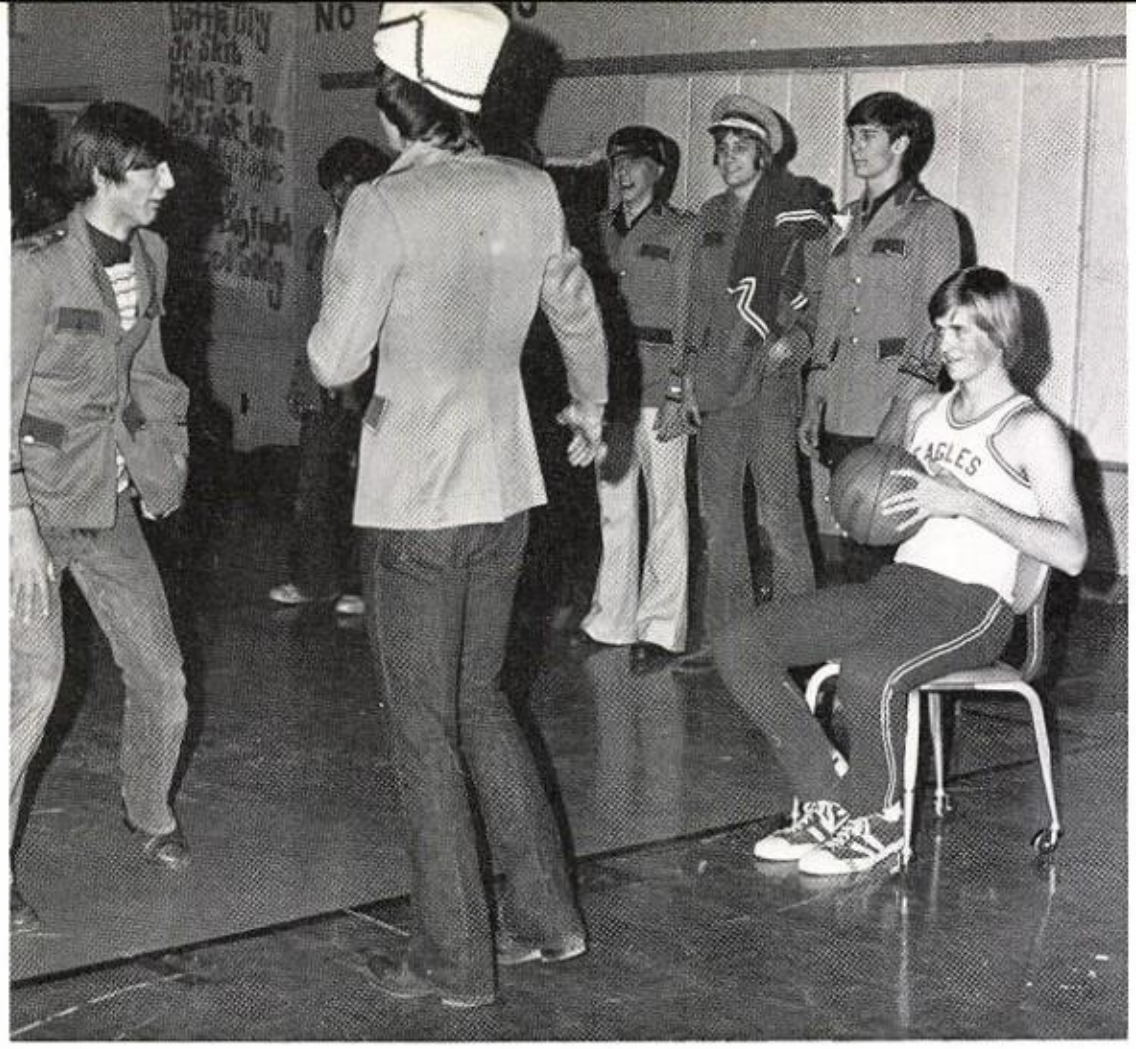
Individuals and groups from Canyon and throughout the Panhandle and surrounding region rallied to Kelly's support.

The Oakland Raiders send Kelly an autographed football.

Kelly enjoys a track meet with his teammates.

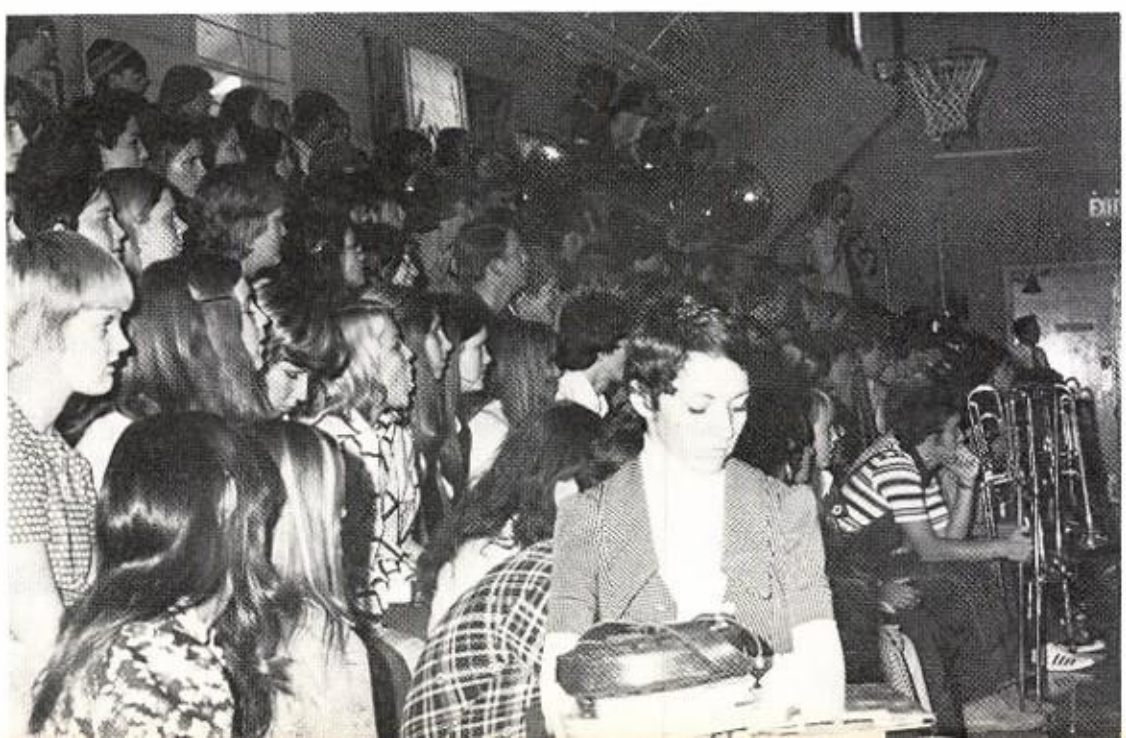


Kelly graduates with his class.

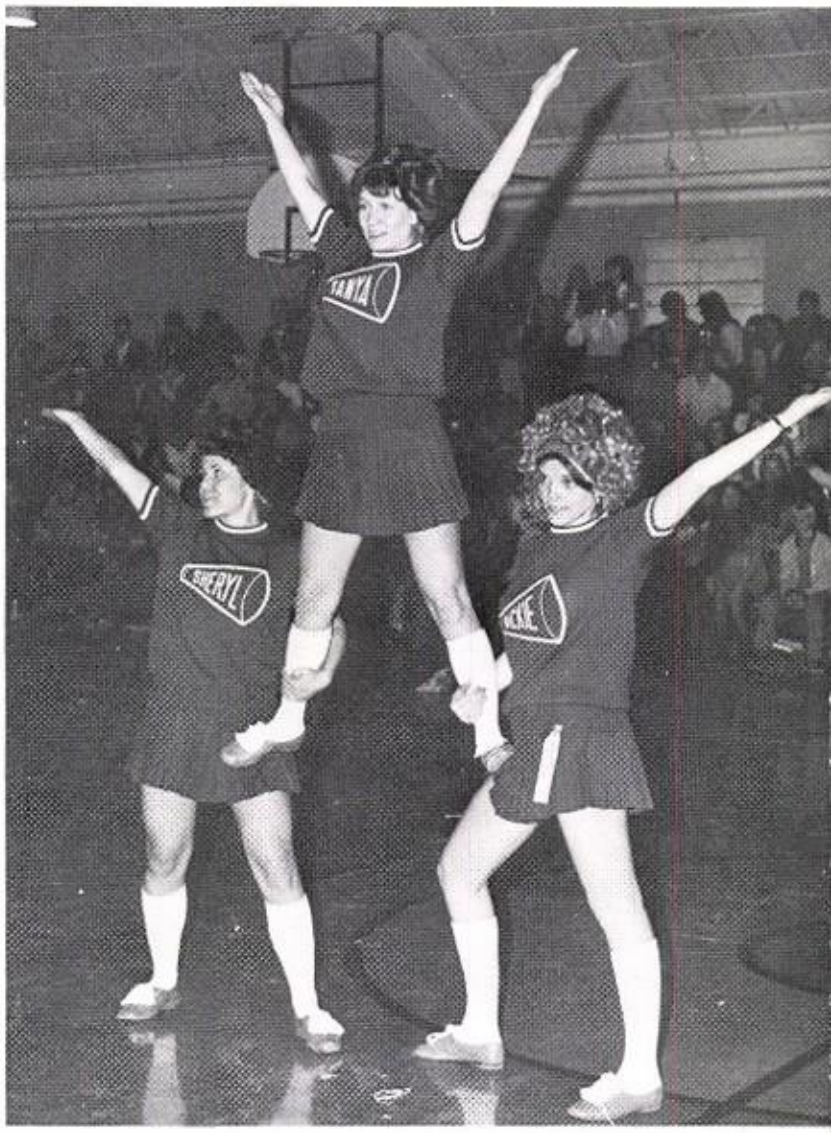


Juniors are sometimes a bit confused.

Jack Wright, Rex Reynolds and Tim Oglesby parade a caged FFA porker in the mini-parade of clubs.



Sheryl Dees, Tanya Kent and Nickie Abbott stack a cheer.



Munchkins have become traditional.

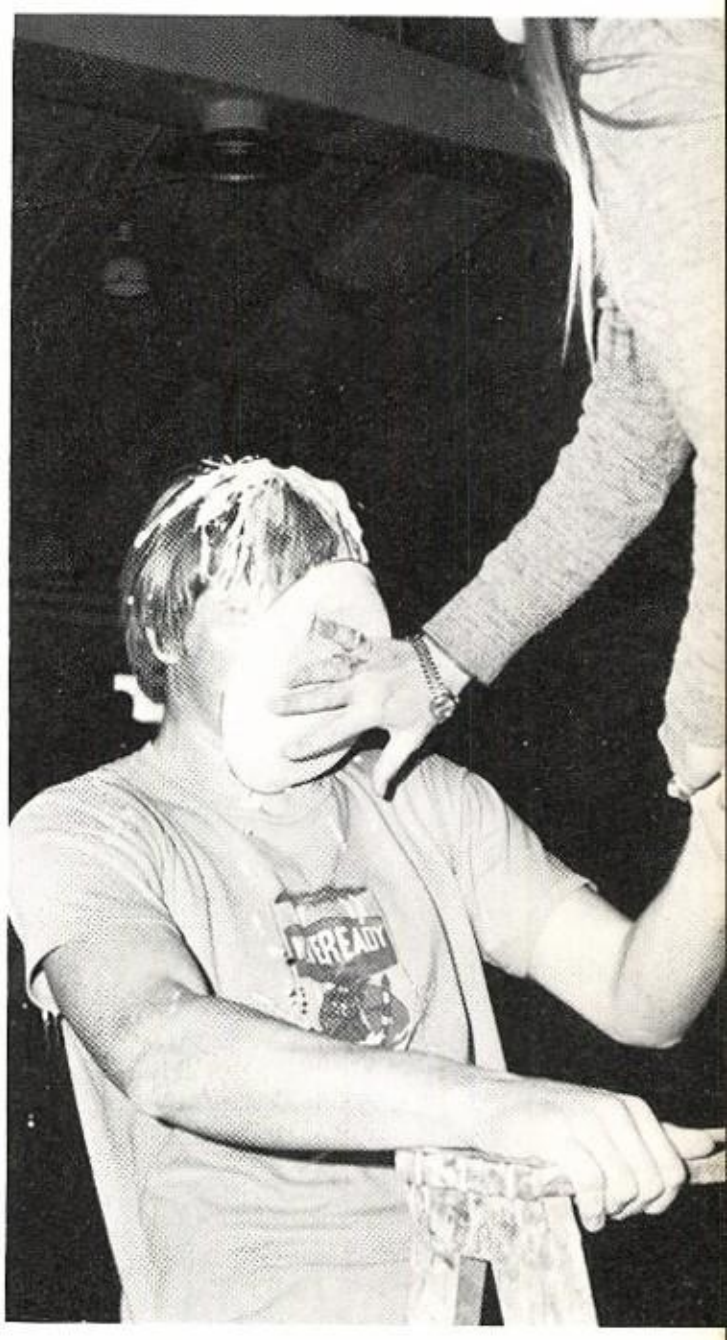
Sophomores become Eagle boosters.

Pep rallies bring much merriment as well as spirit to CHS'ers.

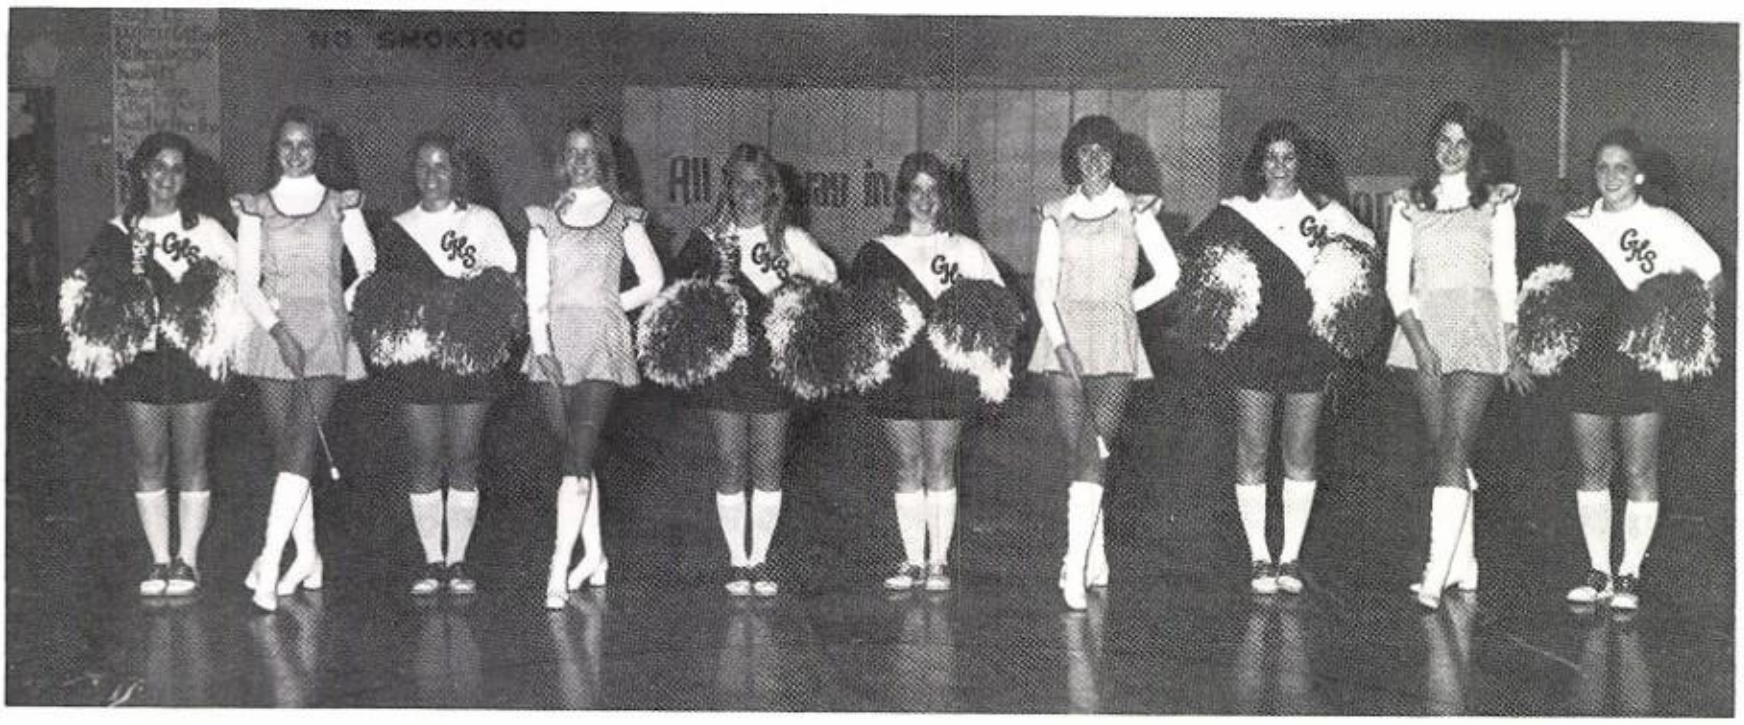
Pom pom and twirling routines, cheers, skits, contests, music and mini-parades add to the gala affairs.

Sophomores are plagued with flat tires in their class skit.

Drew Hetzler gets a pie in the eye from Sarah Hicks.

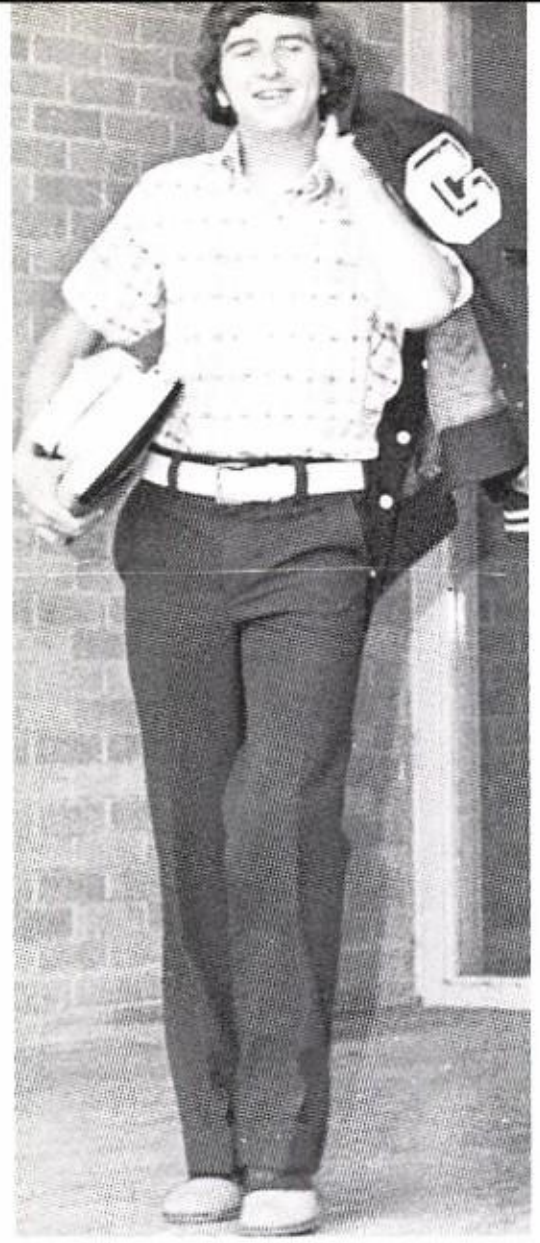


Seniors Jeff Cates, Russell Killingsworth, Adrian Foil, Mark Collier, Garre LaGrone and Keith Gafford sometimes have trouble with spelling.



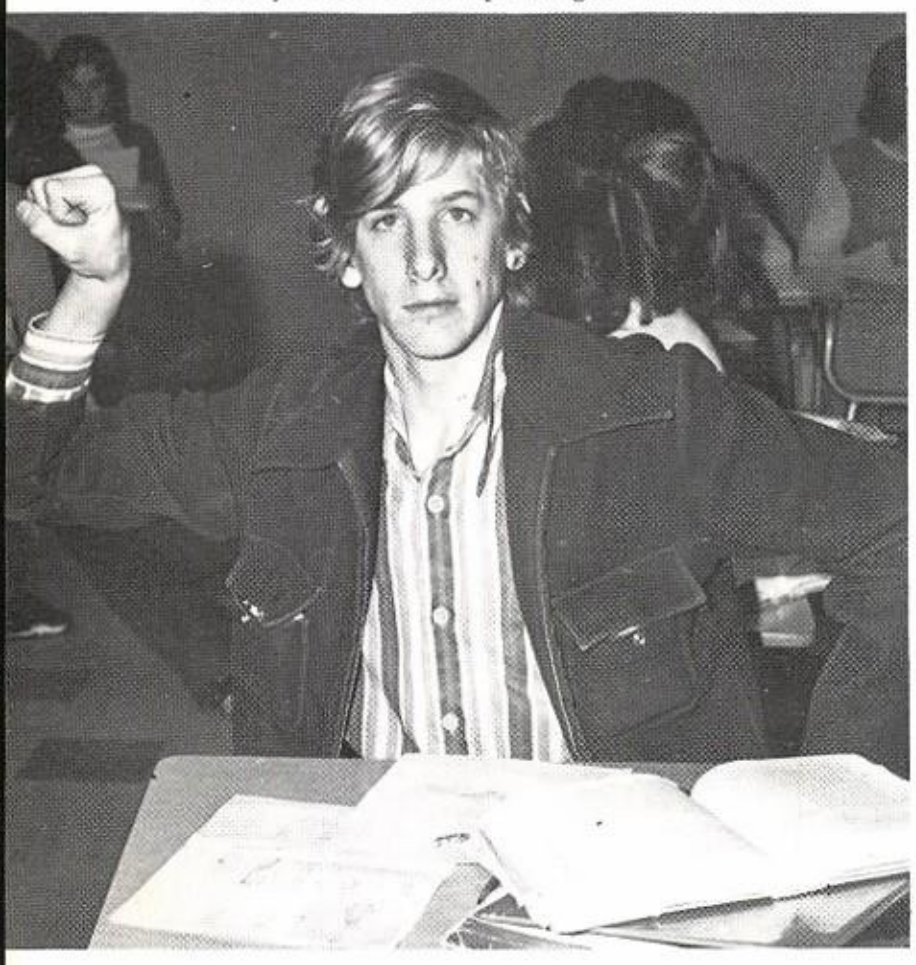
Spirit rousers - Karon Tompkins, Roma Johnson, Sheryl Dees, Eloise Thompson, Tanya Kent, Susan Bonifield, Tammye Sallee, Nickie Abbott, Maurine Bonds, Tarri Bond.

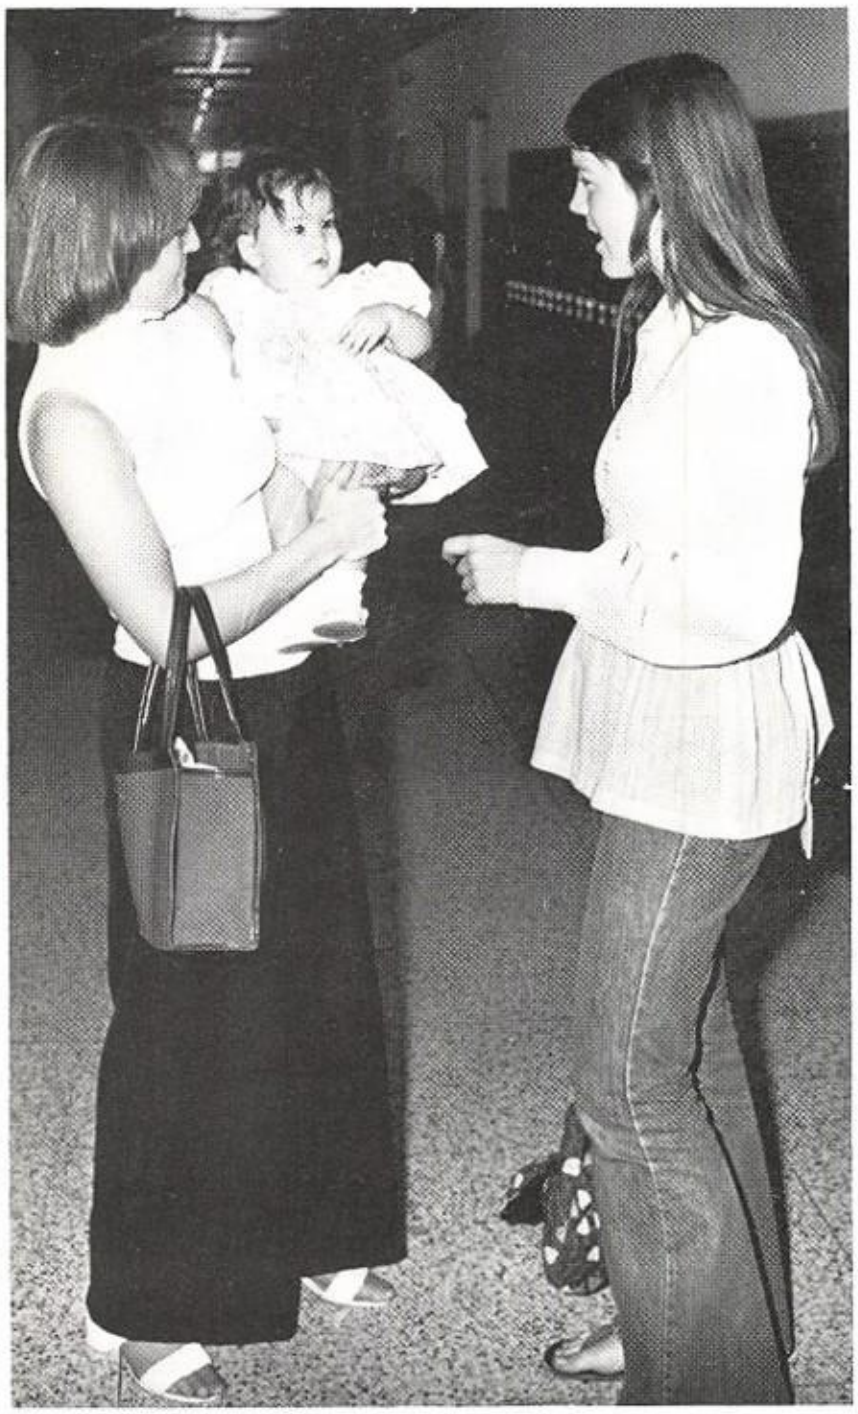
Craig Lawless plays it cool.



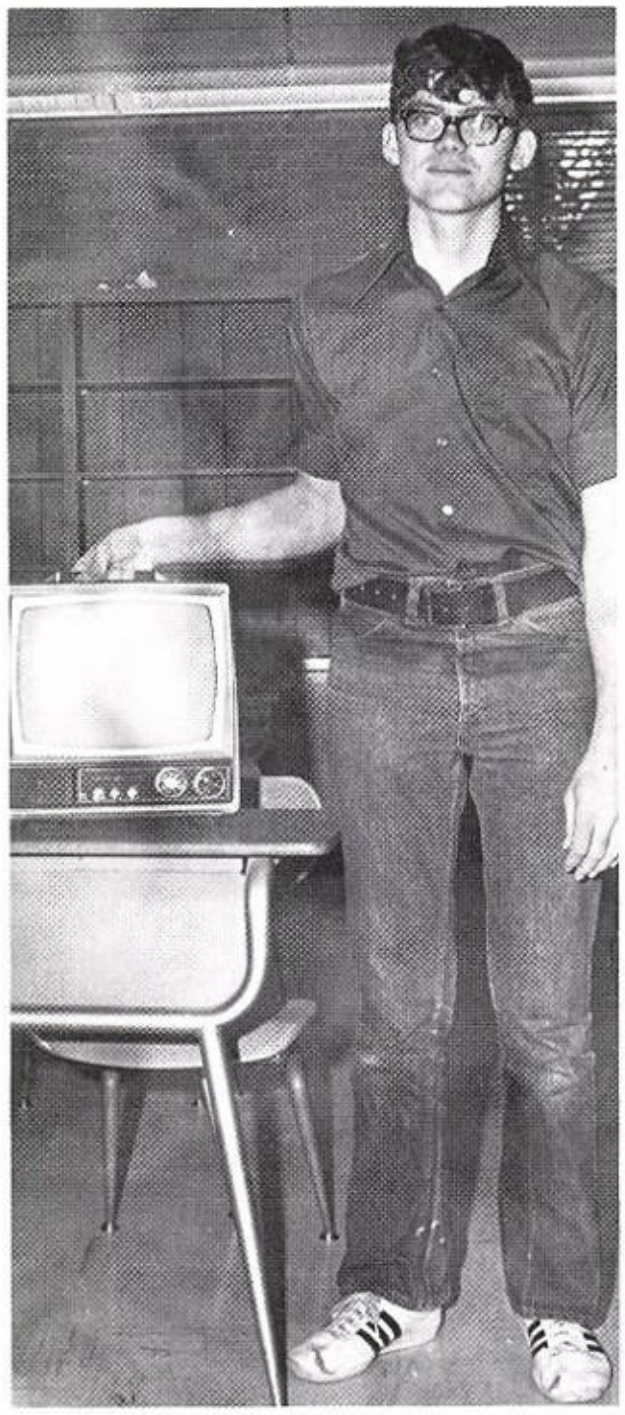
Sheryl Sommer gets DAR.

Jimmy White tries impressing the cameraman.





Marilyn Robinson Payne introduces her young daughter to Joan Albers.

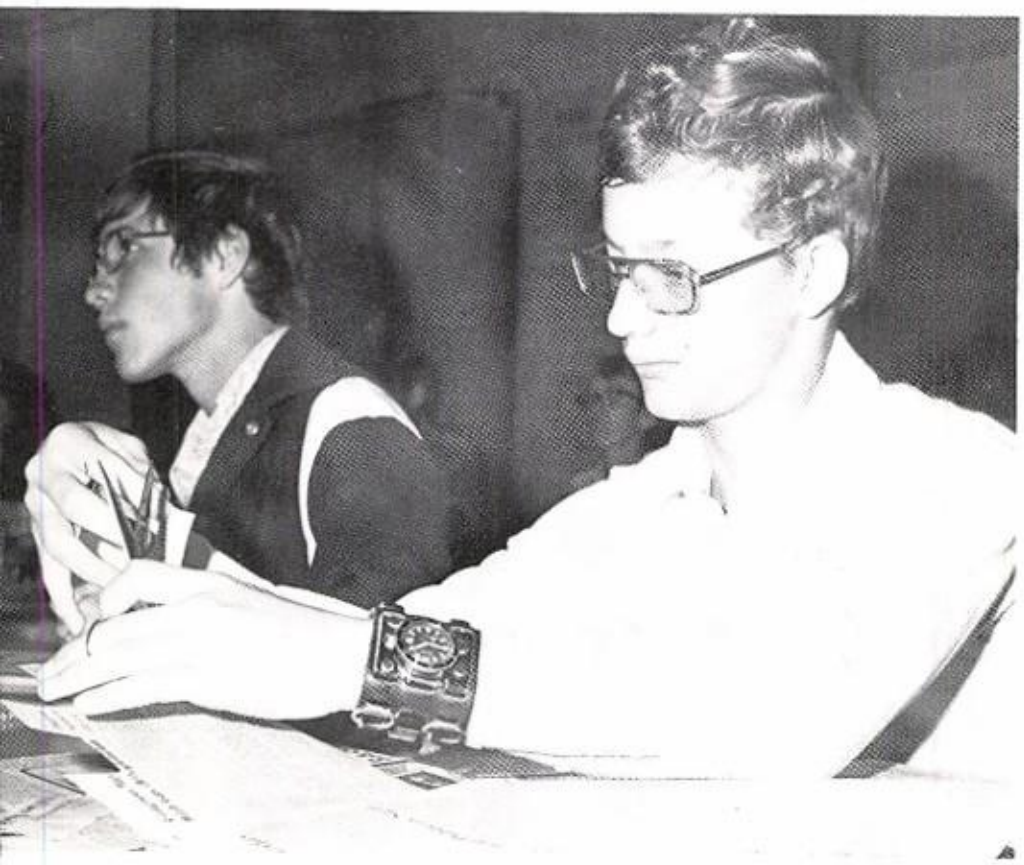


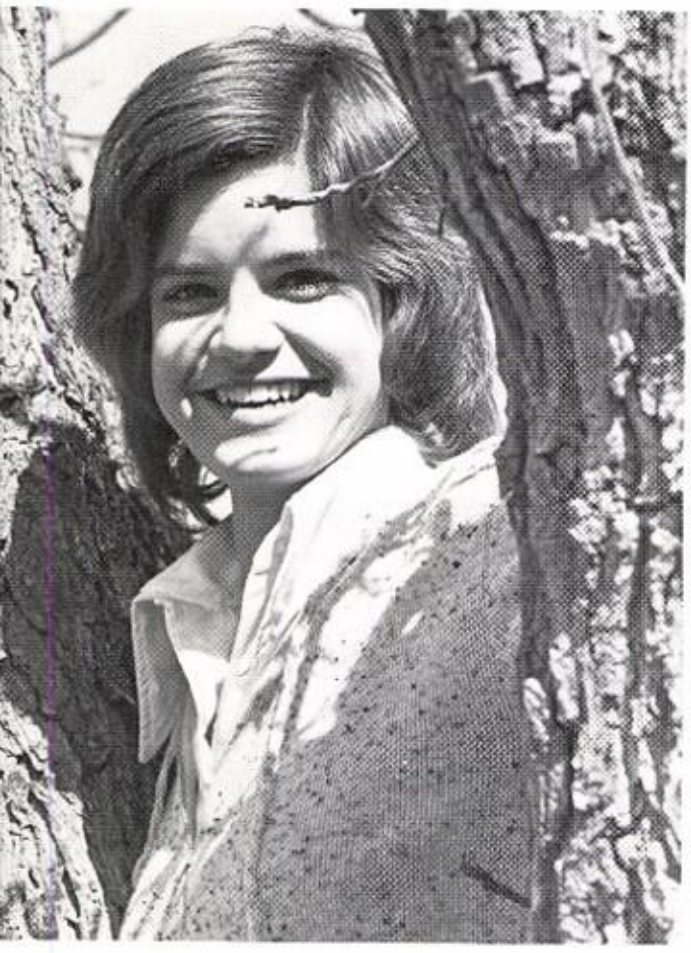
Paul Kerr gets the TV for selling the most magazines.

Sharla Wright is Miss Canyon.

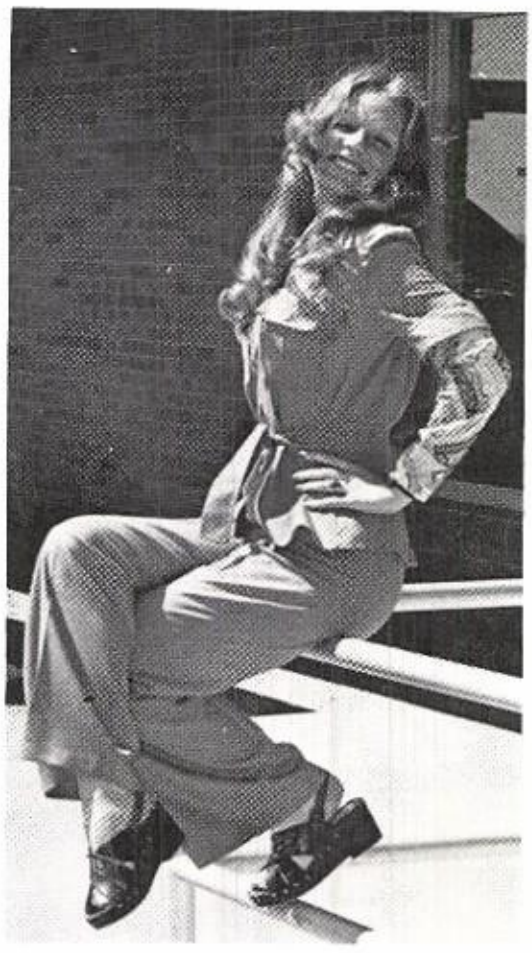
Mike Word wonders what Jerry Townsend knows.

Brad Johnson and Dal Foster concentrate on different things in Grammar class.

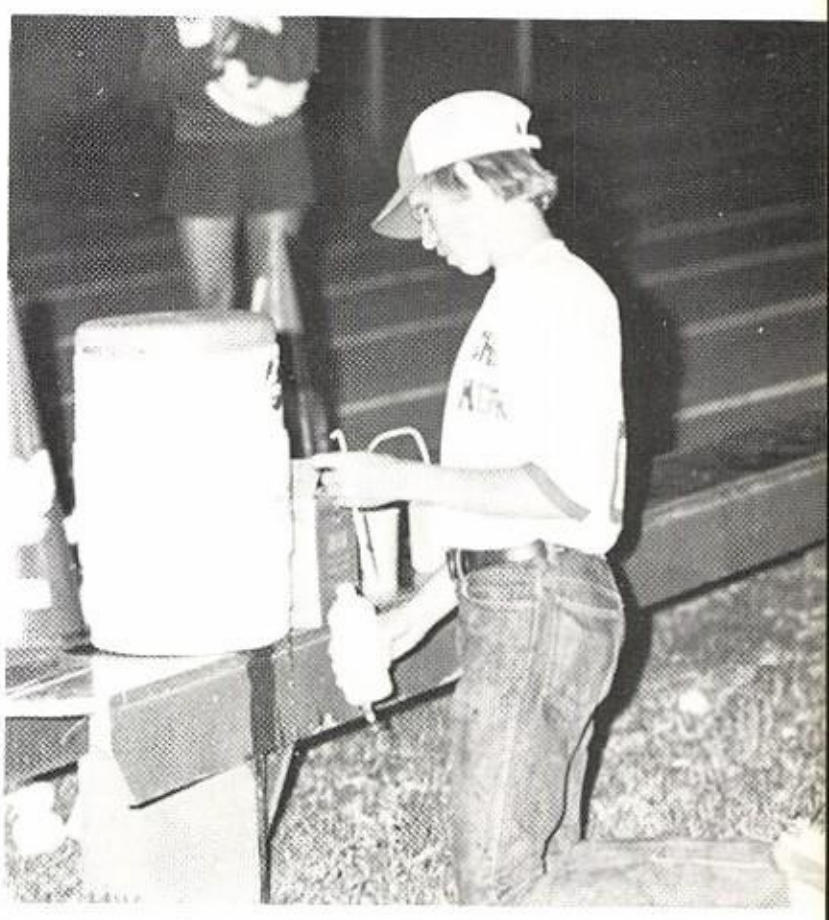




Kryn Harris has a nice smile.



Susie Nix strikes a pose.



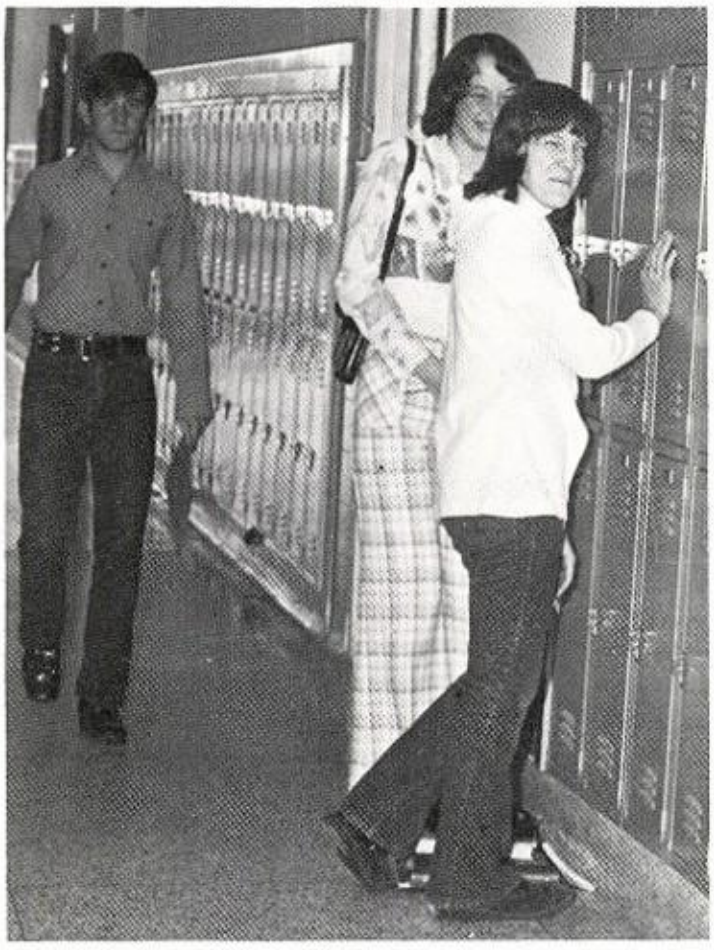
Steve Powers keeps the Eagles in water and bandaids.

Canyon High School is made up of individuals. Each sings his tune and adds to the harmony of the whole.

Elbert Liekhus saws cheerfully along.

The Routine . . .

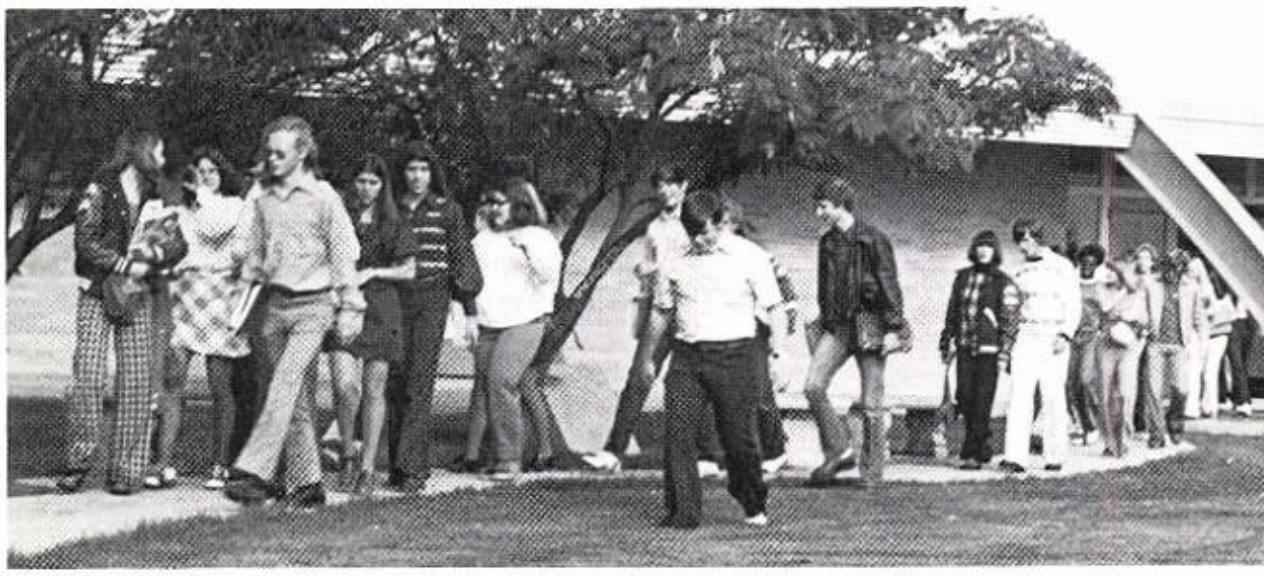
Locker-living is a disaster.



Attendance is recorded every period, every day.

Lunchtime is clattering, chattering friendship.

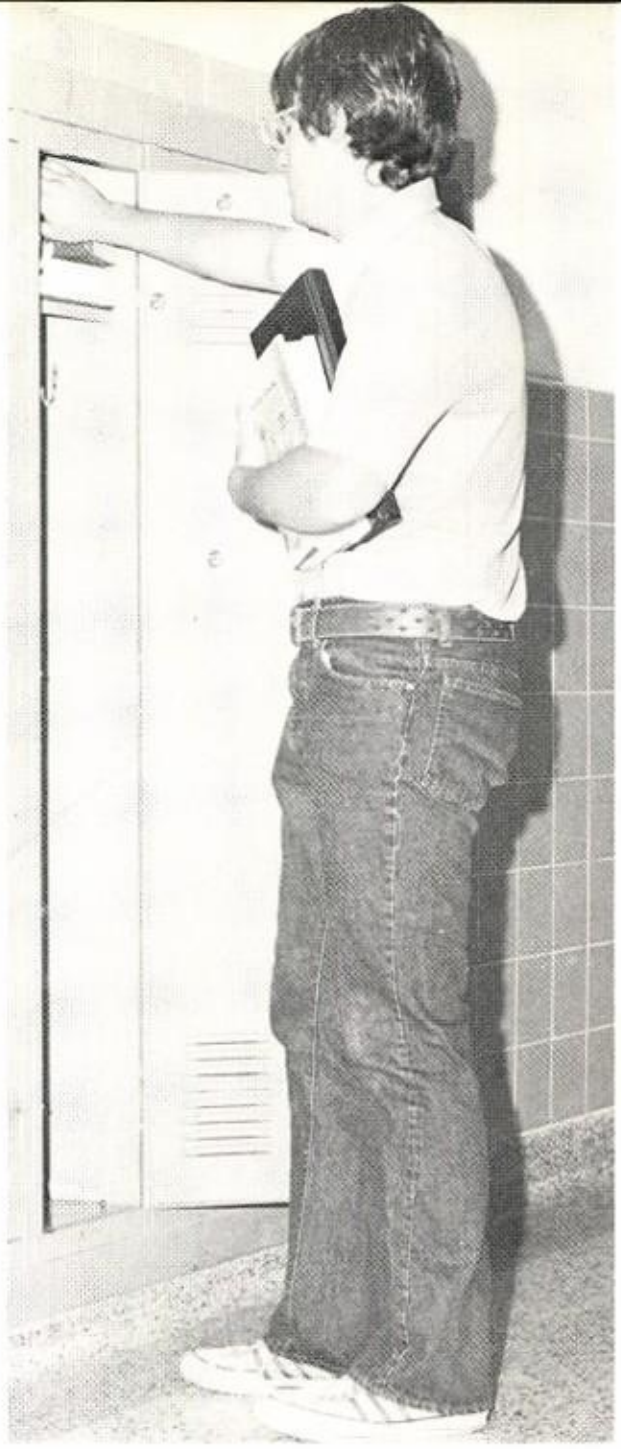
The band is strung out going to second period.



We enjoy sunshine and smiles during sixth period pep rally.

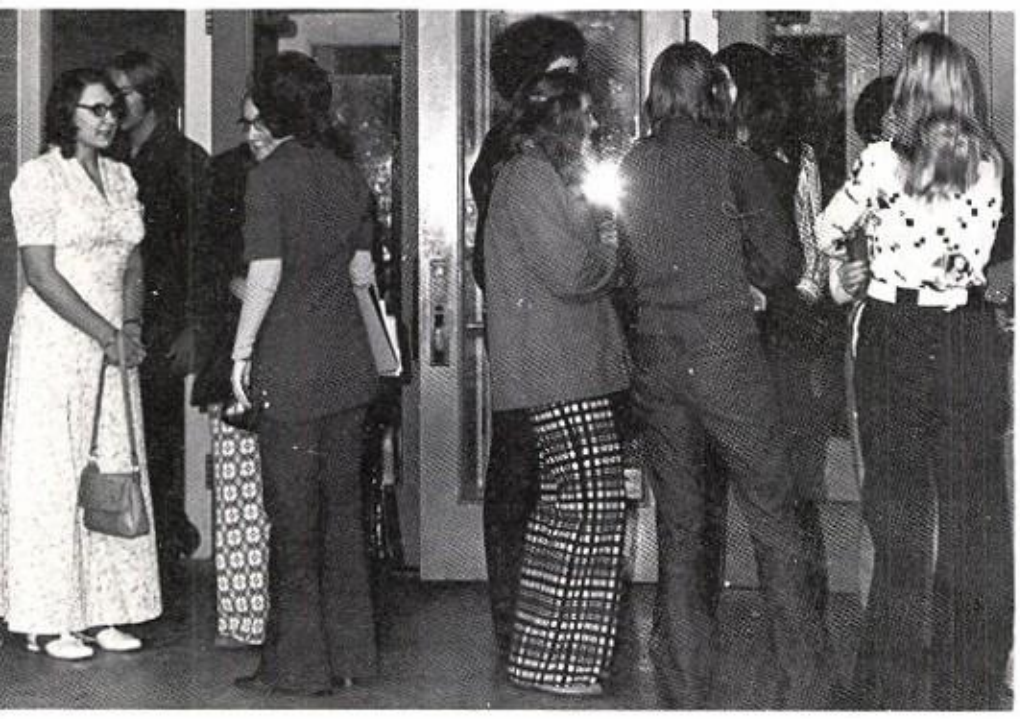
Mrs. Manzer's class lines up to learn grammar.

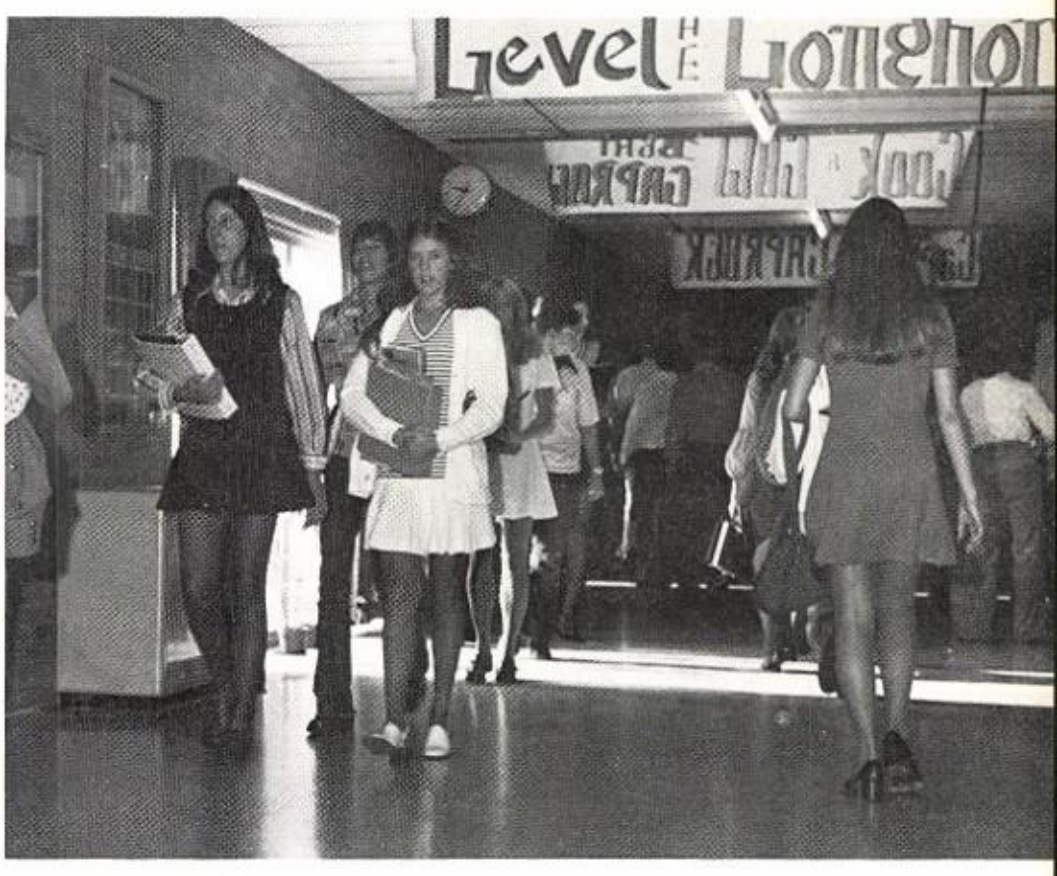
John Watkins needs the next period's books.



Phil Tucker, Brian Dodson, Steve McCormick, Jerry Cline, Kirk Bentley, Stan Barnard, Toni Smith, (seated) Rick Mantooth, Sheryl Dees discuss politics in the commons.

Planning goes on in the smoke-filled room.



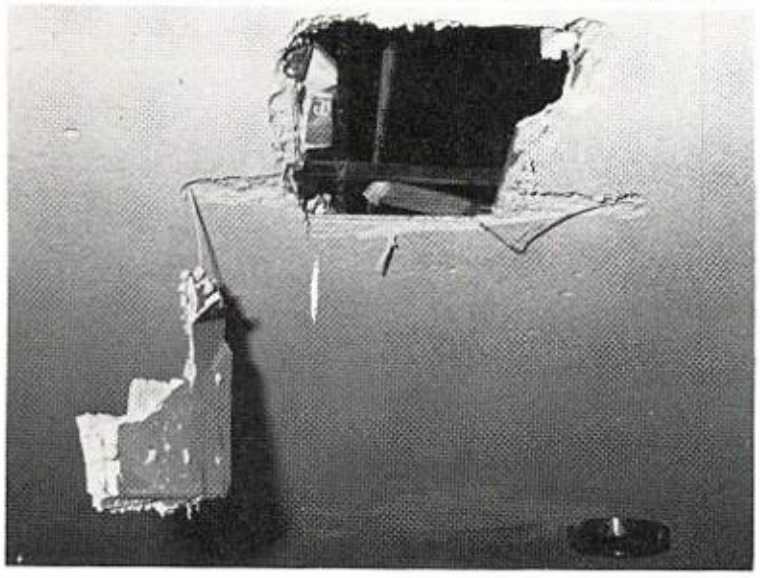


The bell clangs and everyone changes.

We stand in the darkness waiting to begin the day at school.

Our lives are colored each day by the routine and the unusual. The glorious and the terrible are assimilated to become the melodies we make.

Terry Hayhurst stepped through the auditorium ceiling.

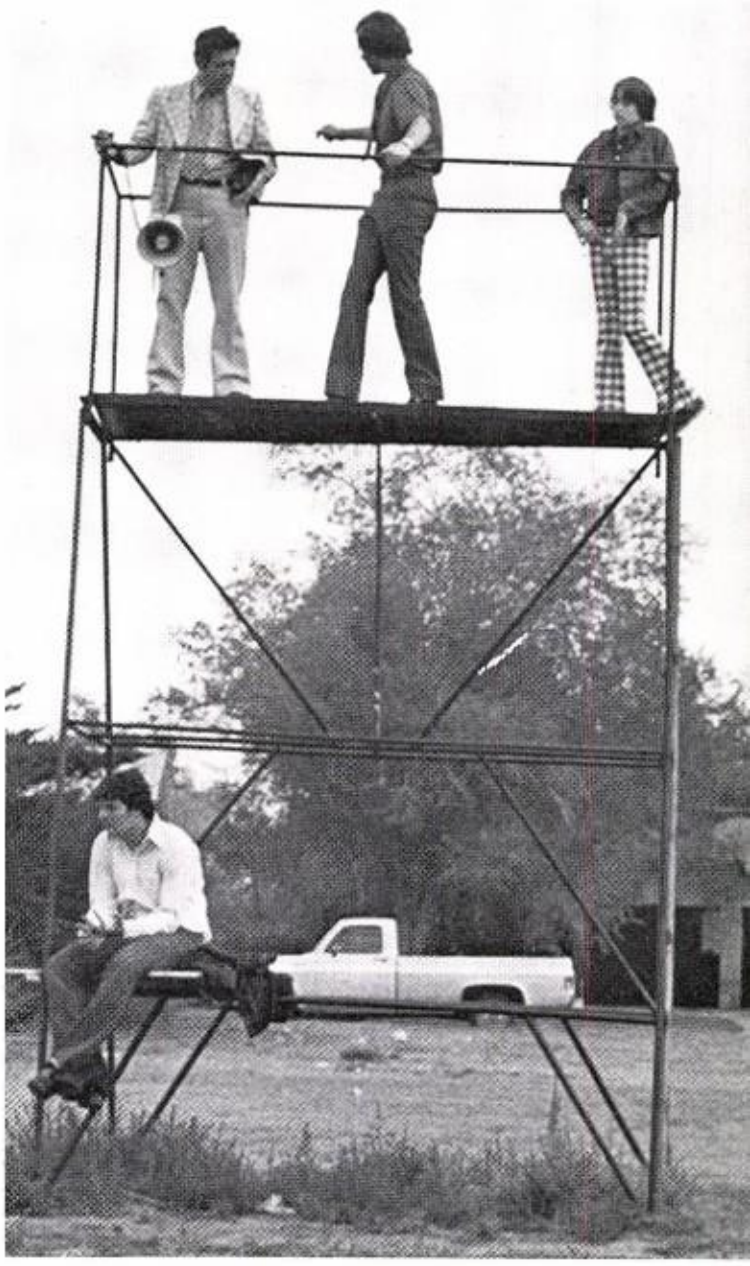


Thieves stole a recording system.

Ellen Livesay, Earlene Stalter and Jimmy White help Mr. Hughes celebrate his birthday.

The yearbook staff celebrates a deadline.

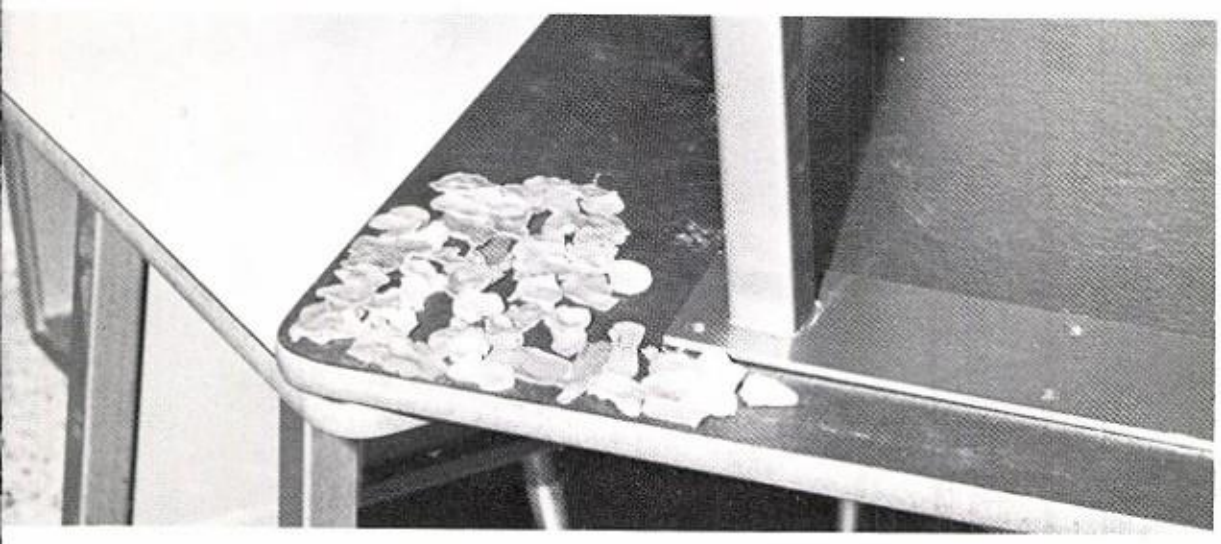
From registration to final exams happiness and heartache are our lot. We laugh and weep together and know that we are one in spirit and growth.



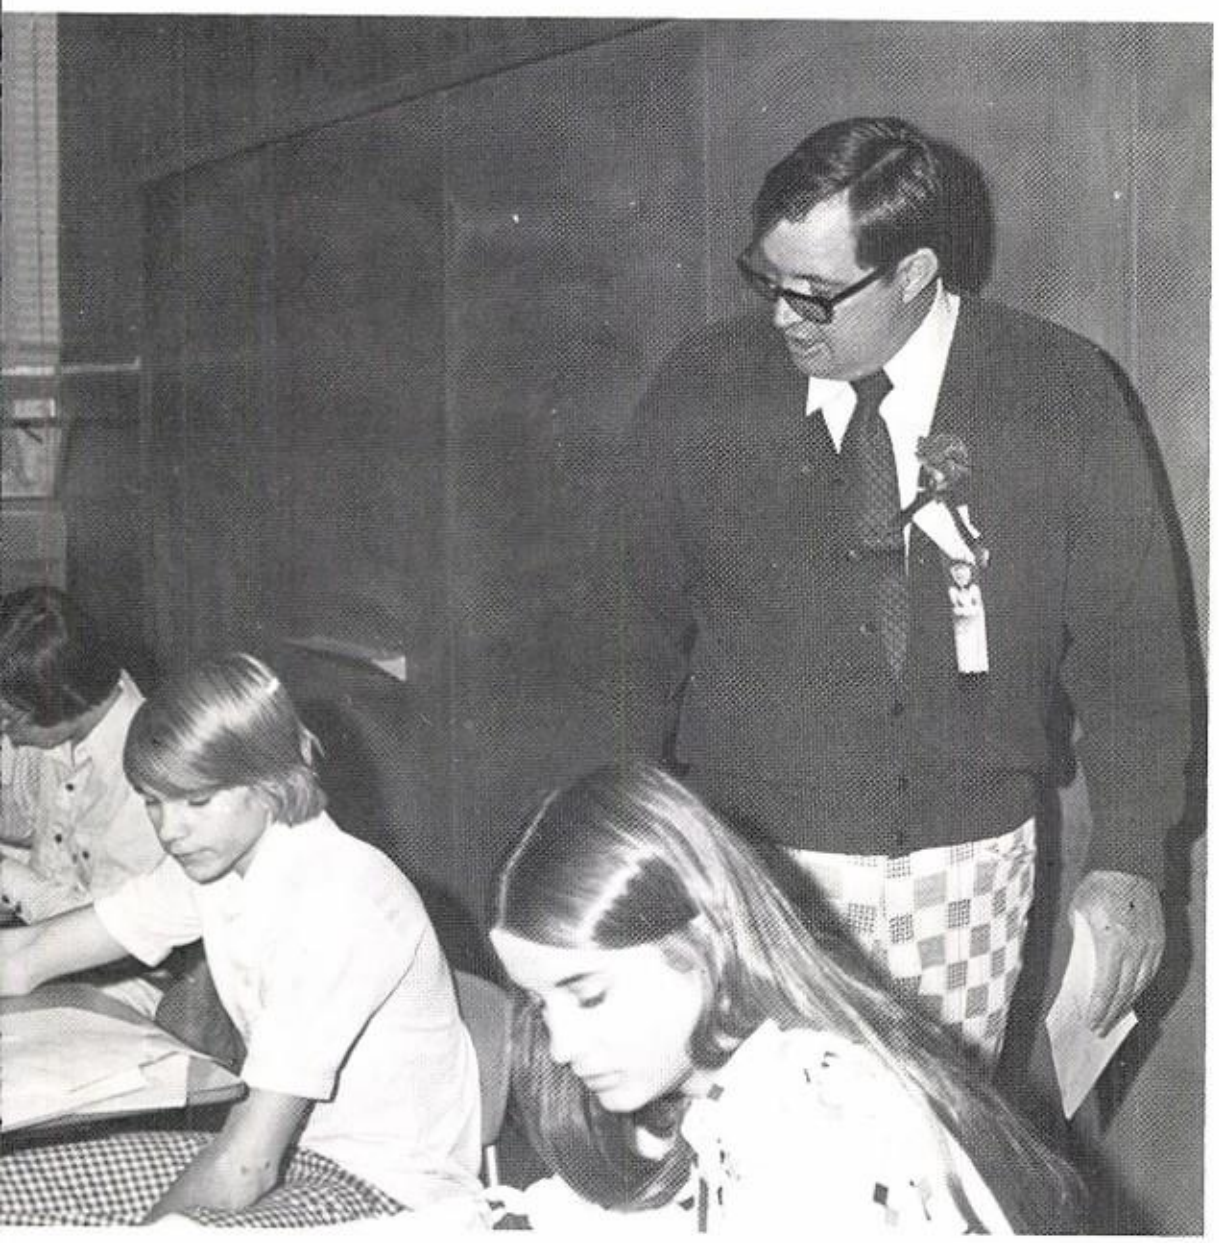
Mr. King and Mr. Bales give high priority to marching.

Brad Phillips, Kevin Raef, Garre LaGrone - three for the road.

Randy Ray and Debbie Turner efficiently learn to do the "Squirrel Thing."

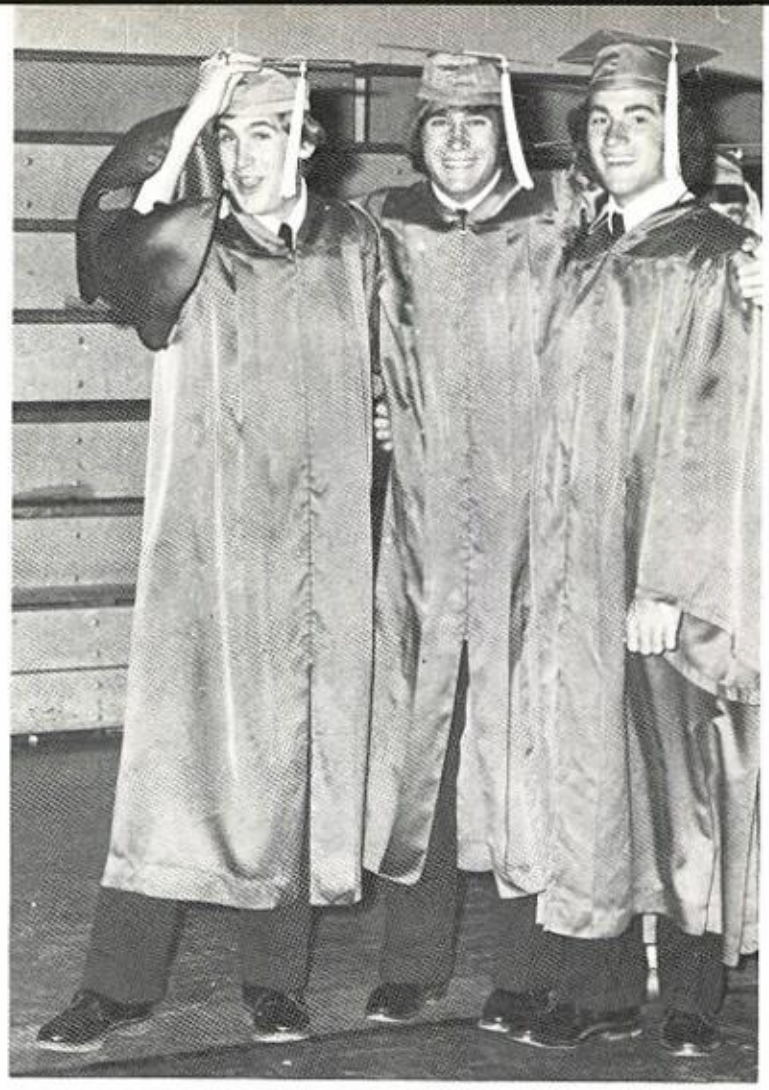


Someone chews lots of gum in Typing class.

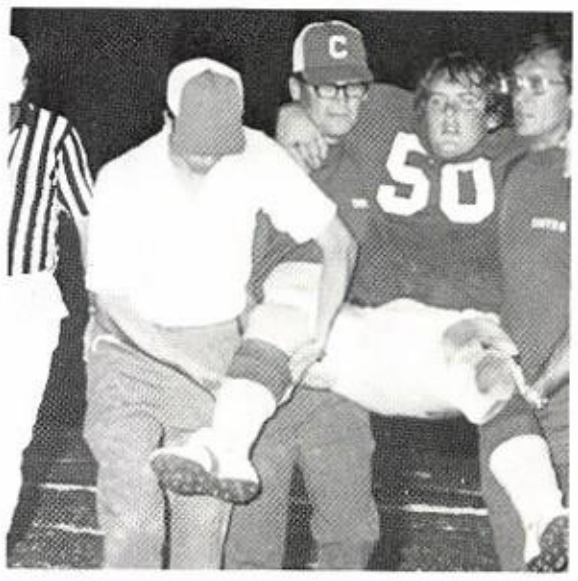


Mr. McAlpin makes a dress code inspection.

The Unusual . . .



Senior hall "decorations" are carried away.



Bob Lindsey leaves the field.

Band Royalty candidates - Sheryl Sommer, Mike Word, Roma Johnson, Jeff Cates, Harold Thompson, Terri Reid

Band Queen and King - Roma Johnson and Jeff Cates

Sheryl and Terri watch Allen Beghtel crown Roma. Kathy Cantrell is the announcer.

Debbie Ramaekers crowns Jeff.

Band Crowns Royalty, Holds Banquet

The John Phillip Sousa Award goes to DeAnn Holmes and Sheryl Sommer.

Kurt Johnson, Tim Martin and Collin Weaver enjoy the candles and flowers at the banquet.

The annual Band Awards Banquet was celebrated May 16 at the K.A. Lodge. Hosted by the Band Parents, the meal was catered by Sutphens.

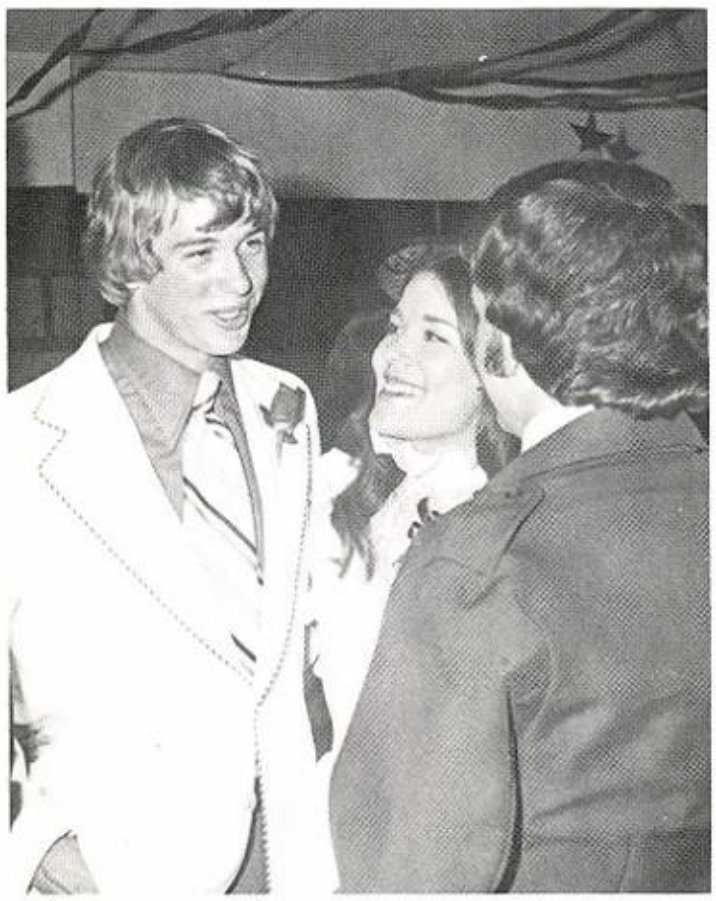
Individual awards were presented to students for outstanding achievement in UIL, Greater Southwest Festival and various instrument divisions.

Don Stribling and Harold Thompson (foreground) receive their senior band awards from Mr. King as Jeff Cates and Keith Laycock wait their turn.

Juniors Fete Seniors

Elliot Berry, sophomore, helps serve the banquet.

Mark Jackson and Adrian Foil enjoy a special dinner joke.



The smiles of Steve Irlbeck and Susie Reynolds indicate they're having a good time.

Dennis Goettsch, Brenda Oliver, Sharla Wright, David Madewell, Craig Johnson and Laura Taylor exchange pleasantries.

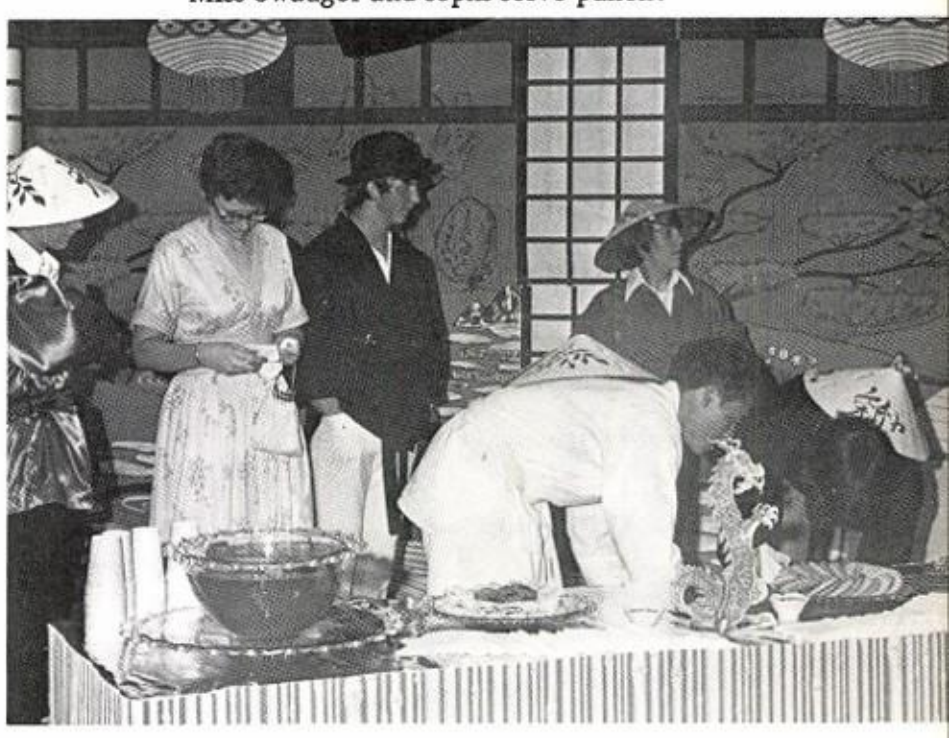
The Class of '76 entertained the Class of '75 with a banquet and prom May 10 on the WTSU campus. Miss Swauger and other sponsors helped the junior class carry out an oriental theme in the decorations.

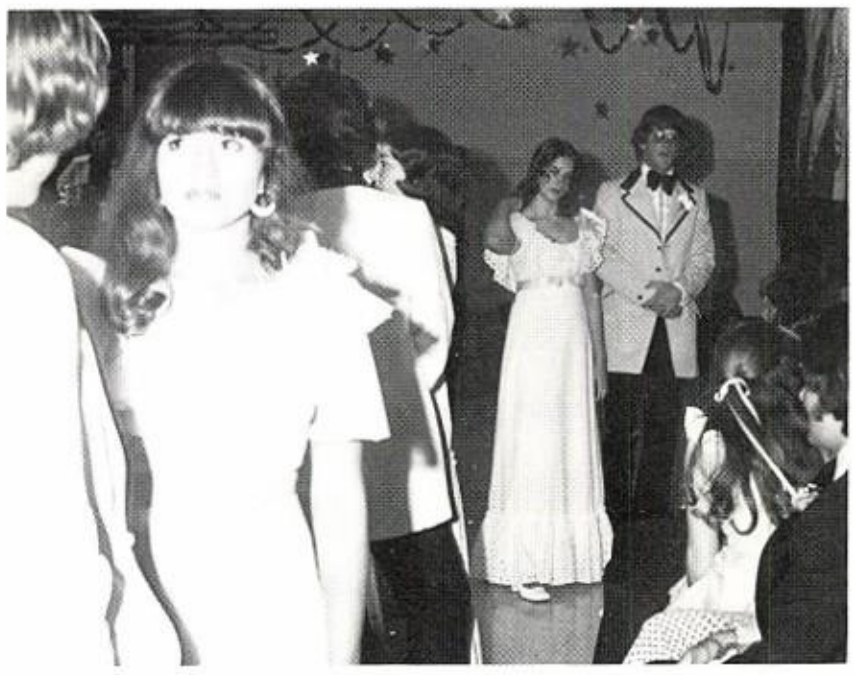
Selected sophomores served the dinner and punch and cookies later at the prom.

Formally-clad seniors and juniors line up to have prom pictures made.

Tom Crown, Joan Albers enter the oriental gate.

Miss Swauger and sophs serve punch.





CHS has its share of beautiful people.

Eloise Thompson, Ken Cooper, Tammye Sallee, Randy Breitling pose on the bridge.

CLEAN ENERGY
FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW

A Natural Energy Home uses natural gas for heating, cooling, water heating, cooking and clothes drying to save you money and help conserve our cleanest natural energy resource . . . natural gas. That's because electricity in West Texas is generated by burning natural gas, and in the process of generating and transmitting electricity to your home, 2/3 of the gas energy is lost. So, by using gas directly in the home for the jobs it can do, you're helping to conserve it and you're getting more energy for your money.

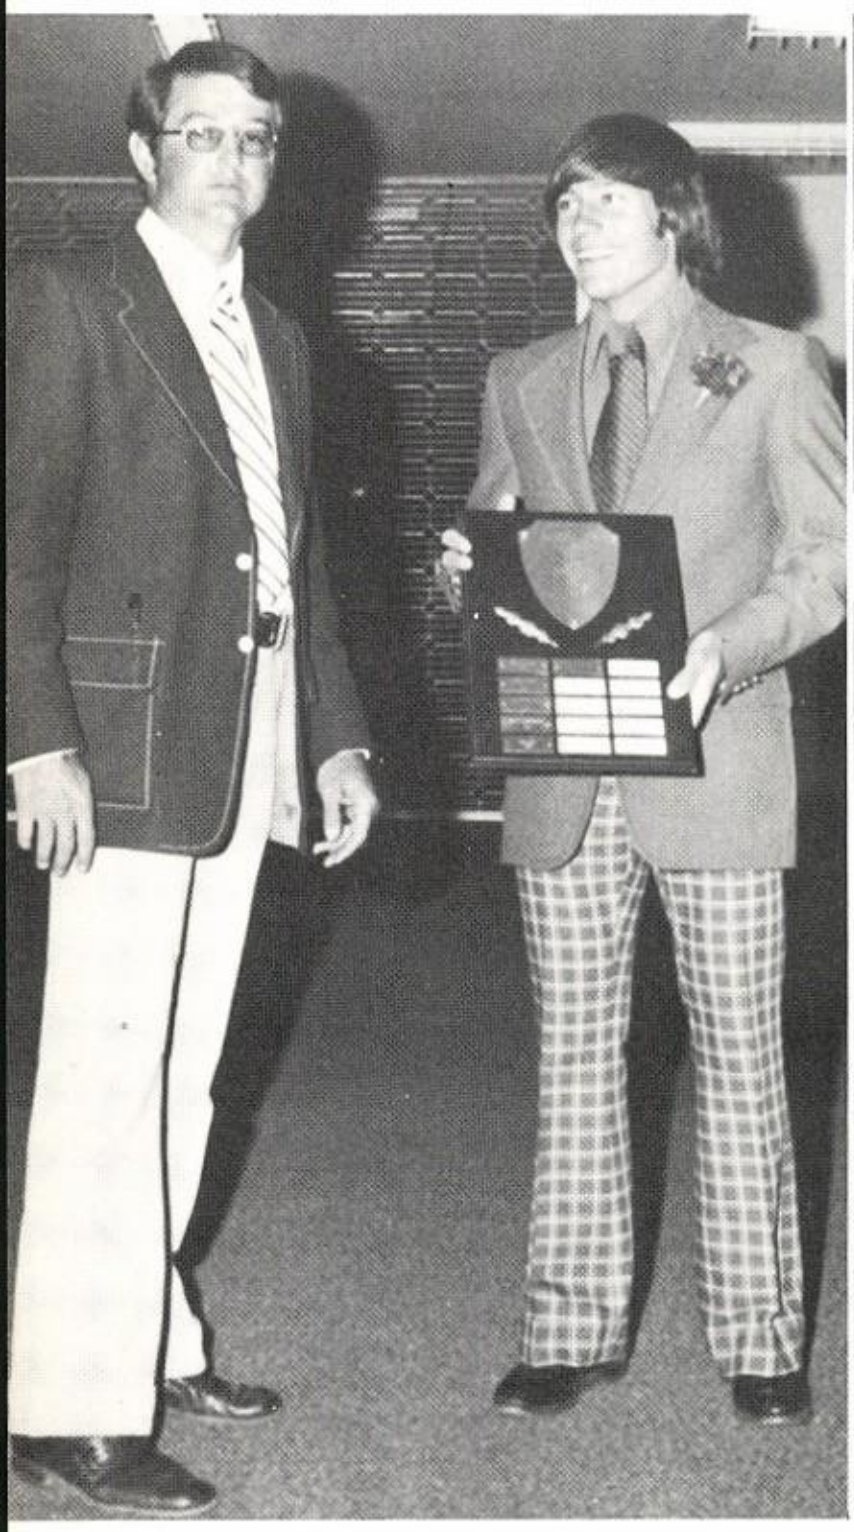
Athletes Recognized At Annual Banquet

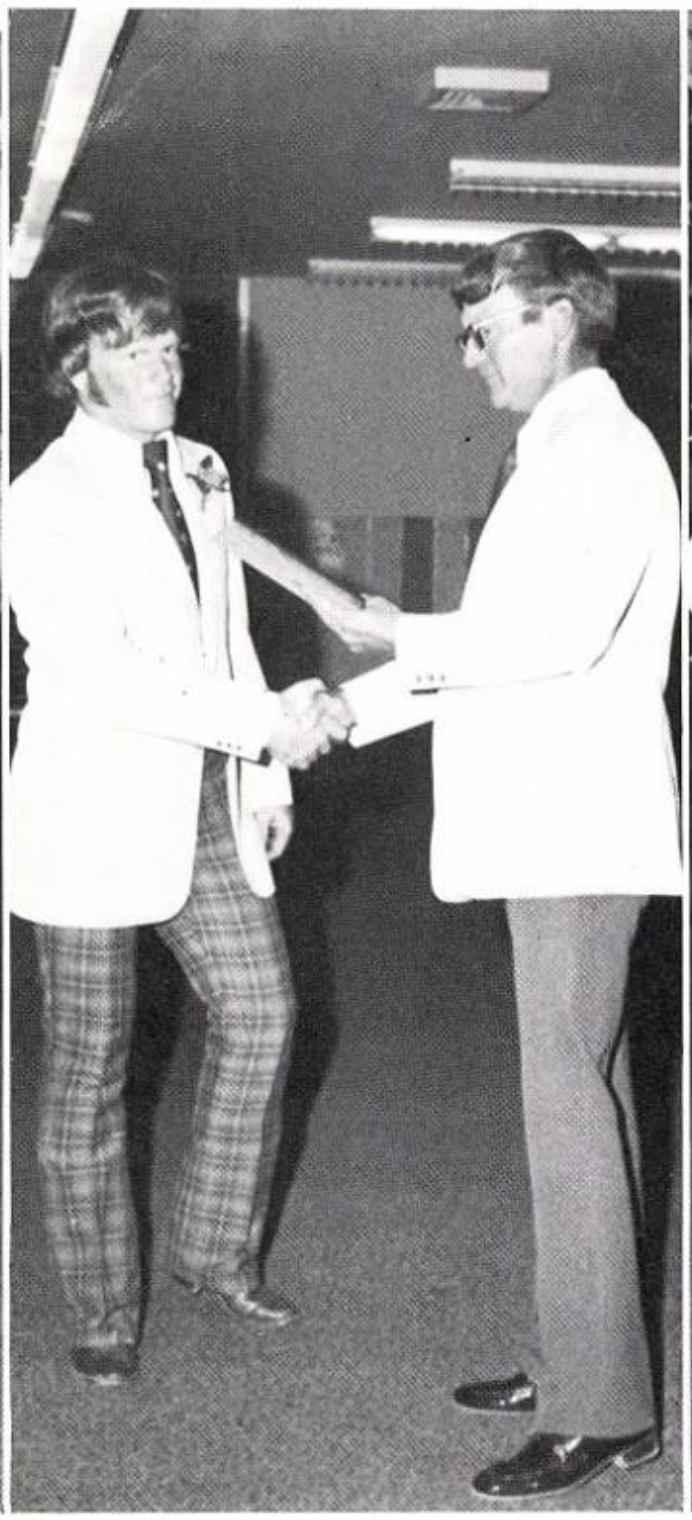
Outstanding athletes and their special favorites were honored at the annual Athletic Banquet held in the Junior High School Cafeteria, April 5.

Girls basketball stars were also recognized. Louise Davis and Robena Johnson were named Most Valuable Forwards and Polly Crawford was singled out as Most Valuable Guard.

Wayne Robinson, Most Valuable Defensive player, and Jim Ward, Most Valuable Offensive player, receive a plaque from Coach Duncan.



Coach Conners recognizes Kevin Raef, Most Valuable Senior.



Jim Ward, Most Valuable to Team, is congratulated by Coach Duncan.

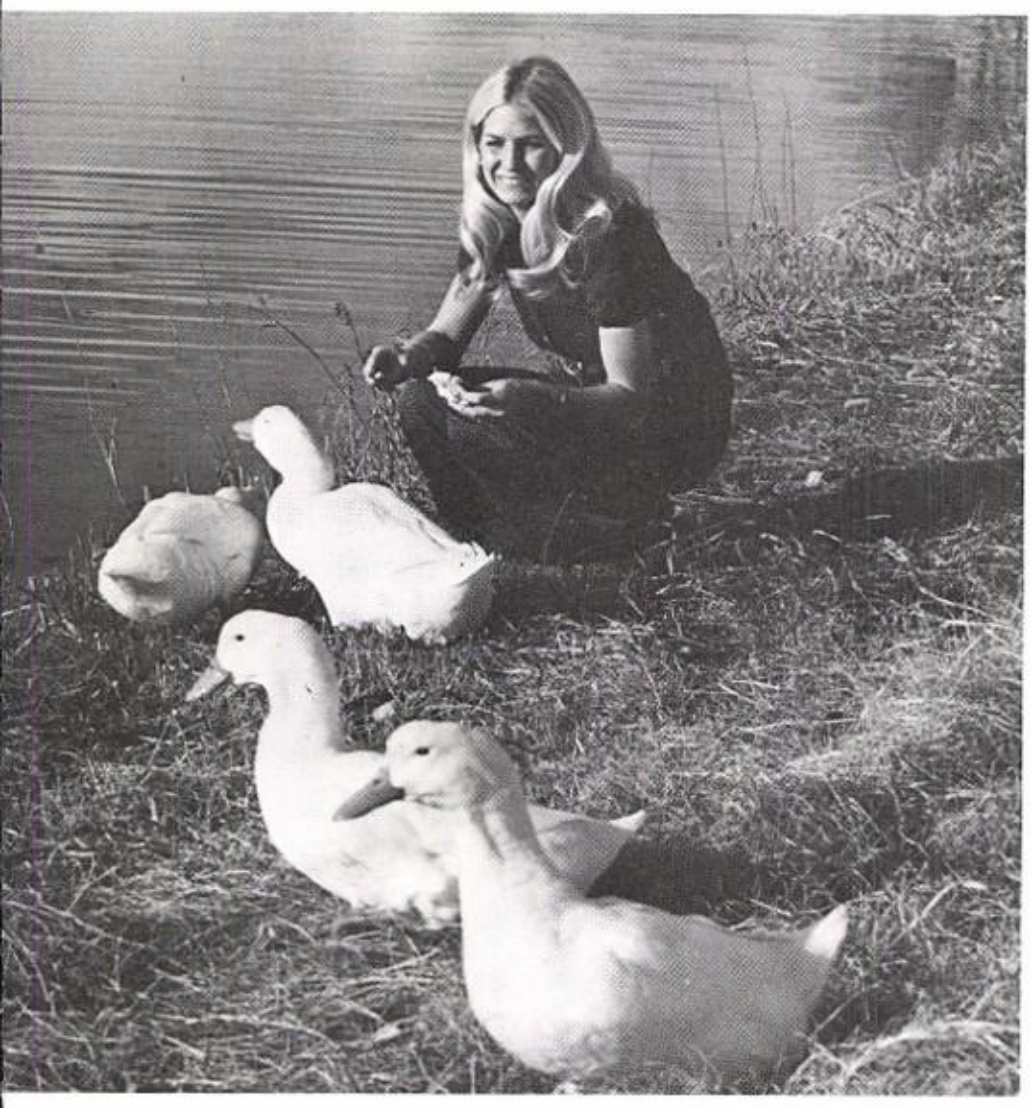
Lynn Wright is presented Most Valuable Basketball Player by Coach Kendrick.

Nickie Abbott is crowned Football Queen. Jack Wright is her escort.

John Johnson and Nickie Abbott are Basketball King and Queen.

Kelly Forehand accepts the Fighting Heard Award from Mr. Jacobs.

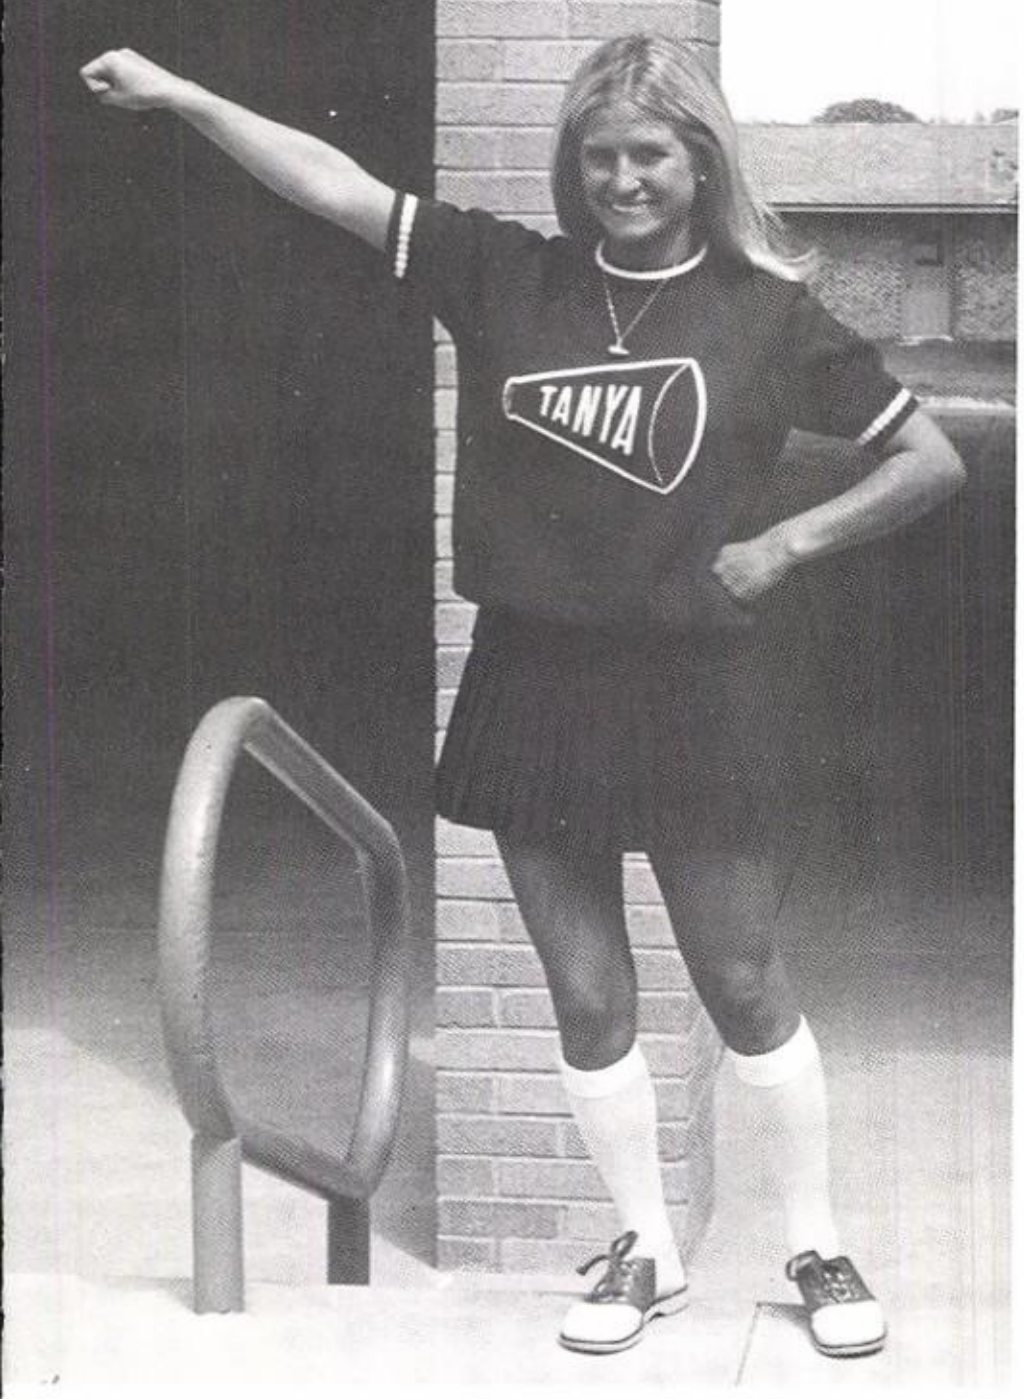
Tanya Crowned Homecoming Queen

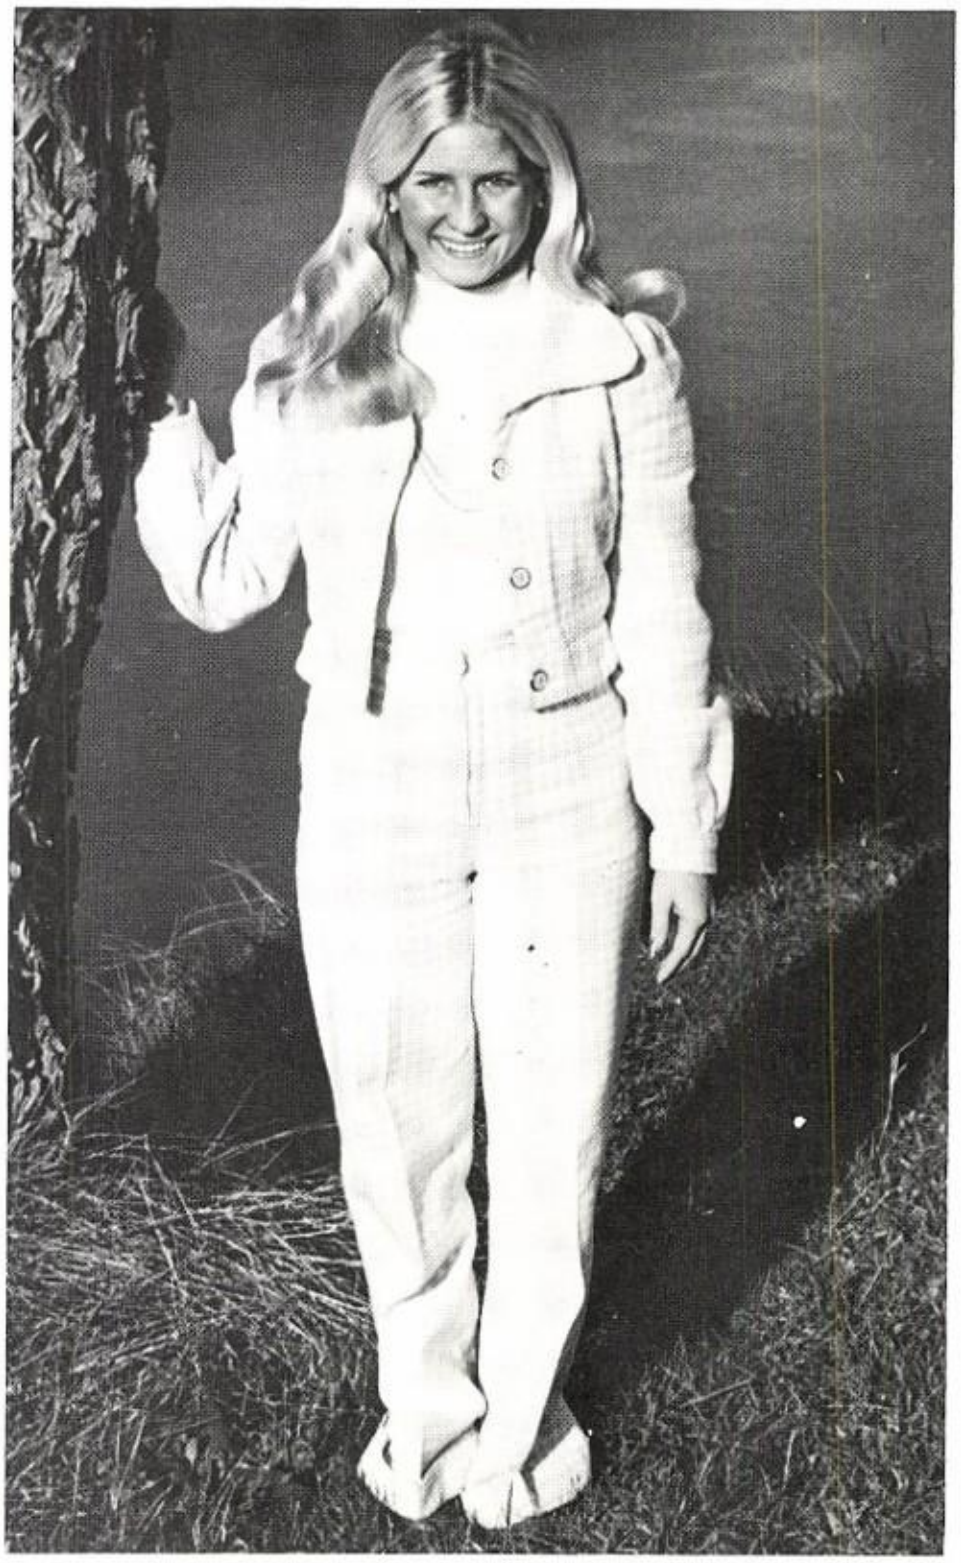


A friendly smile reflects Tanya Kent, Homecoming Queen '74. She has been active as a Homeroom Representative during her junior year and was a member of the Mixed Choir her sophomore and junior years.

Cheerleading activities during her sophomore, junior and senior years have occupied much of Tanya's time.

Tanya was crowned Homecoming Queen in pre-game ceremonies at the Canyon-Palo Duro game.





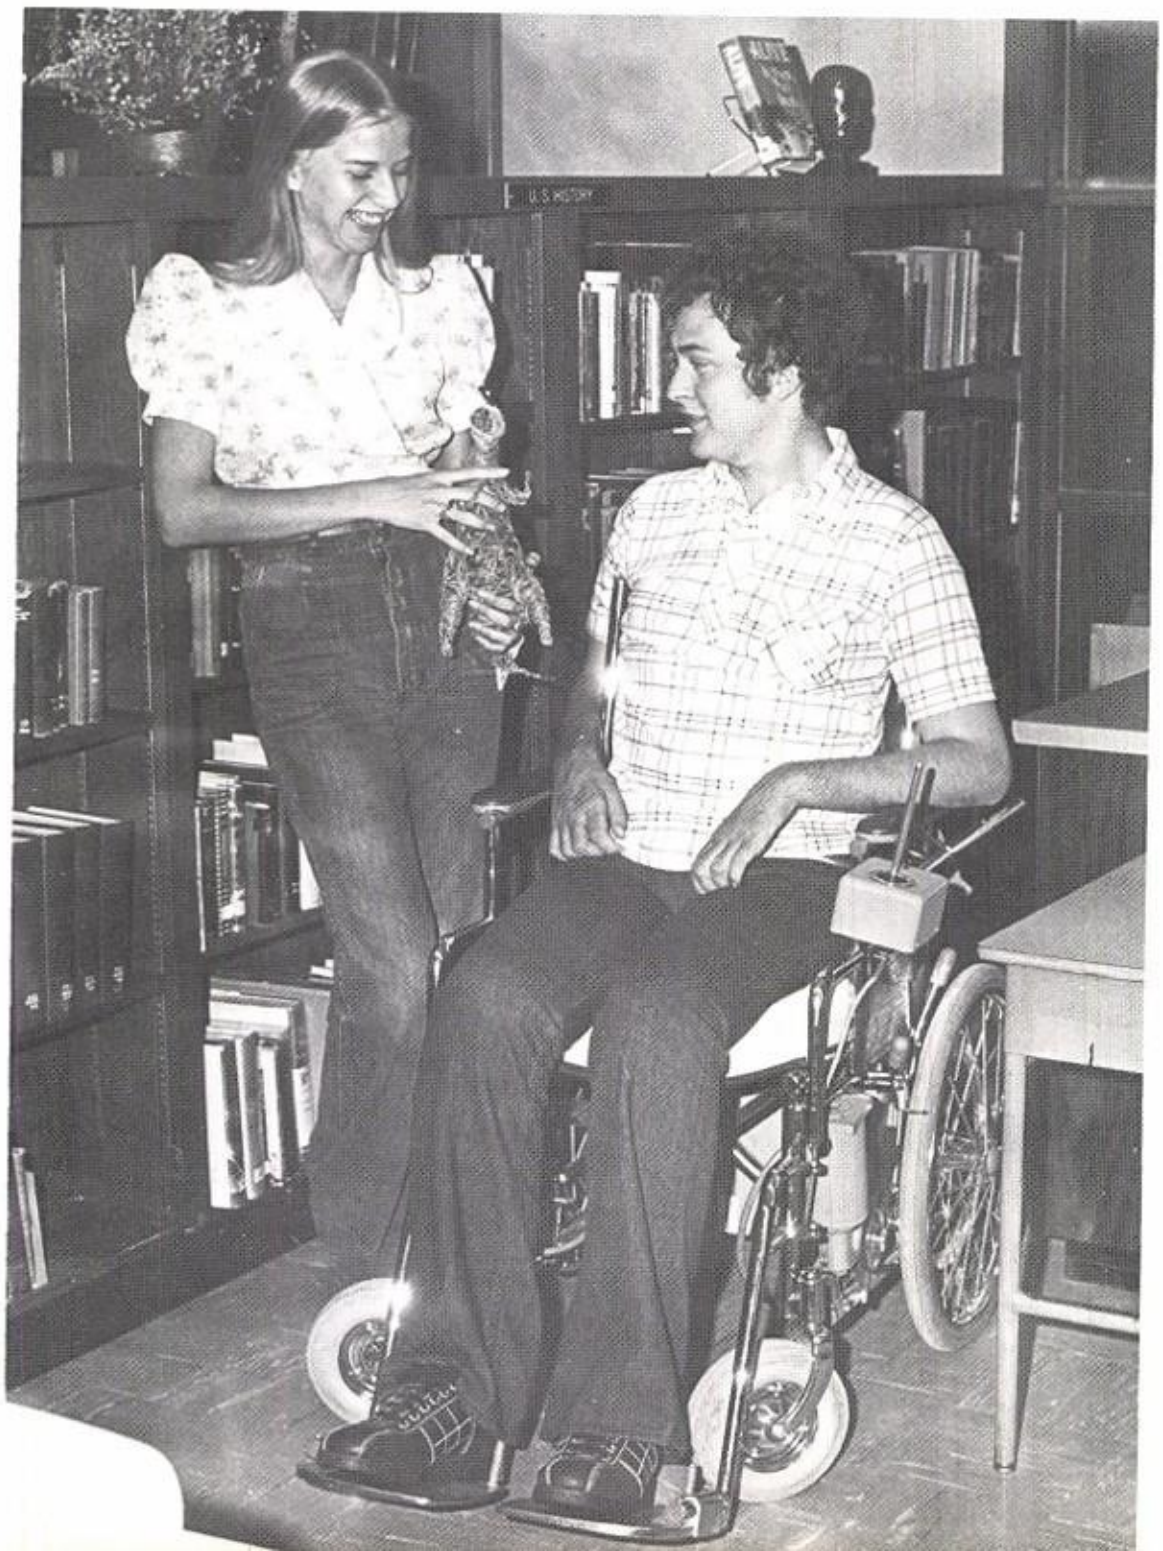
Miss Canyon High School — Sheryl Adams

Mr. Canyon High School — Kelly Forehand

CHS Honors Sheryl and Kelly

Mr. and Miss Canyon High School - Kelly Forehand and Sheryl Adams

Sheryl demonstrates for Kelly that she can at least prepare fudge.



The students at Canyon High School honored Sheryl Adams and Kelly Forehand by electing them as Miss and Mr. Canyon High School for 1974-75.

Sheryl has been active in basketball and track; she received the achievement award when she was a sophomore and was selected to Junior Who's Who.

Kelly has been an outstanding choir member, has participated in athletics where he was a standout in football, and has taken part in many dramatic presentations. Kelly was injured in September in a football game.

These two talented Eagles were considered by their classmates to be the best Eagles of all.

Sheryl and Kelly enjoy some of the art objects in the library.

Junior Elite Selected to Who's Who

Sheryl Dees has been a CHS cheerleader for two years. Sheryl enjoys playing the piano and cheering for all Eagle sporting events.

Lisa Tucker has appeared in many dramatic presentations on the CHS stage during the past two years. President of FBLA, Lisa enjoys business courses.

Twelve members of the Junior Class were singled out for special honor by being selected to Junior Who's Who for 1975. Selection was based on academic, service, activities and affability considerations.

JoAnn White served on THE EAGLE'S TALE staff as a sophomore and has been a member of the CHS tennis team.

Randy Breitling is vitally interested in sporting activities at CHS. He served as editor of THE EAGLE'S TALE this year.

Susie Nix is interested in professional ice skating and trains each summer at Colorado Springs. Susie helped with SOARING WINGS '75.

Janet Malzahn had one of the leading roles in "The Man Who Came to Dinner" and "Impromptu." Janet is a talented trouper.

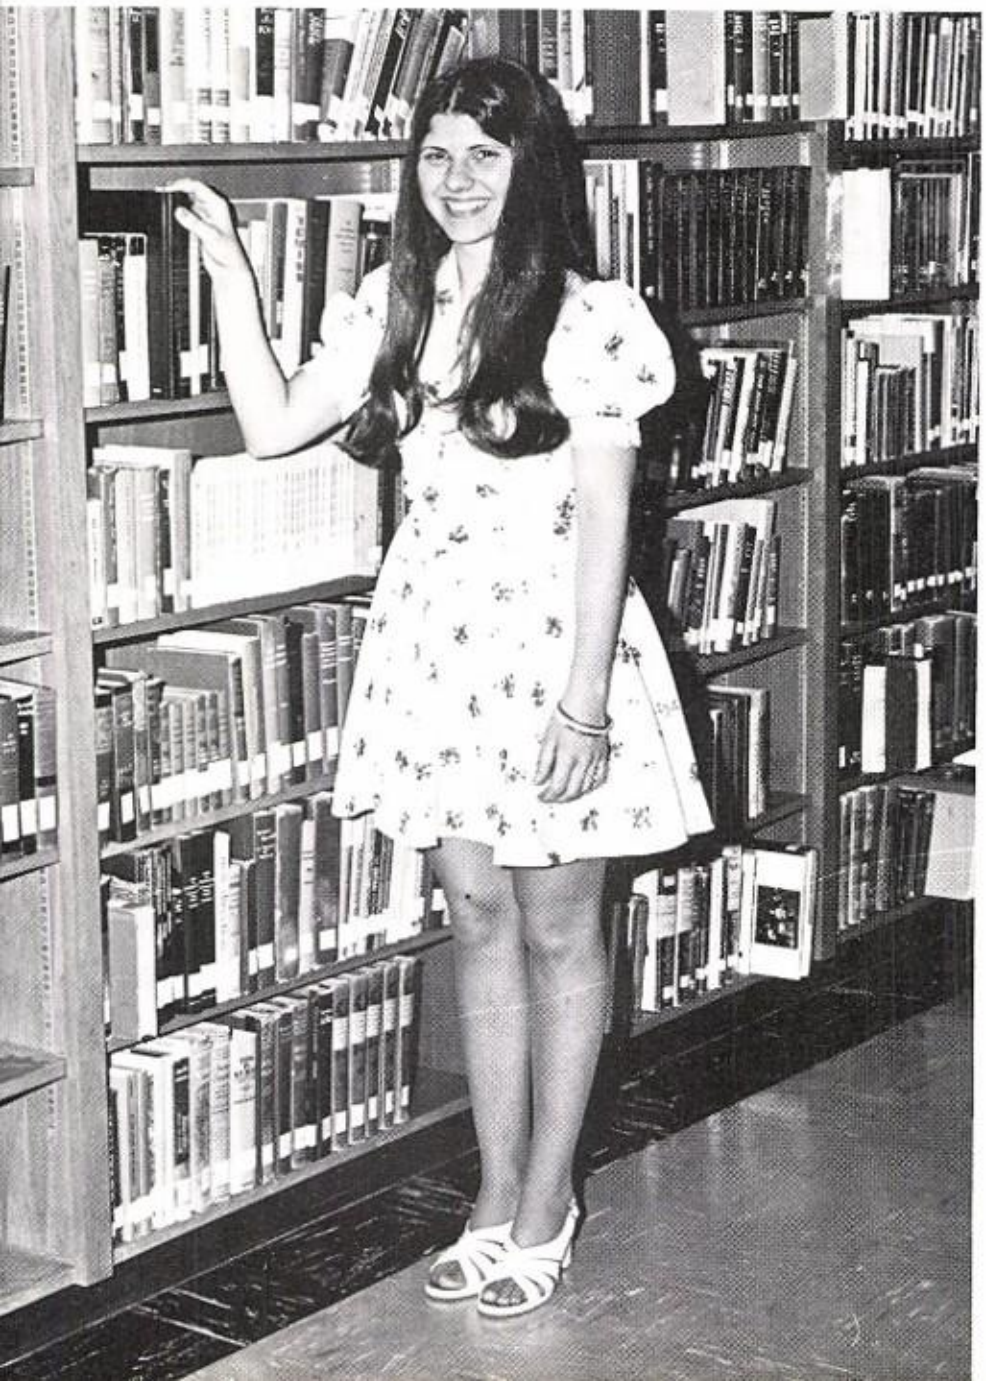
Roma Johnson has carried away many honors in CHS. She is a twirler for the Eagle Band, class favorite and a Junior Class officer.

Terri Reid plays the flute in the Eagle Band and has served as a band officer. She was associate editor of THE EAGLE'S TALE this year.

Retta Cunningham has been in on most of the student political races since she came to CHS. Retta is an active member of every organization to which she belongs.

Junior Who's Who . . .

Nickie Abbott has been a CHS cheerleader for two years. Pretty Nickie was chosen as both Football Queen and Basketball Queen.



Marcella Patterson is one who is interested in everything around her. Her greatest efforts were expended on behalf of the Future Teachers organization this year.

Petite Kathy Cantrell is a member of the Eagle Band and enjoys reading in her free time.

Outstanding Students Honored

Russell Killingsworth receives the CHS Award.

Miss Chowning, Mrs. Brantley, Mr. Jennings present Scott Nelson the Novice Award. Laurie Davidchik, Leslie Gallemore, Garre LaGrone are named to the All-Star cast of the musical.

Tom Crown is named outstanding Social Studies student by Miss Albracht.

Edna Glovier merits the Outstanding Choir Member.

Jo Beth Price, Mike Hammons, Karma Denton, Tarri Bond, Kim Yarbrough are the Art honorees.

Wade Wilhelm, Retta Cunningham, Kristi Quammen, Cassi Harbin receive some of the Business Department awards from Mrs. Brown.

Mr. Hagemeier announces Building Trades awards to Wayne Robinson, Joe Mike Carter, Elbert Liekhus.

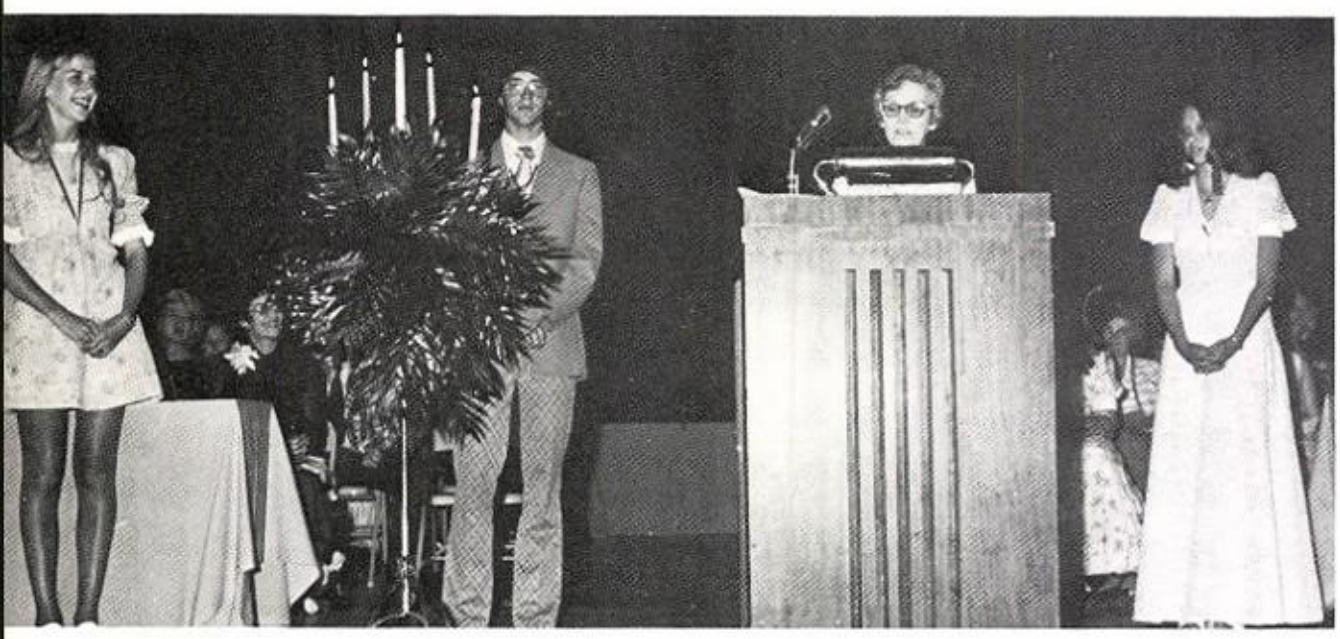
Sharon Lindemann and Royal Brantley are Sophomores of Year.

Keith Laycock is named the Rotary 4-Way Test Student and Joan Albers is awarded the Rotary scholarship.

Awards Night, Cont'd.

Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Fincher present the Betty Crocker Search for Leadership to Sheryl Sommer, the Crisco Award to Sherry Evans and the FHA Award to Sherie Detten.

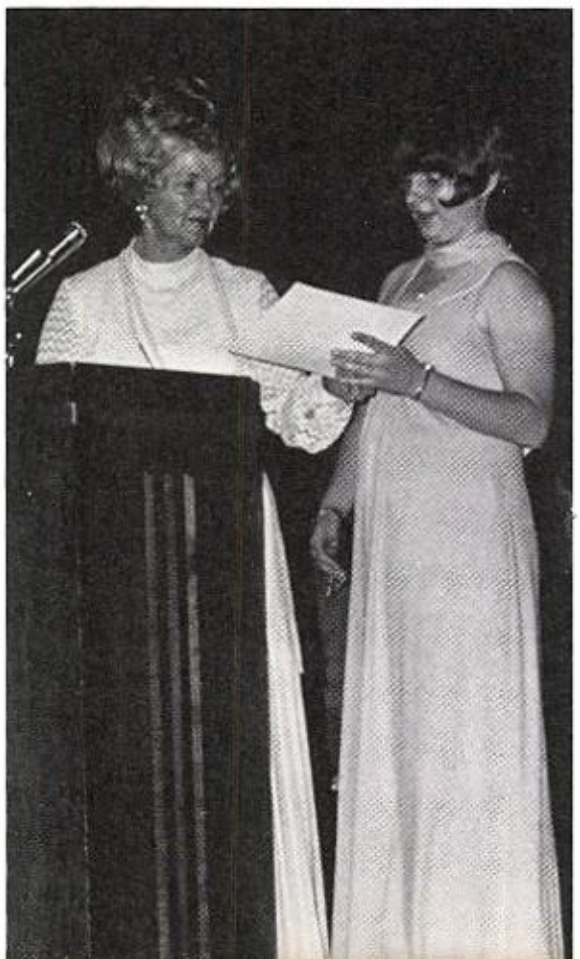
Debi Taylor gets the Beta Sigma Phi Award.



Sheryl Adams, Wade Wilhelm, Irene Mitchell are among the outstanding Math students, says Mrs. Ellis.

Many students were recognized for achievement and service at the Awards Night, May 22. National Honor Society, sponsoring organization, held the annual initiation for probationary members.

Students, faculty and administrators announced the names of those who had excelled in various fields.



Tara Wooten is presented the W. R. Wilson scholarship.

Mrs. Rapstine recognizes Nancy Kelly with the VAC Behavioral Award.

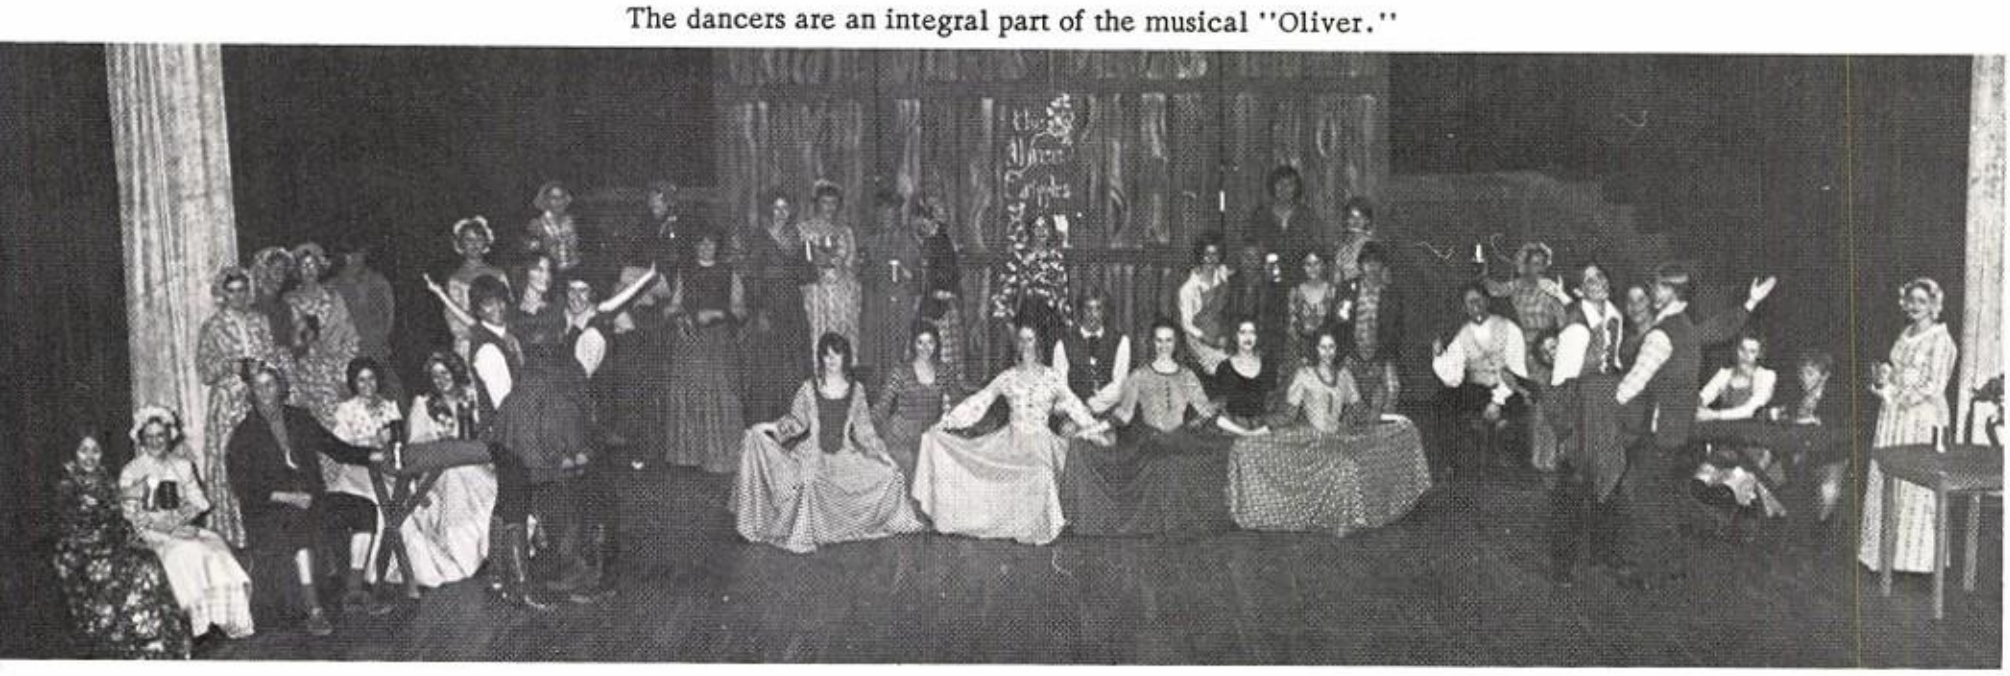
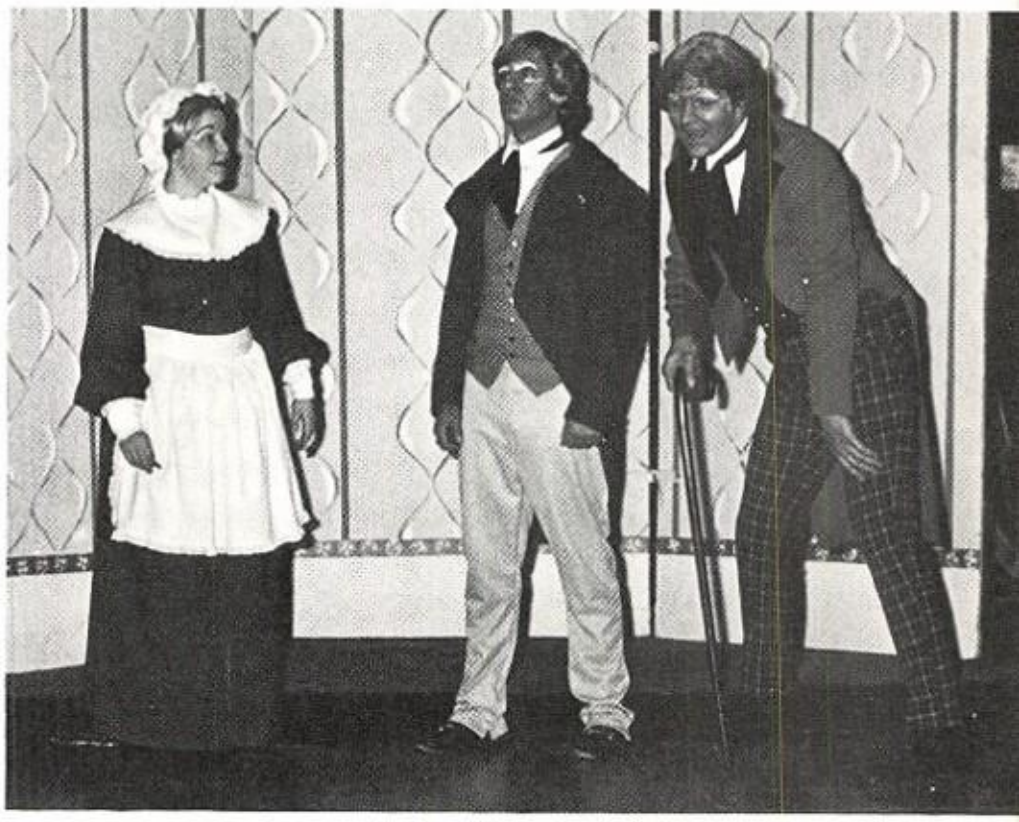
Mr. Tom Jennings directs the orchestra.

Noah Claypole (Rick Mantooth), Charlotte (Debbie Smith), Mr. Sowerberry (Brad Phillips) and Mrs. Sowerberry (Brenda Oliver) try to improve Oliver (Scott Nelson, center).

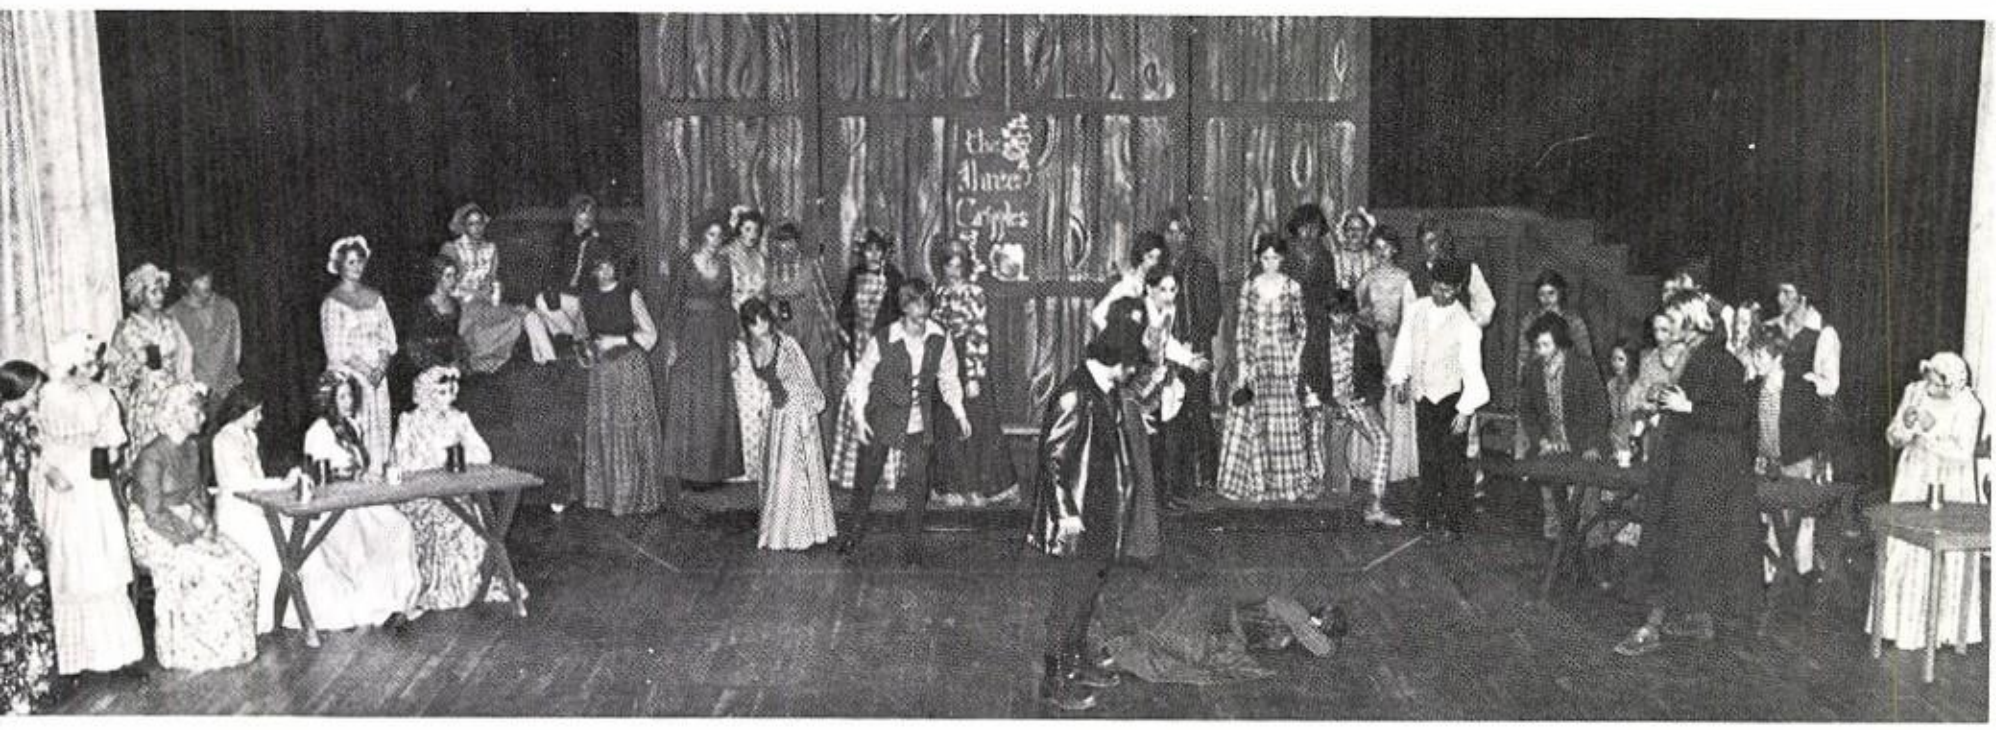
The dancers are an integral part of the musical "Oliver."





Mrs. Bedwin (Kim Thrash), Mr. Brownlow (John Watkins) and Dr. Grimwig (Mark Collier) discuss Oliver's future.

The song of the street vendors is a highlight of the production.



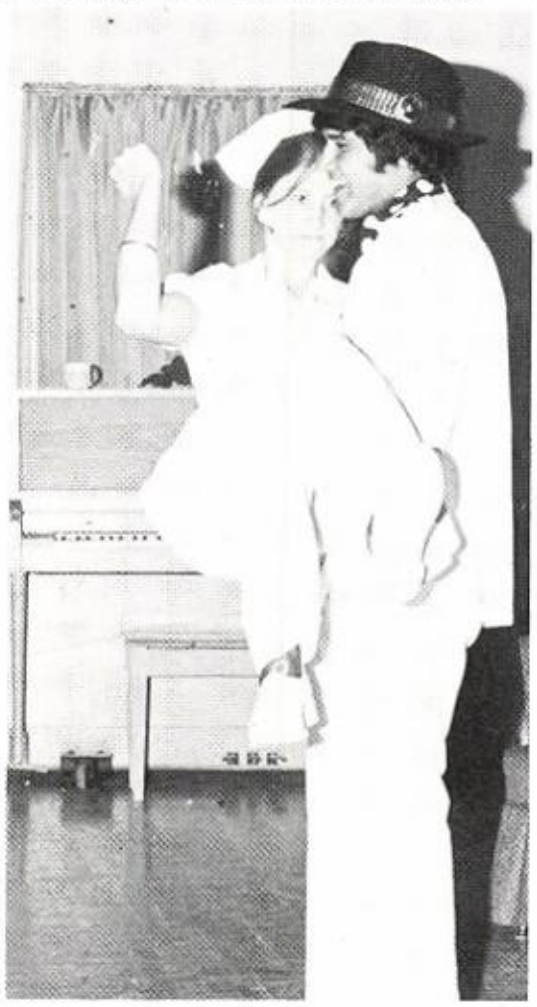
The townspeople and Fagin gasp as Bill Sikes knocks Nancy down.

"Man Who Came to Dinner" — CHS Three Act

An updated adaptation of "The Man Who Came to Dinner," a sophisticated comedy, wowed audiences on March 18-20. The dramatic presentation was part of the on-stage experience of Mr. Killingsworth's Drama I Class.

Sheridan Whiteside (Allen Shankles) fools everyone including Prof. Metz (Royal Brantley), Sarah (Colette Smith), Mrs. Stanley (Cheryl Brown), John (Kenny Basinger) and Maggie Cutler (Janet Malzahn).

John the Butler adds a comic touch.



Banjo (David Coronado) comforts Nurse Preen (Lori Phillips).

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley (Russell Killingsworth and Cheryl Brown) take Whiteside to task.

Harriet Stanley (Debbie Smith) reveals part of the past to Whiteside.

Maggie and Whiteside watch as Bert Jefferson (Jimmy Foil) complains to Dr. Bradley (Greg Taylor).

Deputies (Mark Jackson and Jerry Townsend) examine a prop.

Banjo shuts Lorraine in the sarcophagus.

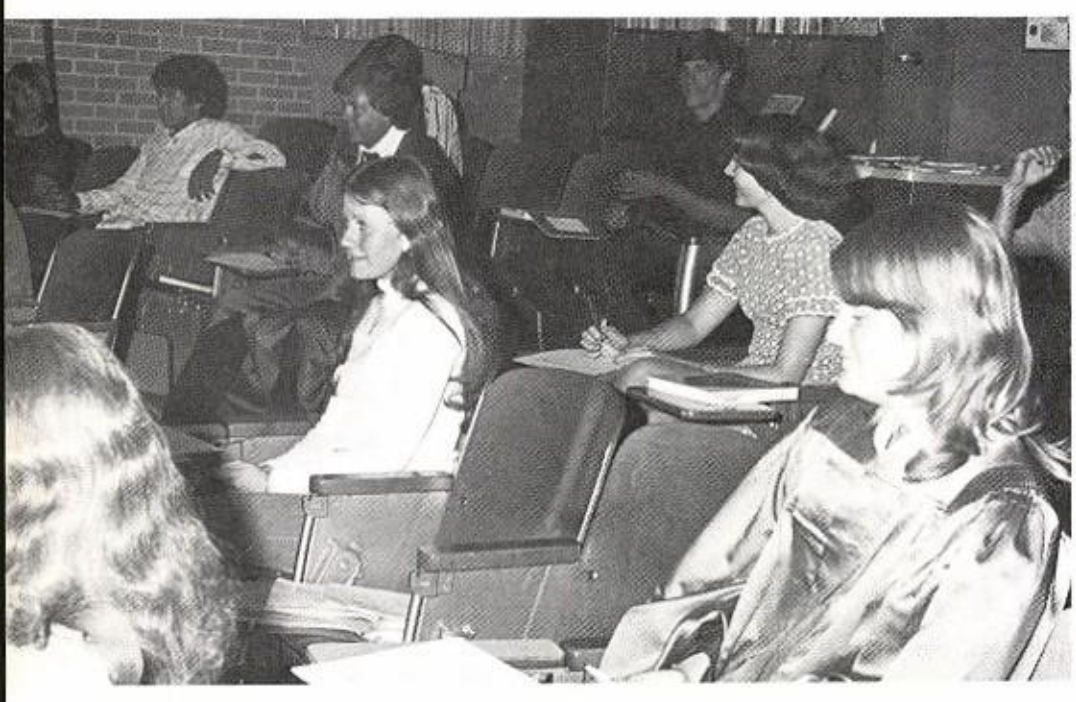
Lorraine Sheldon (Wendy Hunnicutt) makes a play for Bert Jefferson.

Beverly Carlton (Rick Mantooth) explains his position to Maggie and Whiteside.

Speech and Drama Classes Develop Talent

Mr. Killingsworth presents Russell Killingsworth, Janet Malzahn, Allen Shankles and Wendy Hunnicutt in a noontime dramatization of "Impromptu."

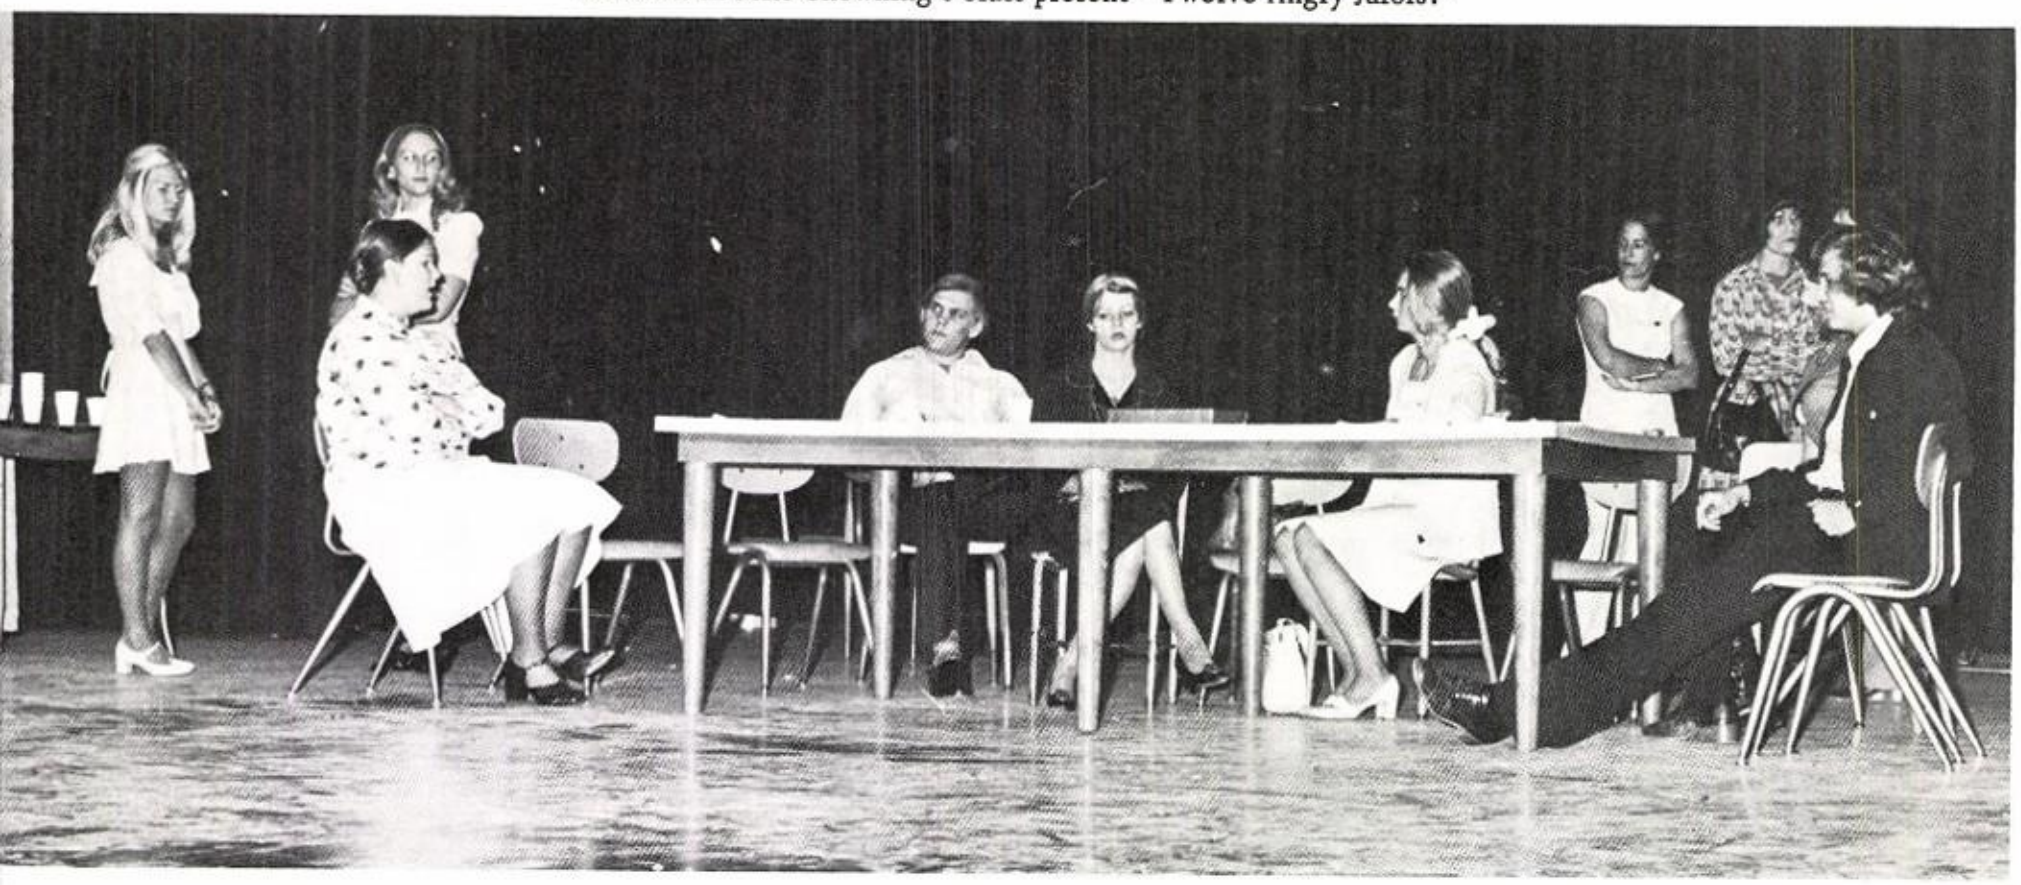
Debbie Smith as Dulcibella and Garre LaGrone as the King star in "The Ugly Duckling."



Sometimes Drama Class calls for serious note-taking.

Scot Purkeypile, Don Thompson, Garre LaGrone and David Madewell (on floor) appear in "Hello Out There."

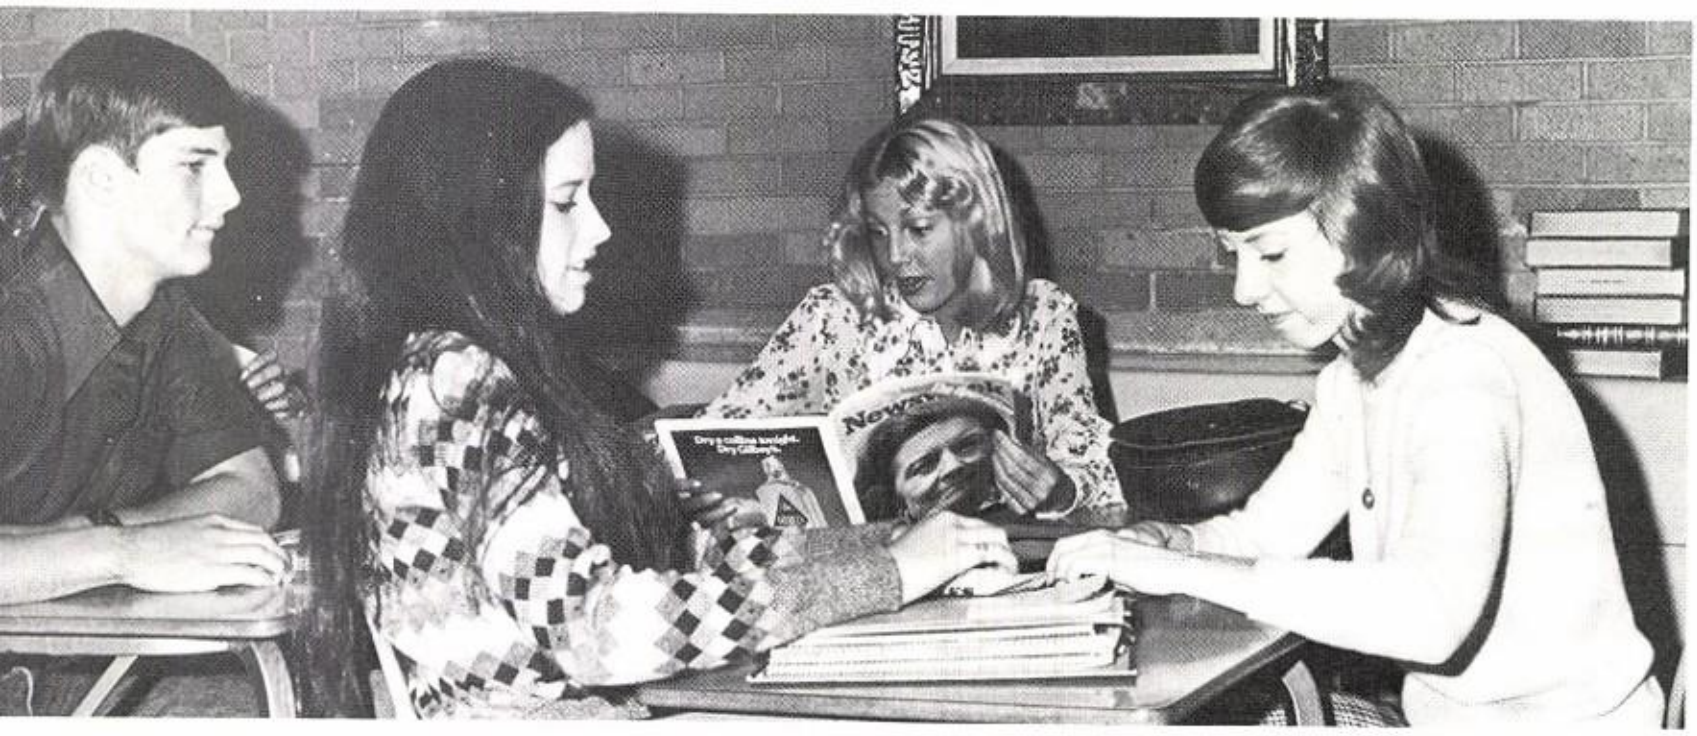
Students in Miss Chowning's class present "Twelve Angry Jurors."



Speech and Drama classes were taught by Miss Sara Hard, Miss Neva Chowning and Mr. Carroll Killingsworth.

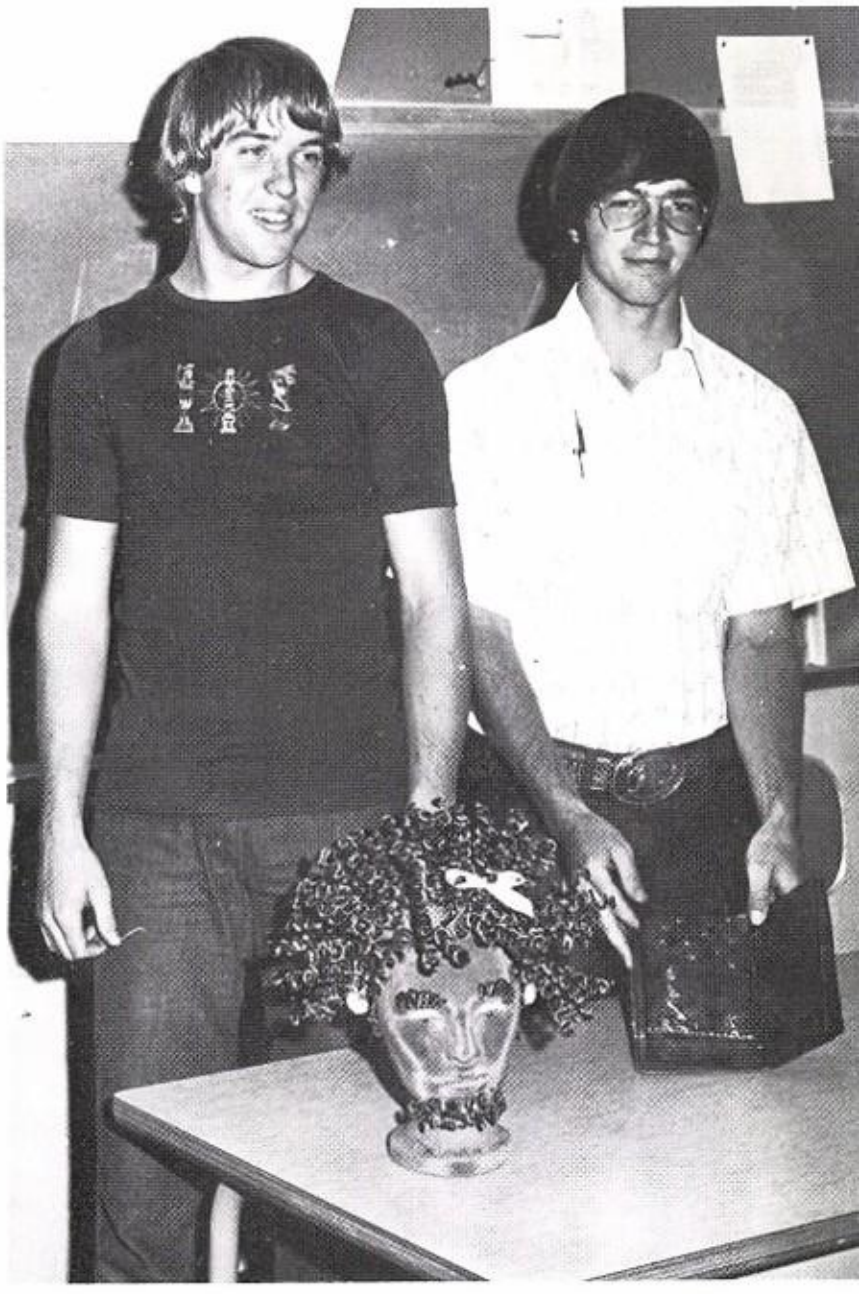
John Watkins won the opportunity to compete in Persuasive Speaking at the State UIL meet in May. He placed third at Austin.

Members of Thespians present "The Ugly Duckling" for the entertainment of junior high students.



Kenny Basinger, Cindy Gollihugh, Mary Beth Carroll and Miss Hard sift through current publications for speech material.

Steve Irlbeck and Wade Wilhelm display their projects from Science Fiction class.



Mrs. Mantooth's class visits the WT Library.

Literature of the American West and Research Techniques were added to the English curriculum.

Instructors in the English Department were Misses Gail Albracht and Sara Hard, Mesdames Opal Freeman, Sammye Mantooth, Robbie Manzer, D'Ann Moutos, Mary Jane Reeves, Jean Shepic, Jane Westberry, and Mr. Ricky Mantooth.

Twenty-four different English quarter courses were offered for student selection.

Jada Malone poses for Karma Denton, David Madewell and Jo Beth Price.

Music Department Keeps Eagles Singing

Music is enjoyed by all CHS Eagles and those students who make music have proved quite adept.

Mr. Tom Jennings directed the choirs and taught Music Theory and Musical Workshop.

Mr. J. W. King, Jr. directed the band and stage band assisted by Mr. Richard Bales.

Over one-fourth of the student body was involved in the Music Department.

Rosalie Galloway reads the music along with Mr. Jennings.

Terry Floyd, Rhonda Roberts, Ollie Sparkman, Arthur Speer, Chris Jones and Shawn Hall begin the day with a song.

Mr. King begins music early.

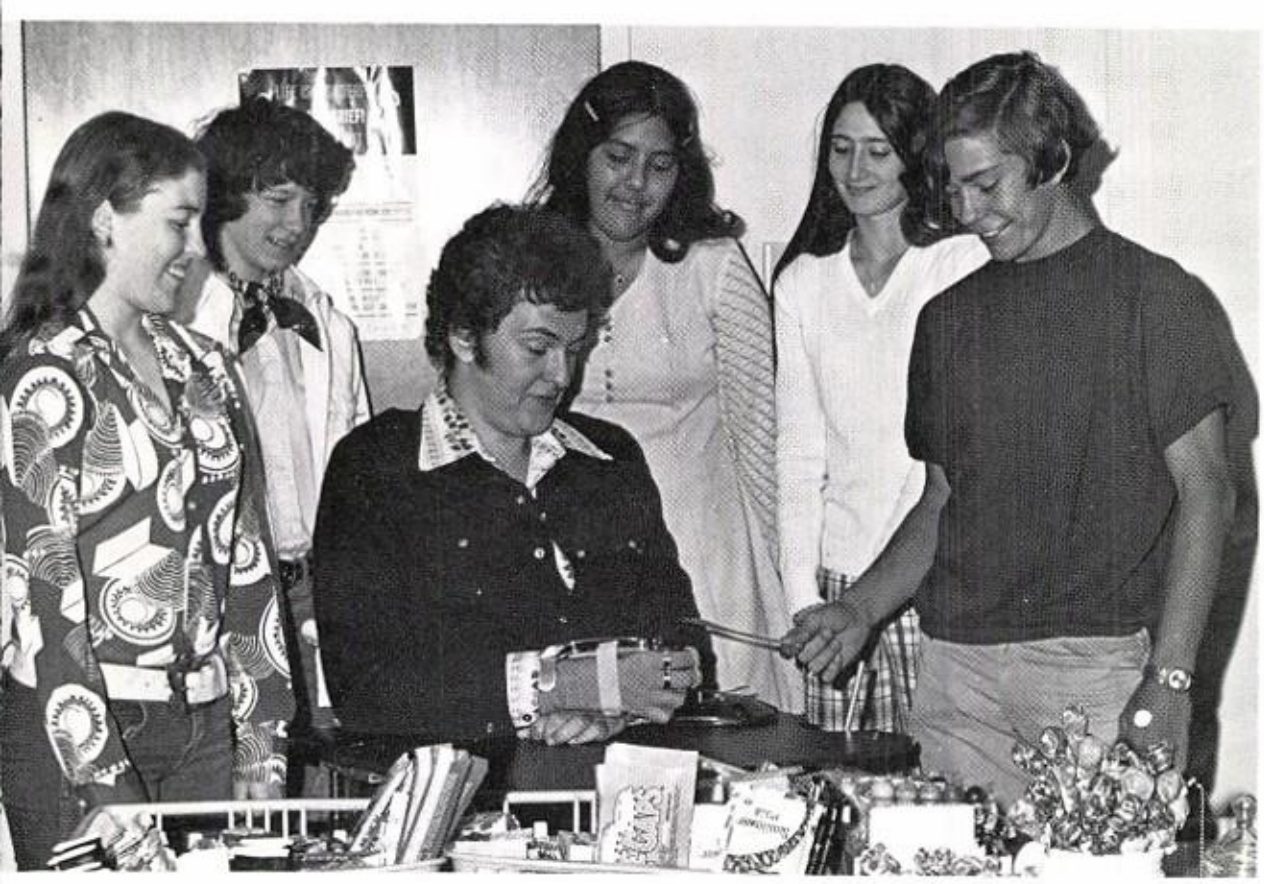
This line-up makes music to march tempo.

VAC Emphasizes Instruction, Experience

Danny Bible helps Mrs. Rapstine arrange candy for sale.

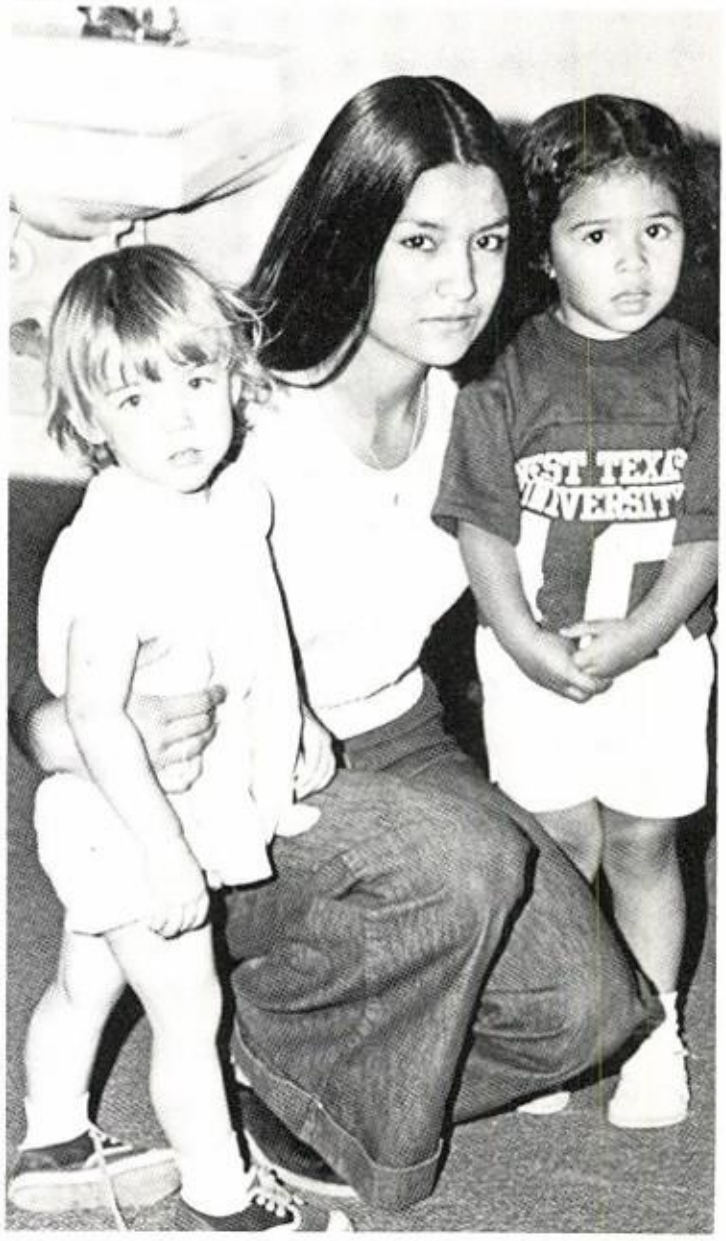
Vocational Adjustment Cooperative, under the direction and instruction of Mrs. Louise Rapstine, began to sell candy bars to raise funds for Kelly. However, the candy sales proved so popular with students and faculty that the class continued the project.

Students attended some classes with Mrs. Rapstine and many of the group worked part or full time as a vocational experience.



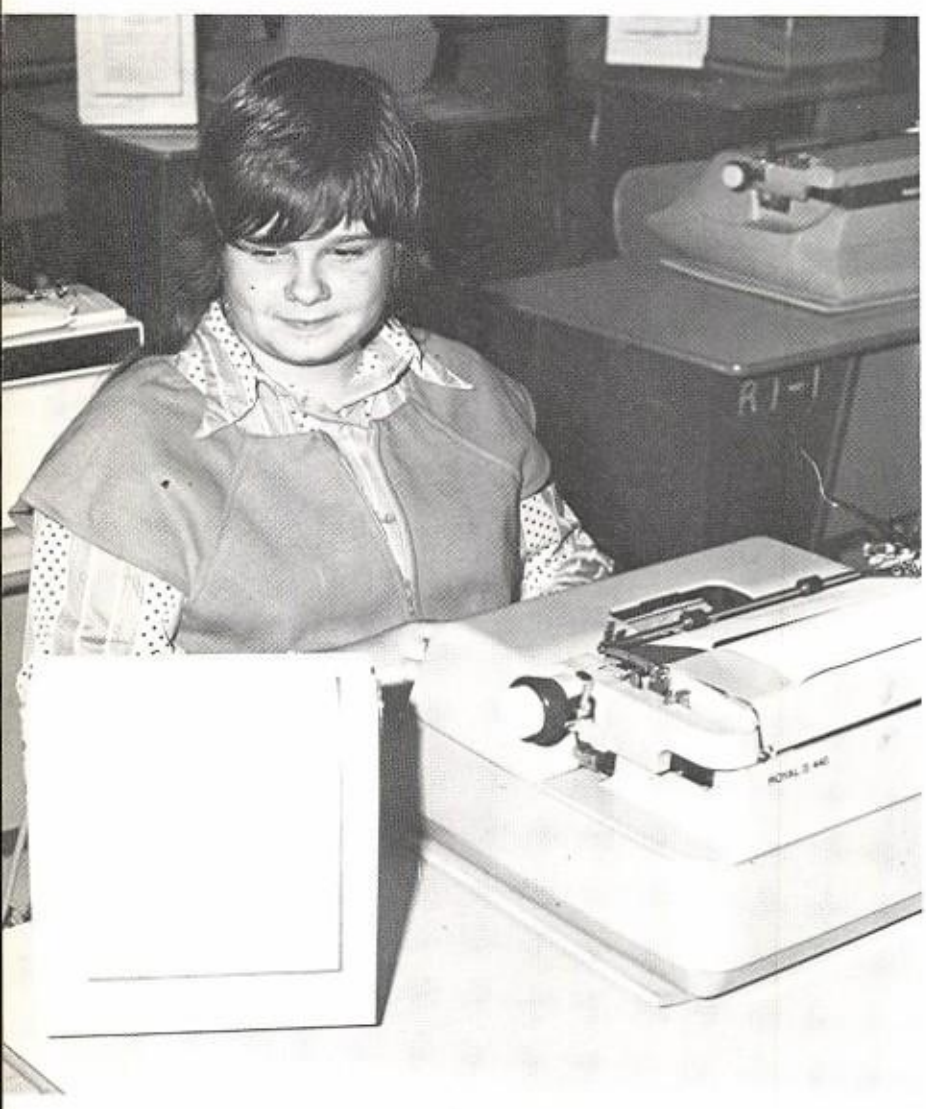
Kelly Forehand is surrounded by well-wishing VAC students Vickie Castleberry, Karen Hensley, Amelia Martinez, Debbie Barrett and Terry Houk.

Mary Quintana hugs two of her charges at a local nursery school.



Business Courses Teach Proficiency

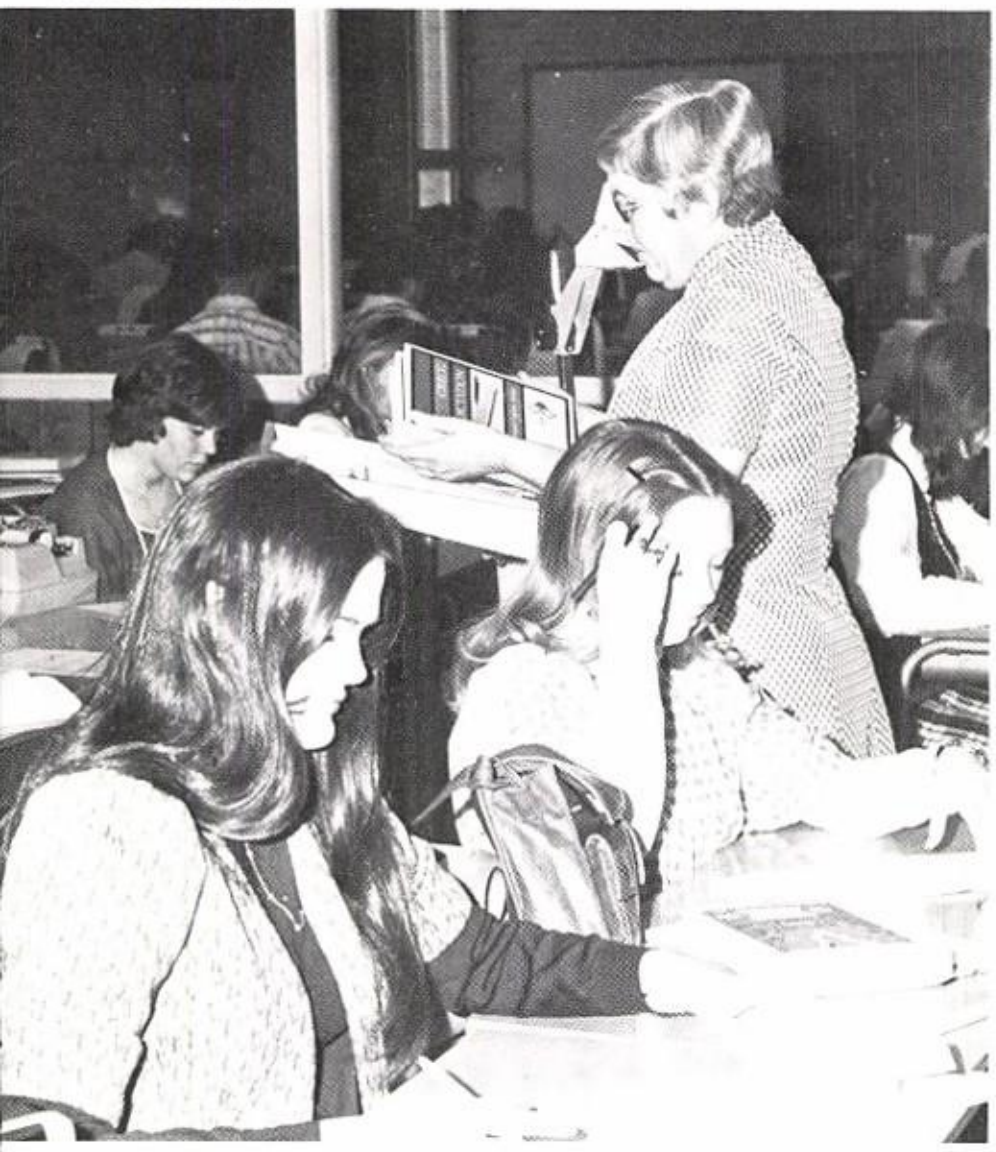
Sharla Wright is intent on those shorthand characters.



Leneta Davis carefully prepares a manuscript.

Karon Tompkins and Lee Ann Fletcher transcribe.

Beverly Smith and Brends Sellers carefully check their shorthand as Mrs. Brown reads.



Sonny Box types for speed and accuracy.

Brenda Plain and Karen Sommer strive to turn in neat and perfect papers.

Mrs. Galloway points out an error to Lester Johnson.

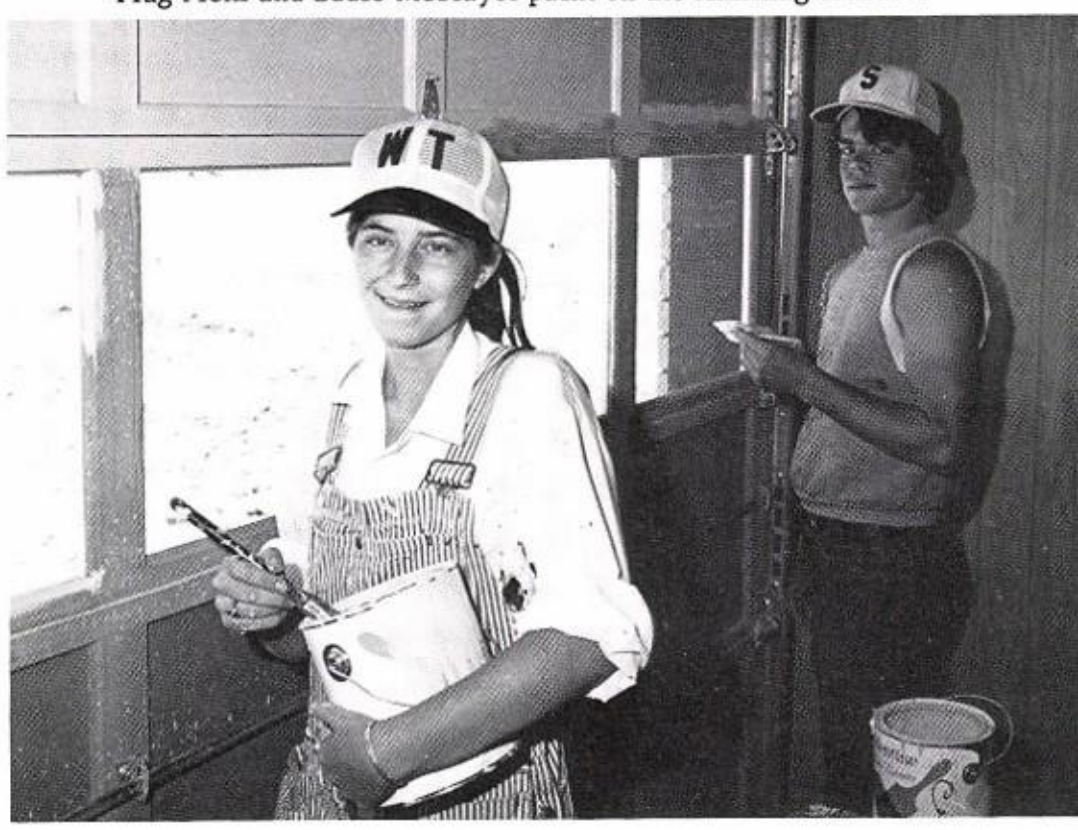
Students were taught the proficiencies for business in courses of Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Business Law, Business Machines, General Business, Personal Typing, and Typing I and II. Instructors were Mrs. Betty Brown, Mrs. Jean Galloway and Mrs. Barbara Luster.

Building Trades and Auto Mechanics

Paneling is easy for trained builders.

The Building Trades students, including one girl, under the direction and instruction of Mr. Harold Hagemeier built a house at Eleventh Street and Twelfth Avenue. The class also finished two portable classrooms for the school system.

Plug Piehl and Eddie McBrayer paint on the finishing touches.



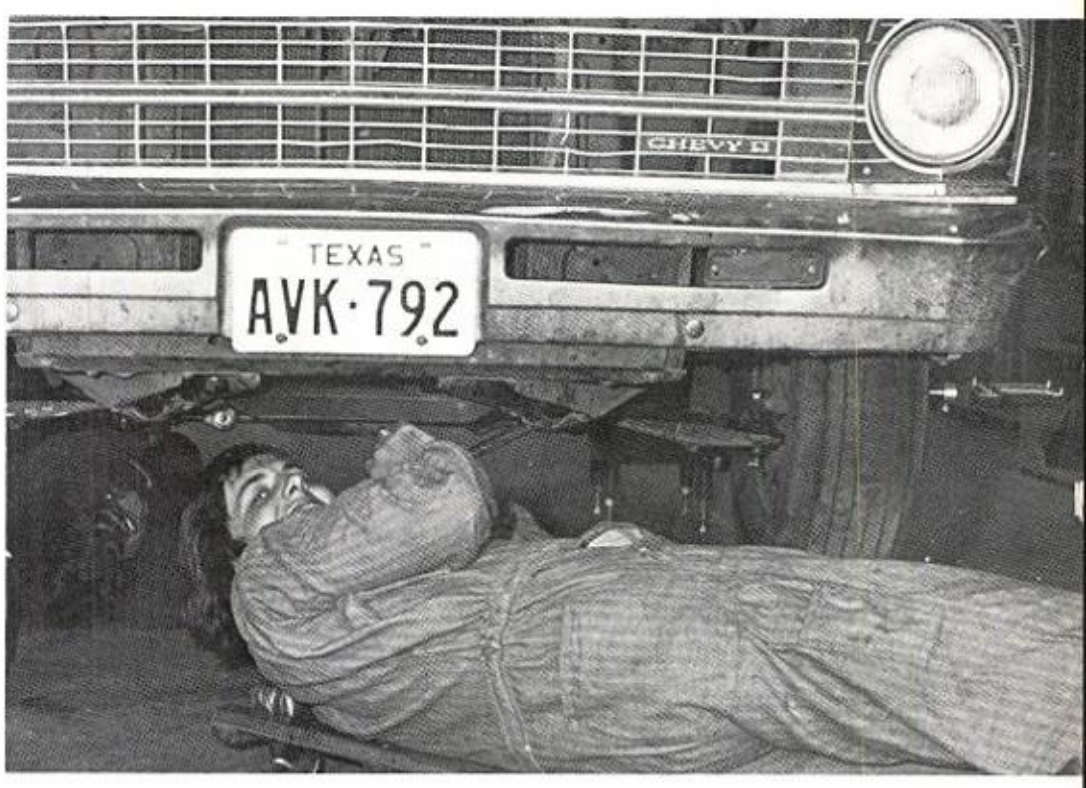
The class of student builders gets ready to raise the walls.

Give Practical Experience to Students

The Auto Mechanics Class, taught by Mr. Mickey Hathaway, prepared young men to repair and maintain automobiles.

The automatic transmissions entered by Mike Halsted and Phil Custer at the VICA contest in Amarillo qualified and were sent to the State VICA contest in Houston.

Paul Buckles tests a shock absorber.



Tom Conoley tightens a few bolts.

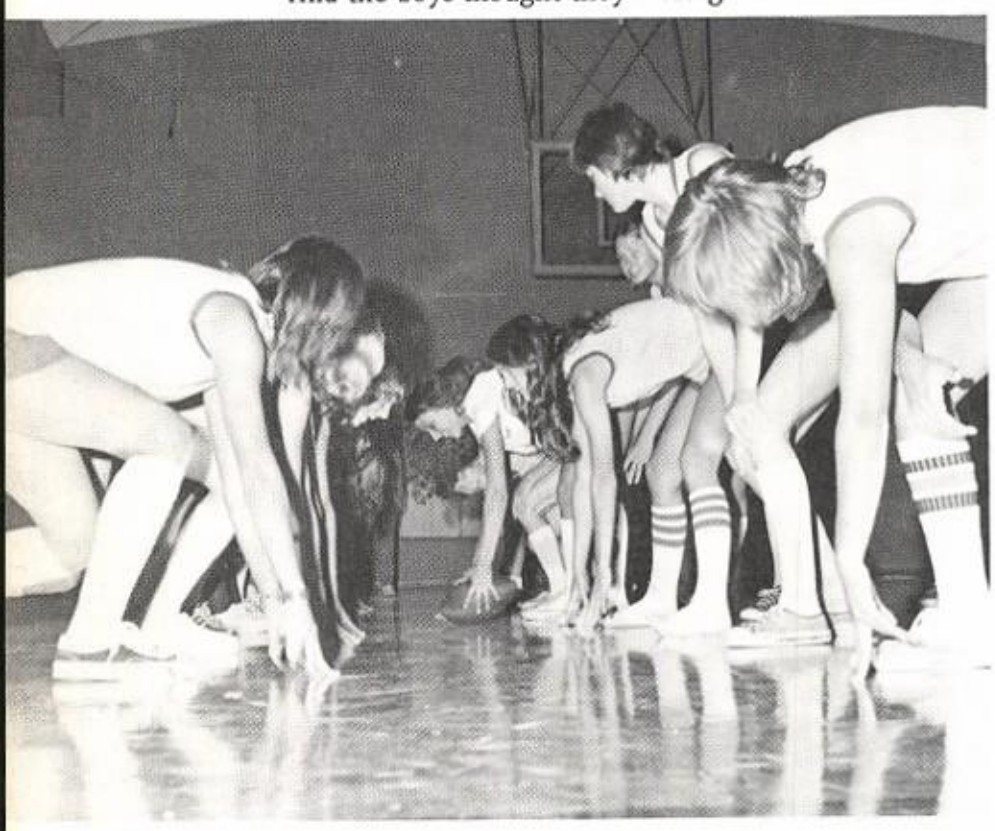
Richard Dillehay prepares to place a jack stand.

Keeping Fit Keeps Us In Harmony

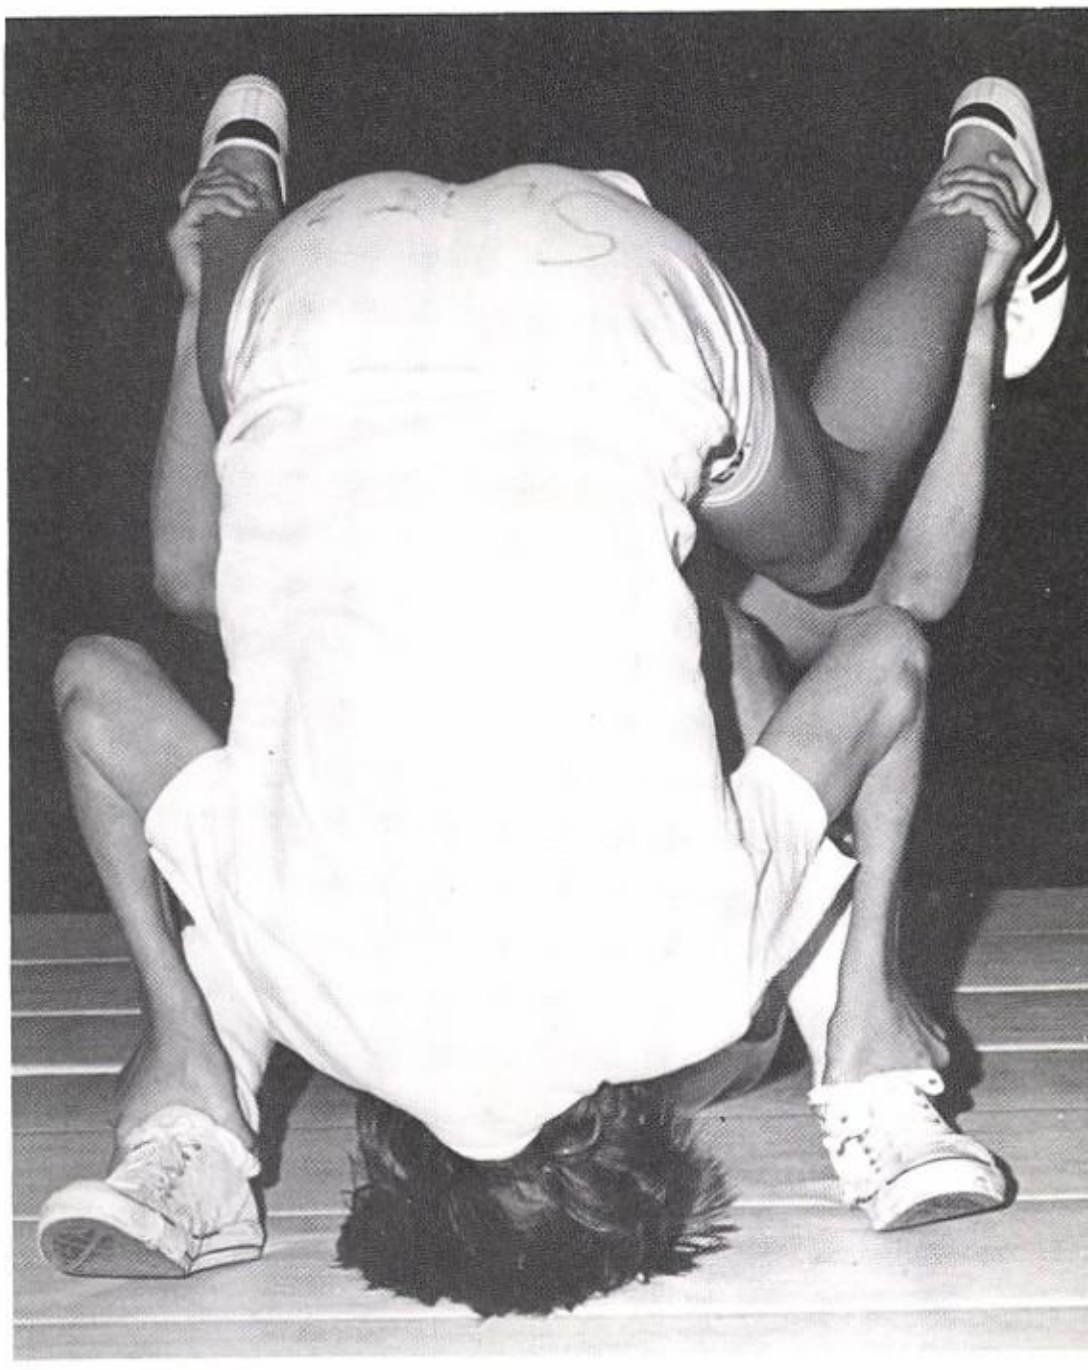
The physical education department provided for its participants such activities as archery, football, volleyball, trampoline, badminton, tennis, tumbling, gymnastics, baseball, and calisthenics.

Students developed fitness under the direction of Coach Ron Mills and Mrs. Lou Dawson.

And the boys thought they were good.



Bottoms Up.



First period gets everybody down.

P.E. class gets high.
Bird-swatters are Rodgie Whiteside and Chris Wieck.

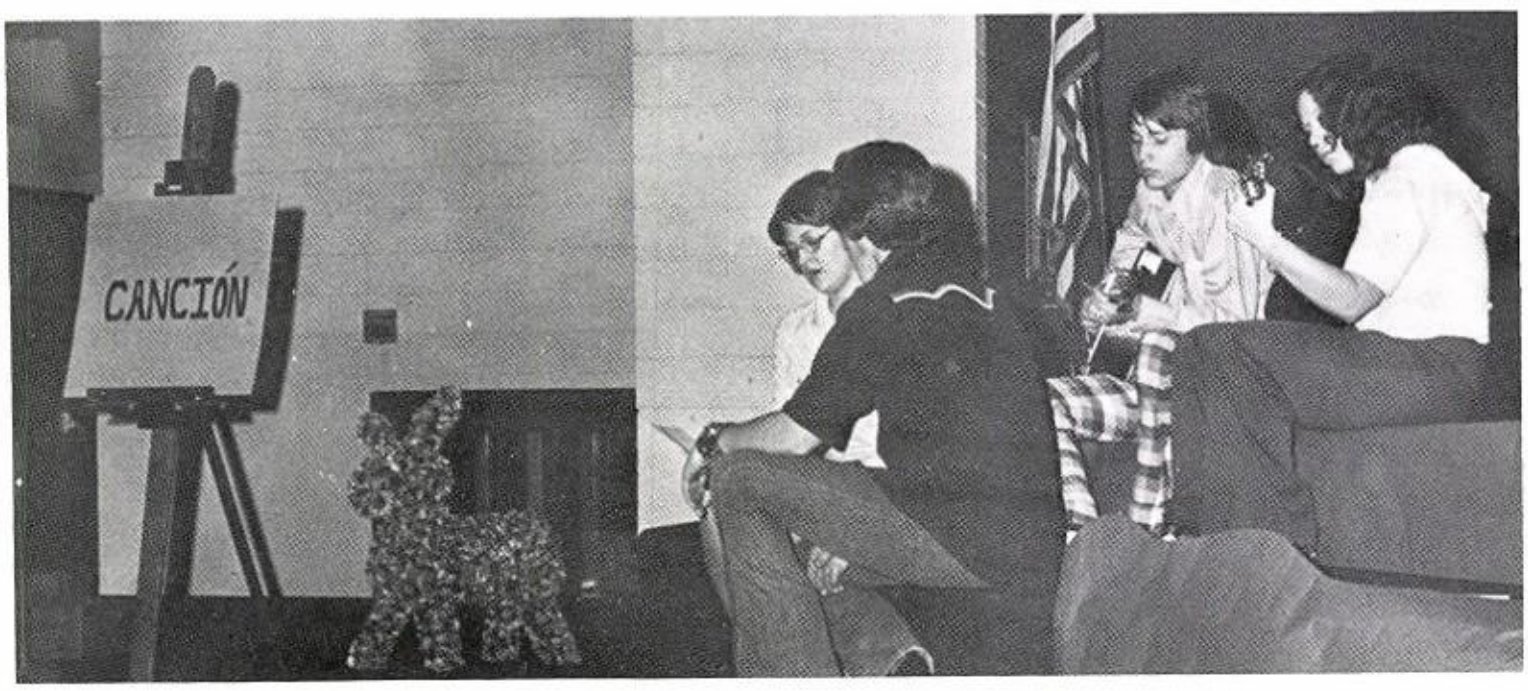
Modern Languages Reveal Other Cultures

Students enrolled in Spanish and French classes found interesting instruction from Mrs. Robbie Manzer and Mrs. Mary Jane Reeves. Some students attended forums on a variety of topics conducted at WTSU.

Lab and class work was enhanced with a presentation in foreign languages for freshmen at Canyon Junior High School.

Language students learn to recognize and speak Spanish and French in the lab.

Mexican native festivals were presented for final exams. Cruz Luna, Arthur Speer, Mrs. Manzer, Charles Gibson and Jim Slack enjoy the fruit of a harvest dance.



Debbie Jeter, Jim Lathrum, Mark Murry and Criste Bonifield sing and play for the freshman class at the junior high.

A delegation of persons from France visited Mrs. Reeves' French II class and gave the students an opportunity to converse.

Sarah Hicks and Kim Bowers seem to enjoy their performance at the junior high.

Societé Honoraire de Francáis and El Aquilla Chapter Sociedad Honoraria Hispánica were formed to honor outstanding foreign language students.

Students are eligible after the second quarter of their second year of Spanish or French.

Journalism Classes Explore Mass Media

Forty students enrolled in Journalism classes concerned themselves with the many facets of the mass media.

Beginning with analyses of newspapers and finishing with photo-journalism and photography, future journalists explored styles and kinds of writing, propaganda techniques, headlines, humor, advertising and other aspects of journalistic output.

Mrs. Jean Shepic was the instructor.

Reba Self searches for an example.

Scissors and glue are "musts."

Photography students discuss backgrounds and light exposure with Mrs. Shepic.

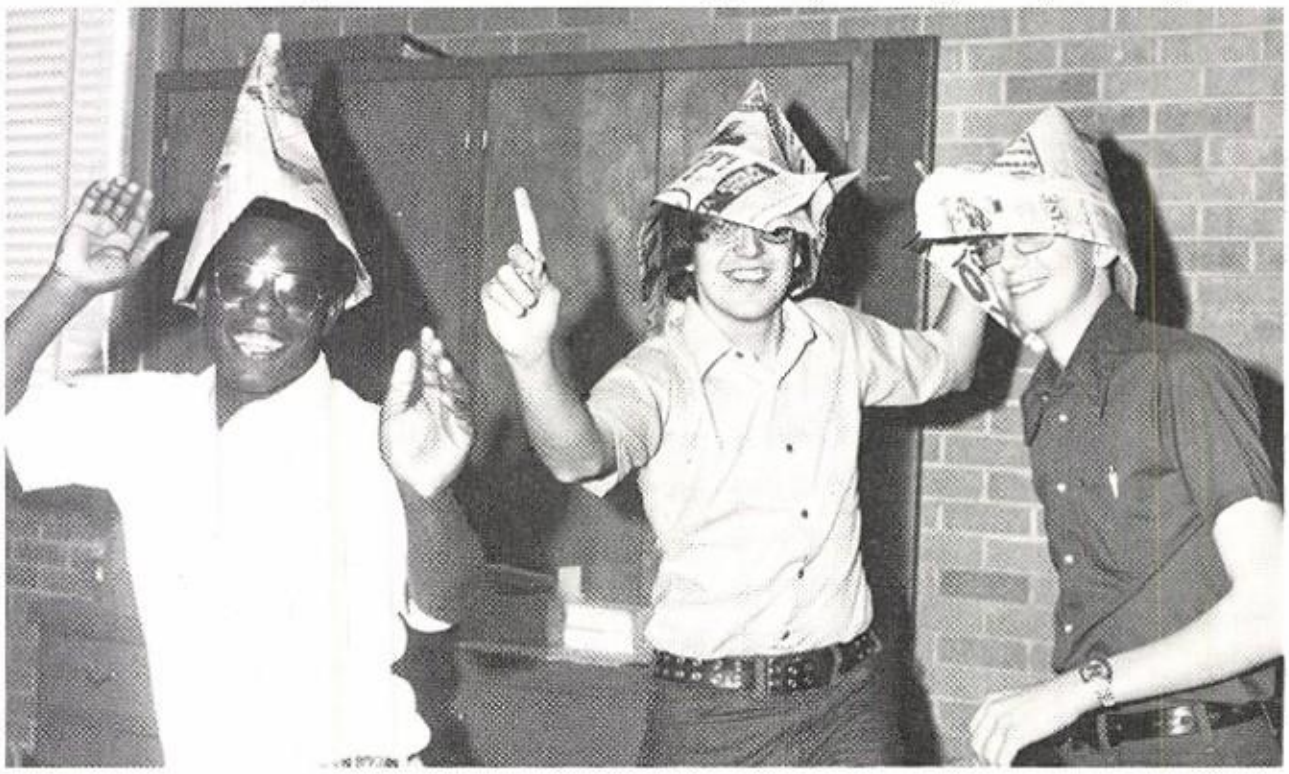
Journalism students use lots and lots of newspapers.

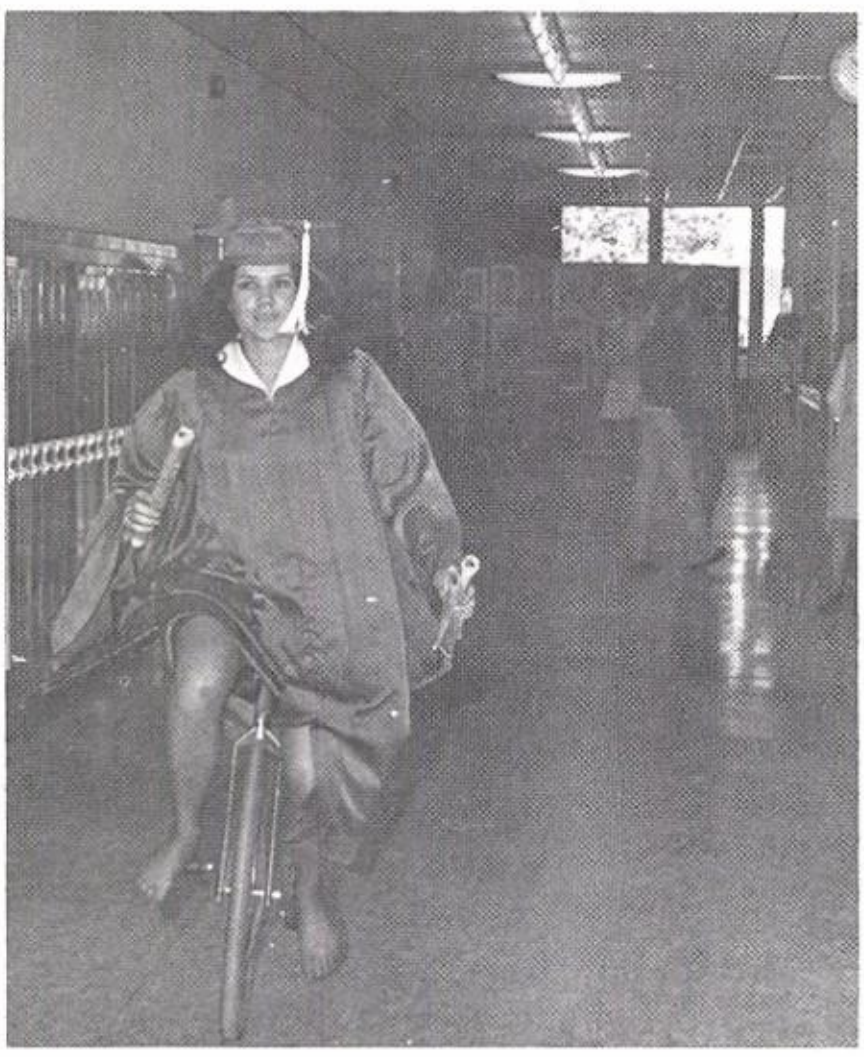
Newspaper Staff Reports CHS Happenings

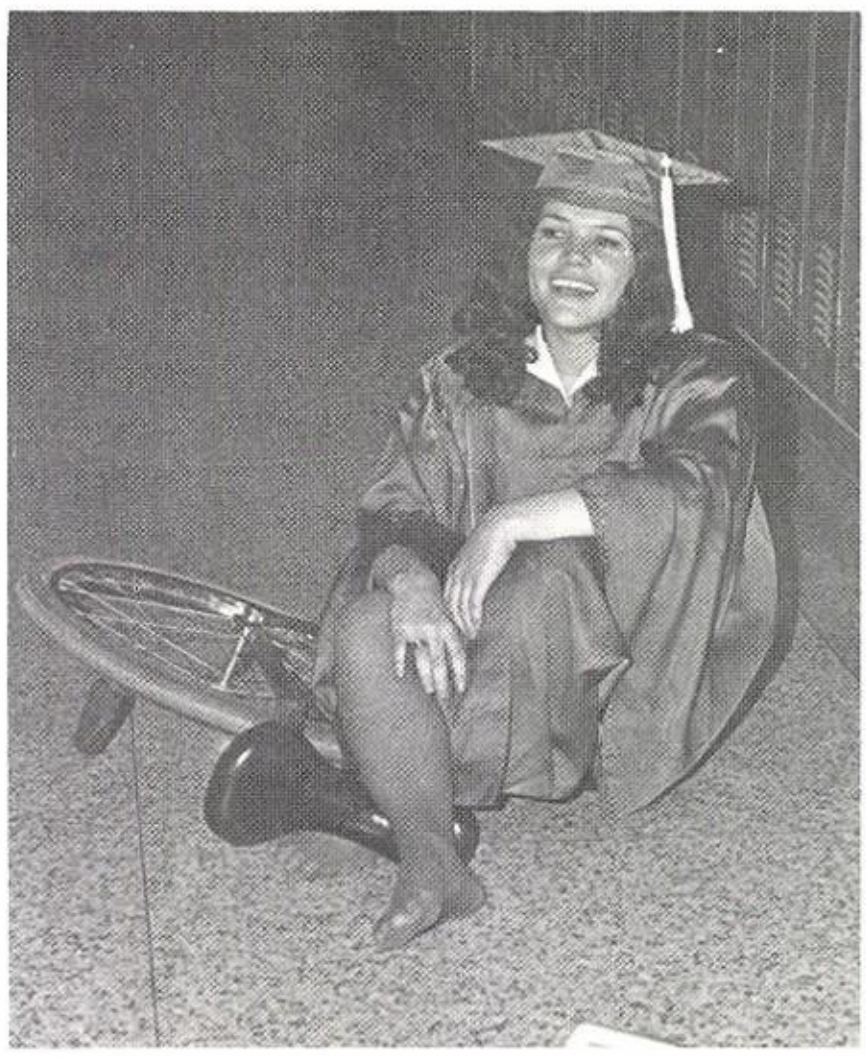
Kathy McCormick displays First Place trophy she earned in Regional AAA Headline Writing at Odessa.

Due to a limited budget and the inflation spiral, the CHS newspaper staff published only seven issues. Randy Breitling edited the school paper with Terri Reid as associate editor. Mrs. Jean Shepic was advisor to the EAGLE'S TALE staff.

Defenders of the printed word are Charles Haley, Randy Breitling and Bryan Young.







Jada Malone, delivering THE EAGLE'S TALE on Senior Day, ends in a spill.

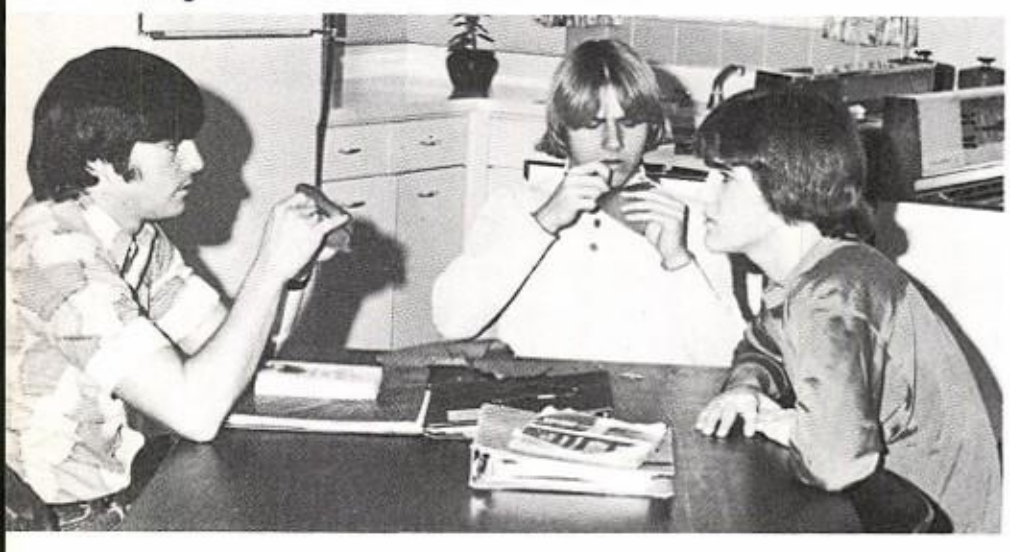
Vocational Ag and Home Ec Offer Practicality

Much of a person's success in life is measured in one's ability to care for himself and those he loves. Homemaking classes are geared to teach ''survival'' through instruction in housing, clothing, food, domestic relations and money management.

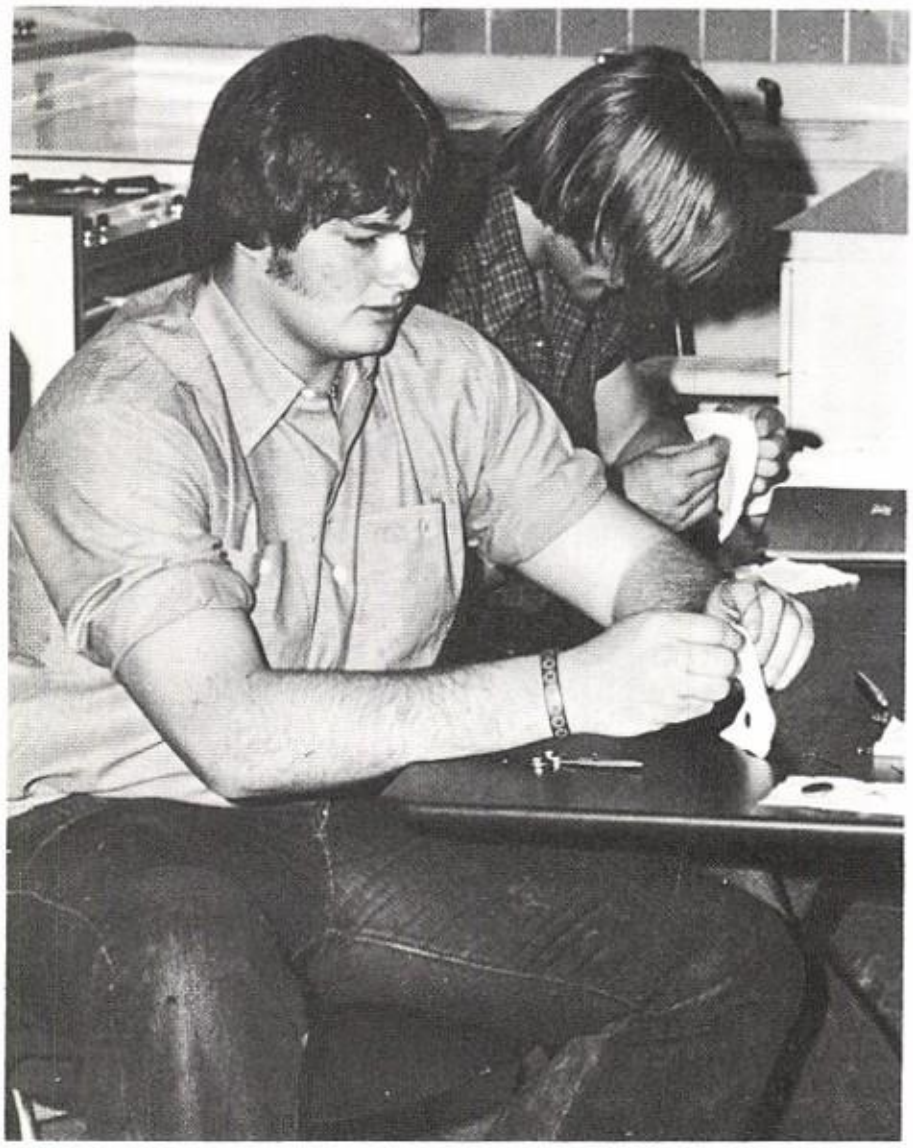
Both boys and girls were enrolled in the classes of Mrs. Janet Fincher and Mrs. Cathy Cameron.

Jeff Wilson, Brad Boswell and Danny Rea try their hands at the culinary art.

Don Collins, Brad Boswell and Jeff Wilson concentrate on their sewing.



Mrs. Fincher suggests a better way to hold the fabric to Russell Scott and Jeff Cates.

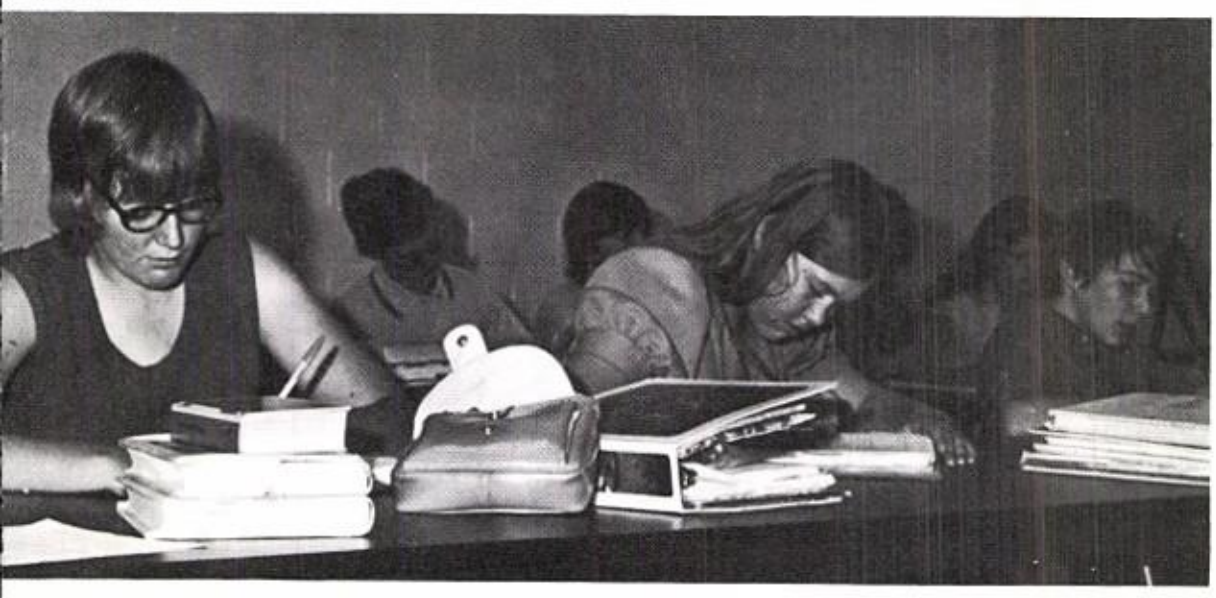


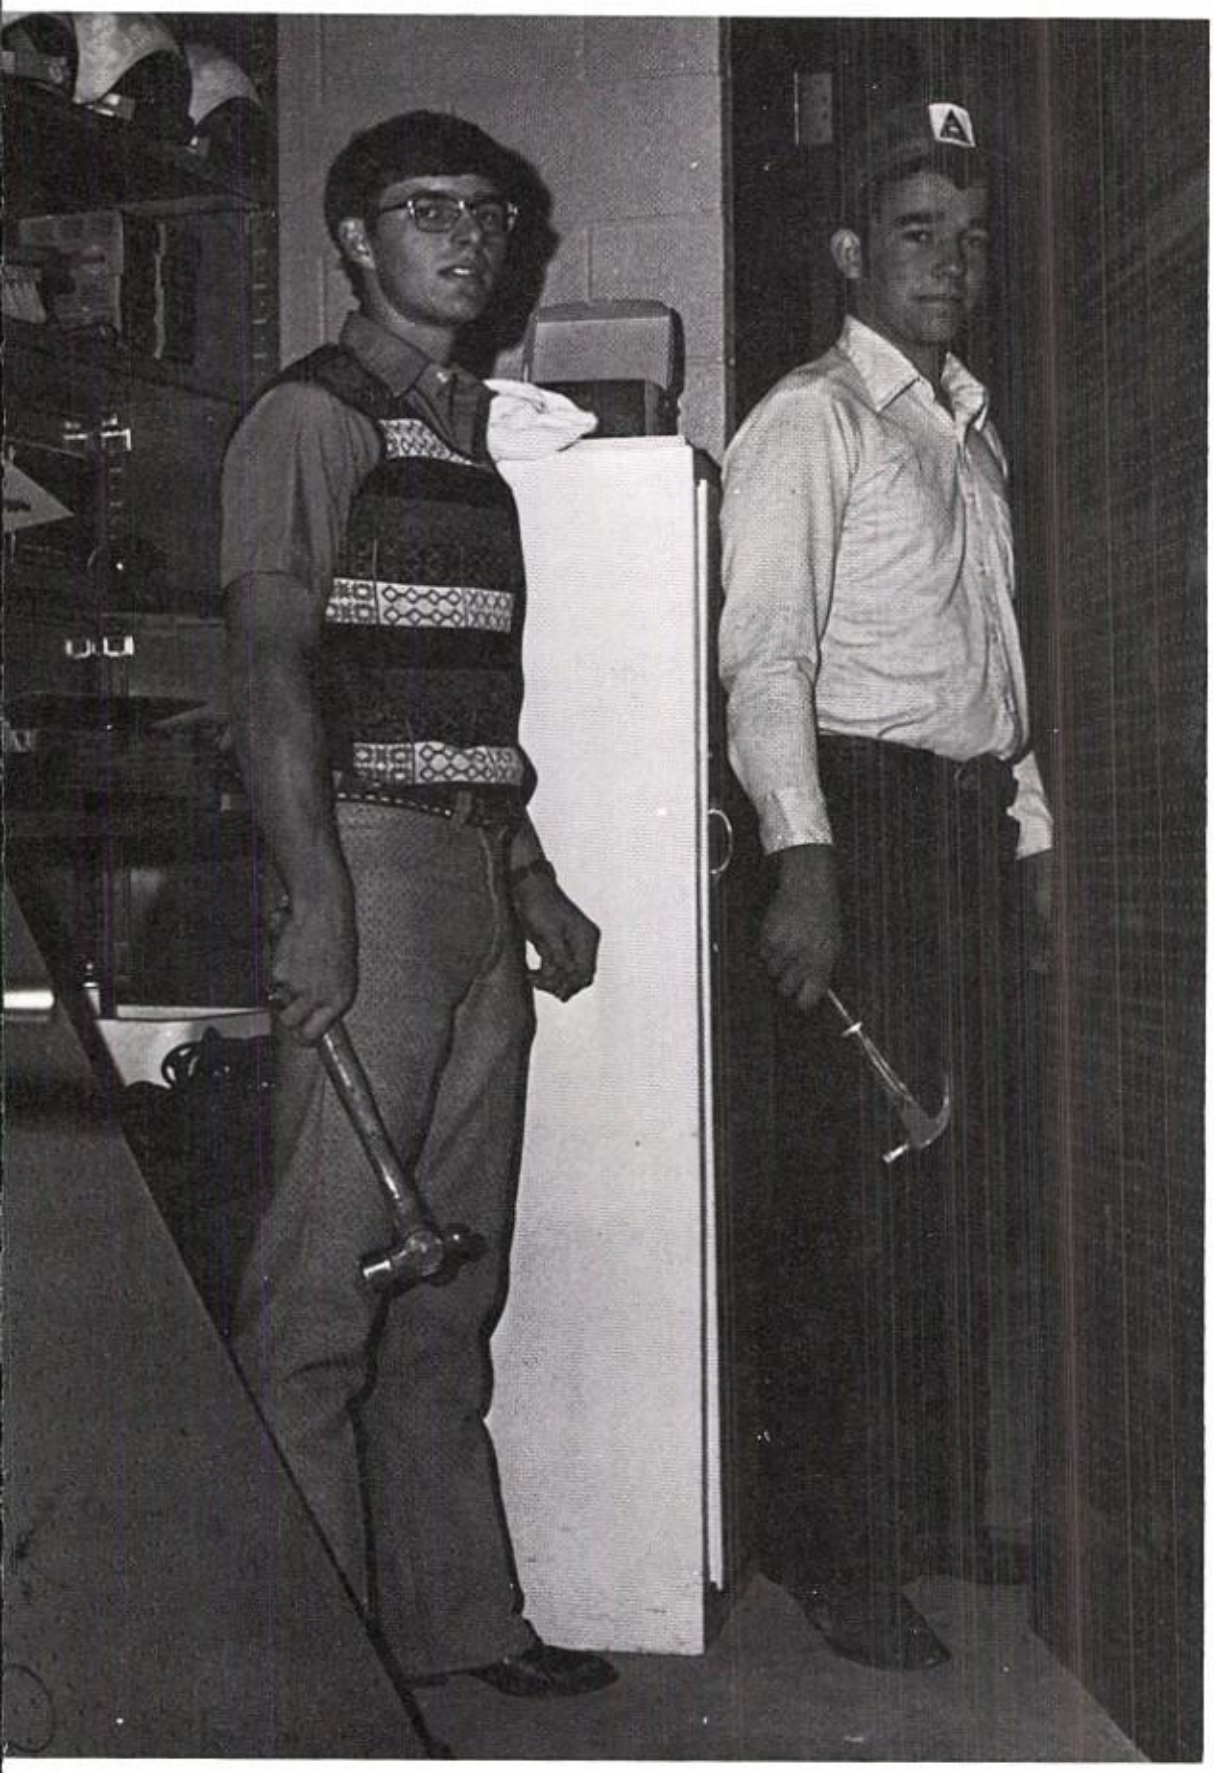
Bob Lee demonstrates that even the strong can master the gentle arts.

Vocational Agriculture classes had new instructors. Messrs. Lee Moore, Ronnie Hargrove and Richard Porter taught Vocational Ag I, II and III, Feedlot Management and Ag Cooperative.

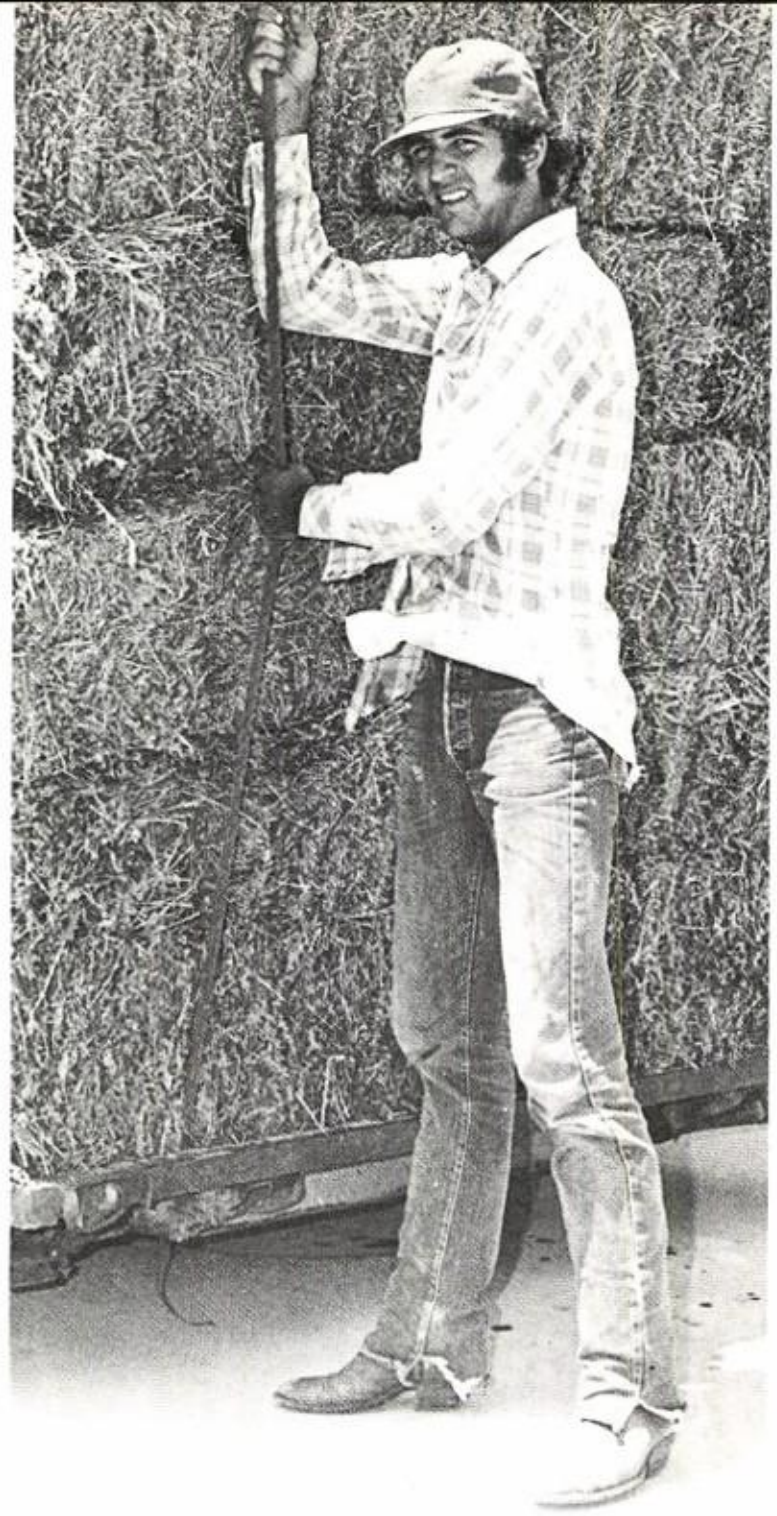
The department produced a fine wheat crop and outstanding livestock.

Brenda Johnson, Karen Richie and Lee Miller notice that Vocational Ag requires some bookwork too.

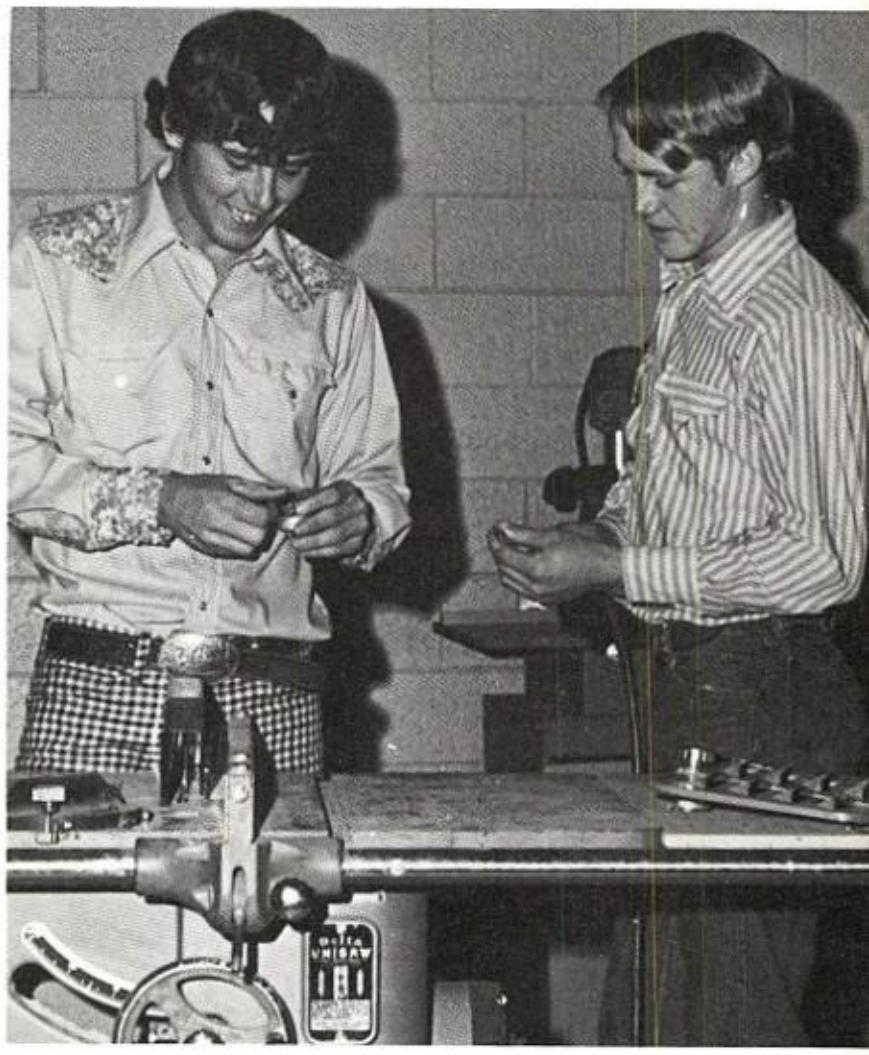




Eddie Wilson and Randy Roberts put some finishing touches on new storage rooms in the Ag building.



Phil Podzemny finds plenty of action on his Ag Coop job.



Mike Fortenberry and Hoyt Turner work on a project in the Ag shop.

Office Education Improves Career Outlook

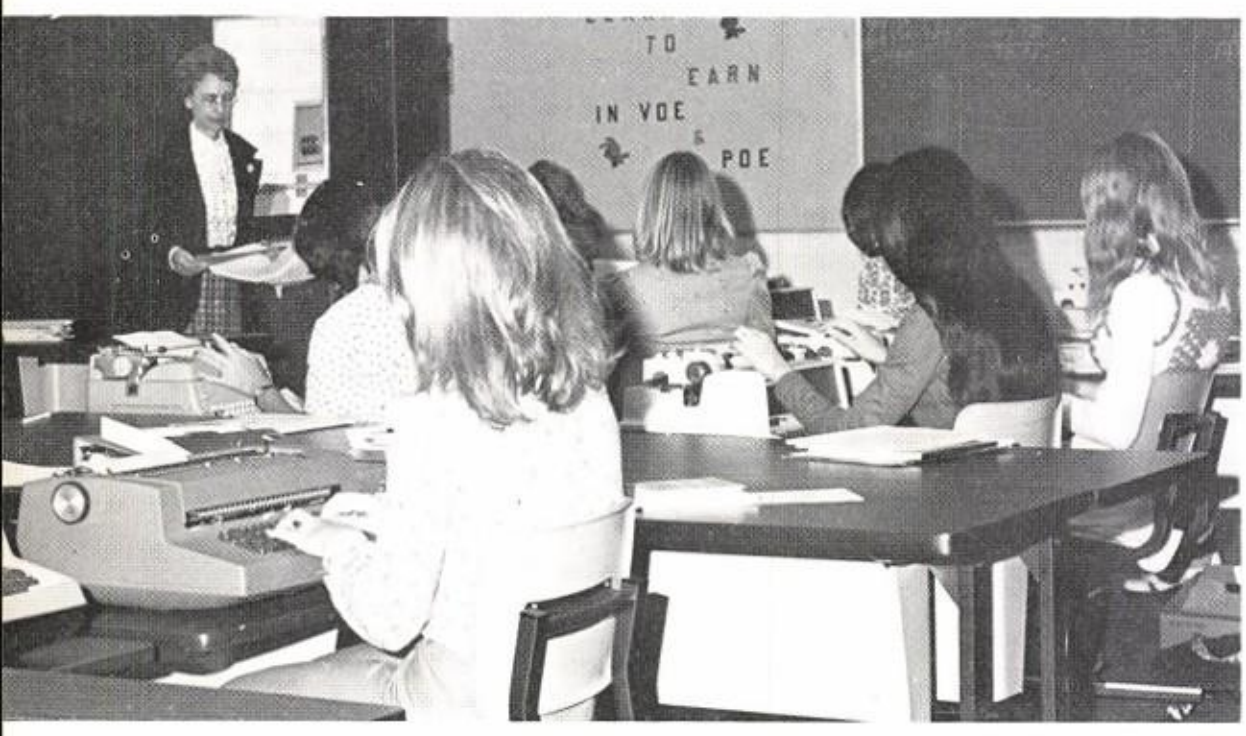
Mrs. Georgia Lee helped students set up a model corporation in VOE to acquaint them with a corporate business situation.

Vocational Office Education consisted of two classes: the Cooperative Office Education class of seniors, who worked one-half a day, and Pre-Employment Office Education, a lab experience for juniors.

Linda Whipple, Janet Wilhelm and Brenda Turner work on business methods.

Jeanne Hager finds typing an essential art.

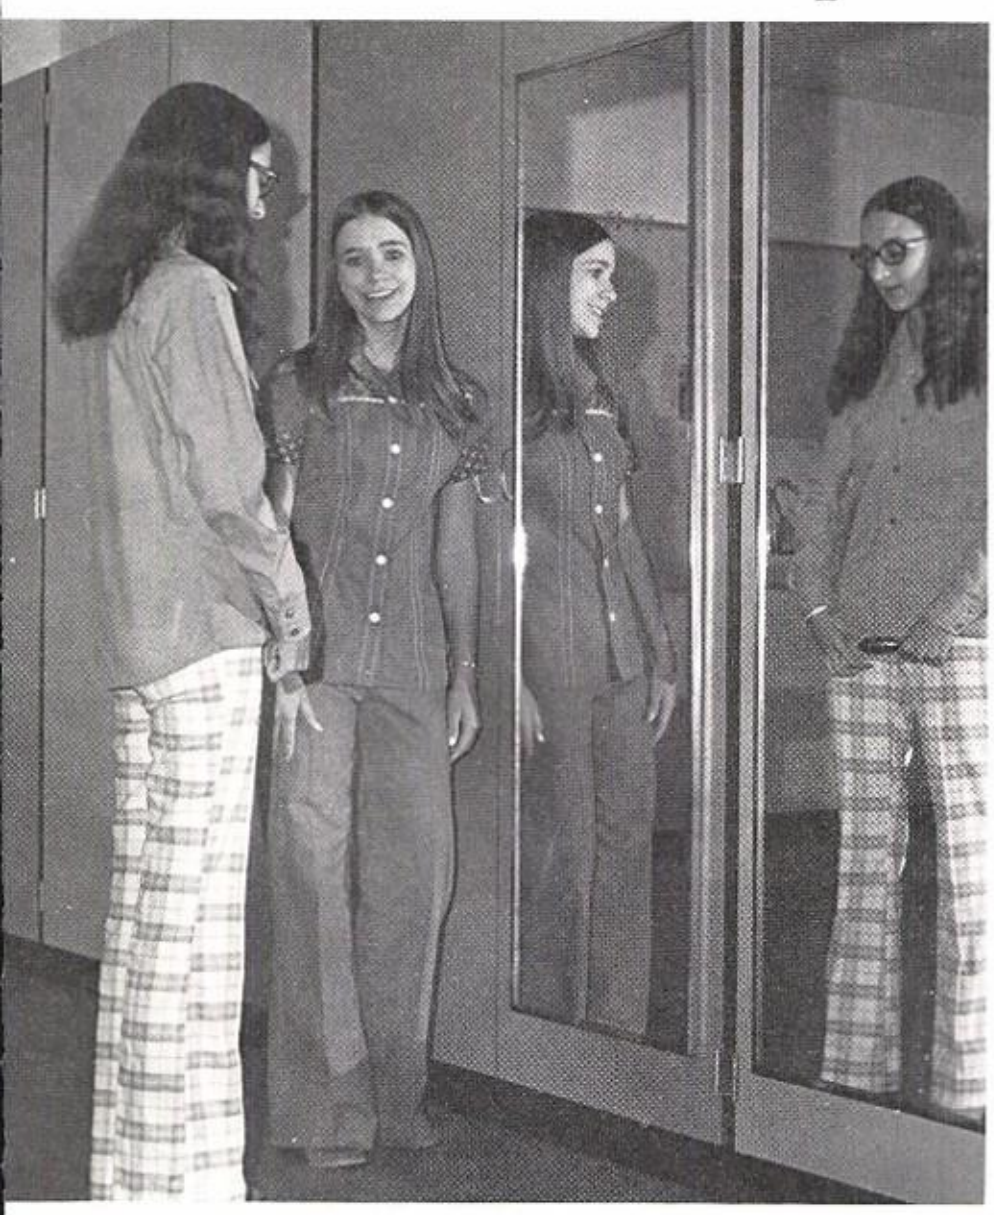
Cynthia Aragon and Jeanne Hager discover the conveniences of the electronic calculator.



Mrs. Lee gives detailed instruction to the class.

Sue Land learns about duplication.

Home Ec Coop Class in New Quarters



Home Economics Cooperative Education class moved into the new vocational building with carpeted and mirrored classroom and office space for Miss Janet Sargent.

Emphasis for the junior and senior students, each of whom held a job for one-half a day, was on consumer problems, business management, grooming and applying for jobs, income tax and information on occupations related to home economy.

Miss Sargent and Cindy Johnston admire the new HECE classroom.

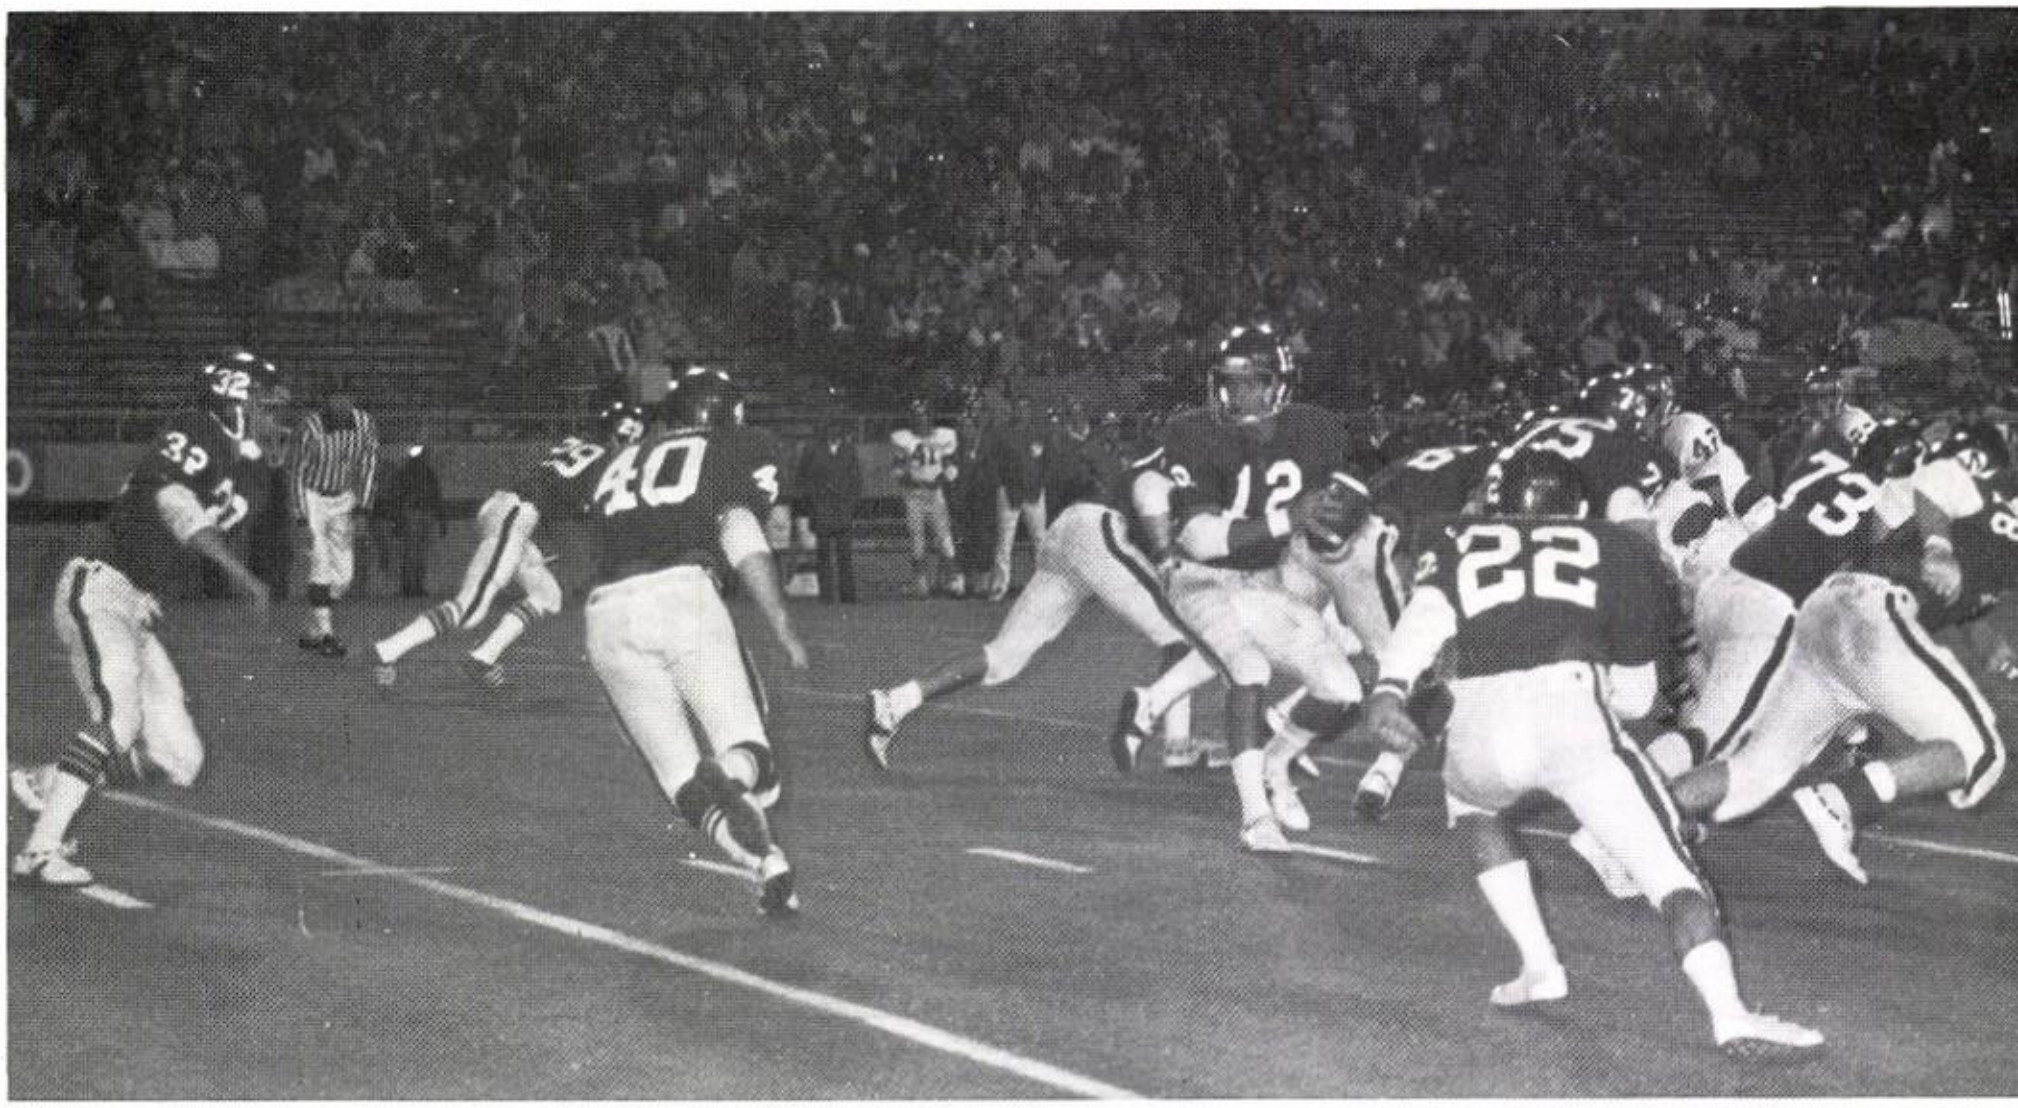
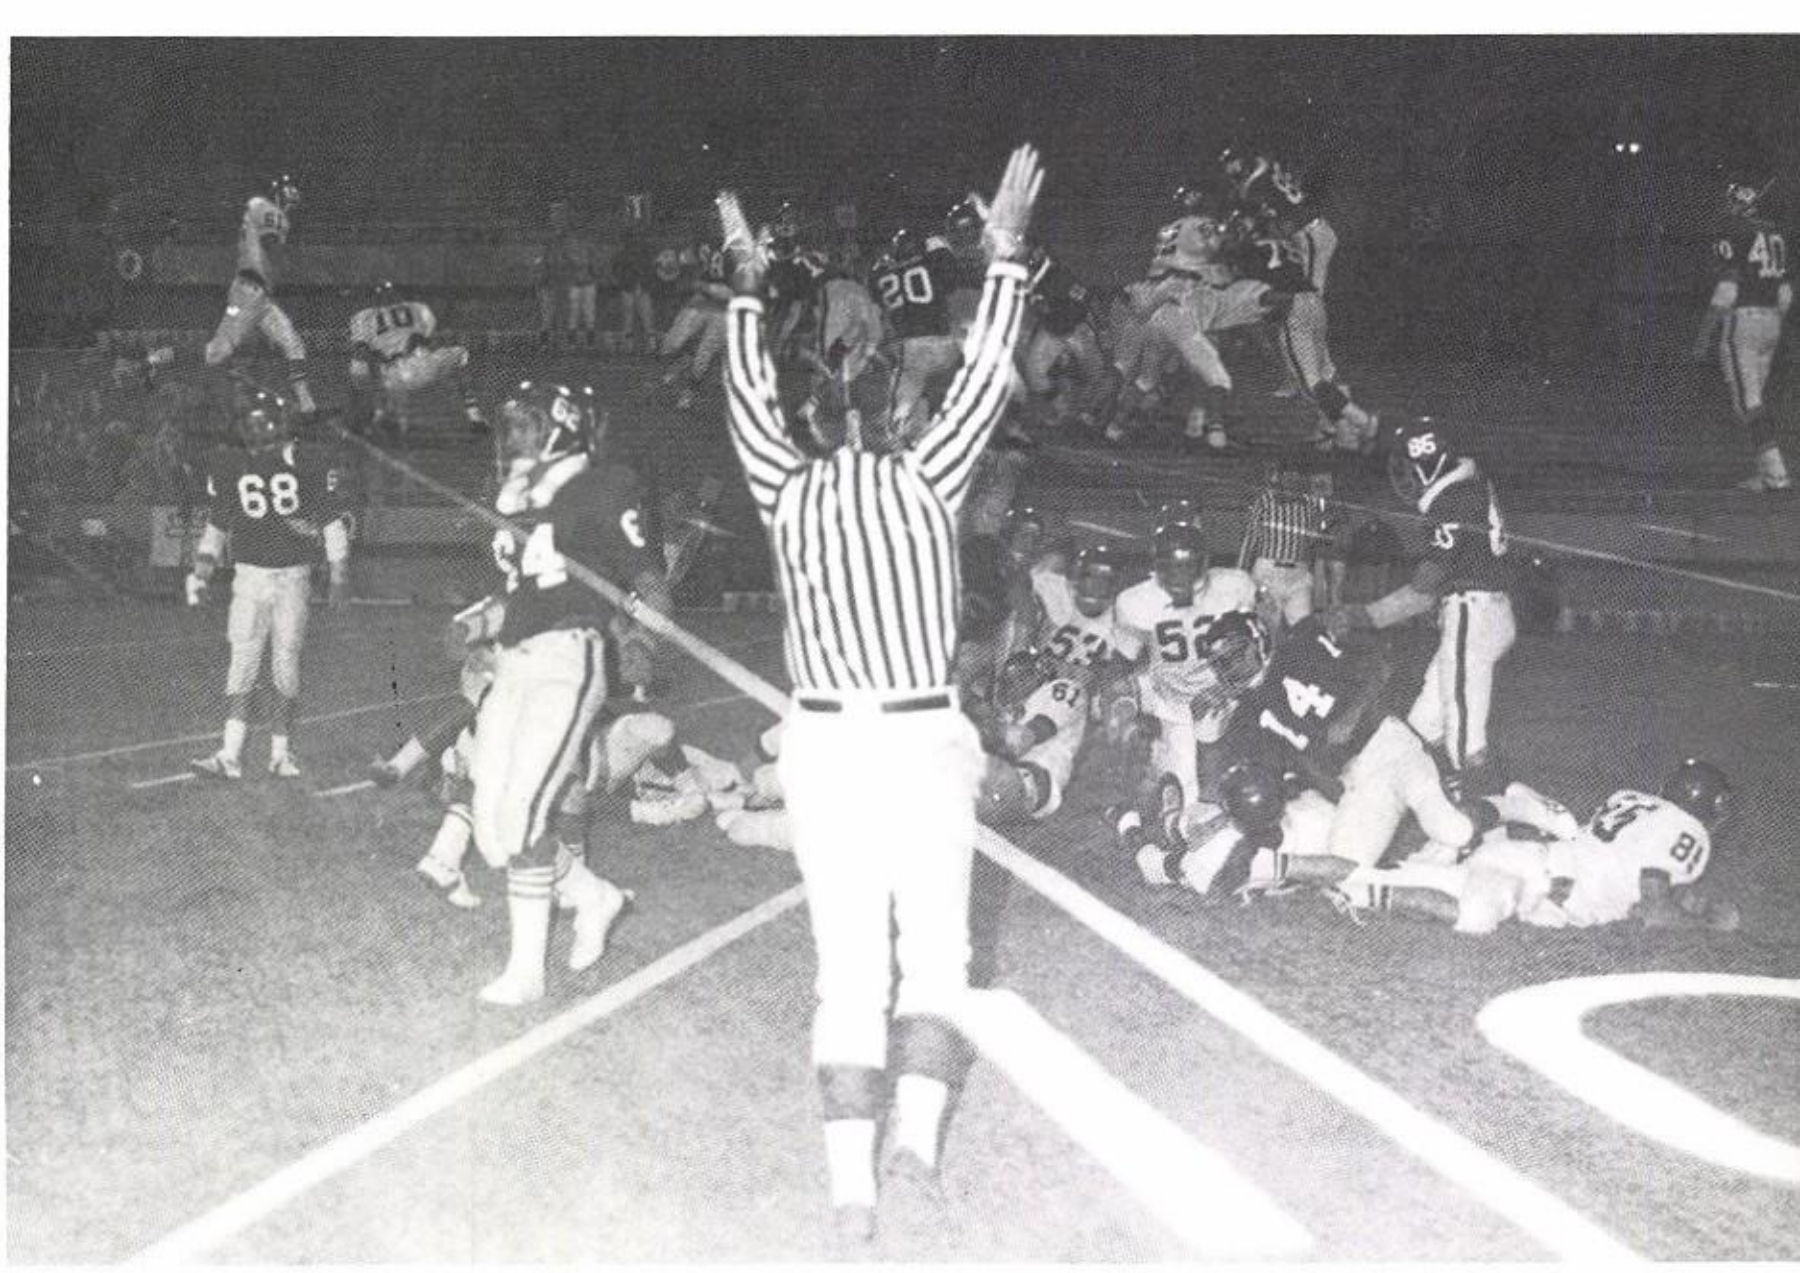
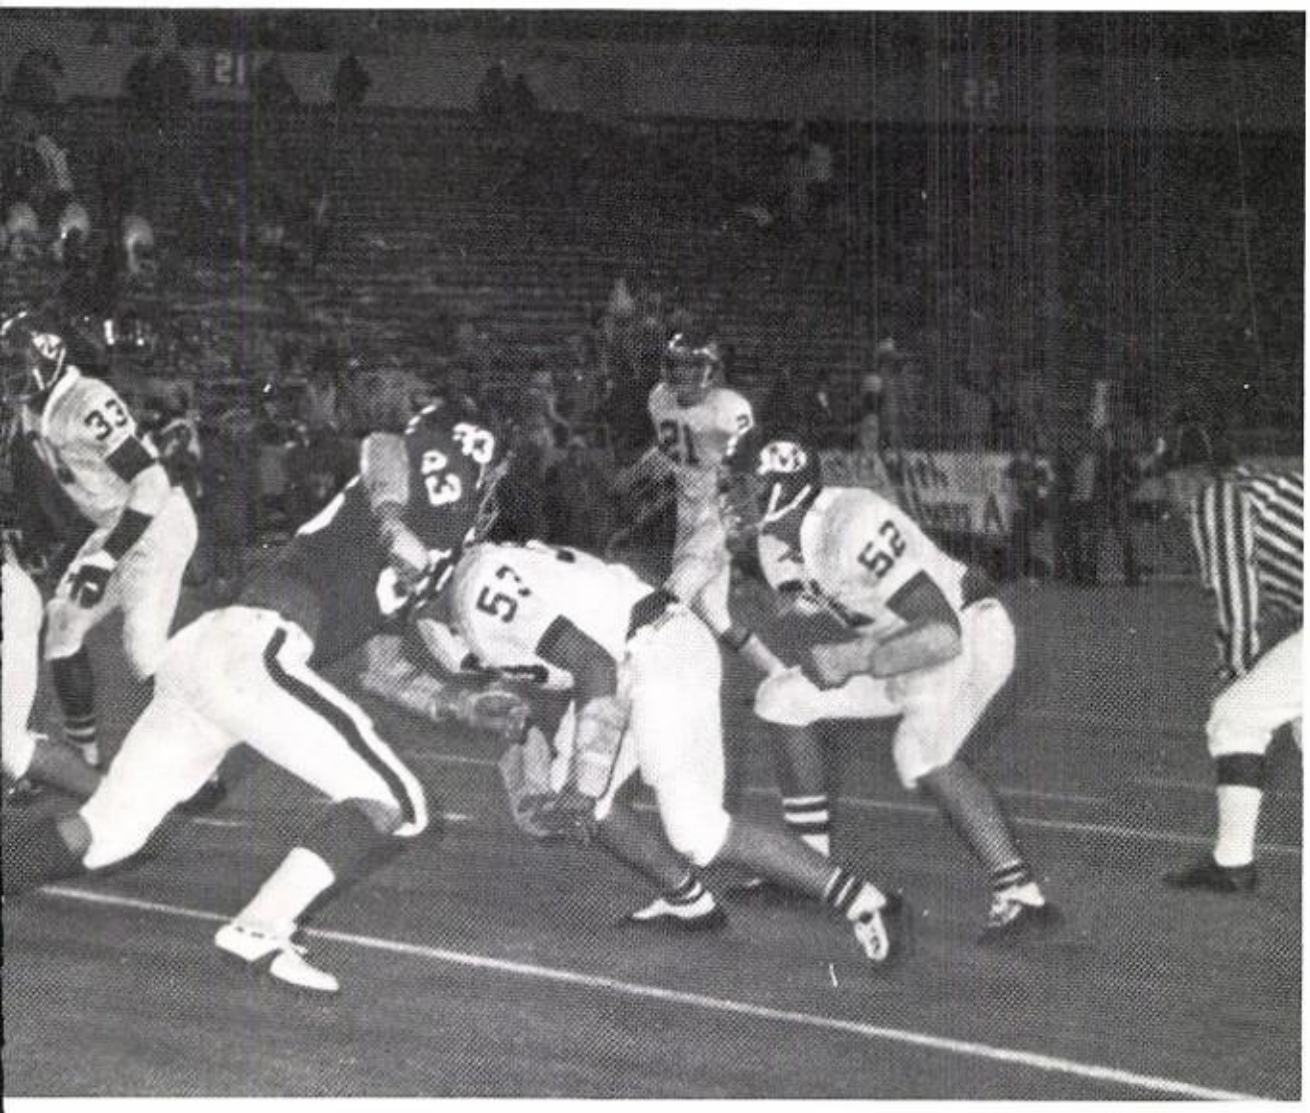
Sherie Detten, Outstanding FHA member, and Sherry Evans, High Point FHA member, plan FHA activities.

Eagles Enjoy Taste of Victory





The Eagles score!



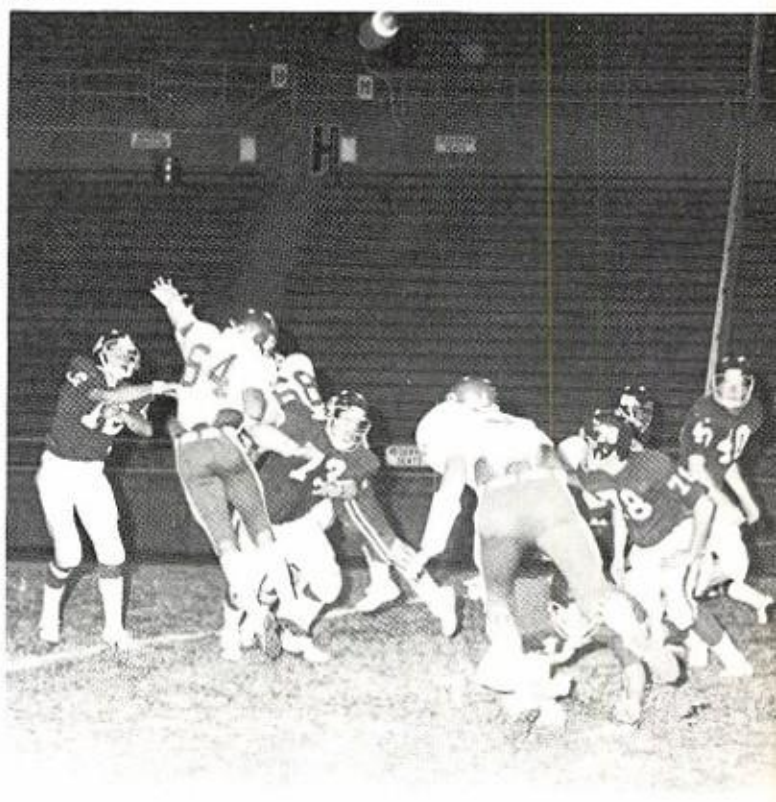
Eagle fans were gratified last fall as the Birds went all the way to the District I-AAA championship. Although plagued with injuries all season, the hustling Eagles never gave up and carried on with the able assistance of many substitutes to the front ranks.

Canyon met the Loboes of Monahans in Jones Stadium in Lubbock for the Bi-District playoff on Nov. 23. The powerful Monahans team overran the Eagles 34-7.

One of the senior linemen, Kelly Forehand, was lost to the team with permanent injuries sustained in the Sept. 19 game against Caprock.

Ward (4), Basinger (20), Howell (64), Bowers (84), Robinson (55) and Lee (72) close in on the ball.

Eagles line up to give the victory signal.



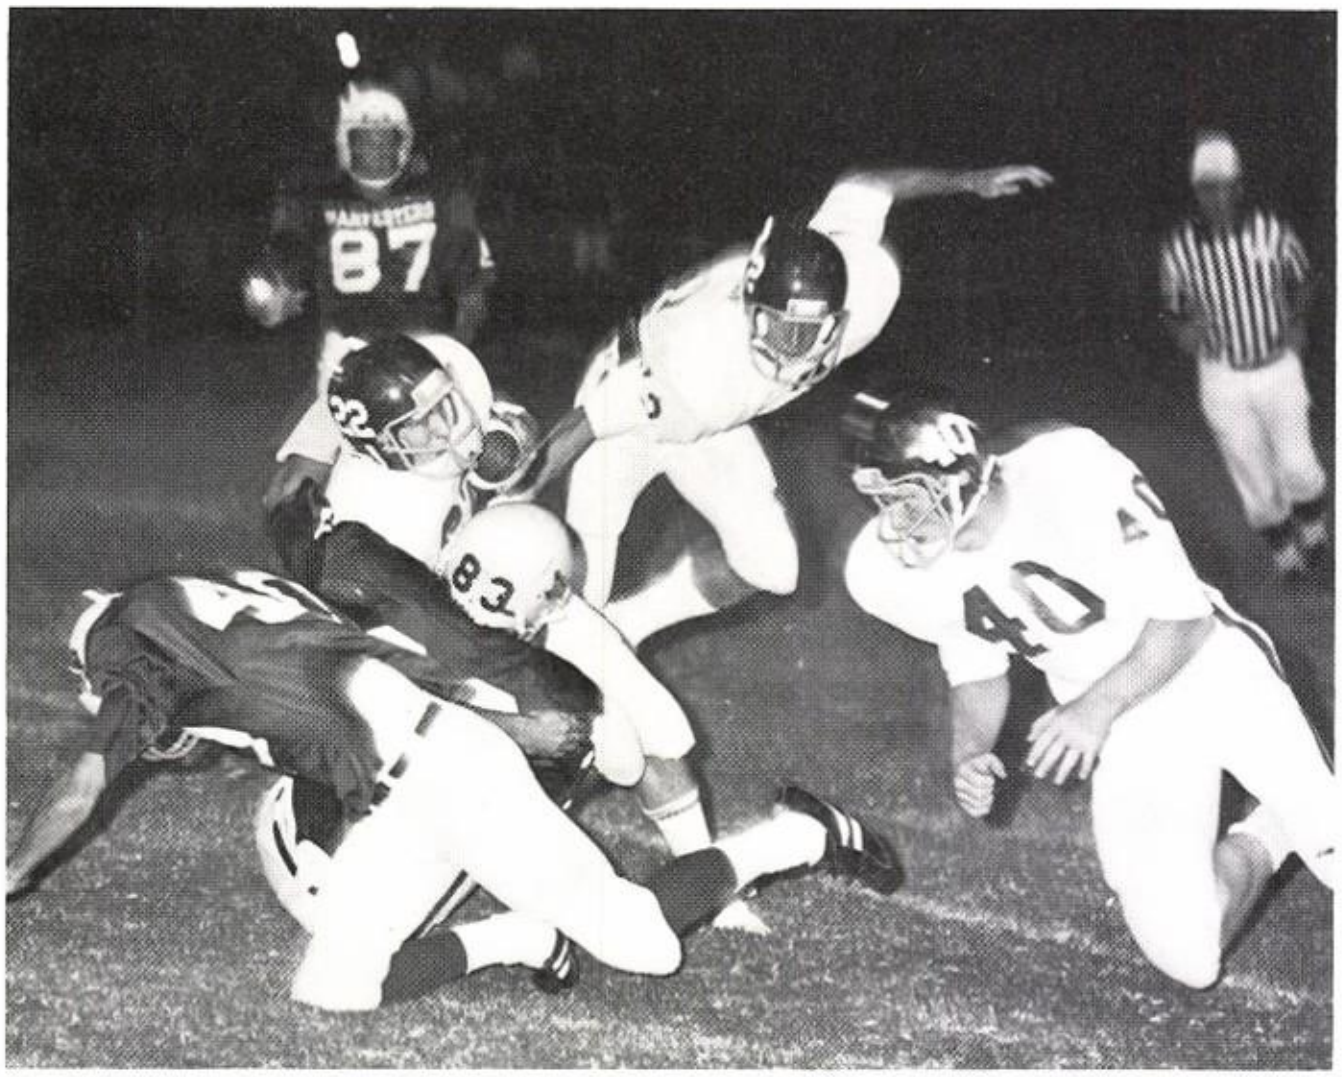
Wetzel (73) moves out in front as LaGrone (12) launches one.

Football Team Goes to Bi-District

In spite of numerous injuries and a difficult schedule, which included five AAAA teams, the Eagle football team fought their way to the Bi-District play-off against Monahans.

Under the direction of head coach Ron Mills, who left at the end of the second quarter of the academic year to take a coaching job in Bay City, the Eagles ended their season with five wins and five losses.

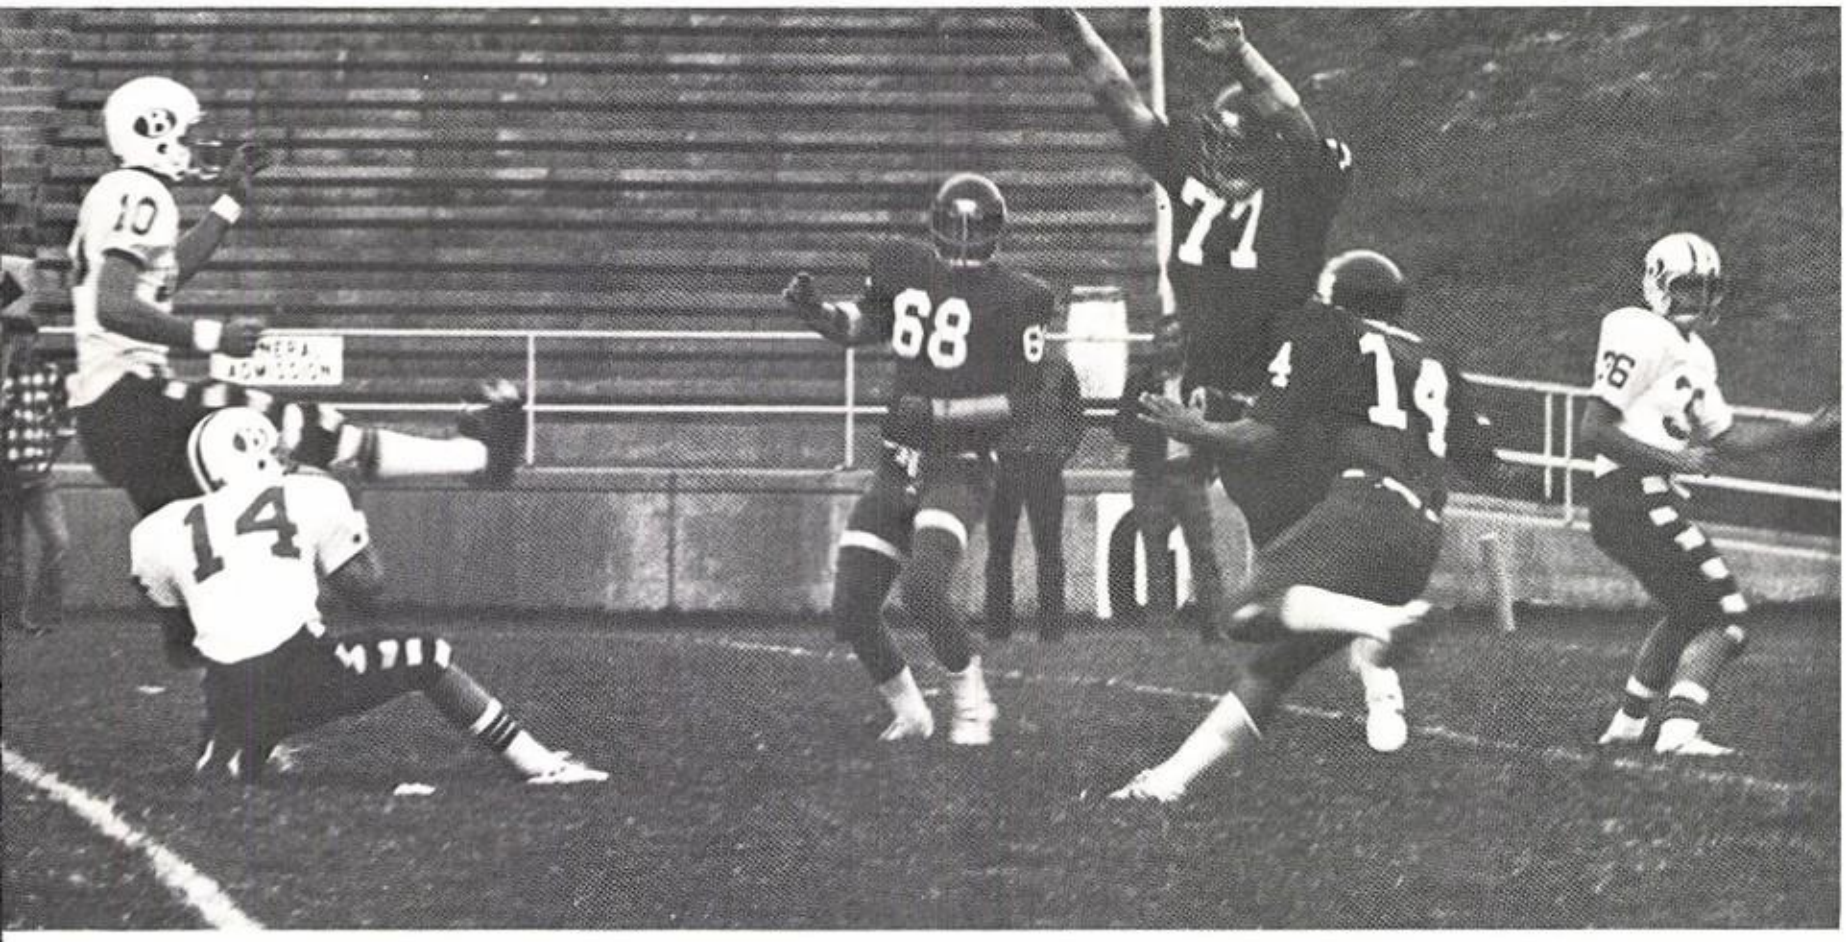
A Hereford player has a struggle against McCormick (85) and Robinson (55).

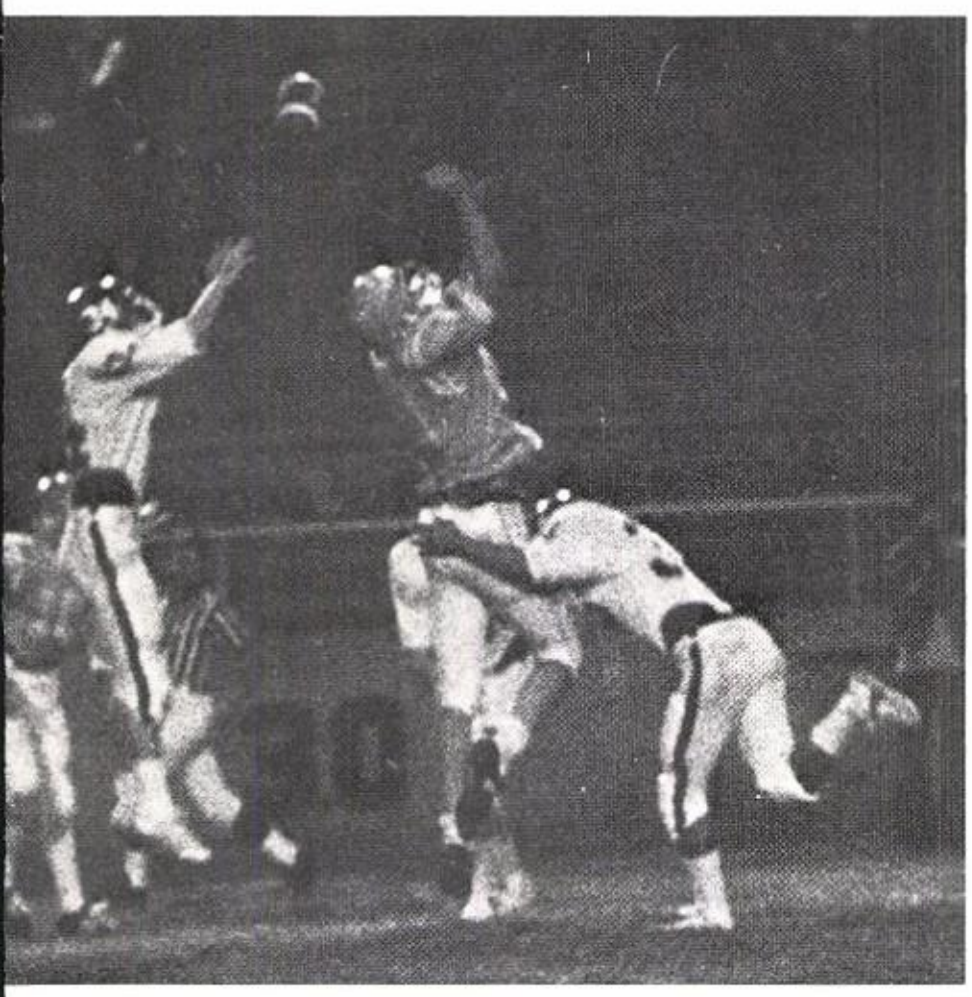


C. Johnson (22) goes down despite efforts by LaGrone (12) and Ward (40).

Basinger (20) can't quite reach that ball.

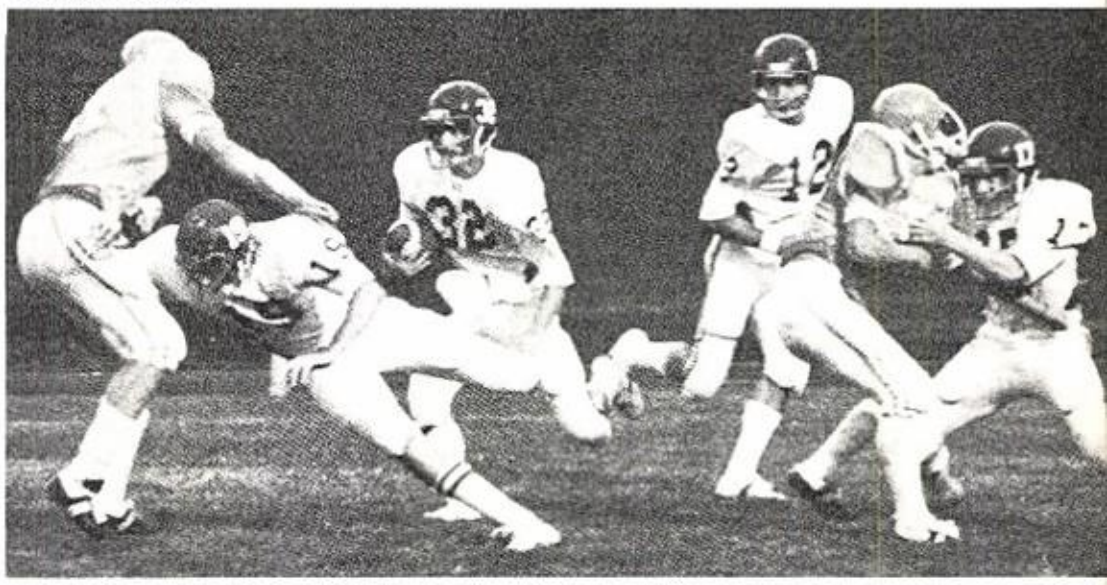
Jackson (68), Forehand (77) and Raef (14) try to block that kick.

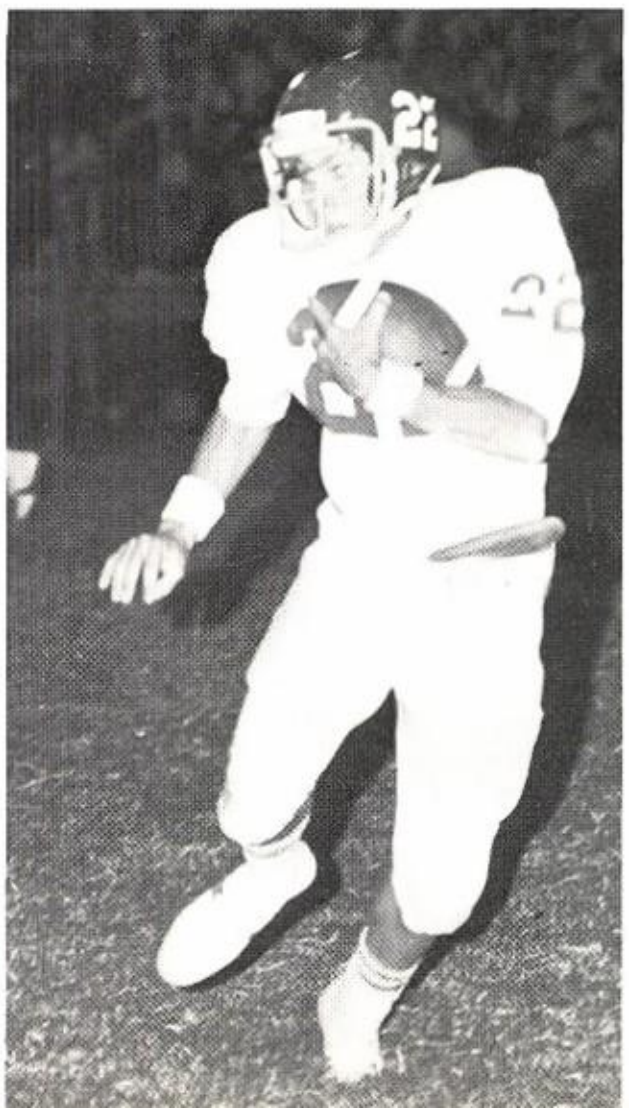




Luquette (34) goes up as Coronado (35) brings a man down.

Van Pelt (19), LaGrone (12) and Hicks (17) assist as A. Foil (32) sprints through a gap.





Craig Johnson tries a little razzle dazzle.

With only one returning starter and one junior returnee from last year's varsity, inexperience was the key to this year's CHS basketball fortunes.

Coach B. B. Kendrick's young squad had an uphill District I-AAA battle but came away with a 4-4 season. The Eagles are the team to watch in '76.

Ratliff (40) and Johnson (42) go up for the payoff.

JV'S and Sophs Add Luster to Eagle Name

The Canyon High Junior Varsity boys basketball team, coached by Mr. Mike Auld, closed out a successful season with 23 wins and 9 losses.

The Sophomore boys basketball team had a winning season with 10 wins and 9 losses under the coaching of Mr. Gary Conner.

Dedication on the part of the Eagle junior teams pays off as these young men attain varsity status.

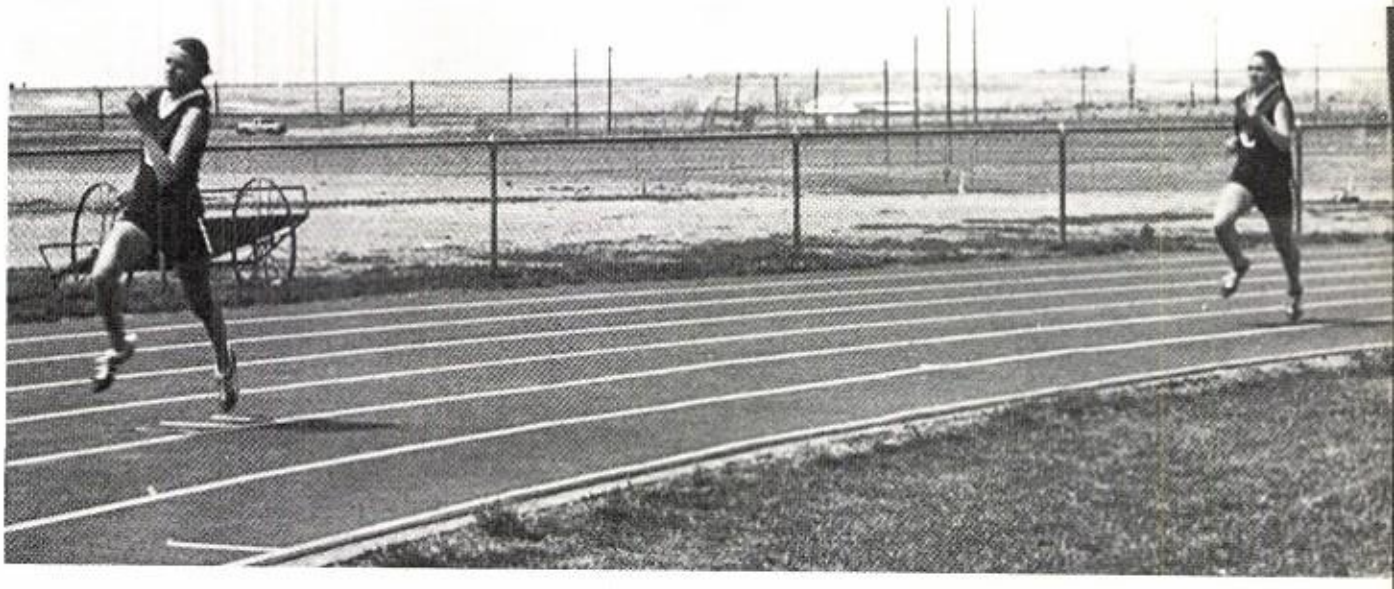
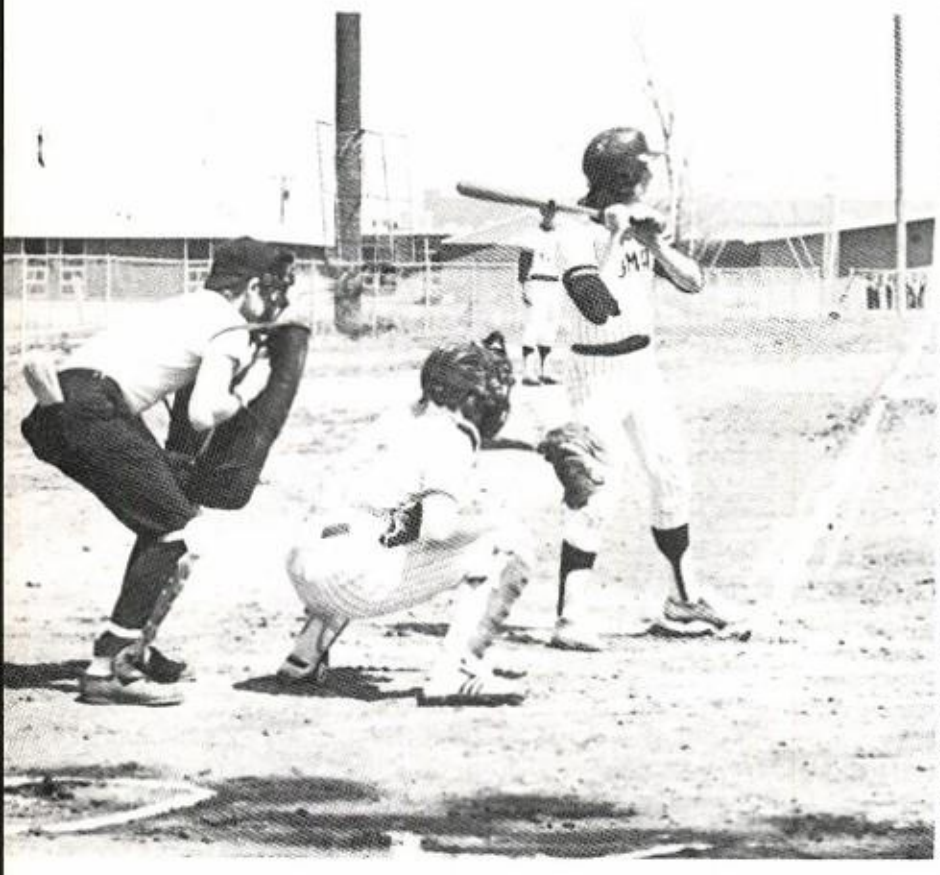
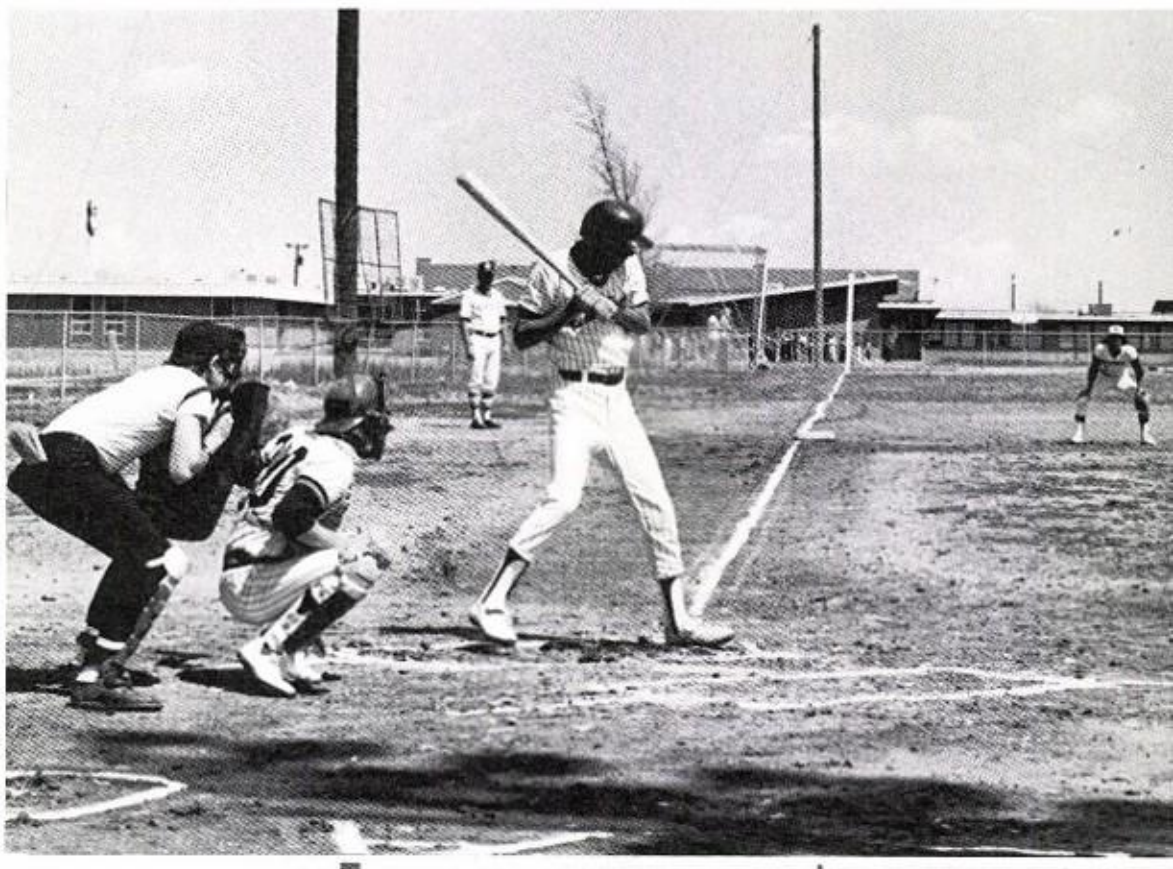
Vickie Miller goes for a long jump.



Trophy winners at Regional in Odessa are Deedy Johnson, Louise Davis, Vicki Miller, Marci Davis, John Watkins, Pennie Peckenpaugh, Kathy McCormick and Joan Albers. Watkins, McCormick and Albers were literary entrants.

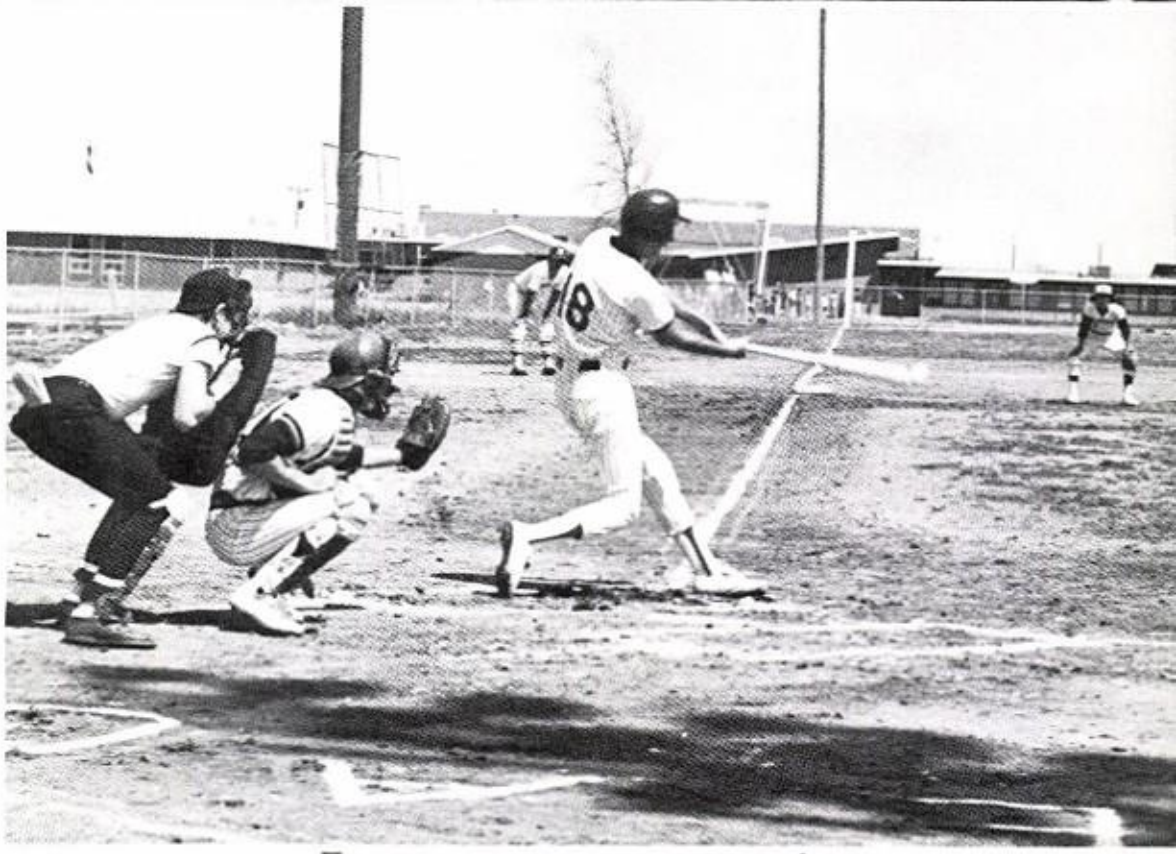
Baseballers Win District No. 2 Slot

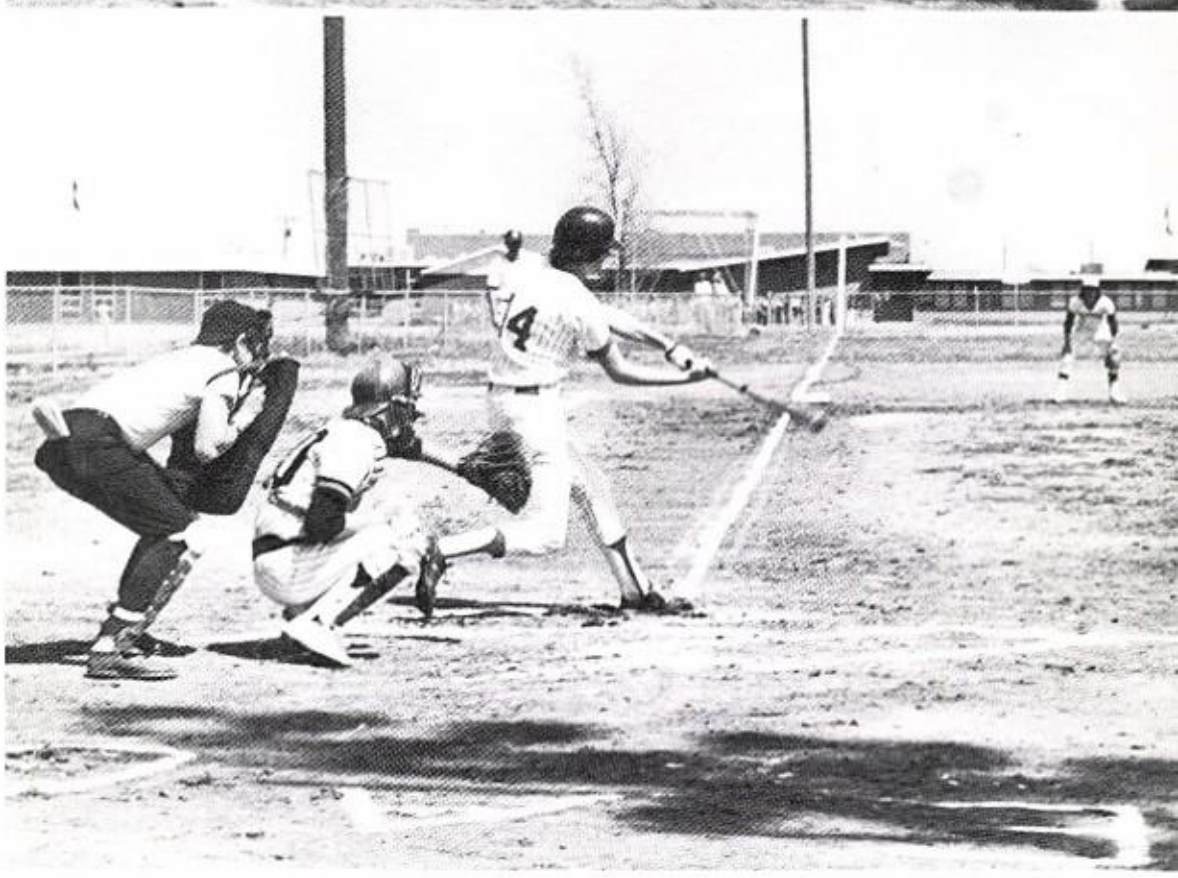




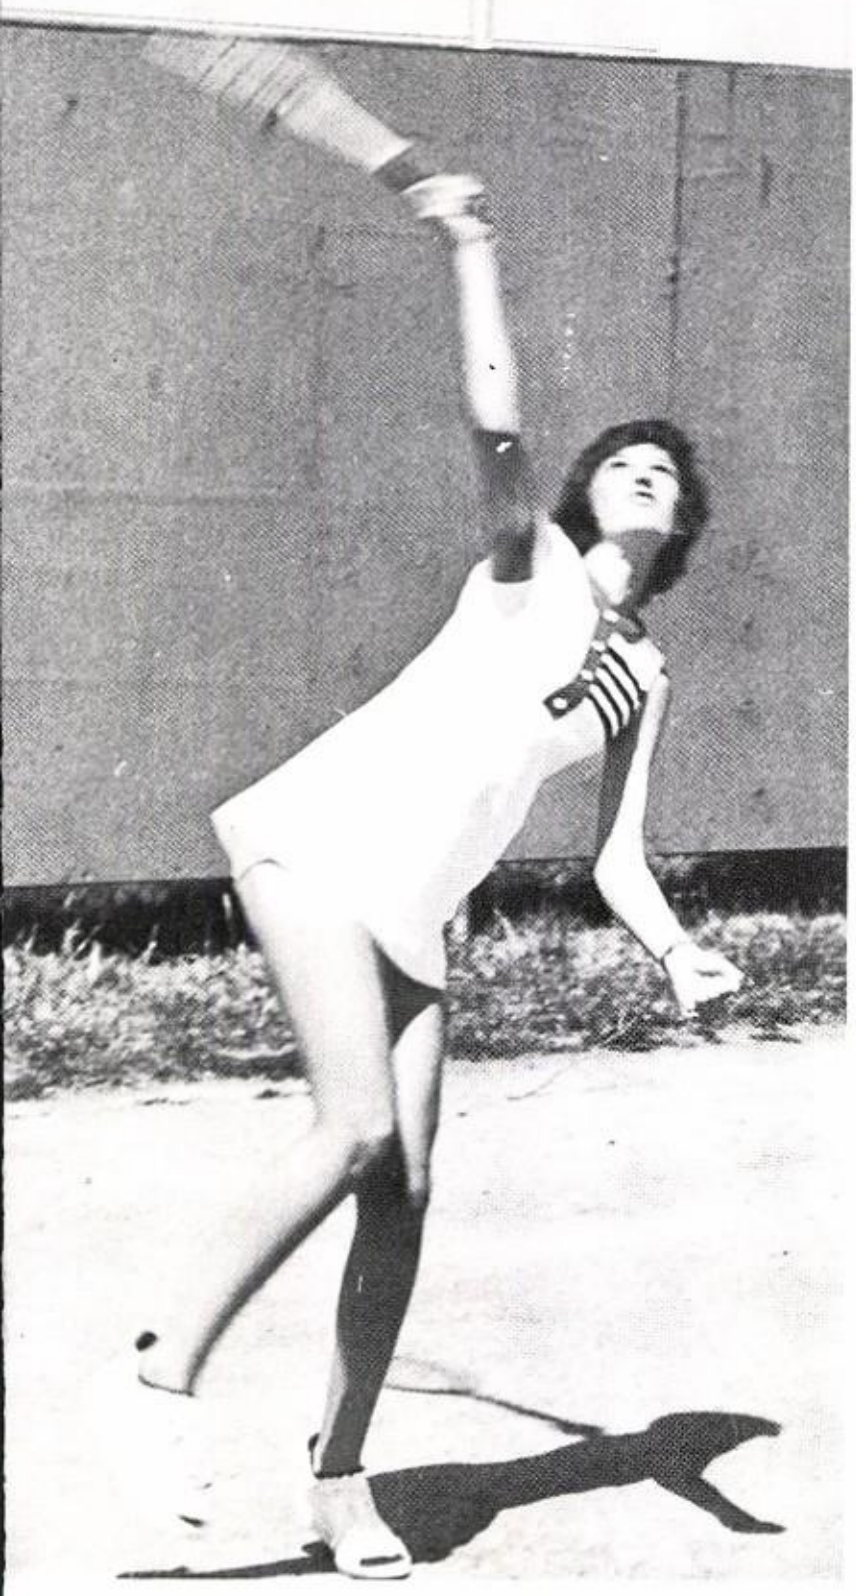
The Eagle Baseball team ended the season by winning 8 of 20 games placing CHS runners-up in District I-AAA.

Four Eagles made all-district, Lynn Wright - first base, Jim Ward - left field, Matt Madewell - outfield, Ron Hickman - pitcher. Madewell was also named Sophomore Player of the Year. Jay Huey was Outstanding Player of the Year.





Tennis Program Needs Facilities

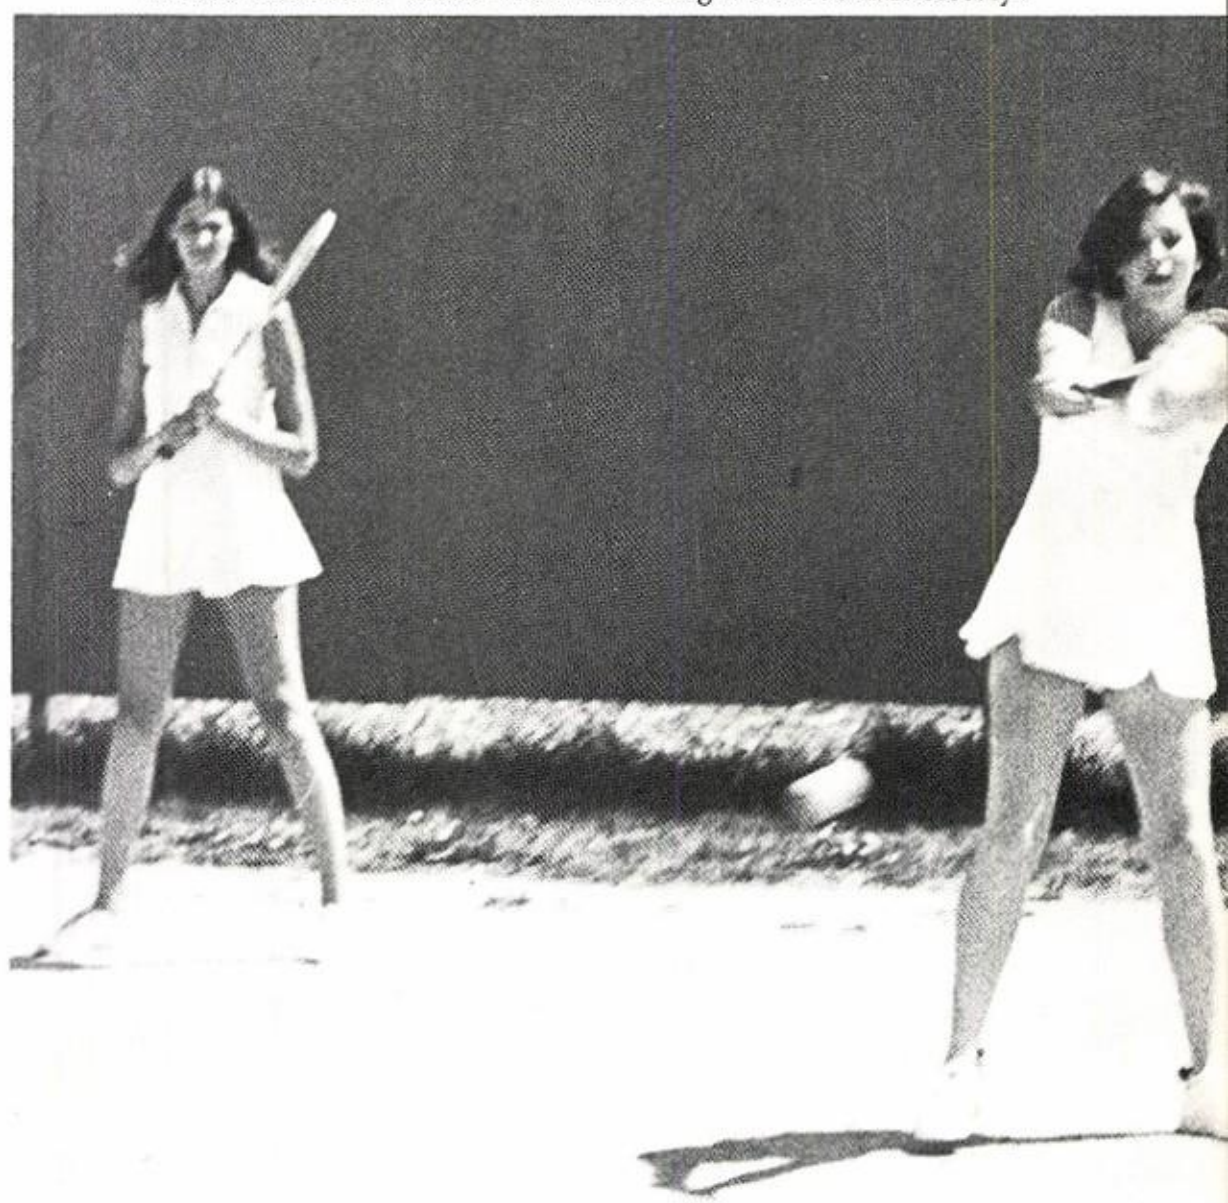


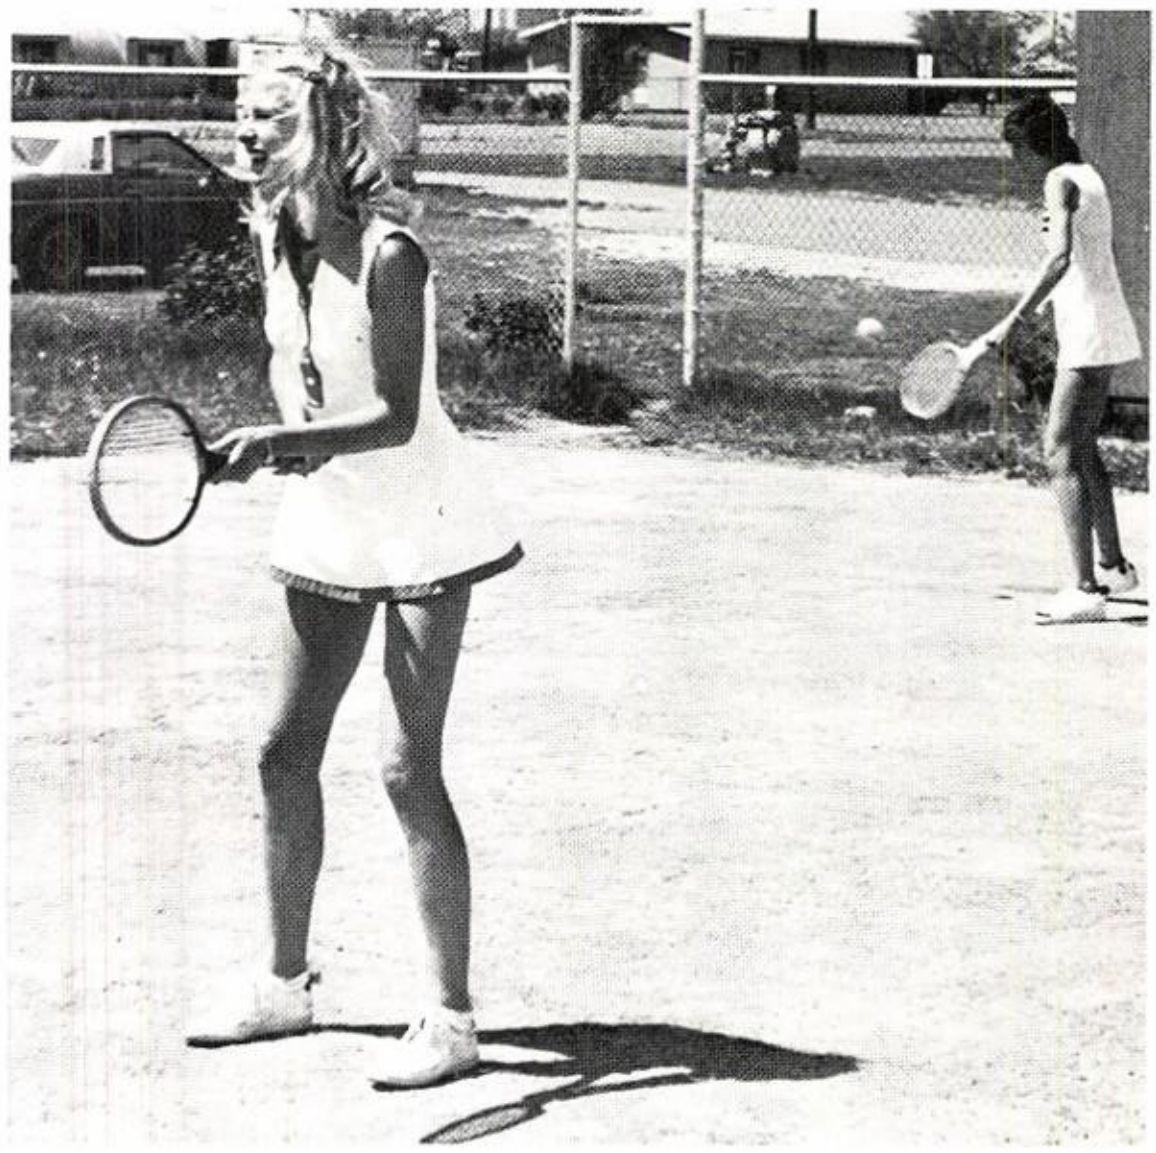
Laura Dillard serves one.

Members of the Tennis Team feel that the program at CHS could be improved with better facilities. The team had difficulty in finding a place to practice and play as the courts at West Texas State are becoming more and more crowded as area interest in tennis grows.

The team, under the direction of Coach V. J. Duncan, placed third in District I-AAA. Mark Sullivan qualified for Regional competition.

Vanessa Cotton and Teresa Van Valkenberg watch the ball closely.





JoAnn White waits for the return of the ball that Laura Dillard is swatting.

Golfers Capture District Crown

Canyon High School golfers won first place honors in District competition. Coach B. B. Kendrick's linksters were led by Bill Turner who earned medalist status.

The golf program has grown in the last few years and again included some girls who showed a great deal of interest in making the team.

Phis Davis, Craig Howard, Bryan Garner, Bill Turner and Dewey Wilson (not pictured) were Regional qualifiers.

Bill Turner gets set for a long drive.

Phil Davis chips a shot.

Chess Club Organized for CHS

Mr. Glenn Hughes helped a group of students get a Chess Club together for CHS. The group was chartered in October with twelve members.

A Fall Tournament was played in which sixteen students participated. Kurt Johnson was the winner.

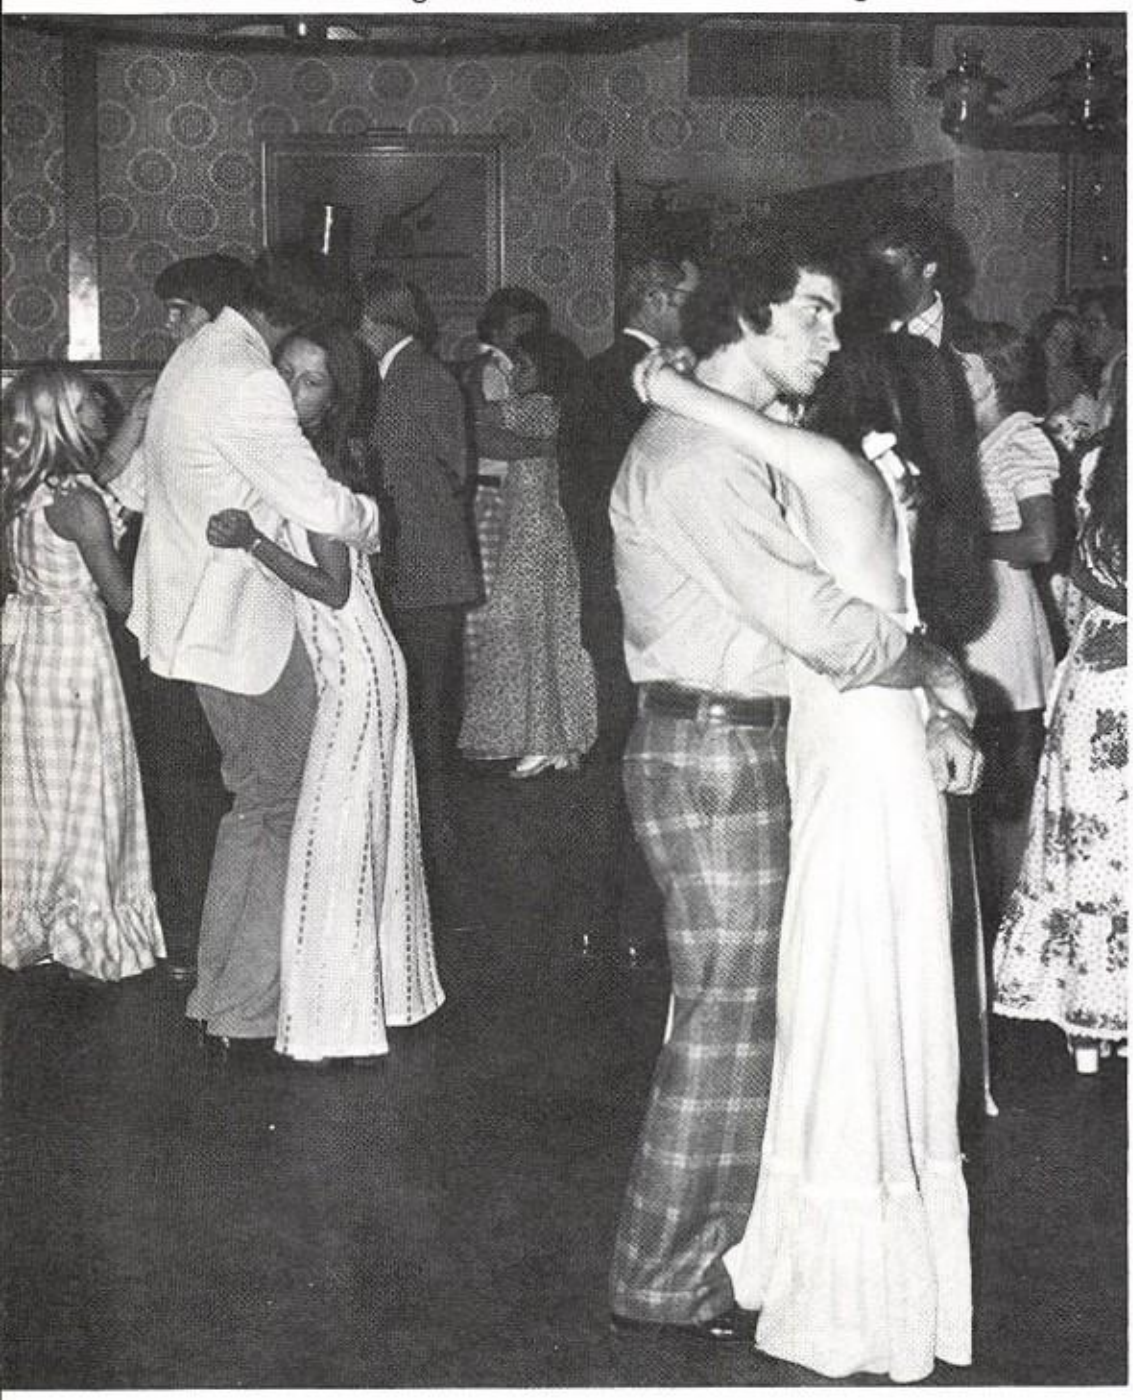
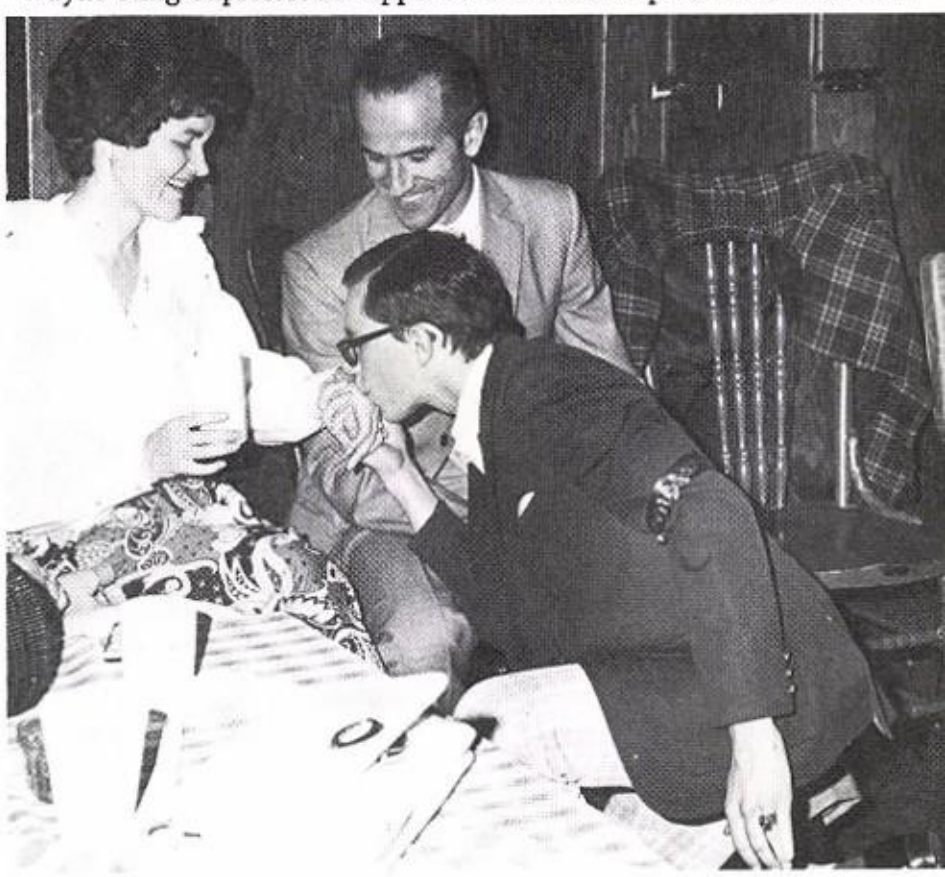
Senior Dinner-Dance Held at Big Texan

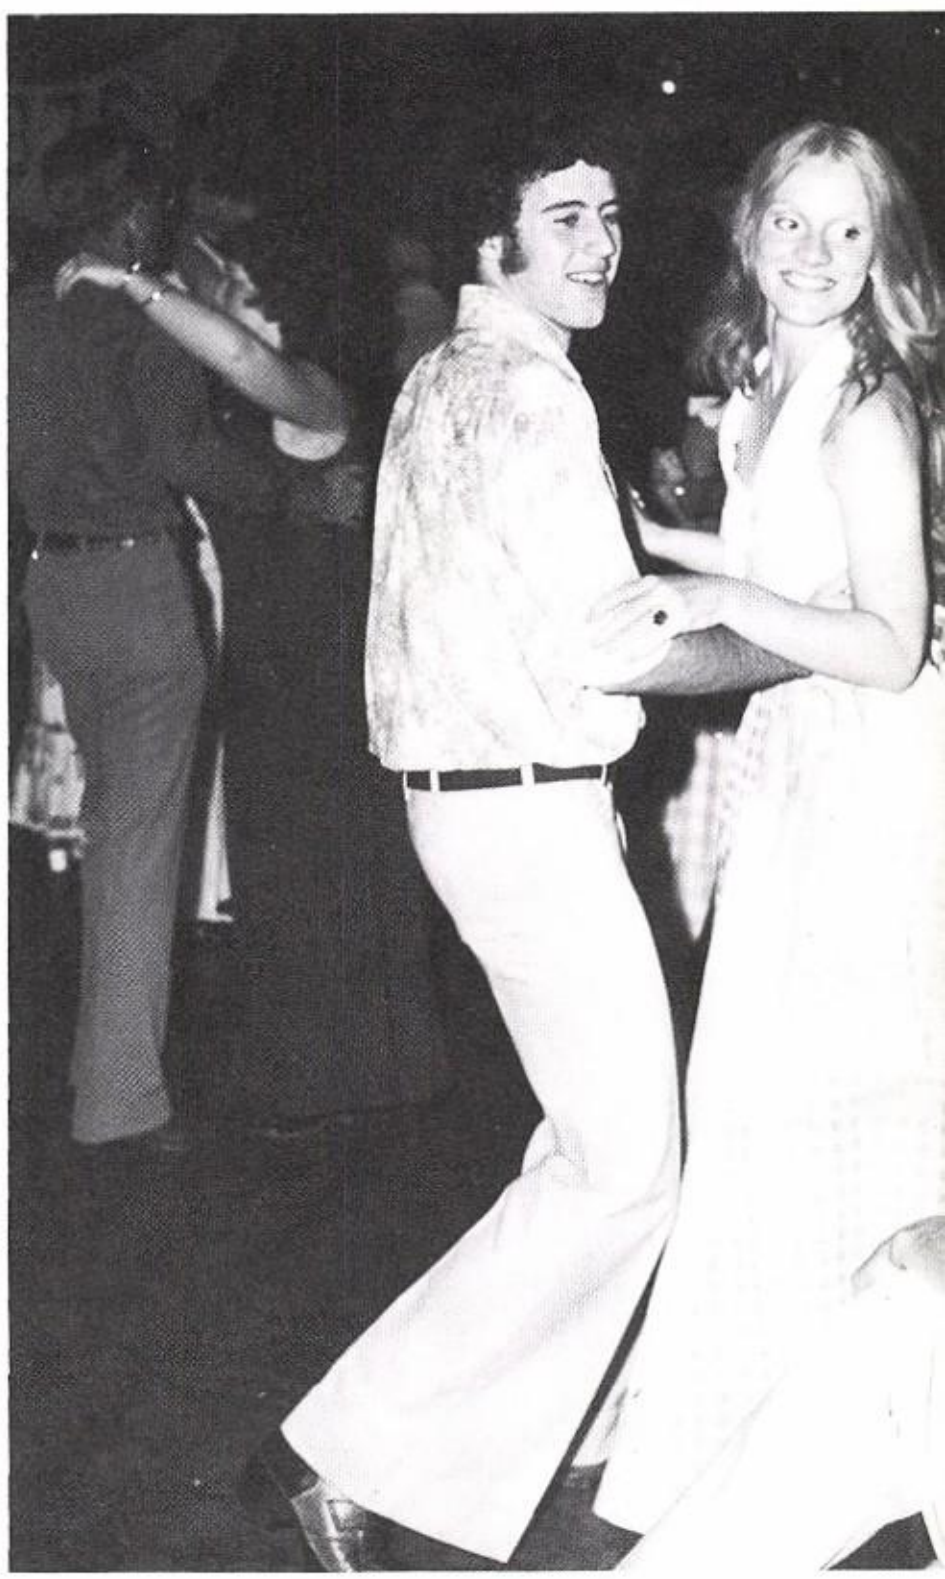
Faces reflect nostalgic memories of sweet and sad high school times.



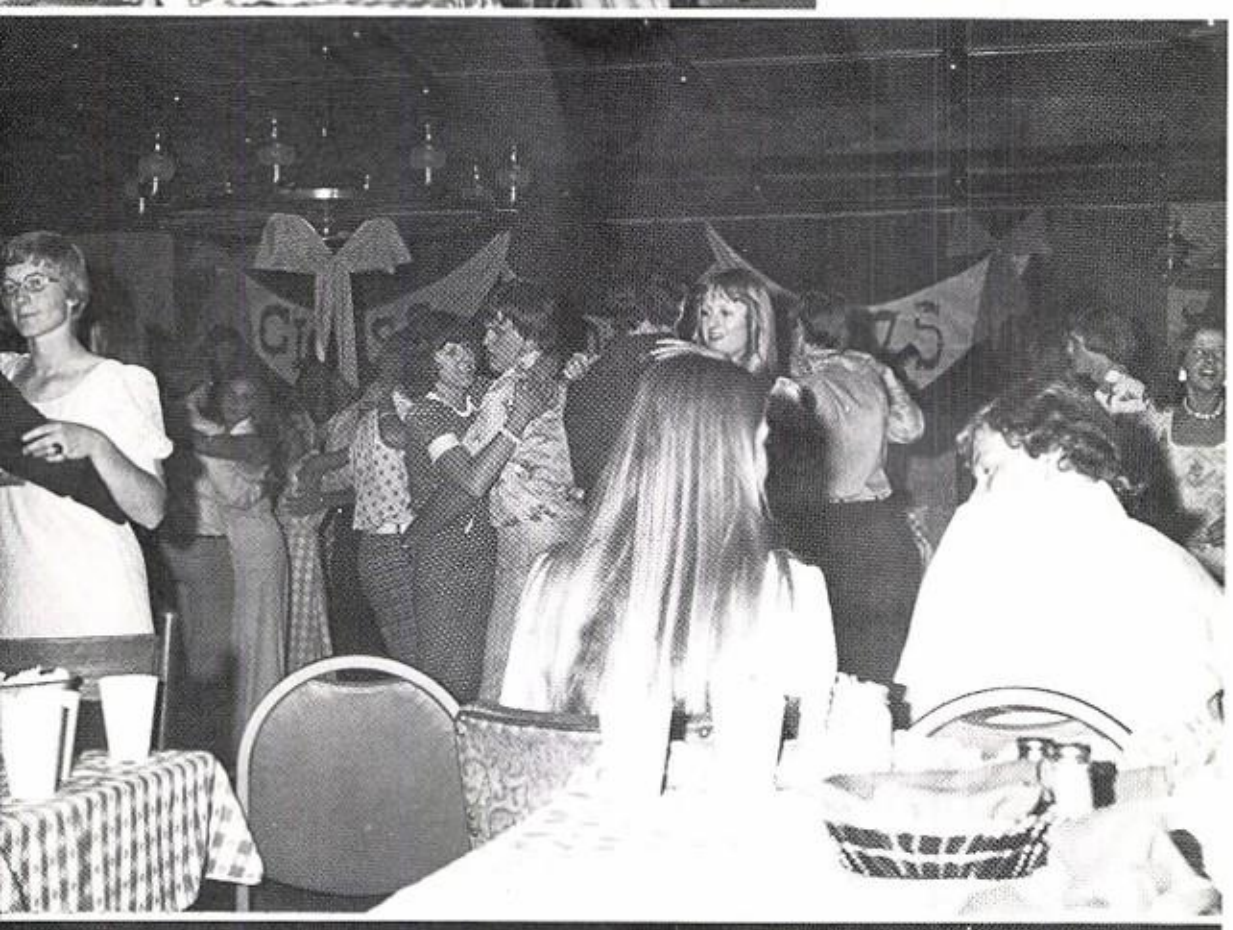
Wayne King expresses his appreciation for a surprised Mrs. Moutos.



Jim Ward prepares his own brand of entertainment for friends.



Russell Killingsworth and Susie Nix enjoy a dance.



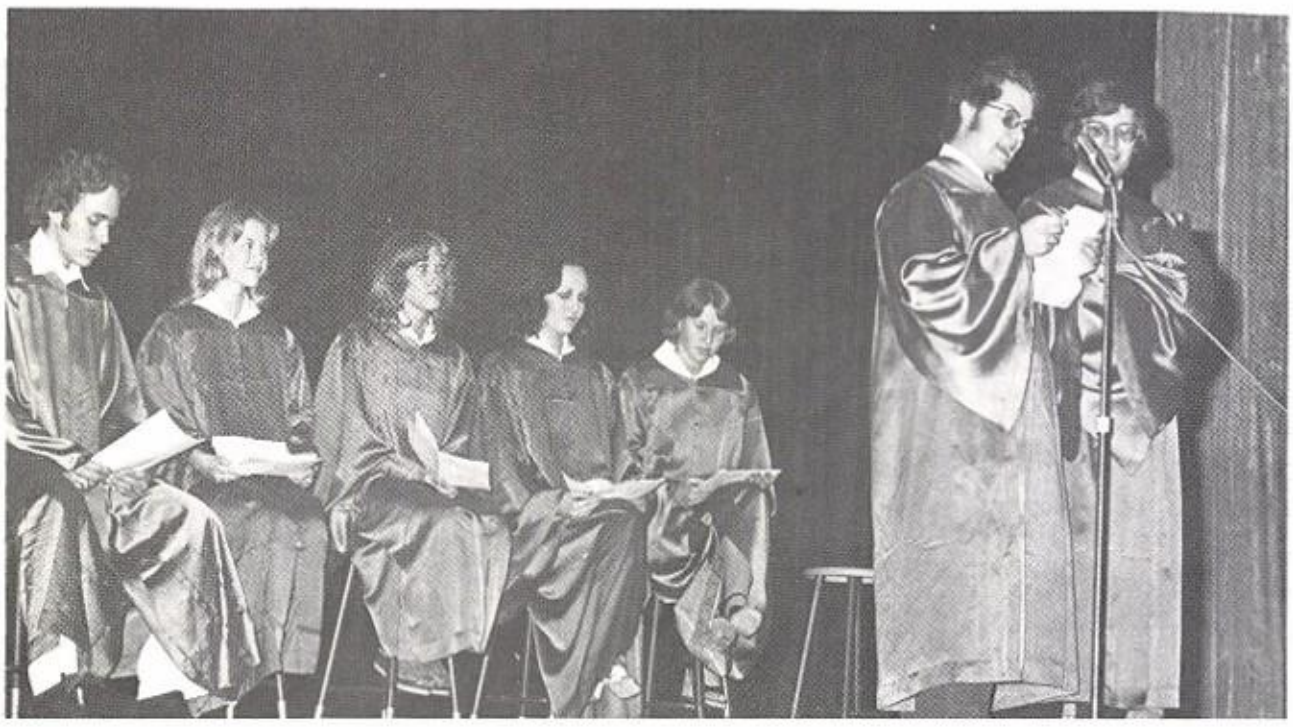
The traditional dinner and dance for seniors was held Friday evening, May 23, at The Big Texan steak house. Seniors and guests enjoyed an evening of dining and dancing to the music of ''Young Country Sounds.''

Various awards were made to deserving seniors. The parents of the Class of '75 members planned and sponsored the event.

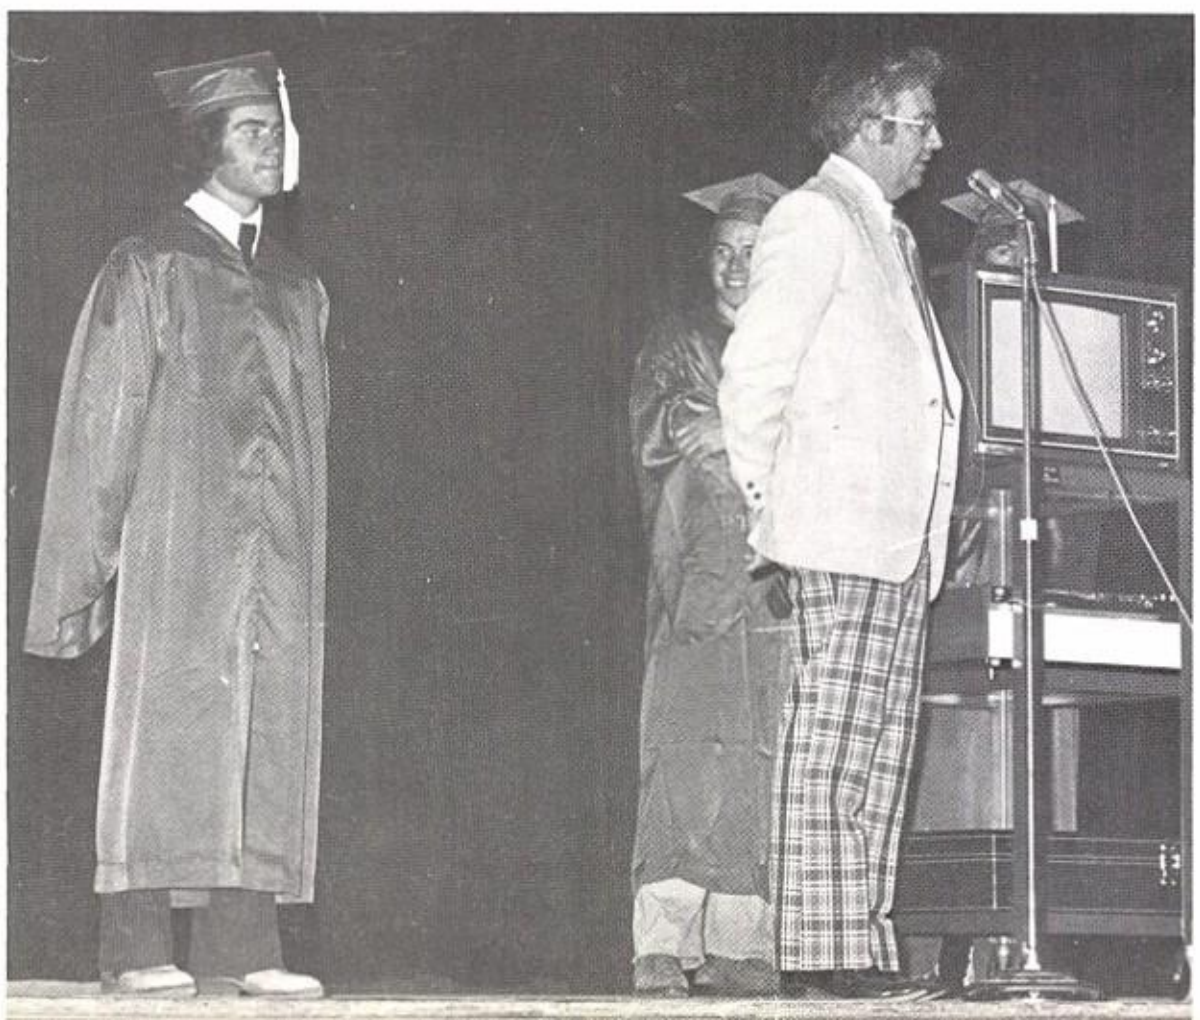
Seniors and guests whoop it up at The Big Texan.

Senior Day Brings Relief, Sadness

After twelve years of work, seniors prepare to throw away their pencils.

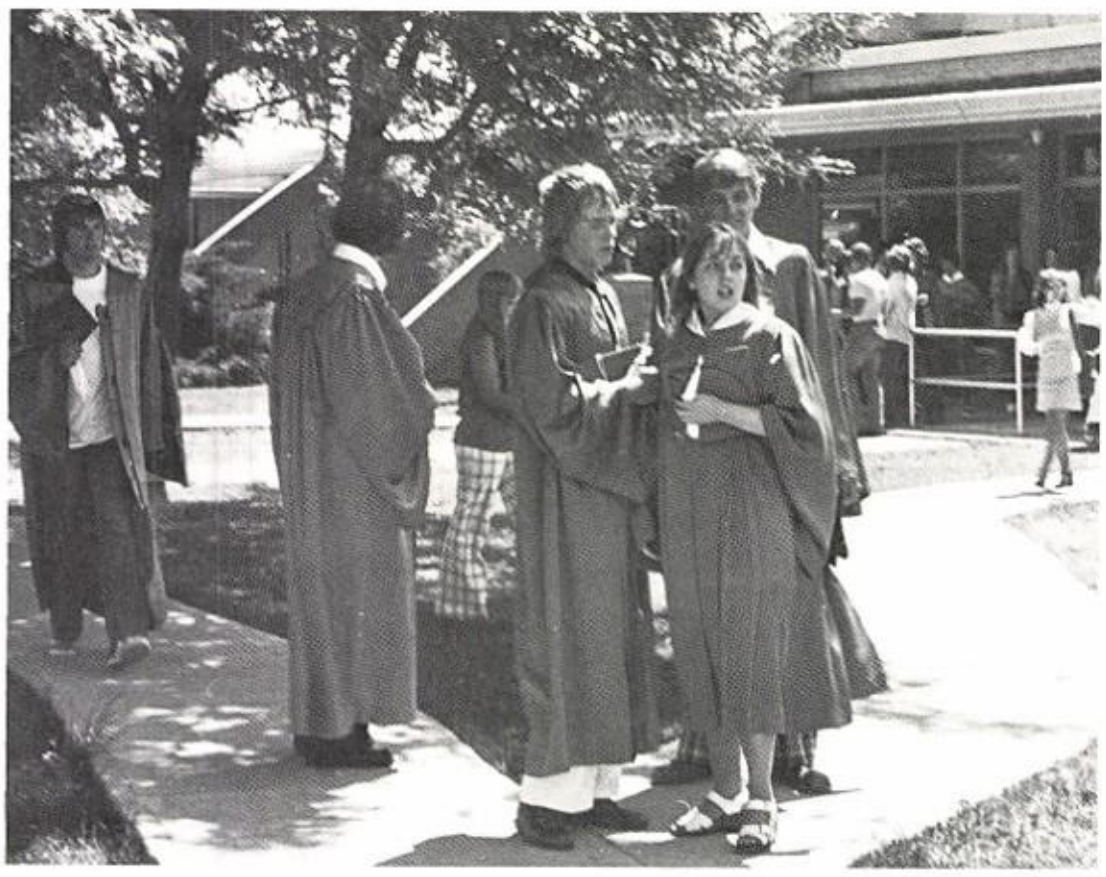


Senior Assembly comes alive when the will is read.



Steve Brandt laughs at senior stories in THE EAGLE'S TALE.

Mr. John Sommer, principal, acknowledges receipt of the gift to Canyon High School from the Class of '75.



Before . . .

During . . .

Friday, May 23 was Senior Day. The Class of '75 left a television and recording system as their gift to the school.

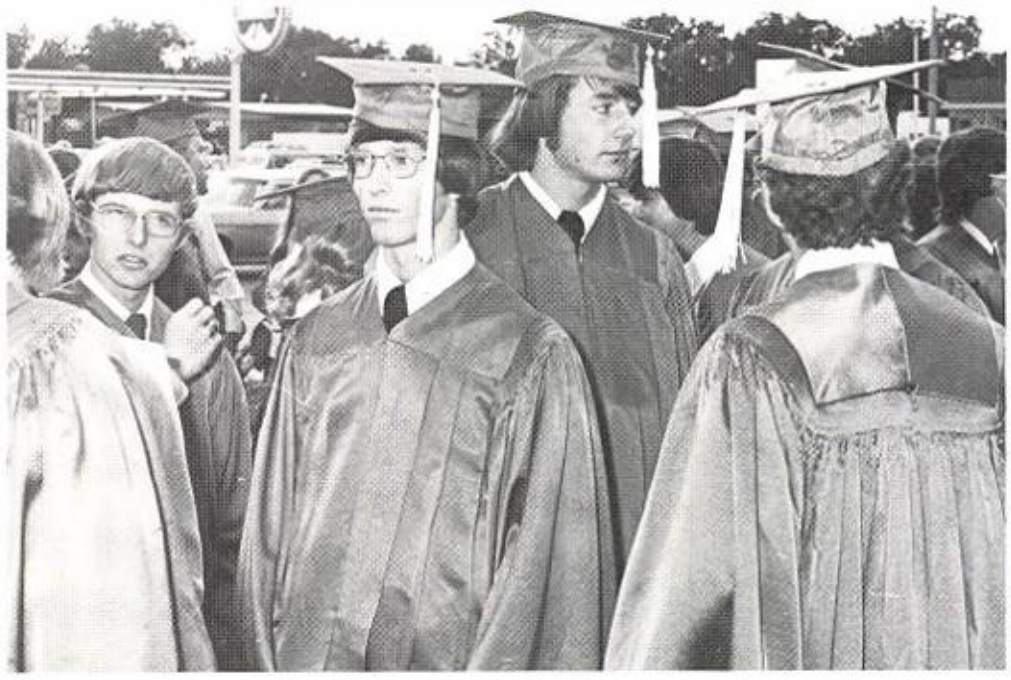
Seniors wore the "purple" all day to classes and presented the traditional assembly for underclassmen at the end of the day.

The class will, prophecy and history were presented by members of the class. A sound and light show was also part of the entertainment.

After . . .

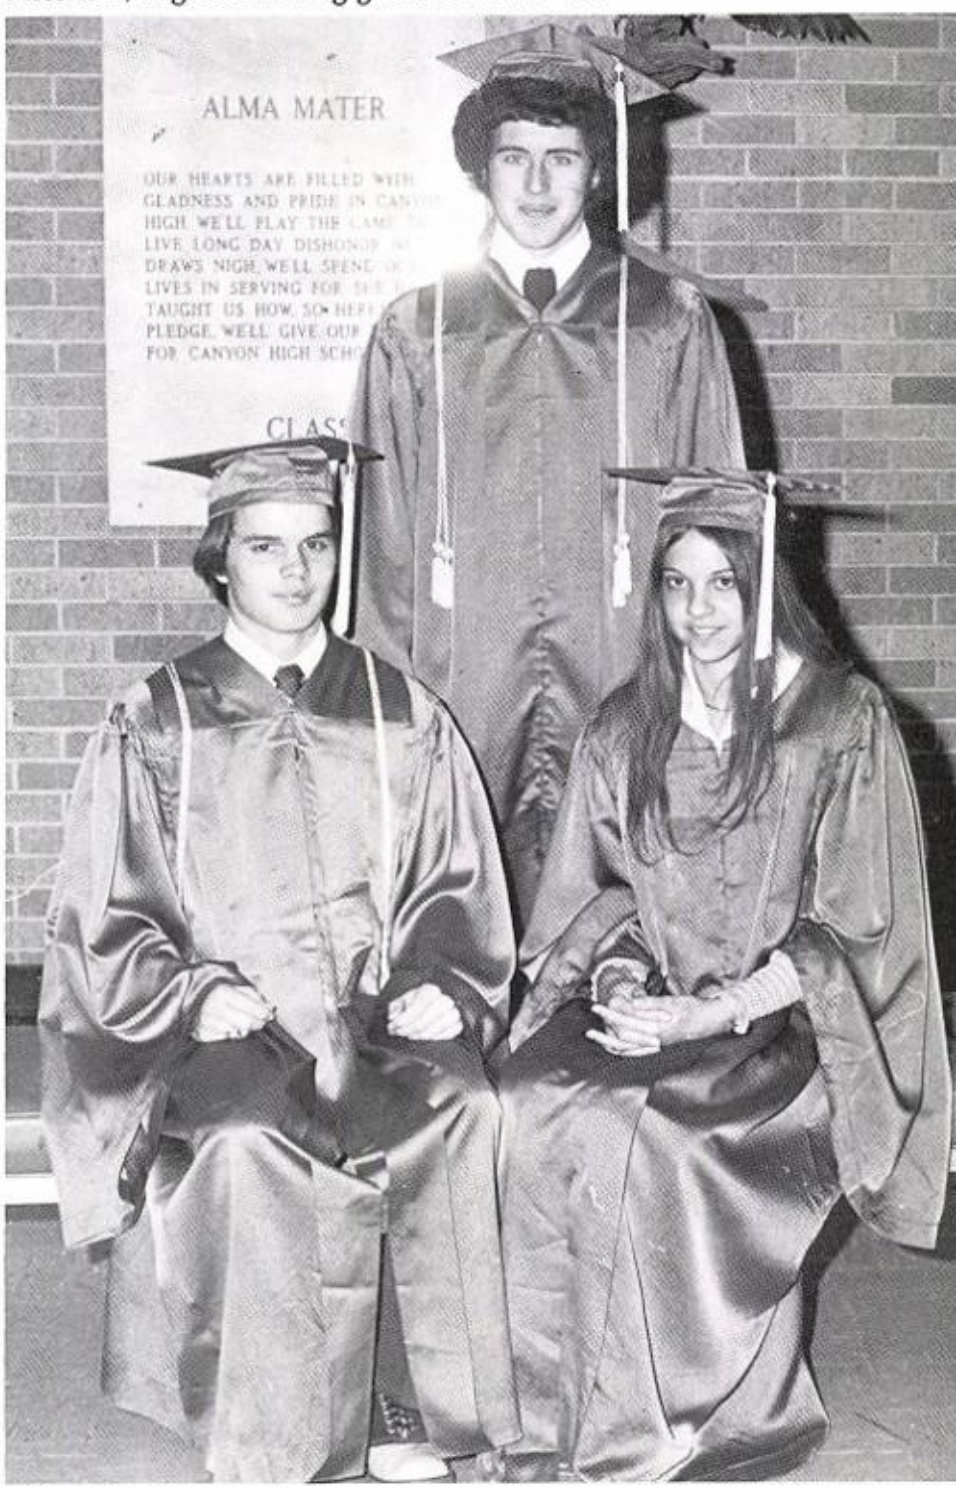
It's Over — Graduation Day, 1975

Grim determination seems to be the keynote.

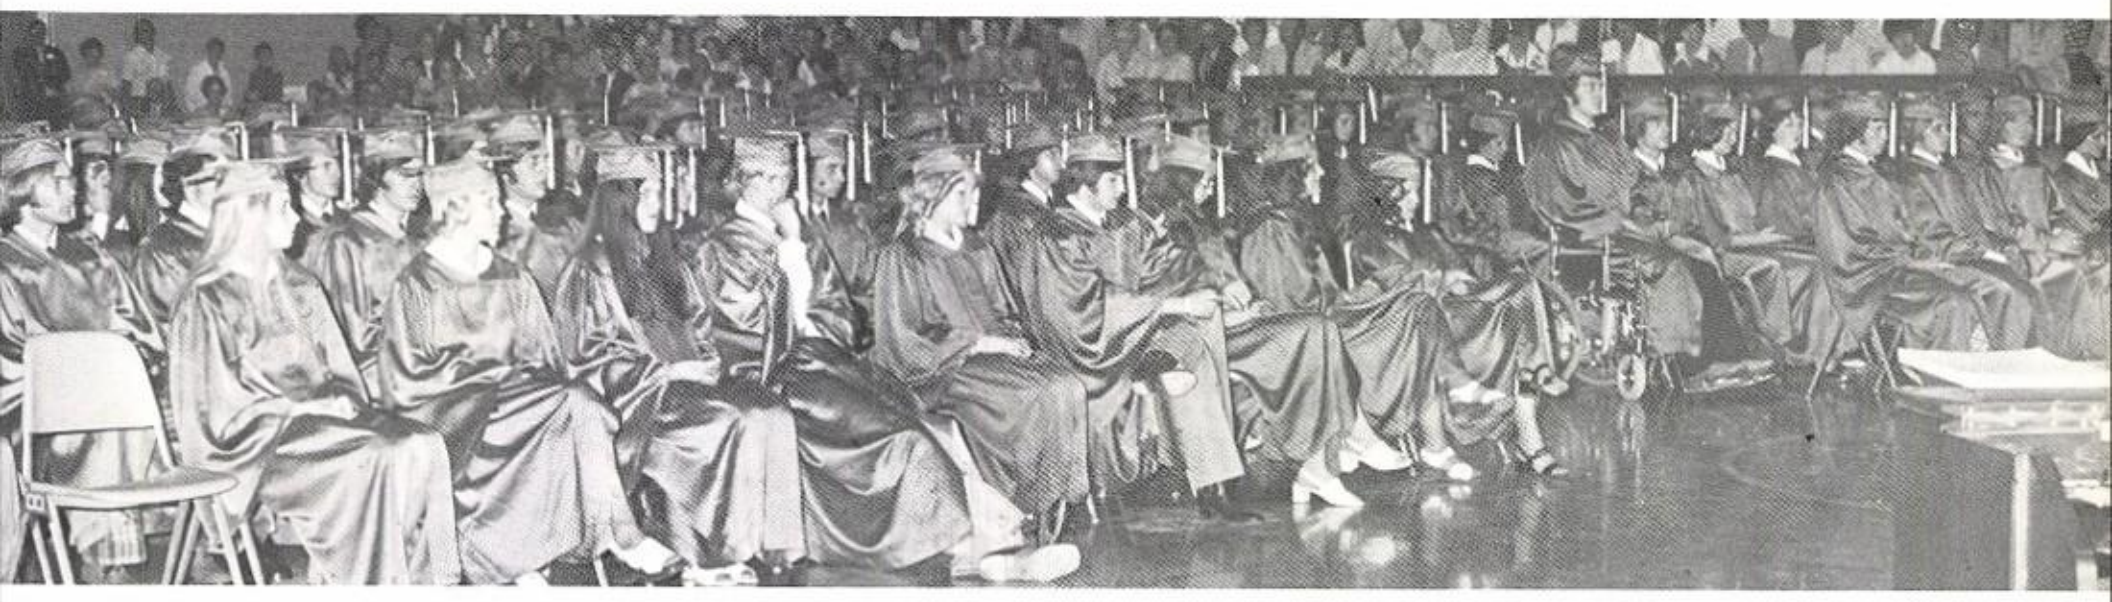


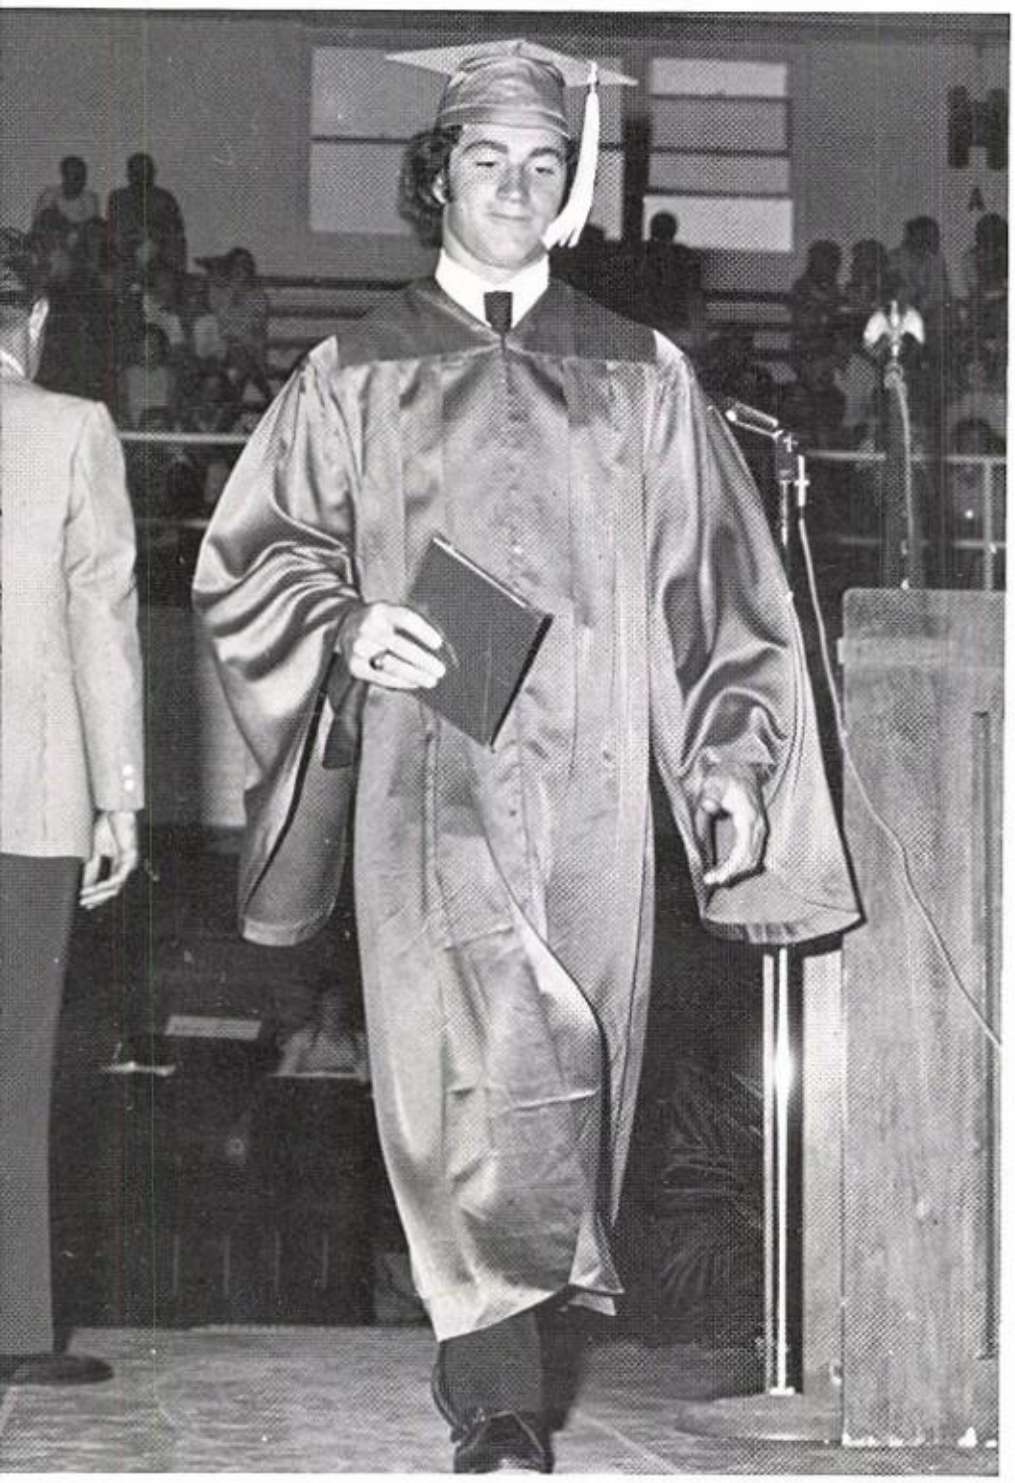
Those glorious purple gowns have to go back.

Tom Crown, salutatorian; Russell Killingsworth, valedictorian; Irene Mitchell, highest ranking girl of Seniors '75.

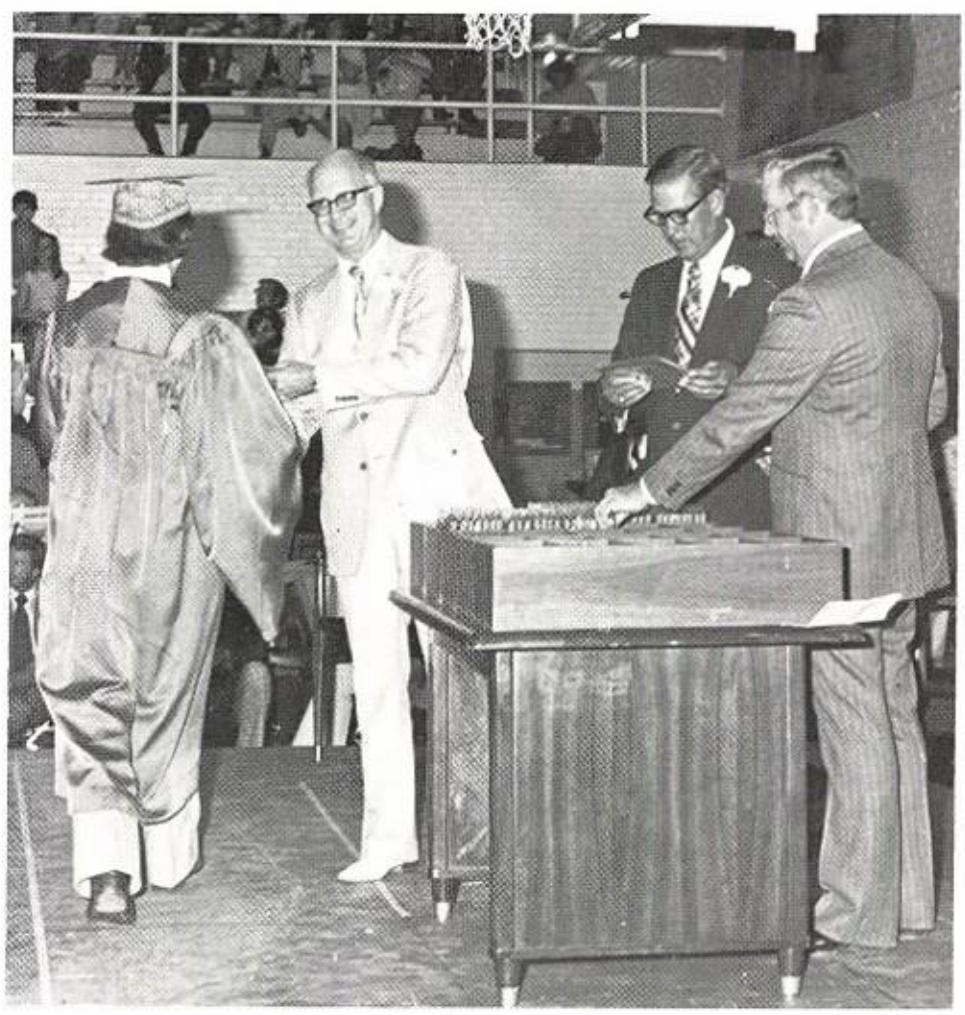


It's all over but the all night party.



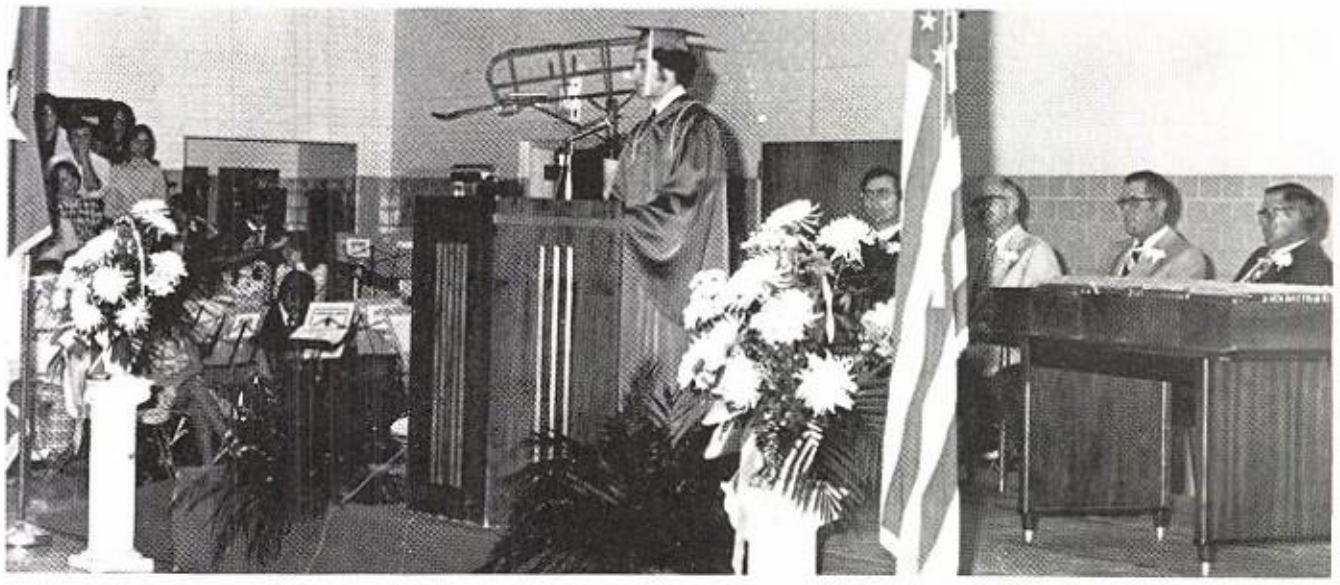


That paper in your hand gives the right to look smug, Garre.



Dr. Moore, Mr. Jacobs, and Mr. Sommer hand out the diplomas.

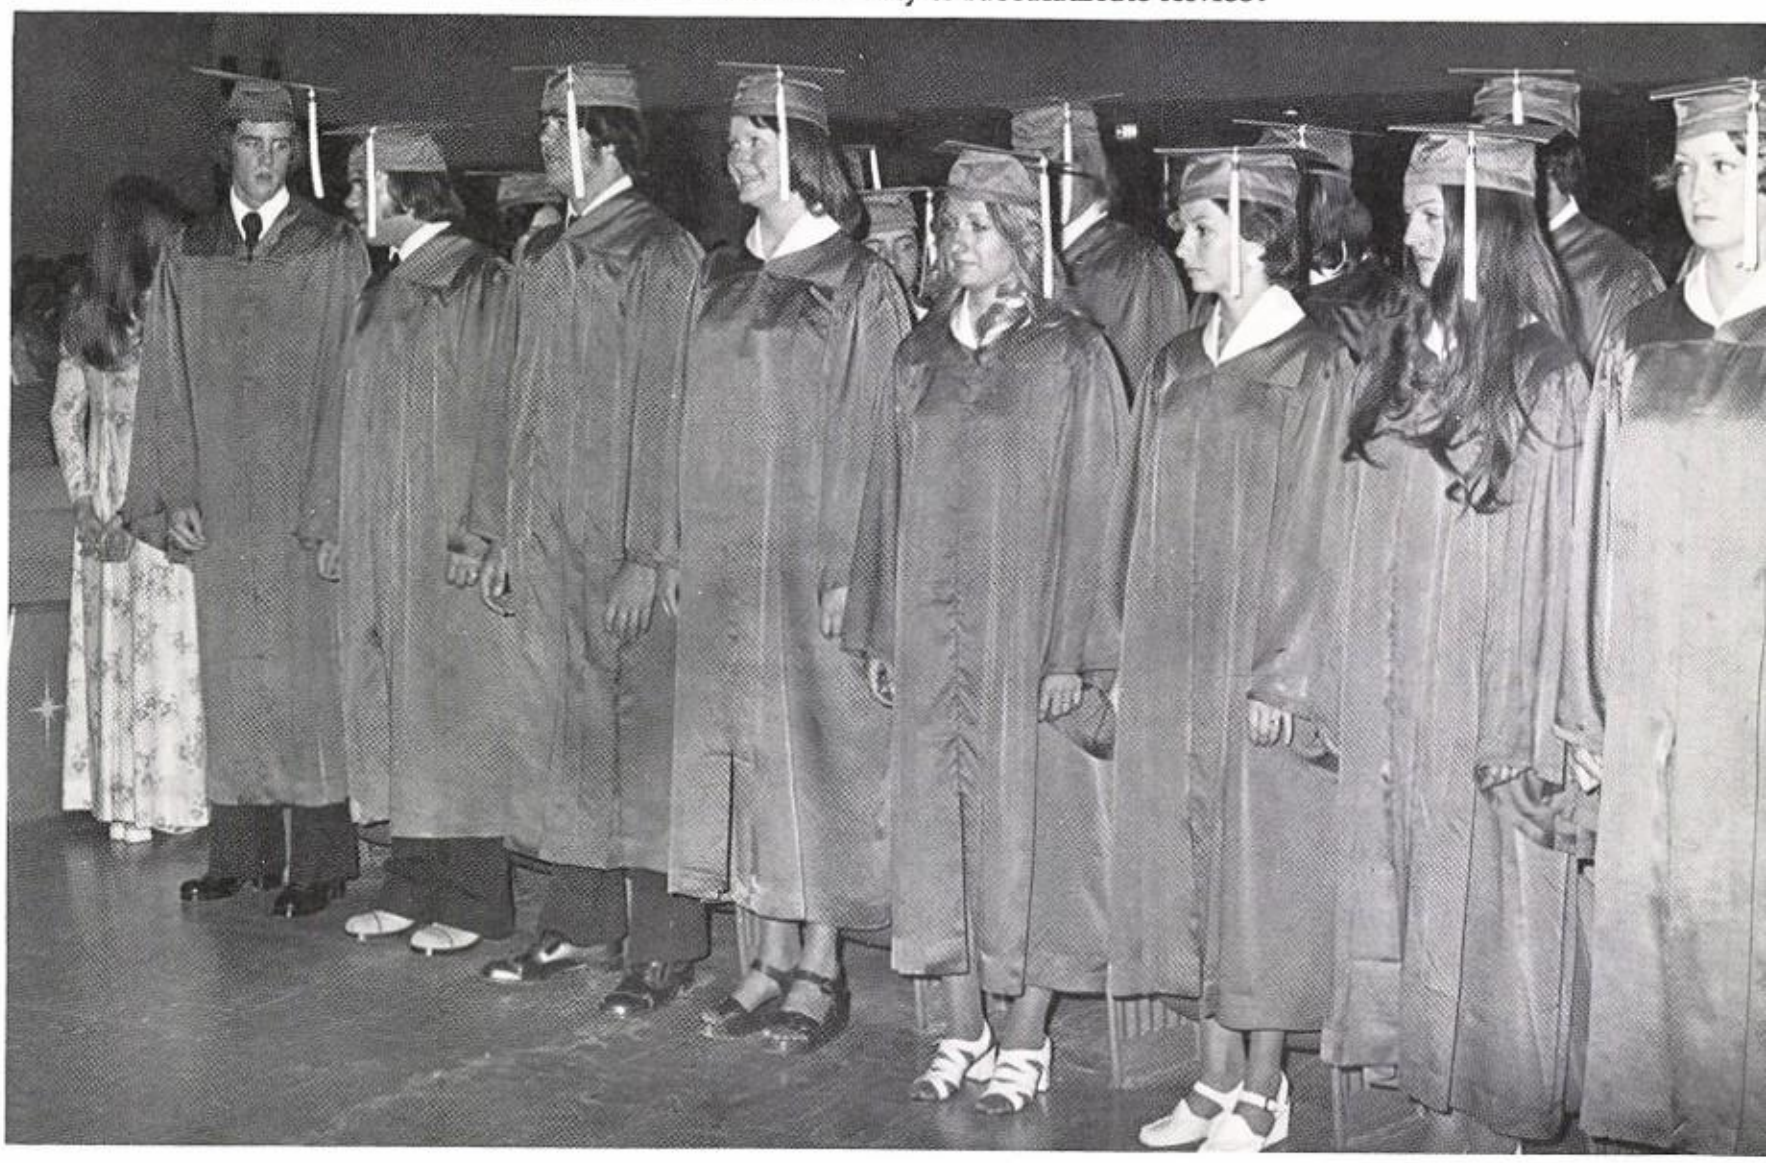
A student treads the school mill for twelve years and that long-awaited day finally arrives - Graduation Day! Ceremonies for the Class of '75 were culminated Friday night, May 30, as 189 Canyon High School students received diplomas.



Russell Killingsworth delivers the valedictory address.

Baccalaureate Begins Final Week

Seniors' faces reflect solemnity of baccalaureate service.



Bo Bridges and Larry Pate are ready to go.

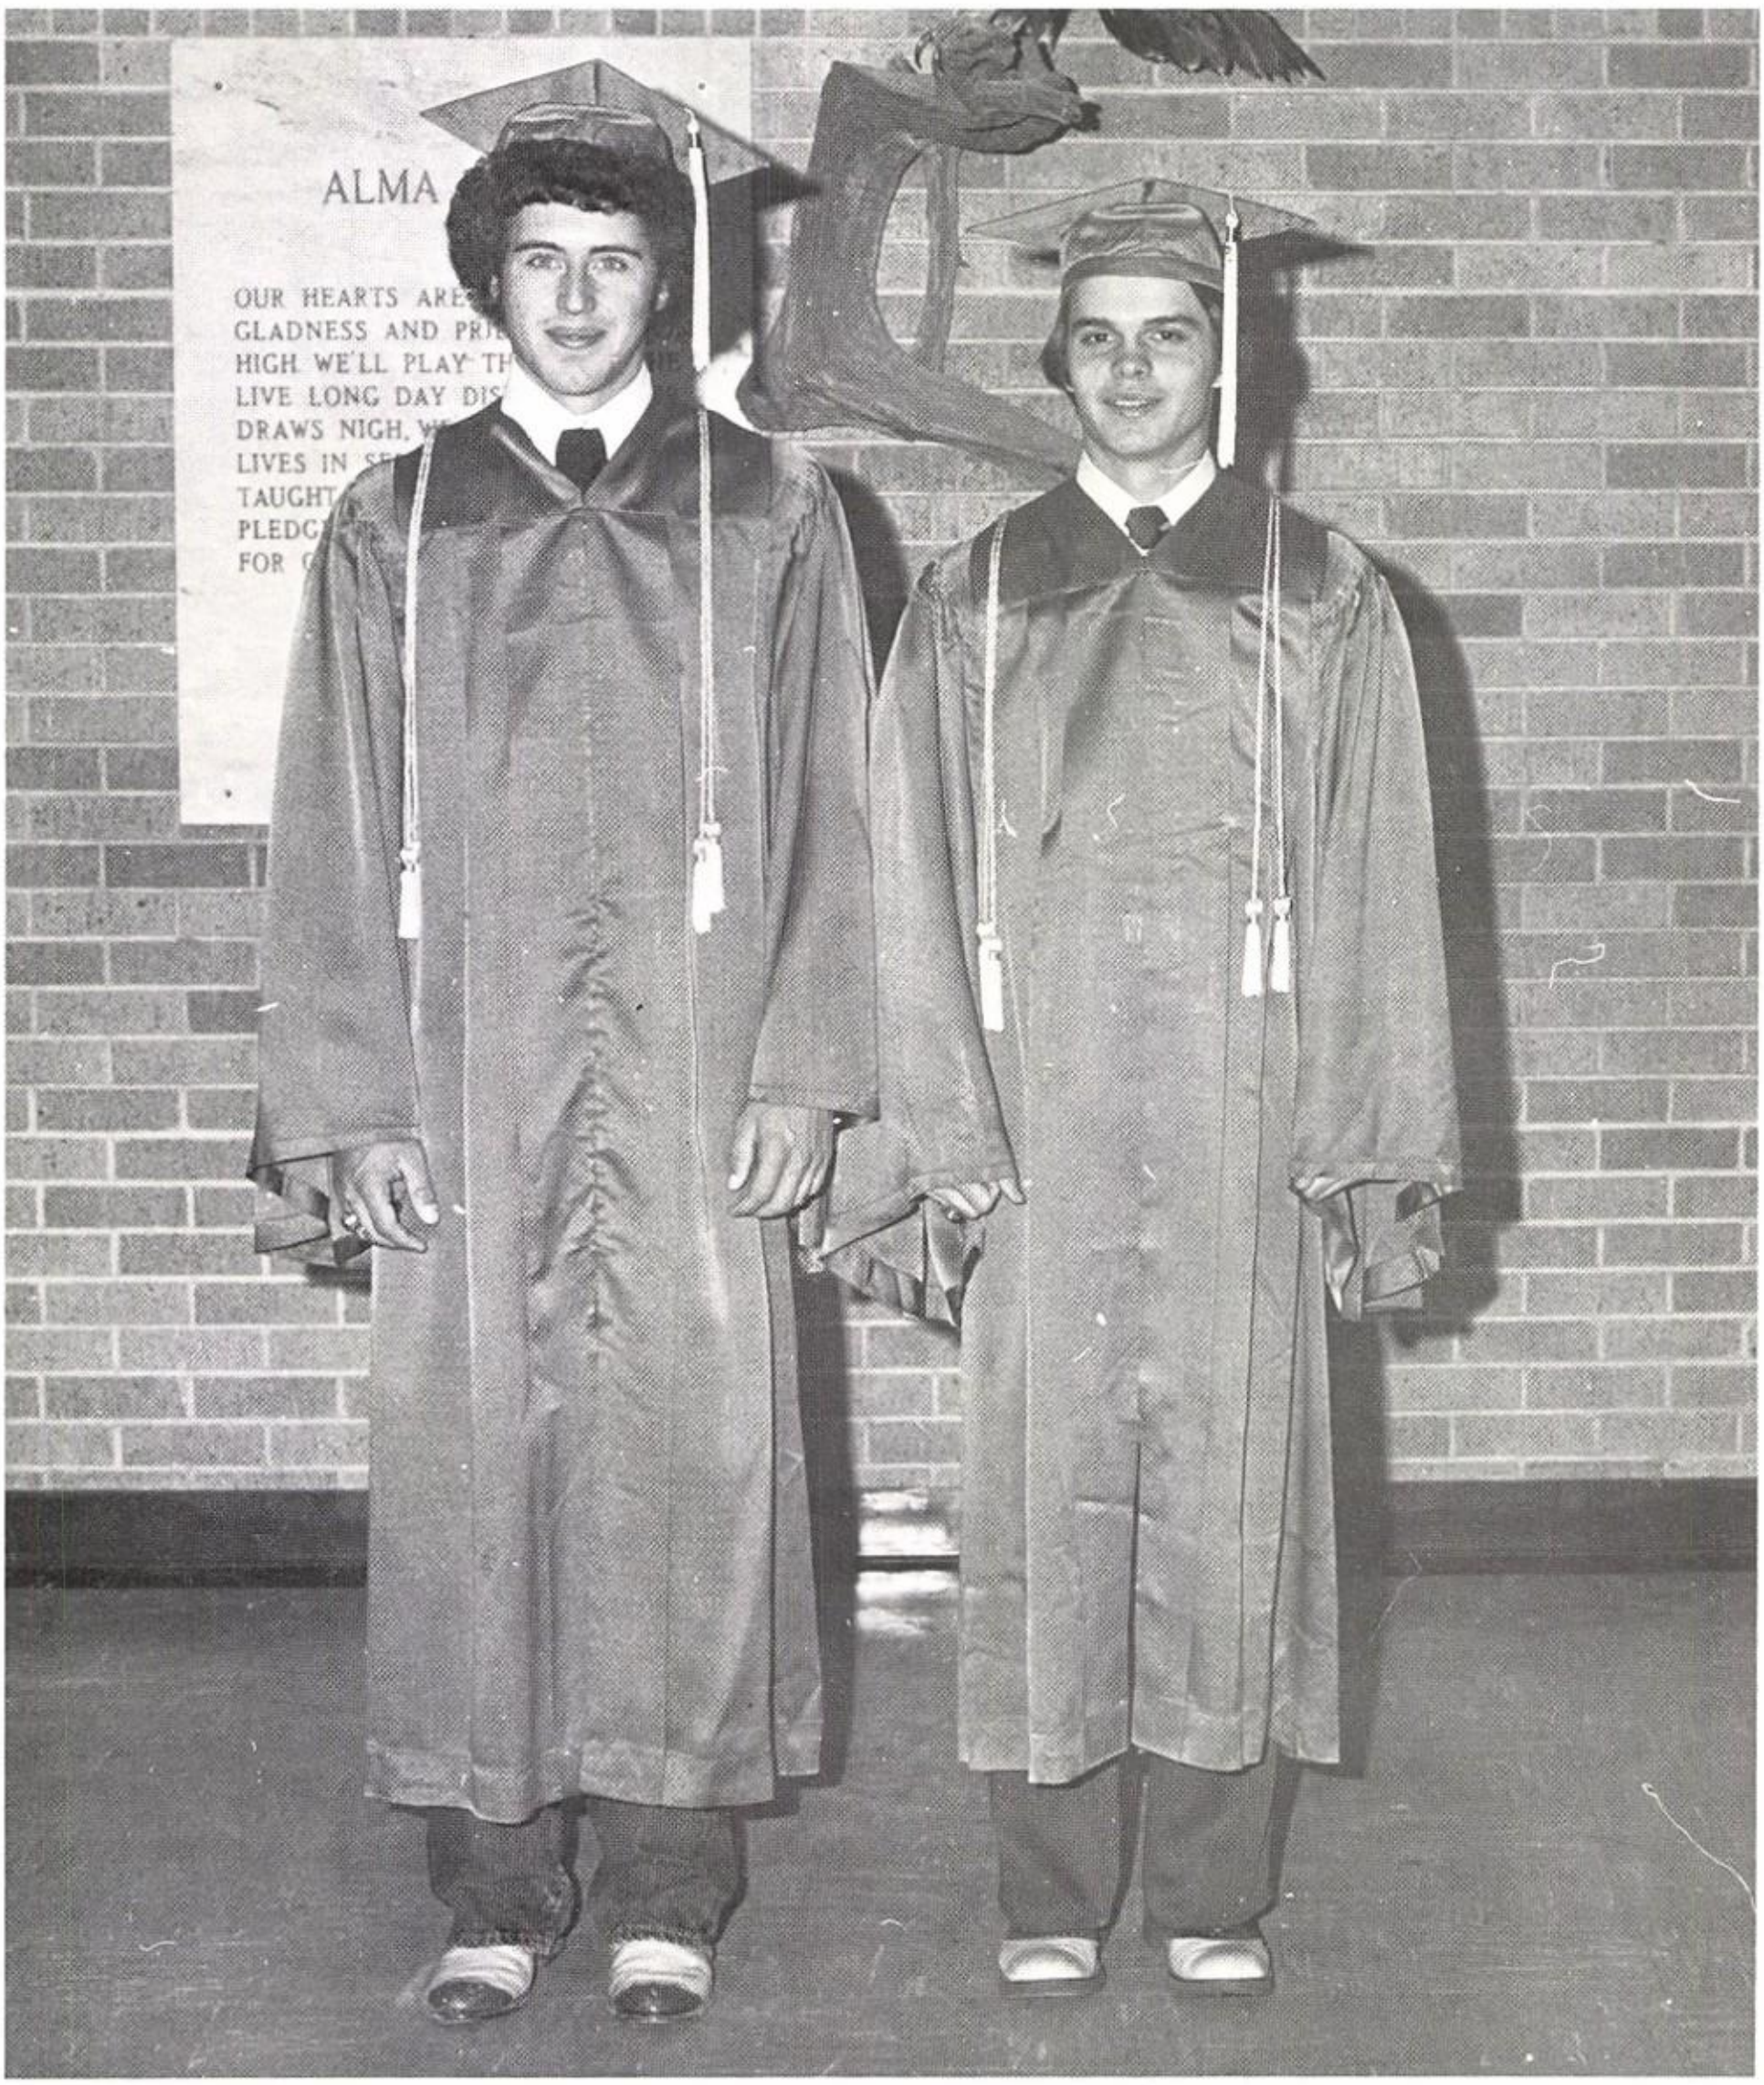
Judy Aduddel, Kirk Badrow and Candace Burrows discuss the processional.

Baccalaureate service for the 1975 seniors was held Sunday evening, May 25 in the high school auditorium. Rev. Jim Hancock of First Baptist Church delivered the sermon.

Mrs. J. W. King provides the organ music for the service.

Killingsworth and Crown Honor Students

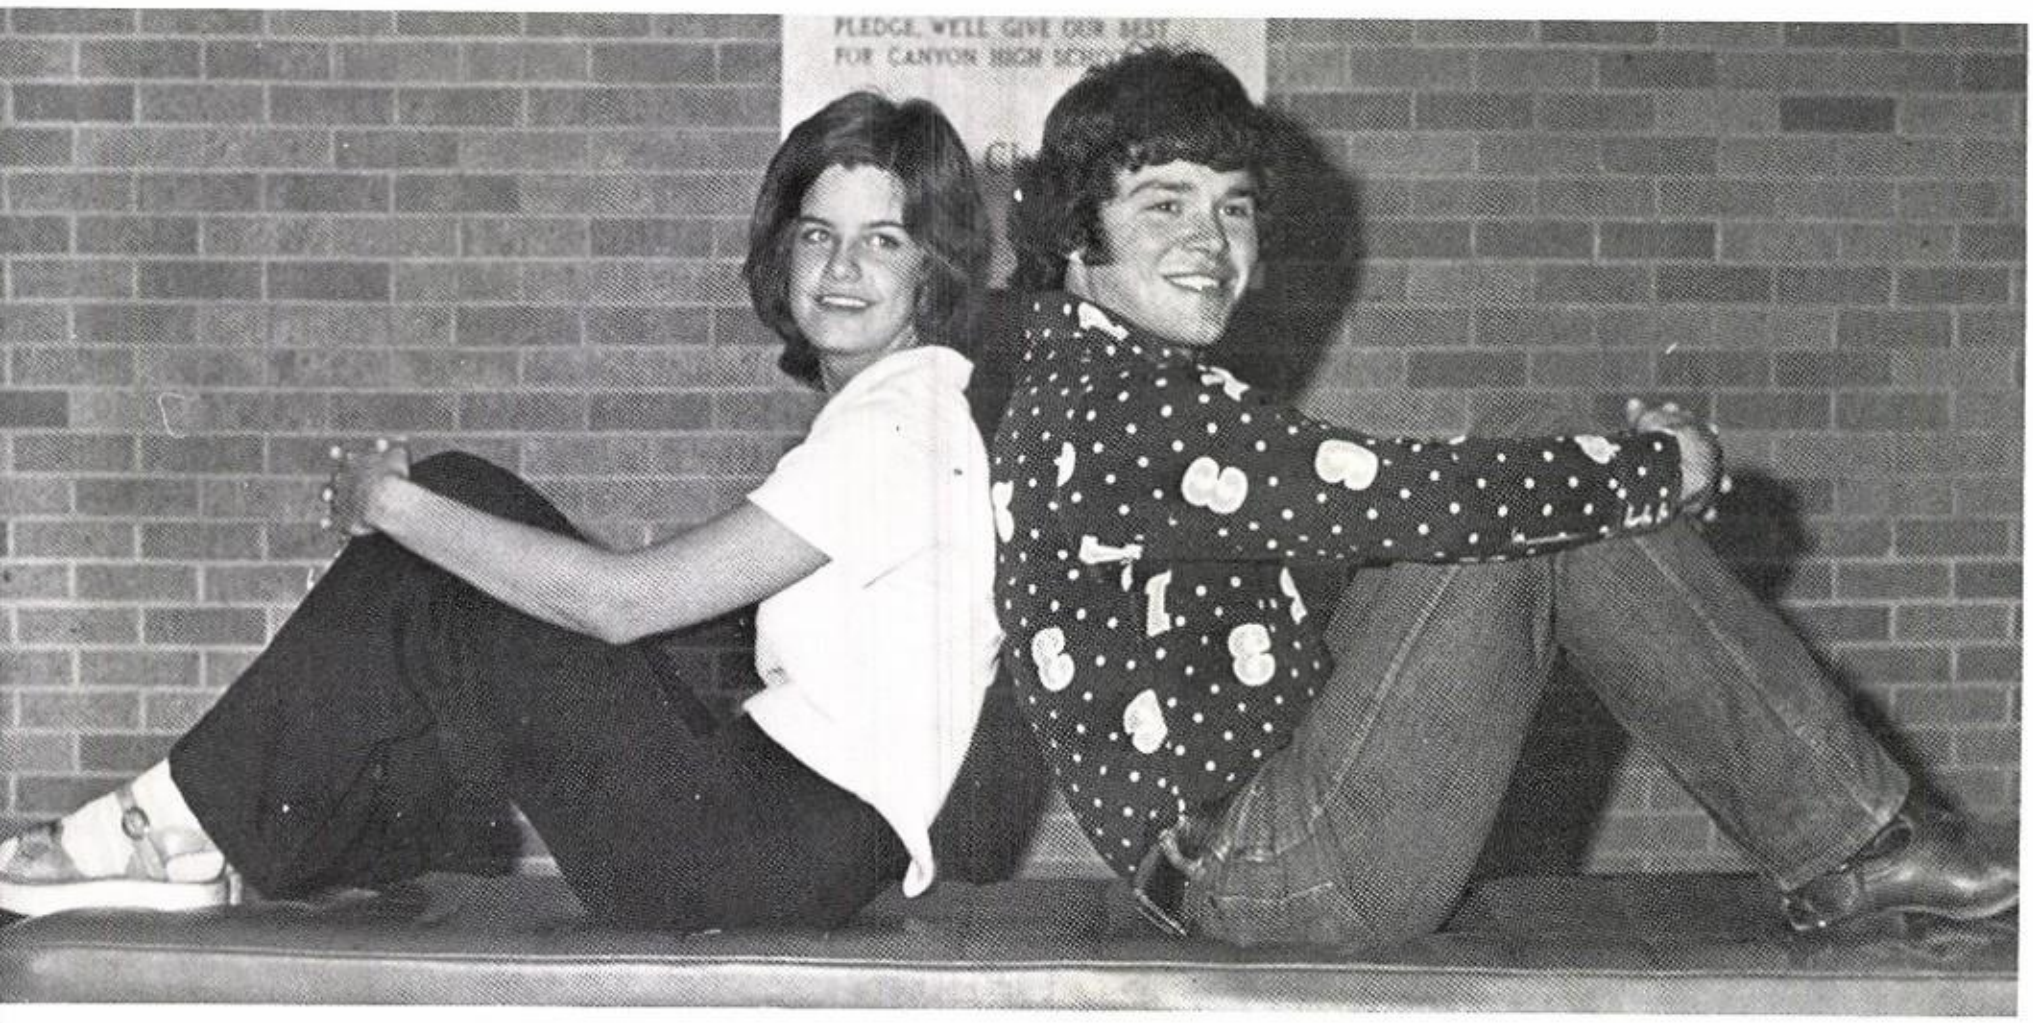
From the Class of '75 Russell Killingsworth earned the rank of valedictorian with a four-year academic average of 98.4527. Tom Crown, with an average of 97.0937, was named salutatorian. Irene Mitchell was credited as the highest ranking girl. Her average was 96.6723. All three were leaders in their class.

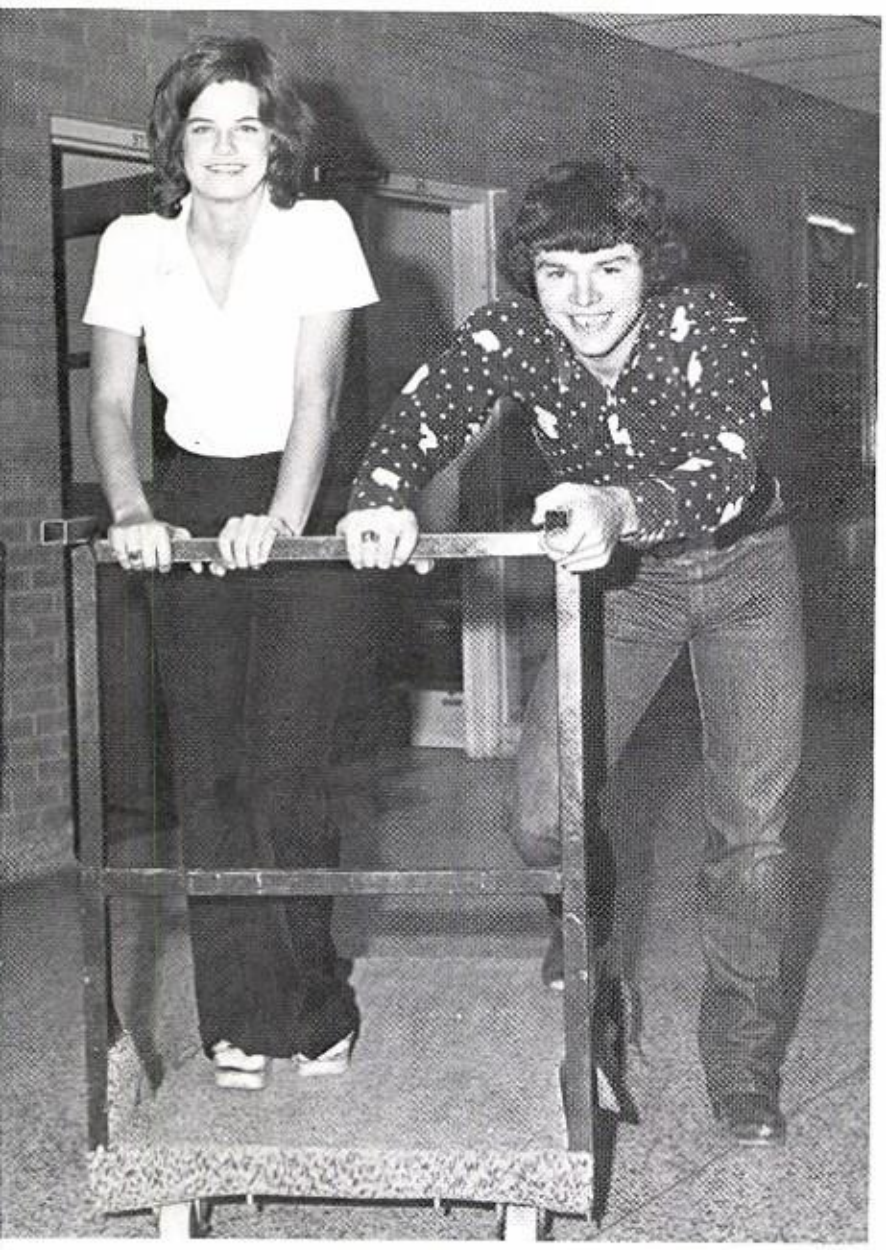


RUSSELL KILLINGSWORTH, Valedictorian; TOM CROWN, Salutatorian

Kryn and Dennis Are Chosen Senior Favorites

KRYN HARRIS and DENNIS HOWELL

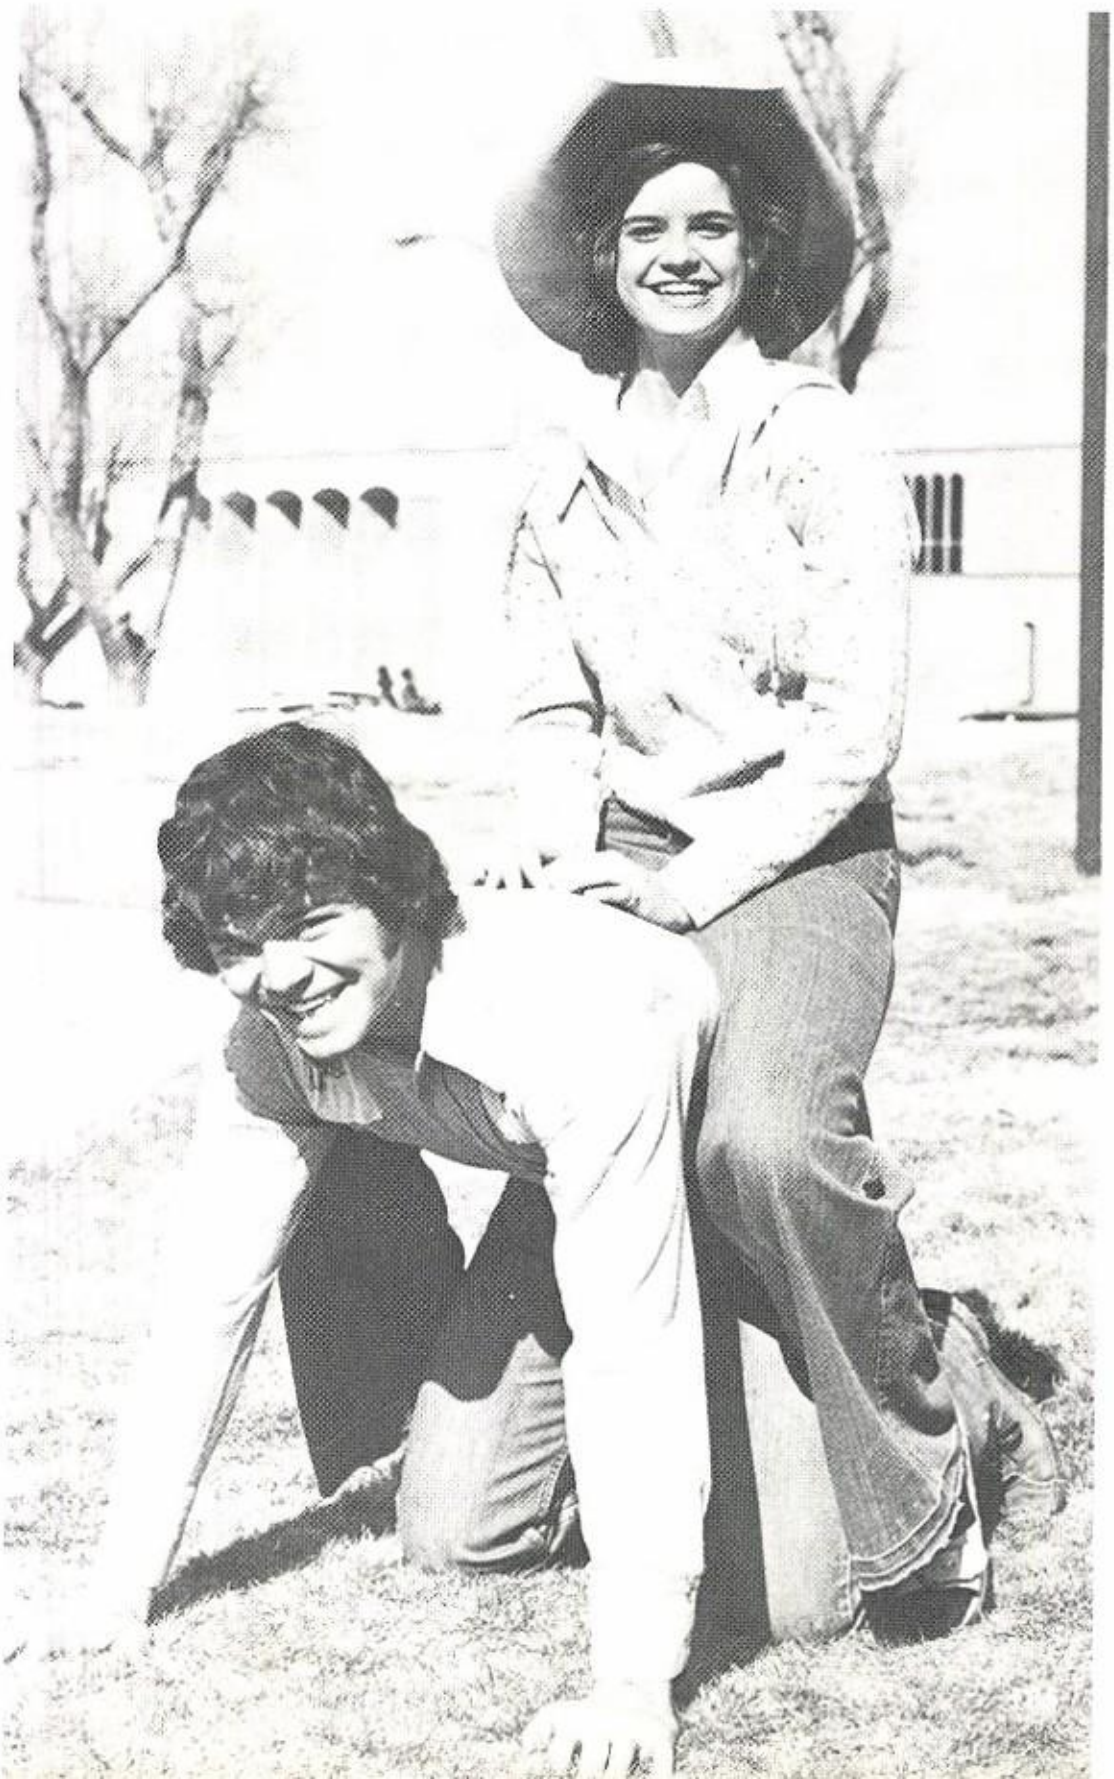




Friendly, affable and charming Kryn Harris and Dennis Howell were chosen as favorites by Seniors '75.

Kryn was also selected as Most Courteous and was the favorite her sophomore year.

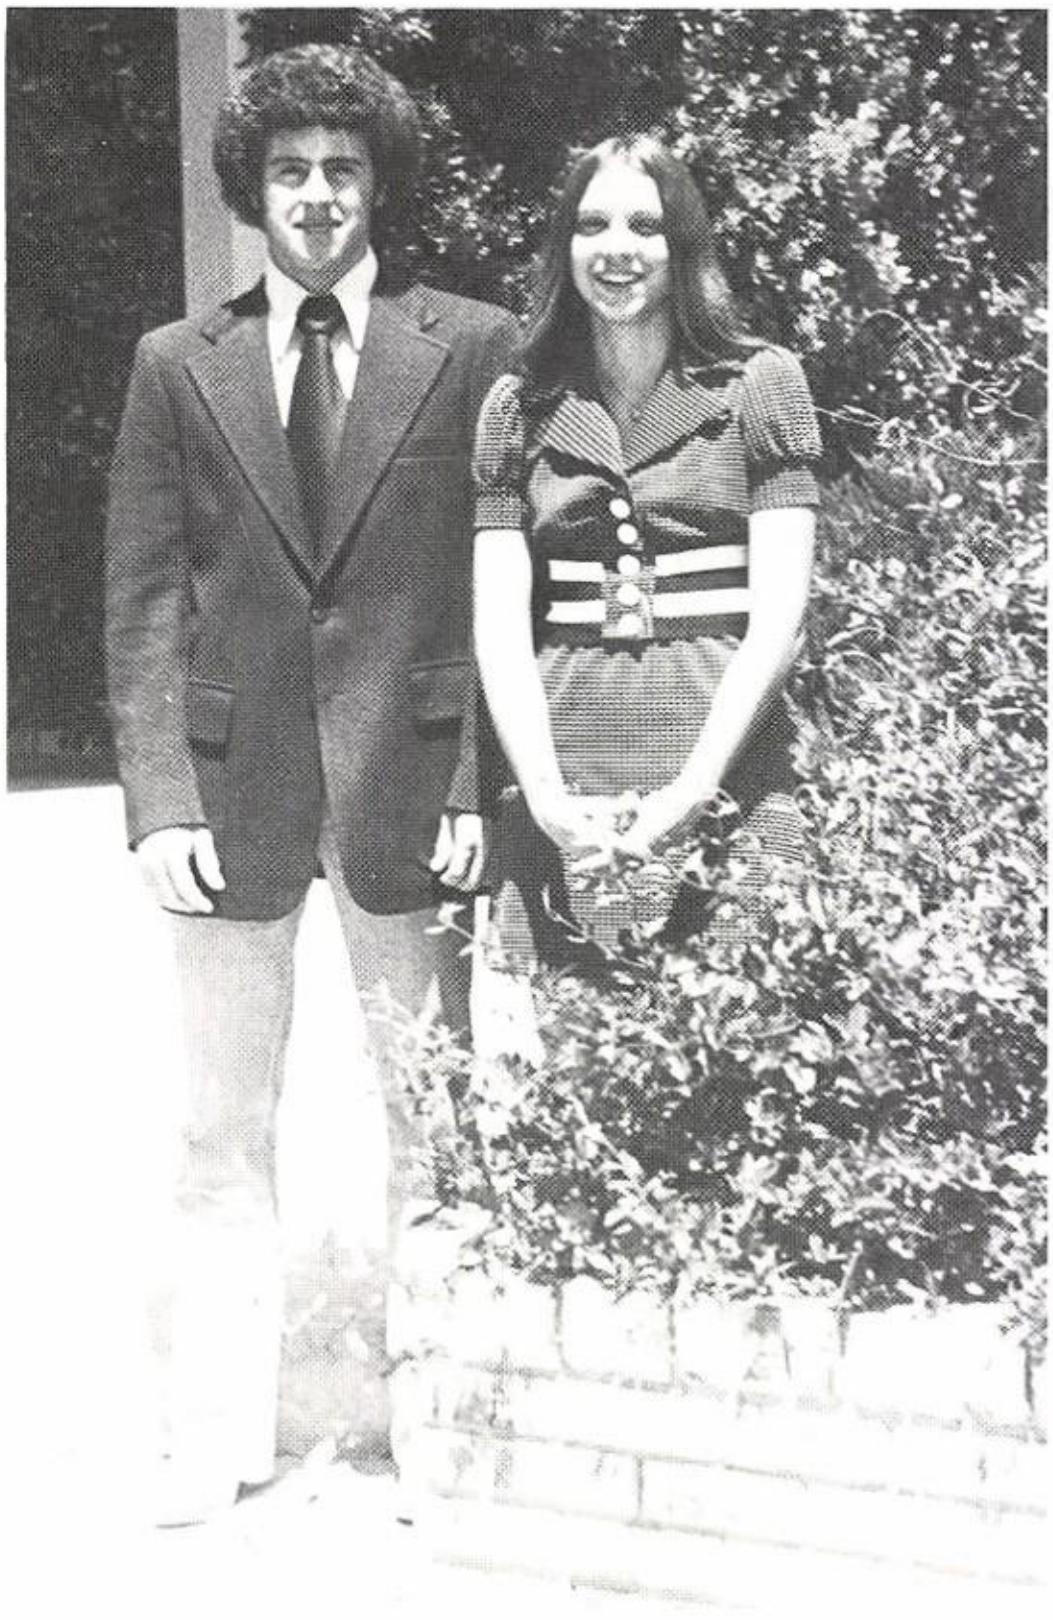
Dennis is a rodeo enthusiast; he says he enjoys the challenge.

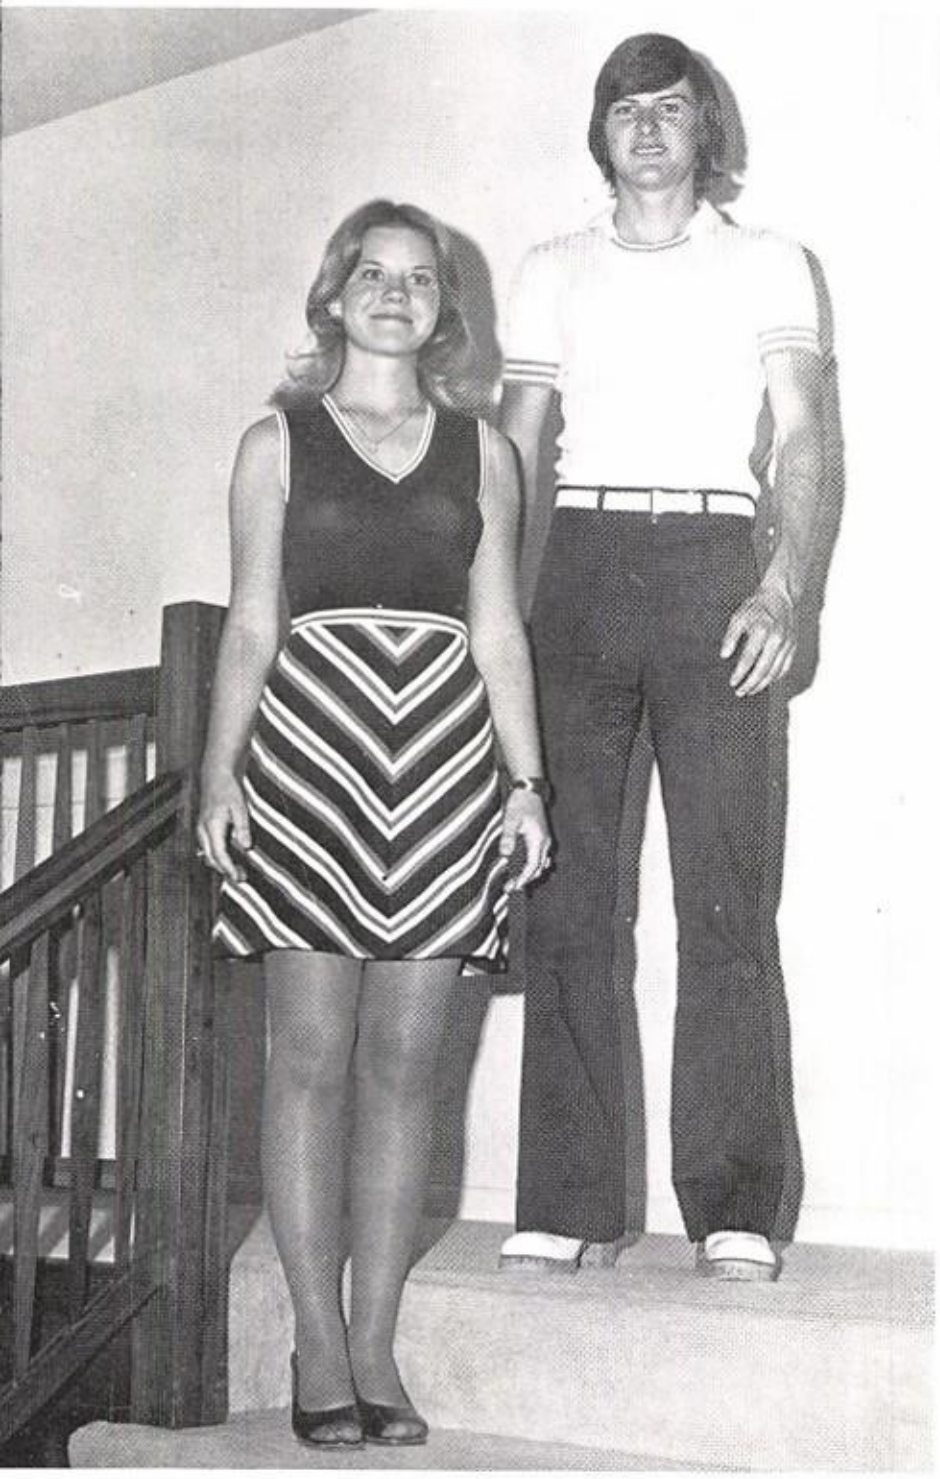


Seniors Designate Outstanding "Mosts"

Character, ability, and the desire to be active in CHS depict the Senior ''Mosts'' for 1975. The ''Mosts'' were selected by the Senior Class and were recognized at the Senior Dinner Dance at the Big Texan. ''Most Studious'' and ''Most Dependable'' were added to the list of honors.

Left: Russell Killingsworth and Irene Mitchell as ''Most Likely to Succeed''
Upper Right: Harold Thompson and Sheryl Adams as ''Most Friendly''
Lower Right: Wayne King and Joan Albers as ''Most Studious''





Upper Left: Kelly Forehand and Karma Denton as "Most Talented"
Lower Left: Anna Bland Thompson and Phil Davis as "Best Dressed"

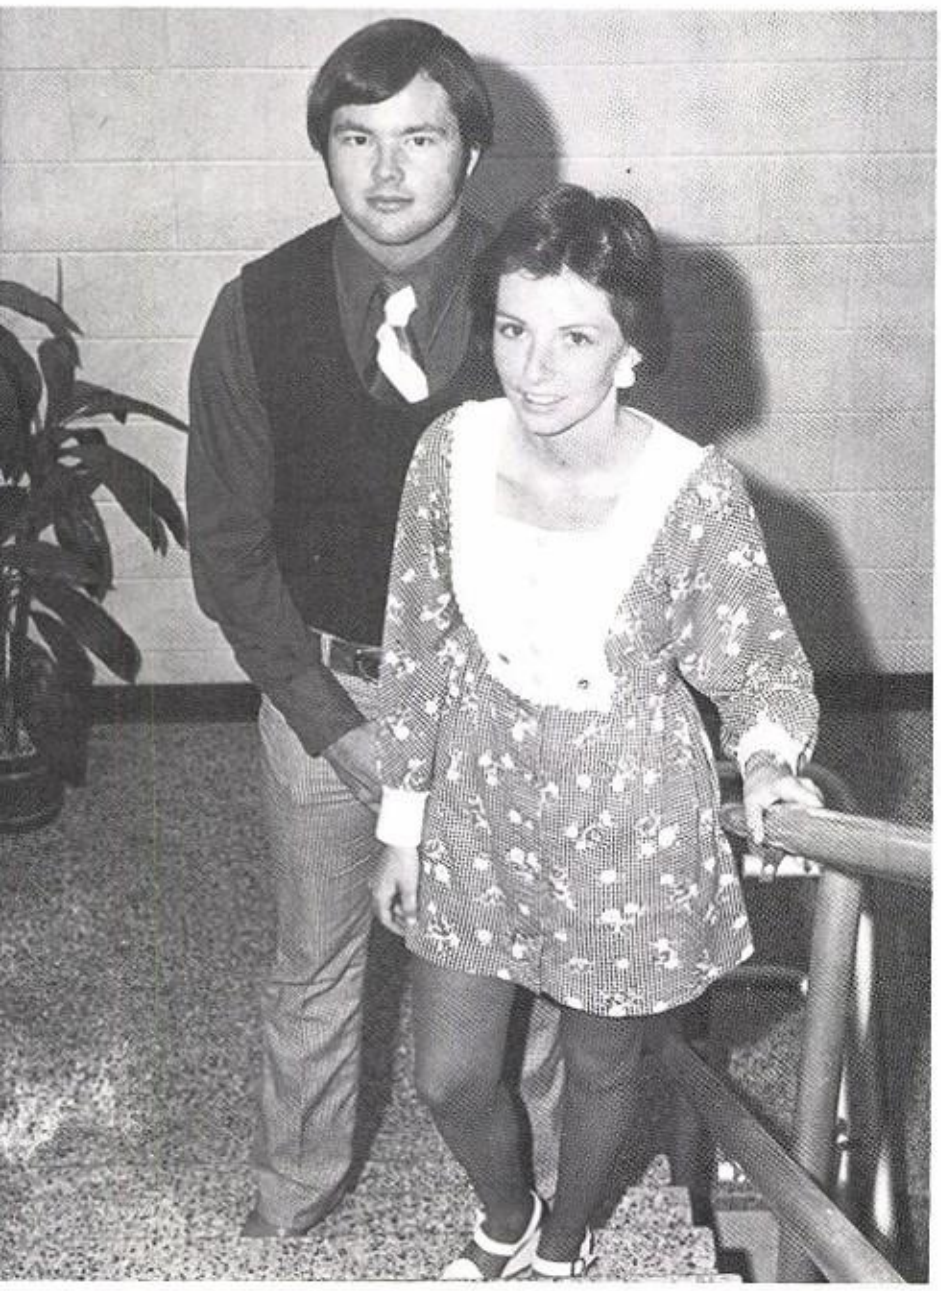
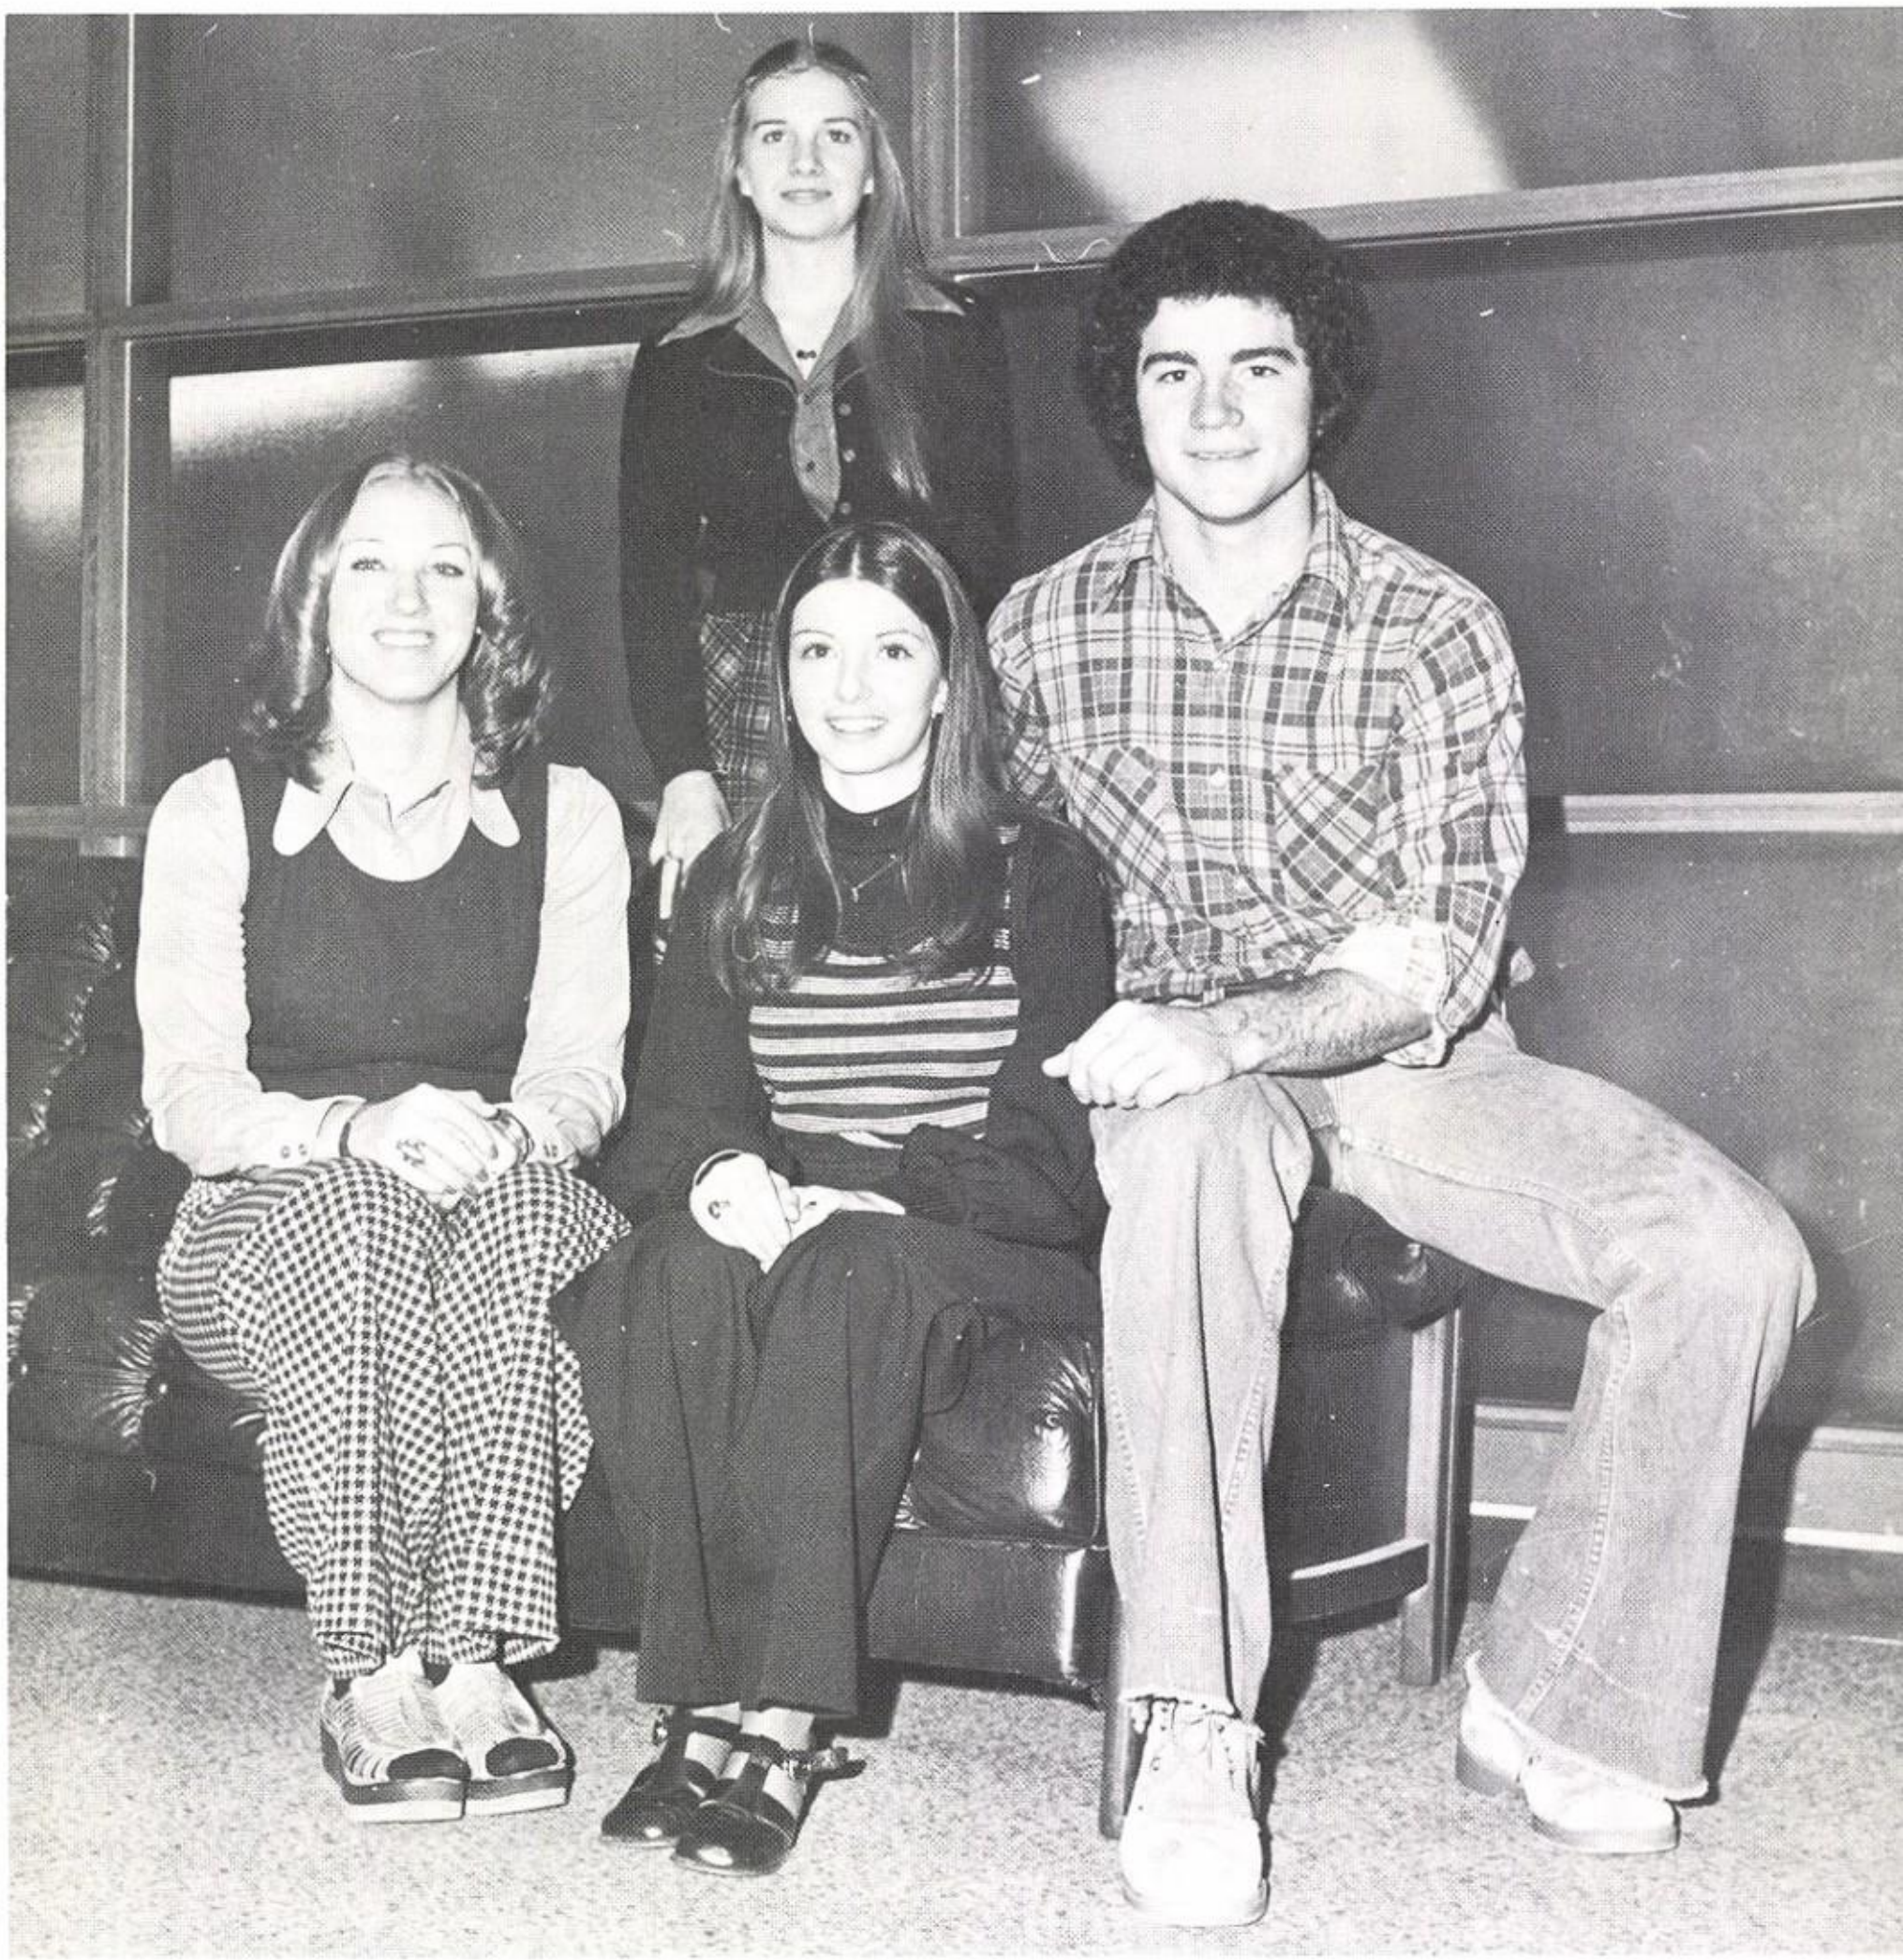
Lower Right: Denice Hamblen and Jim Ward as "Most Athletic"



Graduation Culminates Senior Dream

From receiving senior rings and having pictures made to mailing graduation announcements and receiving diplomas, Seniors of '75 had a busy year. The class named its "Mosts," its "Favorites," prepared a will, history and forecast for the future, and presented a Senior Assembly.

With the help of Mrs. Charlotte Brantley and the other senior sponsors, senior activities including the sale of football programs went smoothly. Twenty-four students completed their studies at the end of the second quarter. Eagerly, all 189 graduating seniors waited to don caps and gowns on graduation day.



Senior Class Officers - Jo Beth Price, secretary; Tara Wooten, treasurer; Garre LaGrone, president; STANDING: Sheryl Adams, vice president

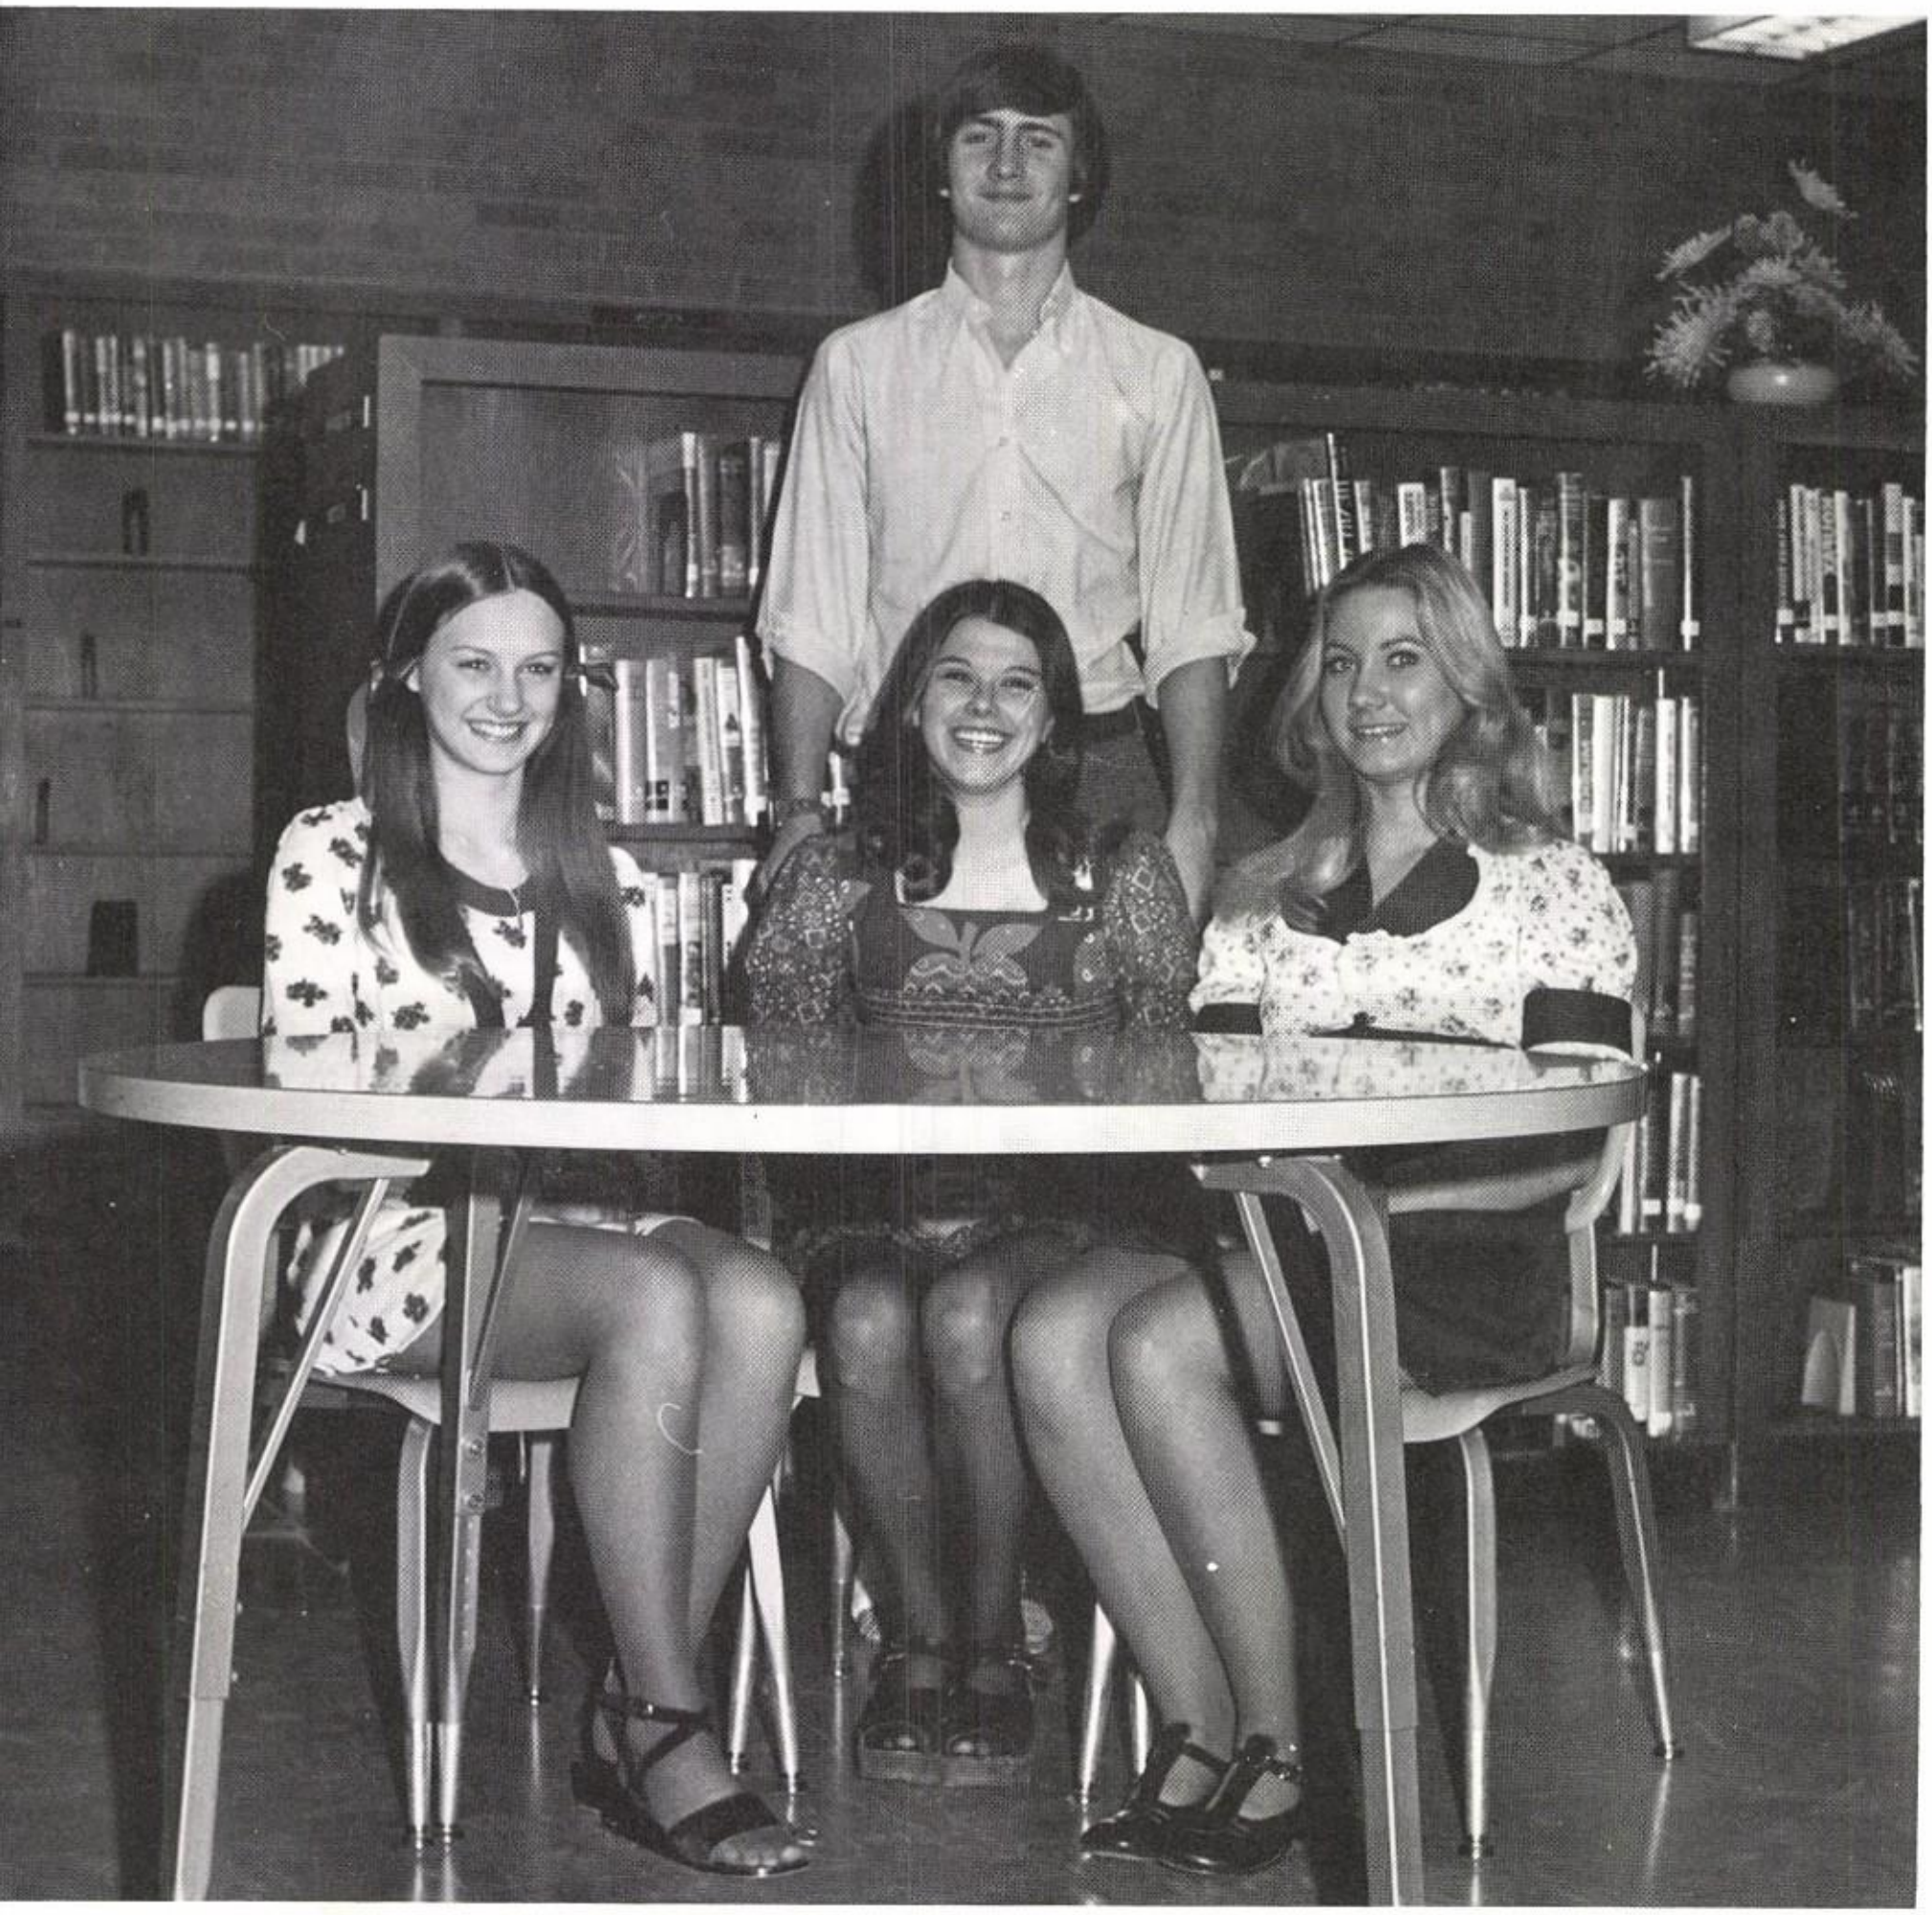
Juniors Exceed All Magazine Sales Records

An industrious Junior Class broke all previous magazine sales records with $9,870. Paul Kerr, with $500 worth, sold more magazines than any other junior.

A superb Junior-Senior Prom was held May 10 at the WTSU Activity Center. The juniors decorated and paid for all this fine entertainment with some of the money from their magazine sales.

Juniors carried out their part and decorated a hall during Spirit Week and furnished decorations for the Homecoming social.

Thinking eagerly of their own graduation time in 1976, juniors furnished stage decorations for the graduation ceremonies for the Class of '75.



Allen Shankles (standing) served the Junior Class as president. Other officers were Jeanie Hager, treasurer; Doris Brazil, secretary; and Roma Johnson, vice president.

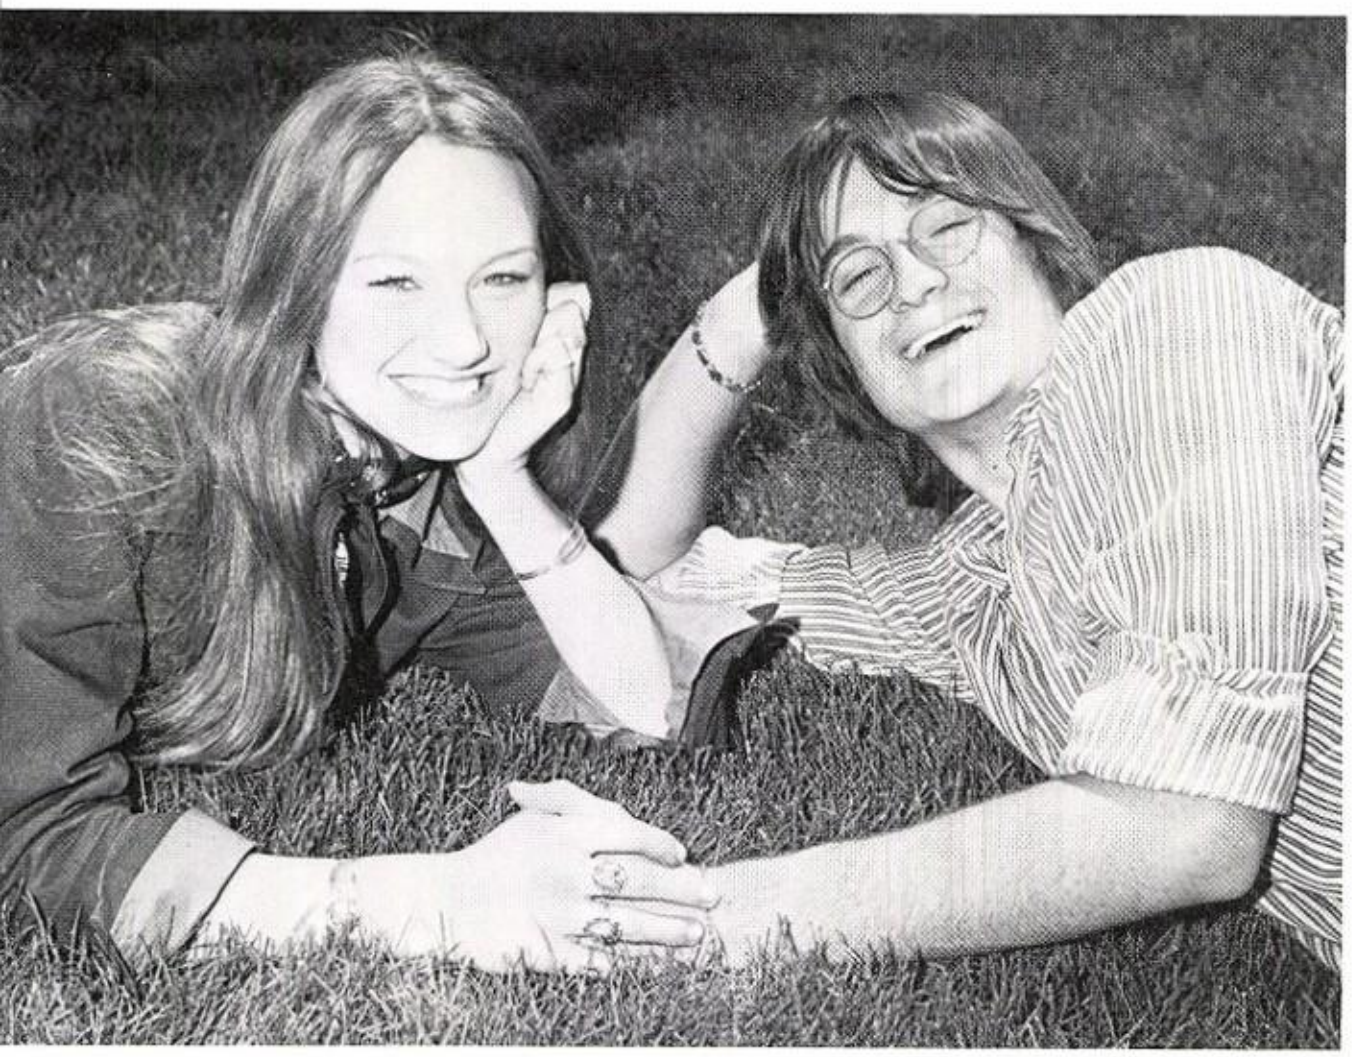
Junior Favorites: Roma and Scot

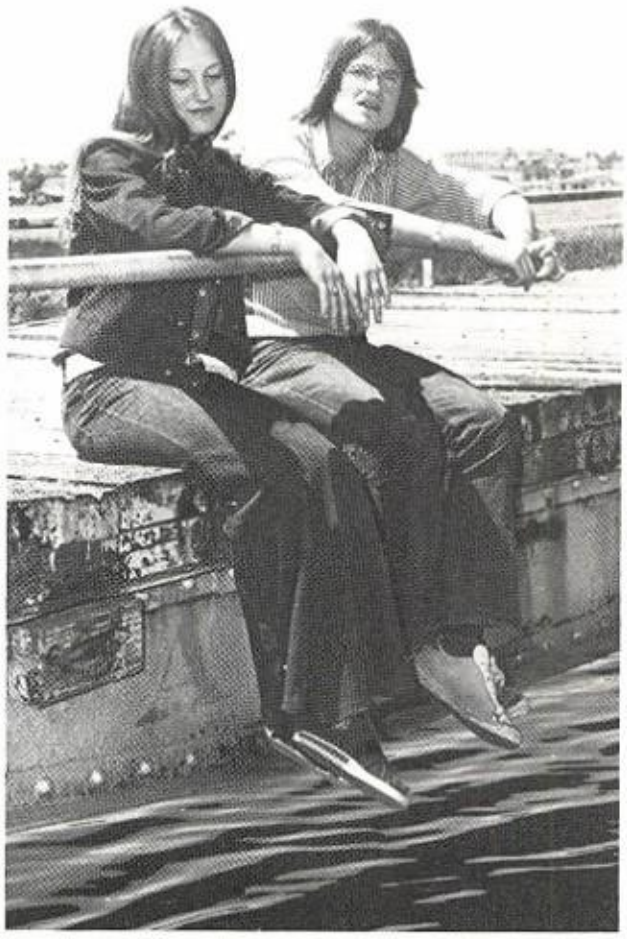
SCOT PURKEYPILE and ROMA JOHNSON

The Junior Class chose Roma Johnson and Scot Purkeypile for their favorites.

Roma, a twirler, has been active as a class officer and participated in many organizations. She was honored as the Sophomore of the Year last year.

Scot, of the facile features, has taken an active role in dramatic presentations and choir activities.





Leading the Junior Class in its endeavors were sponsors Miss Gail Albracht, Mr. Leonard Kent, Miss Melody Swauger, Mr. Tom Henderson and Mrs. Mary Jane Reeves.

Sophomores Learn To Sing And Scrub

Sophomores uncertainly began their high school years but soon became accustomed and joined in the spirit of CHS. One of the first class activities was building the traditional Homecoming bonfire.

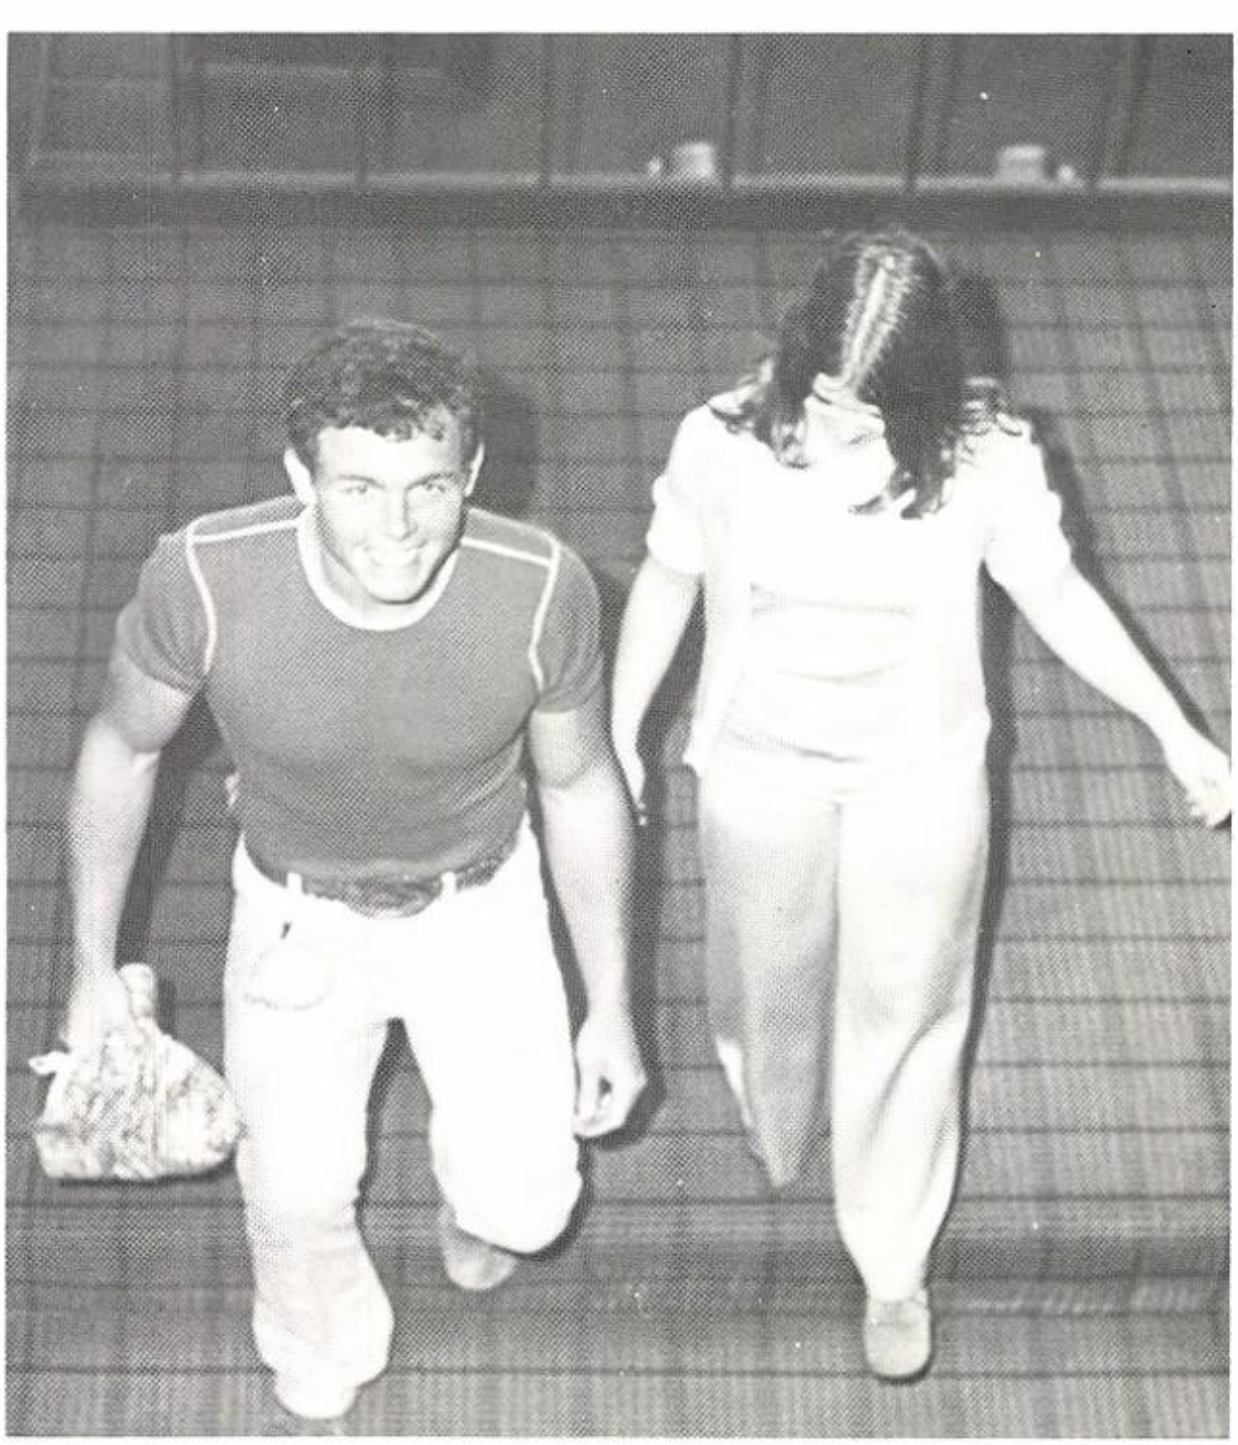
The sophomores served refreshments for the Homecoming social. The Class of '77 also decorated their hall during Spirit Week. Selected sophomores served at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Sophomores learned to sing the ''Alma Mater'' and scrub the seal early in the year as upperclassmen enforced the traditional initiation to CHS.

Sophomore Class Officers were Craig Howard, president; Barbara Huber, treasurer; Janet Sluder, secretary; and Deedy Johnson, vice president.

Sophomore Class Favorites Are Susan and Elliot

SUSAN BONIFIELD and ELLIOT BERRY



Susan Bonifield and Elliot Berry were the sophomores' choice for favorites.

Bubbly Susan, a choir member and cheerleader, enjoys people.

Elliot was a member of the varsity Eagles football team. He participates in Ag and enjoys wrestling.

Encouraging the Sophomore Class were sponsors Mr. Glenn Hughes, Mrs. Sammye Mantooth, Mr. Allen Jenkins and Mrs. Lou Dawson.

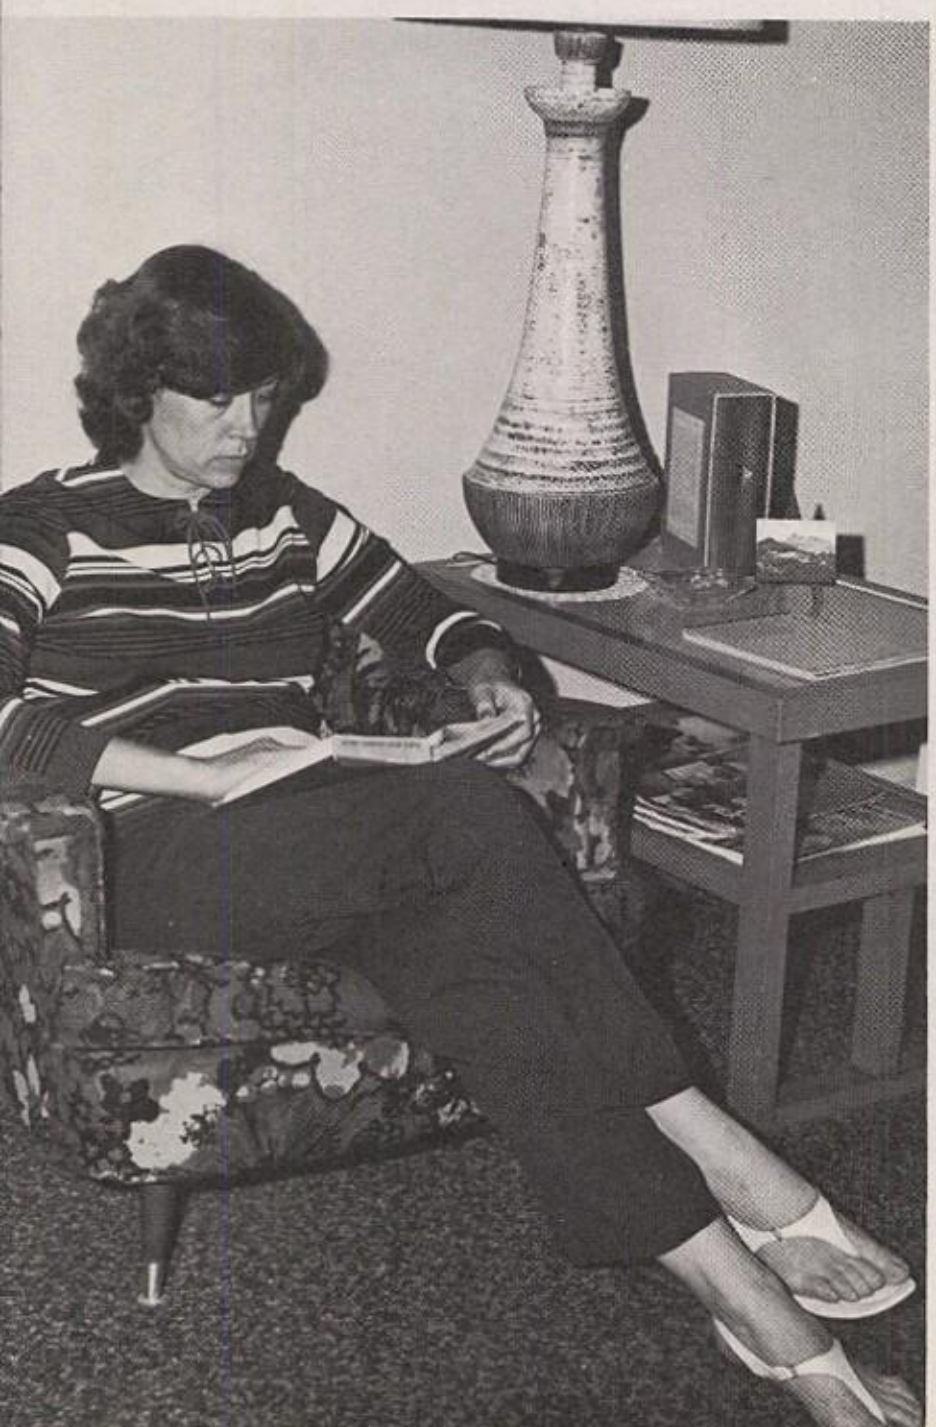
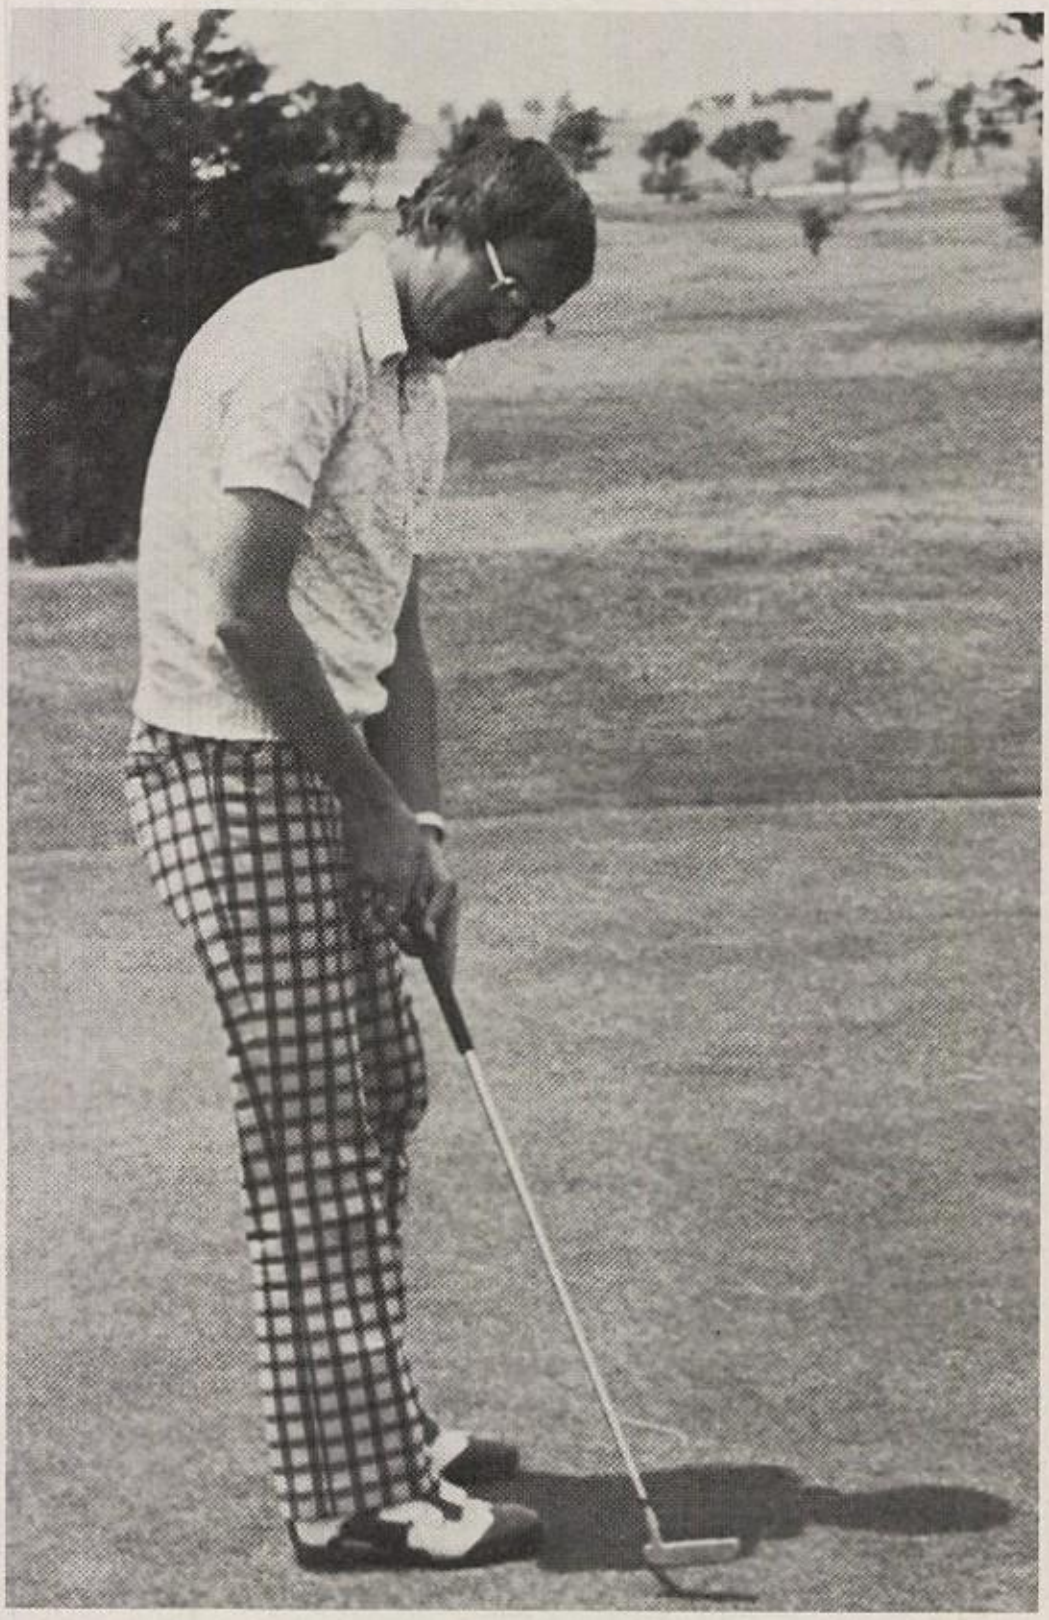
FTA Honors CHS Teachers



The Future Teachers of America chose a CHS teacher each month to honor by presenting a bud vase and a traveling plaque.

OCTOBER - Mrs. Mary Jane Reeves teaches English, French and Spanish. She spends her summers polishing her game of tennis.



SEPTEMBER - Mr. Tom Jennings, who directs the Show Choir, Chorale and Mixed Choir and teaches Music Theory and Musical Workshop classes, lists golf as one of his hobbies.

NOVEMBER - Miss Gail Albracht has taught at Canyon High three years. She instructs English and History. Miss Albracht enjoys practicing Yoga.

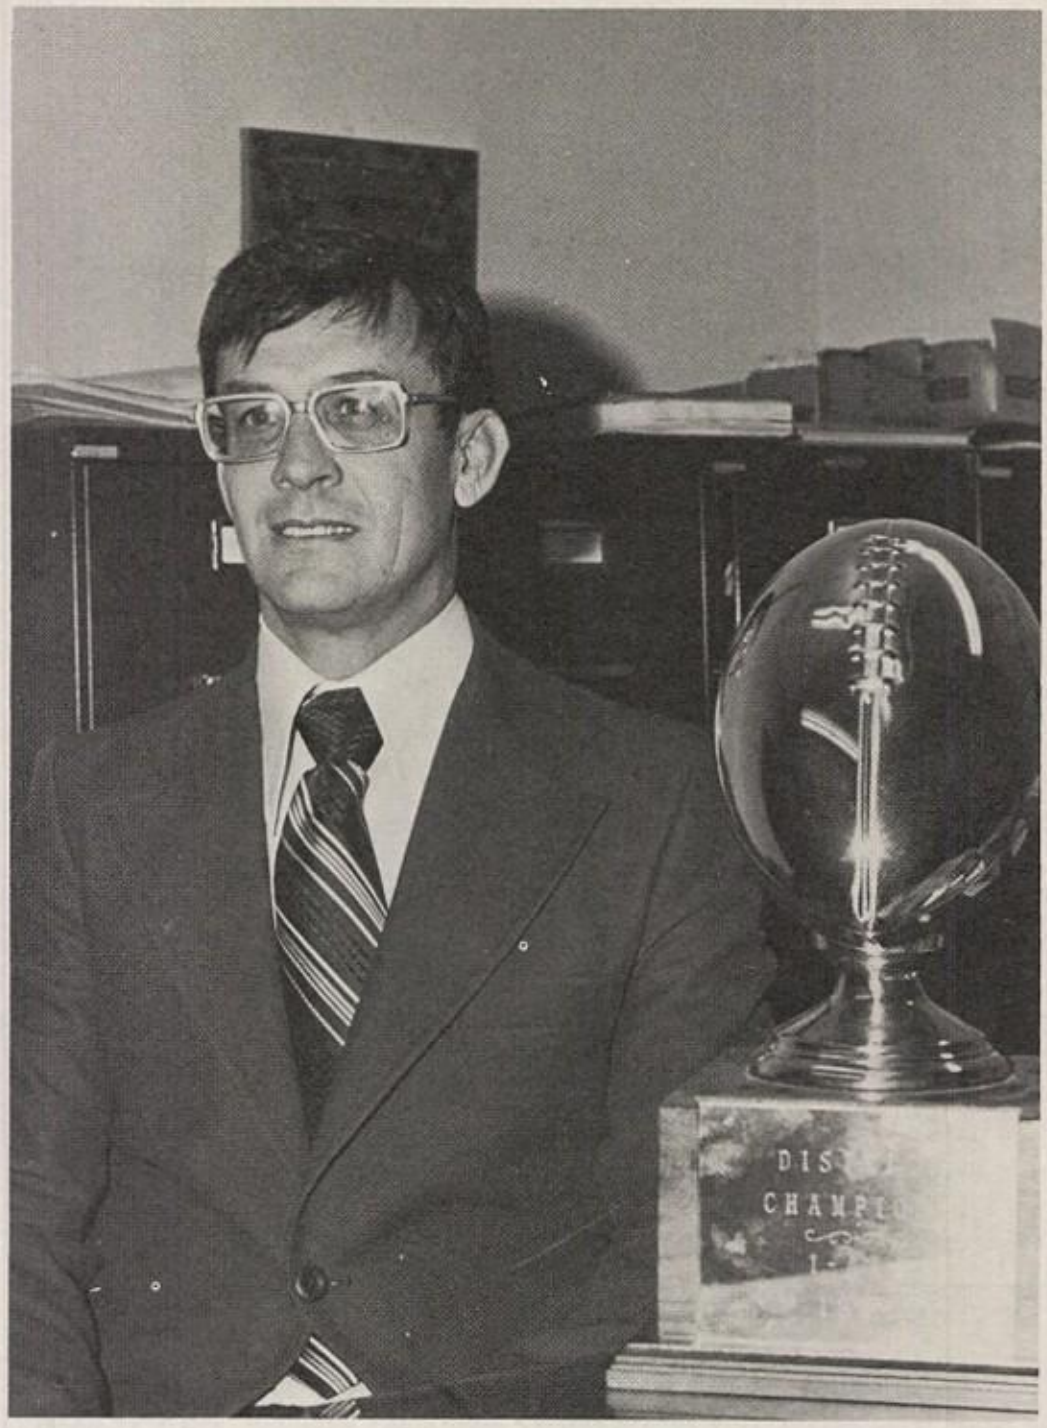
Teachers of the Month

DECEMBER - The CHS librarian, Mrs. Jackie Patterson, is a fine cook and enjoys family activities that include driving their Porsche.

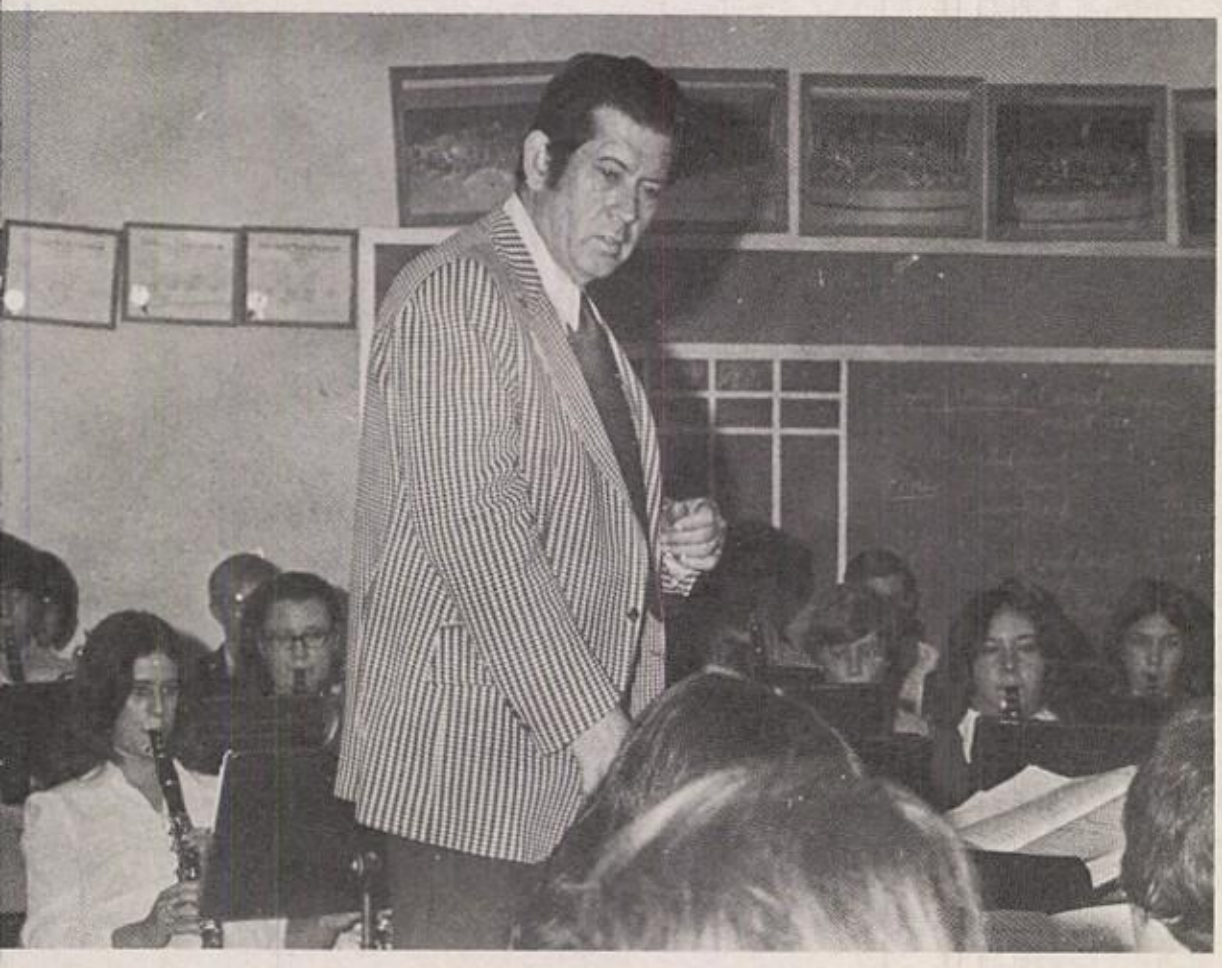
JANUARY - Mrs. Jean Shepic has sponsored the publications at CHS for five years. She teaches English and Journalism.

FEBRUARY - Mrs. Jane Westberry spends some of her spare time enjoying bridge with friends. She teaches English.

MARCH - Mrs. D'Ann Moutos spends some of her evenings exercising on her tandem bicycle. Mrs. Moutos is an English teacher.



APRIL - Mr. Ron Mills led the Varsity Eagles to the District I-AAA title in football. He accepted a position as Athletic Director and head coach at Bay City in April.



MAY - Mr. J. W. King, Jr. has been director of the Eagle Band for four years. He sometimes performs with a group of local musicians to entertain at assemblies and other gatherings.

Put your hand in my hand
Let us find the way.

We hope we have made the world a better place as we trod the halls of Canyon High School and sang our 1974-75 song in unison.
